VOL. XXXIV.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1880.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT

PHARMACEUTICAL

A SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR ALL

DISEASES

OF THE

BLADDER & KIDNEYS.

For Debility, Loss of Memory, Indisposi-tion to Exertion or Business, Shortness of Breath, Troubled with Thoughts of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Chest, and Heart, Rush of Blood to the Head, Pale Counterspace and Dry Skin. and Head, Rush of Blood to the Head, Pale Counterance, and Dry Skin.

If these symptoms are allowed to go on, very frequently Epileptic Fits and Consumption follow. When the constitution becomes affected it requires the aid of an invigorating medicine to strengthen and tone up the system—which

"Helmbold's Buchu"

DOES IN EVERY CASE.

IS UNEQUALED

Rheumatism. Spermatorrhæa, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation

General Debility, Kidney Diseases, Liver Complaint Nervous Debility, Epilepsy, Head Troubles,

Paralysis, General Ill-Health Spinal Diseases,

Female Complaints, &c.

Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Cough Headache, Pain in the ShouMers, Cough, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, Eruptions, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Palpitation of the Heart, Pair, in the region of the Kilneys, and a thousand other painful symptoms, are the off-prings of Dyspepsia.

Helmbold's Buchu

Invigorates the Stomach.

And stimulates the torpid Liver, Bowels, and Kidneys to healthy action, in cleansing the Licod of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

A single trial will be quite sufficient to convince the most hesitating of its valuable remedial qualities.

PRICE $1 PER BOTTLE

Or Six Bottles for 85.

Delivered to any address free from observa-"Patients" may consult by letter, receiv-ing the same attention as by calling, by answering the following questions:

1. Give your name and post-office address county and State, and your nearest express office?

2. Your age and sex?

2. Your age and sex?
3. Occupation?
4. Married or single?
5. Height, weight, now and in health?
6. How long have you been sick?
7. Your complexion, color of hair and eyes?
8. Have you a stooping or erect gait?
9. Keinte without reservation all you know aqout your case. Enclose one dollar as consultation fee. Your letter will then receive our attention, and we will give you like nature of your d'sease and our candid opinion concerning a cure.
Competent Physicians attend to correspondents. All letters should be addressed 3: Dispensatory, 1217 Filbert treet, Philadelphia, Pa.

H. T. HELMBOLD, Philadelphia, Pa.

Druggist and Chemist,

THE WAYSIDE INN.

I halted at a pleasant inn. As I my way was wending-A golden apple was the sign, From knotty bough depending Mine heat-it was an apple tree-He smilingly received me, And spread his cho'cest sweetest fruit

Full many a little feathered guest Came through his branches springing. They hopped and flew from spray to spray.

Their notes of gladness singing. Pencath this shads I laid me down

And slumber sweet possessed me; The soft wind blowing through the leaves With whispers low caressed me. And when I rose and would have paid

My host so open-hearted, He only shook his lofty bead-I blessed him and departed.

A Night in New Orleans.

There were two of us chatting and smoking eigarettes at the corner of Canal and St. Charles streets in that quaint and strange his dear, precious baby. What was I going old city, New Orleans-a city of never to tell you? Oh, yes; about the man who ending charms and queer phases of life and fell from the tight-rope. That was terrimysteries without number; a miniature Paris, with its bijou theatres in the French the roof of a house, carried down the side, tongue, and where the men wear their hats neath. It had so happened that the block asked me. "Grand Opera-House," I suggested "Aren't you tired of Janauschek's dia monds yet?"

lobby."
"Academy.

"Bah !"

We smoked awhile in silence, and finally decided to see Mile Mathilde at Le Peti-Theatre Francaise, away down on Chartres stree'. "If Golson is in the crowd," said Morlan, "we'll appropriate him. Aha! there he is now. Golson, come hither!"

A number of the young men had crossed toward Common, others continuing their way along Canal to Baronne. A handsome, crowd. He had hands as white and small grasped my hand warmly and firmly. "Have you anything to do to-night, Gol.

"Anything to do? Oh, yes, some infernal thesis, I believe: but hang the thesis-and "What! the absinthe and the headache Come with me to the college. My little girl will do the tight-rope from the roof, and I'll introduce you."

We turn up St. Charles street to Common, down Common to Baronne and the college. Crowds were beginning to gather at this point. We threaded our way through the throng that pressed against the railing around the college yard, and entered s small door at the side. We climbed four By any remedy known. It is prescribed by flights of dark, dismal stars, and stumbled the most eminent physicians all over the at the turnings. We felt our way along a hall, prevaded by a stifling blackness and a musty smell, from the dessecting rooms, The light from the street below streamed meagerly through a window, and showed us the dim outline of a perpendicular ladder near the extremity of the hall. We climbed the ladder and crawled through a hole in the ceiling. Here the darkness was intense. We found another close at hand, and by feeling for the rungs, gamed the top and emerged upon a steep roof covered with slate. We looked around. New Orleans lay at our feet in all the glory of a starry night. On the south we could trace the river winding in a crescent form around the city, and reflecting the colored lights from the shipping. Away to the northeast could be seen the dark, flat surface of the lake. To the southeast lay the French Quarter, with its tall, old-fashioned houses and its narrow streets. To the westward Upper Town stretched its wealth and grandeur over a large area. Under our feet was the glare from Canal, St. Charles, Camp, Common, Carondelet, Tchoupitoulas and Baron ne streets. A parapet about twelve inches high was ail that could have preserved us from the morgue, if the treacherous slate had broken, or the foot stipped an inch. Three persons were standing in the gutter against the parapet. Of these, two were rough looking men; the third was a woman in tights and short skirts, and covered with spangles and stars and gold lace. The men were en. gaged with certain pulleys and cords in drawing to a greater tension the wire cable that stretched from the parapet of the college to the building opposite. The woman us a smile, rained a shower of kisses upon was standing in the shade of the parapet, and looking down abstrictedly upon the thousands of human beings who packed the steps, and halted. She glanced back at street, and whose upturned faces, expressive of anticipation, she seemed to be studying attentively. "Already here, Zoe?" asked Golson, in his soft, smooth voice.

The woman started and turned quickly an expression of intense happiness lighting up her face. "I was looking for you below," she said.

"I was afraid, but I am strong now. You don't think I'll fall do you?" "Certainly not. You are very foolish to ask such a question." He introduced us as his friends, and she shook our hands pleasantly. She had a rather agreeable face, though we could not in the sulks." see distinctly, the only light being that of what they would think, and how they shout arose from the mob, and the plucky would feel down there?"

She laughed softly and put her arm through Golson's, and looked up into his ing anxiety had passed away. His chest face with a touching tenderness and reli- was broader and his eyes brighter. He ance. She again scanned the crowd, and simply smiled at Zoe, and did not even was thinking. "Well, but suppose I should. Do you right?"

"What is the matter, pet?" "Oh, nothing-nothing whatever," and she laughed again musically, "I was simply thinking. I remember that a long time ago, when I was a child, and my father was letting me stand on his head while he rode two horses bareback around the ringand I was terribly frightened once when the horses became wild with fear or something, I don't remember what-and he caught me strong and close in his arras as I was falling, and kissed my lips, my cheeks, and eyes, and forehead, and heid me in his arms quite a while, and called me monds yet?"

Good. His old machine has struck a opened his honest little eyes, and looked at me in a way that made me feel terribly stone. Hope the contact has wrenched off the house, and was dragging it up the side. "Are we poor, where the standard meeter house again, mustered her courage, threw a quick small the every wheel twisted every whee off, I heard the block drop to the ground, soon. She could not see the rope distinctly more noise than ever! Hit him with a not have to return it. By that time the Canal street, and were passing up St. Charles I hid my face and crouched down against a enough. She stood still for several secwall, and I heard him strike the ground like onds. The light behind her continued to something dead. Oh, it was so horrible! burn, but it was of no assistance to herhands. Draw a bead on him with a shot their clothes-horse, and their dishes, the farmer for it all.

She peered around into the darkness and and immediately afterward it was also ex
She peered around into the darkness and and immediately afterward it was also ex
She peered around into the darkness and and immediately afterward it was also exsmall, delicate student emerged from the She peered around into the darkness and and immediately afterward it was also exas a woman's, long black hair, a pale, thoughtful face, and large, calm, expressive the poer to rows. Owis nave sense enough to stick by the roost until seven o'clock. Arthur frightened girl by the light from below, but gue with hin. Not much! You couldn't got the scissors and forgot to return them; and early Monday morning, before they got was a vast mob and shouts of "There was a vast mob and shouts of everal weeks. When they picked him up the blood gushed from his nose, and eyes. In the blood gushed from his nose, and eyes.

After that for a whole week there was man wiped the blood gushed from his nose, and eyes.

Let him alone! There is a Providence, peace. I nether had occasion to borrow nor bor said: by George! the dissection too. Where are you going in mouth. I was a little child then and I between the pole. It is a riovidence sometimes gives a mouth. I was a little child then and I between the pole. It is a riovidence sometimes gives a lend. But on Sunday morning there were for him for a mouth, and will are the rope, balanced a moment, and that Providence sometimes gives a lend. But on Sunday morning there were for him for a mouth, and that Providence sometimes gives a lend. But on Sunday morning there were for him for a mouth, and the rope, balanced a moment, and the rope, balanced a moment, and the rope, balanced a moment, and the rope, balanced a moment are formally and the rope. three years. I dreamed of him again last was a great scattering, and the crowd the morning air will bring on sore throat, school "because father forgot to get his "An night for the first time in a great while. I realized that the young girl was falling. the morning air will bring on sore throat, school 'because father for the first time in a great while. I realized that the young girl was falling. the morning air will bring on sore throat, school 'because father for the first time in a great while. I realized that the young girl was falling.

"Did it kill him?"

here," she replied in her charming way.

"I think you had better wait." "Now, don't get naughty. I must go,

"I never look at my feet, anyhow, when walk. "You are feverish and nervous."

"It will make me all the more careful." "Well, walk then," said Golson, with a shrug of the shoulders.

"Now, Goldy, don't look that way." He became cheerful and beaming in a moment. The manager appeared on the opposite roof and beckoned the girl to proceed. The attendants at both ends examined the fastenings of the rope to see that and heaped lumps of the combustible material upon the parapet. Zoe mounted the parapet with an elastic step, and threw kisses at the shouting crowd below as the fires brought out her frail form. She looked very charming and pretty, standing, smiling, in the intense red glare of the light. ',Give me the pole," she demanded smilingly, of Golson, holding out a small hand and dimpled arm. He picked up the cumbersome balancing pole and placed it in her hands. She found shouted. the centre, shook hands with Golson, threw the attendants, and regarded the pile of way over the narrow bridge that spanned walk, where he was met by the manager. the yawning chasm beneath. She was The latter took the girl to her home. graceful and walked with considerable case apparently, stopping occasionally to shift the pole and steady herself. "She is walking slow and shaky to-night," said one of the men. "She is not walking as well as usual?" said Golson, [hurriedly, and looking at her steadily. His glances never left her a

"No; she can beat that. I think she's Golson paid no attention to the insult, girl threw a bunch of kisses at Golson, The color had returned to his face with unnatural intensity, and the look of absorb-appland her.

The shouting below continued. The think they would care? Or would they say men made no preparations to remove the she was a little fool, and it served her rope, but Golson started for the ladder. "She's comin' back," said one of the > returned, and the deathly pallor came back around! all in an instant.

terest-with a gaze in which were concentrated his soul and her heart and mind and strength—a look in which was expressed but what does he care? the profoundest feelings of a strong na-

Zoe rested a moment, and again stepped ten feet, when one of the men remarked:

fell from the tight-rope. That was terrible! One end of the rope was passed over the roof of a house, carried down the side, the roof of a house, carried down the side of the roof of a house, carried down the side of the roof of a house, carried down the side of the roof of a house, carried down the side of the roof of a house, carried down the side of the roof of a house, carried down the side of the roof of a house, carried down the side of the roof of a house, carried down the side of the roof of a quarter and the English language is a foreign and made fast to a wooden block under-cheeks. Her nostrils were expanded, and yes! and the ladies sip absinthe and puff dainty rings of cigarette smoke from pretty was no weight upon it whatever. Well, mouths!

In the baby wakes up with a howl. Why fairer hands. Do not must this offered her, provided she whould not restrict the from a baby stand more than a horse? Everybody wakes up. If you when to expect them. I resolved on a land their wind their by fairer hands. Do not must this offered her, provided she whould not restrict the farm that is sure to pay. There is an another with their by fairer hands. Do not must this offered her, provided she whould not restrict the farm that is sure to pay. There is an another when to expect them. I resolved on a land their by fairer hands. Do not must this offered her, provided she whould not restrict the farm that is sure to pay. There is an another than their by fairer hands. Do not must this offered her, provided she whould not restrict the farm that is sure to pay. There is an another than the farm that is sure to pay. There is an another than the farm that is sure to pay. There is an another than the farm that is sure to pay. There is an another than the farm that is sure to pay. There is an another than the farm that is sure to pay. There is an another than the farm that is sure to pay. There is an another than the farm that is sure to pay. There is an another than the farm that is sure to pay. There is an another than the farm that is sure to pay. There is an another than the farm that is sure to pay. There is an another than the farm that is sure to pay. The farm that is sure to pay. There is an another than the farm that is sure to pay. anyhow, they tied the rope around the usually erect carriage, there was a percepthink people can sleep on and dream of think people can sleep on and dream of think people can sleep on and dream of the gates of heaven while a man is pound. When she had made the gates of heaven while a man is pound the gates of heaven while a man is pound. When she had made the gates of heaven while a man is pound to expect them. I resolved on a actual money value to a neat yard, a little been prayed for in the litany as Princess of think people can sleep on and dream of the gates of heaven while a man is pound. When she had made the gates of heaven while a man is pound to expect them. I resolved on a actual money value to a neat yard, a little been prayed for in the litany as Princess of think people can sleep on and dream of the gates of heaven while a man is pound. When she had made the gates of heaven while a man is pound. that the rope was giving away. The jerk- an effort to walk backward, but was eviof course, much harder to balance on it; When she had reached the middle it was but he never lost his presence of mud, and impossible to proceed. She might have but he never lost his presence of mind, and impossible to proceed. She might have whether he gets fat and lives on, or grows comb, and a wheelbarrow. And so for ten stood perfectly calm and straight. When crossed safely, but the fire on our side was lean and dies? He oughtthe block had nearly reached the roof-it exhausted. She had walked more slowly was a two-story house—the rope slipped than usually, and the fire was consumed too She sighed, and still gazed at the crowd up hisses and groans. The rope-walker attempted to take another step. She succeed.

In over by a drove of Texas steers any started out, I sent to them for blueng, soap tempted to take another step. She succeed.

In over by a drove of Texas steers any started out, I sent to them for blueng, soap tempted to take another step. She succeed.

In over by a drove of Texas steers any started out, I sent to them for blueng, soap and starch. I got neither one of the three. was left without home or any friends, and that he ought to pay 100 cents on the dolout of course, after sending for them, they with no means to help himself. Strangers that he would have to go the posthouse.

Her health soon broke down after this distribution of the posthouse. "No, not quite, but he was delirious for foot suddenly slipped, but she was active lar.

dreamed of him every night for two or slipped off upon the ground below. There squirm when he is brought up with a sharp shape of a modest request for the loan of the man of science, examining her pulse pitiable. Great cords stood out upon his attentively. He became thoughtful. "I face, which was overspread by an agony of don't think you ought to risk it." he said, ghastly pallors. His muscles swelled with "Oh. I am not afraid now that you are ridges and knots, and his hands assumed gazed at the the rope where the girl had a many of the customs and habits of the pecwant to go. Why, there's two hundred right hand, and hung suspended over the hundred little circumstances in daily life, dollars in that crown, and my manager would be crazy if I didn't walk. Beside, I contracted to do one street walk every perfectly still. Golson waited but a few singular race who were their masters for so two weeks in addition to the lofty centre- seconds, when he saw that the fright had many centuries, and with what tenacity pole walk every day. Why, I've done taken the strength from her arms, and that these lessons have been retained. The the lofty five hundred times and never lost my head, and why is there danger dashed off his hat, and grasped the rope days—is precisely the foot covering to be "But it's more difficult to see the rope at it. He crawled along carefully, that the and the Portugese will shuffle off these slip creaked and groaned.

God's sake, and I will save you!" they were properly secured. They pro- off. At length he reached her. He whiswas in those supply limbs and clean-cut on which they were worn, we see no improb > she fainted. "Pay out the at the college end!" he the crowd and stepped firmly upon the rope. over the parapet slowly, and the suspended de gone the smallest change in its construc-She soon found a safe pose, took a few pair began to be lowered. "Pay it out!" be shouted again.

his swooning charge were against the build- profusely and very beautifully, with charsaid. ing across the street. He let himself slide acteristic Moorish incised designs. The "Good-bye, Goldy," and she picked her gradually down until he reached the side-The latter took the girl to her home.

The crowd gathered around him with wild shouts, but he slipped away, and met hold, is conducted on simple Eeastern prinus at the door of the college.

"Where is that scoundrel who said she was sulking ?" he demanded, with an angry

We pointed him out. Golson walked up to him, explained his the face that sent him rolling in the gutter. made from cream that is skimmed be- a good purpose in its day.

The Flend and His Lawn-Mower

"Whirr-r-r-r-r-r" Blast bim! "Z-z-z-z-z!" Blast him again! "Rr-rr-rr-rr!"

Turn over in bed and vow that you will

Why? Why, that triple-plated, bomb proof, "Mother wants to borrow a drawing of tron-coated and hard-hearted next-door tea and a pitcher of milk." That was the "Rattle! Whire! Bang! Br-rr-rr."

"Clickety-te clickety-click-click!" upon the rope. She had proceeded about how nice it must be to live in the country And finally as I am a sinner! they borrow-

"G-u-r-r-"

"Clickety-te-click-click-click-click!" brick? No, don't do it. Such a man as borrowing nuisance was quiet perceptibly that couldn't appreciate a decent clip on abated. So then I checked up until it be-office he ever cared for!

The Moor to Portugal

To any one who has been in the Eastern the appearance of an eagle's claws. He countries, the impression of Orientalism in moment ago stood. She had caught by the ple of Portugal is very perceptible. A with both hands, and threw one leg across seen in the bazaars of Cairo and Damascus; shaking might not cause the girl to lose her pers in token of respect, as they enter a and pattern will be found to be of pure "Hold tast, my child," we could hear Arabic type and origin. The crescent and him say to the fainting girl. "Hold on, for the circle are the prevailing motives of the elaborate intricacy of Eastern artifice. She raised her head and looked at him for The patterns never change; and the ornaa moment, and then dropped it again be- ments are repaired, but never recast. The tween her arms. He approached her slowly priest at a place near Barcellos, said the and painfully, for he was a stranger to the situation, and was afraid of shaking her the church dated from the time of the Moors.

They had every appearance of great anpered something to her, and she looked as the priest believed; nevertheless, except him full in the face. He allowed his right that the work was a little more delicate knee to remain across the rope, threw his than that of the present day, these ornaright arm over it at the elbow, and twisted ments were identical in design with those right arm over it at the elbow, and twisted the right hand around underneath to secure a firm hold, and passed his left arm around indestructability of gold except by actual the girl's waist. The strength of six men violence, and considering also the occasions muscles. He drew her toward him. She ability in some of the ornaments worn by released her hold, her head dropped, and been actually the work of Moslem artificers. Another instance of the prevalence and enduring character of Moorish art-forms is shouted,
His feet were in that direction. It reWhile the ox cars itself is purely Roman in quired four of us to let it out. It slipped shape and appearance, without having untion during fourteen centuries, the yoke is Oriental. It is, in shape, a single board set edgewise upon the necks of the oxen We let it go more rapidly, and he and and is ornamented on each face, sometimes common earthenware vessels, the cooking pots and water jars, might many of them

The best of the cream globules rise soon est to the surface, because they are the largest, and flavoring oils rise with them a tea cup and a pitcher.

man who went to bed at sundown for no Golson stopped as if he had been shot other purpose than to get up at 5 o'clock was something less than a dozen children, through the brain. The hard, anxious look a. m. and gallop his own lawn-mower and they put in their solid time in running about the neighborhood from house to house all in an instant.

"I didn't know that," he said, calmly and resignedly. He resumed his old positional ready for a new twist. Just 5 by the collecting supplies. This was not from tion, and watched the girl with intense in- bells, and some fool of a doctor has told molasses, and thread, and black pepper and him that the morning air is good for him! shoe blacking, and clothes lines, and John-He knows that he is disturbing every man, ny's Sunday suit to get their Johnny's pic-woman and child within a block of him; ture taken, and my black shawl to wear to a funeral, and the good man's fine shirt for the other good man to wear because he had There he goes! He's got his coat off, to 'go on jury' and hisen wasn't ironed; no nis pants in his boot-legs, and he's thinking of us only but of 'all the region roundabout.' and canter around over the dew-wet sward. ed a house-moved into it without the days I never let a meal pass that I did not "Clickety-te-click-chek-chek-click!" ask them for something. I very seldom There he goes, the old machine making got what I asked for. All the better, I did the ear with a missile made by human gan again. Then I began. I borrowed and the choir was short of books).

A French Country Home. hold. The crowd watched him in breath-ess silence. The rope swung lower under the double weight, and the fastenings women, her head to enjoy thedewy freshness of the man batting with the fierce winter gale. The city of Winnipeg, which eight years the work, combined and entwined with all is that in accepting the invitation you do er as they rose up and made ready for the habitants. It is the distributing centre for ing and devoted slave.

The "Front Yard " because they are the most volatile; mensely, high fence, and its sweet briar, business and gave him a stinging blow in hence it is that the finest butter southern-wood and morning glories, served I met the dear old fellow on California fore all of it that it will rise to the surface, to see a clearing up of these old front yards; street the other day, and his little wife was while that which rises afterwards but we want the high fences removed, the the stars and the faint glow from the lamps and watched her with fascinated gaze. His with him, charming and pretty as ever. the stars and the faint glow from the lamps and watched her with fascinated gaze. His and torches below. In any event she had a pleasant voice, and that was sufficient. She pleasant voice, and that was sufficient. She also was small, and delicate and young. A also was small, and delicate and young. A company that her displace that her also was small, and some of the street—the most dangerous place—almost believe that her dimples are as instead of rise, whilst others remain in susshawl was thrown over her bare shoulders of the street—the most dangerous place— almost believe that her dimples are as instead of rise, whilst others remain in suspension, neither going up nor down. Thus not afford you far greater satisfaction than and arms, but her little hands were cold and continued her walk toward the other pretty as on the night she threw kisses to pension, neither going up nor down. Thus not afford you far greater satisfaction than the specific gravity of the globules varies, it has ever done. But this single instance

Borrowing Neighbors

"Did I ever live next to a borrowing neighbor?" I had that pleasure once and am not liable to forget it. I want to tell every woman in America (who does not borrow) how I fared and how I defended myself.

A new family had moved into our neighshoot his hens, poison his dog and leave borhood in a small country village, and the fish bones where his cat will find them and first notice we had of their existence was in the shape of a small tow-headed boy with French country hospitality differs in lowed greater personal liberty. Nobody andrings at eleven or half past eleven for hungering to nip little toes, and the wife gaunt, stalking along in blanket and dejeuner. If you see a lady muffled up shivered and said: walking in the grounds you are not to get in her way unless she come towards you; few days longer." and in walking with her you are not to offer your arm. The reason she is to be avoided as he glanced at the cupboard. until she shows herself sociably disposed is based upon the supposition that she is ed the wife, not made up for the day, and has, while "We have as Job, and known to be so, without in cheated of its prey.

the slightest degree ceasing to benefit by Morning came with its meagre old break-back country and the facilities for the this fiction. French society, when seen fast. There was not enough for four, but transportation that it is sometimes called at its best, practices equality. We all it must do for seven, and the father forced , the Biesder's Paradise." It is built on a in all directions. We have a private Napoleon's guests used to drive to the bent over the old man they found that no Compense meets. These venicles were man would ever again find him a burden, bought at civil list sale, with many other "See!" said the wife, "he may ha bought at civil list sale, with many other hunting "properties" of the Third Empire. heard our whispers, for there is a tear on the passengers on the Boston steamer one Over-night excursions are projected and his check!"
debated. In the wild freshness of the "But he morning they are carried out, and back for he died with a smale on his tace," added we come with a keen relish for the de- the husband. jeuner, which is served at little oval tables in a great dining-room. When there are dead!" cried the children. "How glad from thirty to forty persons to be served, we are that God will let him have a big this is more sociable and jolly than ample warm corner and loss of everything to board. Talk can be brisk and lively without becoming noisy. At those little tables birds of a feather do flock together. There sighed the wife as her tears fell, and yet is the same concert pitch; and where there their charity was greater than his who had is opposition it does not induce discord. subscribed his thousands. The pheasant shooting in low copses, in which the birds are bred and fattened is followed by gay dinners. It takes nothing out of the sportsmen who blaze away at guns. Partridge shooting is execrated by to even hint marriage to a girl, had hunger appeared, bed is all he

The old style front yard, with its imand she shivered in the night air.

"I was thinking. Goldly," she said "that if I should fall." and a more decided shivering shook her delicate frame—"I woader opposite roof. A tremendous desfeaing of a future sun-in-law.

yards exposed to the highway, often filled with wood, lumber, tools, farm implements, weeds, hens and sand. Not a thought is ever given them, not an effort ever put IV., was married in 1795, much against forth to keep them nest, much less to em- his will, to Caroline of Brunswick, his bellish or adorn them with flowers, shrubs, cousin. Jealousies and recriminations and climbing vines and the like. It is so much inveterate dislike ensued, and in 1797, after trim condition, and yet have no particular nation for a quarter of a century. the grass plot at the front door, setting out Some hard work must be done, which the brought to light many improprieties. In wife and daughter cannot do; there is 1814 she left England, visited Germany, dressing to be provided, spading to be done, Italy and the Holy land, and during her so and some cleaning up about the premises, which is of too heavy a nature for the "wom-"she certainly conducted herself in a most Country be hanged: Lawn-mowers and owner's consent, and the blessed laws of mext-door neighbors be hanged. The man who sold him that lawn-moved and owner's consent, and the blessed laws of by the strong arms of the men. An hour be safely determined to what extent." Her it up or move out of town. I had by that time become sufficiently familiar with their would not send to me for the same article said he would have to go the poorhouse, on the same day.

Her health soon broke down after this discomflure, and in less than a year her death ensued. on the same day.

After that for a whole week there was man wiped the tears from his eyes, a neighbor.

"And then I will take him," added an- polis of the Northwest. "And then my roof shall shelter him." True to my said a third.

him nor hinted that he was a burden.

tast. The host and hostess are not ex- way, as if ashamed of their thoughts. The

"I haven't a dollar left," mused the man

"But he cats only a very little," protest-"We have only a small house." "But he sits in a corner." They looked at each other a long time him the greatest honor. You may be poor | night, and the gale banged at the door as if a large region, a place of great business rise early here; the mornings are very fine a smile to his face as he opened the old clay bank at the junction of the Assinibone and there are delightful walks and drives man's door and called; with the Red River. The nature of the "Come, Uncle William, you shall have soil is such that it is difficult to find a good omnibus with seats at the top, and seven of the warmest place and the biggest dish." foundation for a house, and many of the the chars-a-banc, in which the Emperor There was no response, and when they larger buildings have settled and cracked.

"But he knew the resolve of our hearts

"Oh! he's dead-poor old grandpa is about the saloon, said in a subdued "If we could have done more for him

One of those timid young men the birds which keepers drive before their who can never work up sufficient courage the ladies, who dislike the fatiguing tramping through turnip fields and stubble. A damsel in the suburbs of Quincy. The obsportsman who returns home with a bag of ject of his adoration expected the momenthis game is also such bad company His tous proposal at each visit, and had thor-hunger appeared, bed is all he thinks of, oughly rehearsed her part, but visit after oughly rehearsed her part, but visit after and at dinner he has not a word to cast at visit went by and the proposal came not.

a fair neighbor, though in the morning he As the two sat in sparkable proximity on a recent Saturday night, the side door opened and the girl's father marched in, clad just as he was when he slid out of bed a moment before. The girl h d her face in her hands and said: "Why, father!" and the lover turned pale and began to look for his

> "Toin, do you want to marry her?" "Why, sir, I-indeed, sir-"None o'that, confound you-yes or no!

oared the parent. "Well, sir-ye-ve-ves, I do!" Turning to the girl the old man said: "Martha, do you want him?"

"Yes, pa!" "Thar, now! I've done in just half a ninute w'at it'd took you silly fools a NO. 24.

Queen Caroline

The Prince of Wales, afterwards George a cause for surprise that the boys and girls the birth of their daughter, the princess leave these homes; that there is no impetitioned for a separation on the ground provement, and little sociability in such a of brutality. At this time the Lord Channeighborhood? It is a very correct obser-vation, that the front yard is an index of the conduct the negotiations, wrote: "The home and the home life. It may not be so princess is flattered with the prospects of completely an index of the style of farming living apart from the prince and having the which the owner practices, because the disposal of a large income. The prince, on hard work of the farm is one thing, and his part, would give his right hand for a the beauty of the home surroundings is another. A man may be an excellent farmer, have good cattle, keep his fields in pair continued to bring disgrace upon the idea of neatness about the front yard. The line took up her residence at Blackheath, spirit which manifests itself in beautifying and scandal was rife concerning her life there. In 1808 the half insane King George few rose bushes, and sowing a few papers III., who was friendly towards her, allowed flower seeds, usually resides within the an inquiry to be instituted into her conhouse, but it must be reciprocated from duct, which investigation resulted in acquitthat without, or little can be accomplished. ting her of any positive dereliction, but it or two after supper, for a few days, will conduct and deportment with Bergami, the Italian master of her household, caused much anima-lversion. The court at Vienna rebeen prayed for in the litany as Princess of across the street when he began to give an exhibition of jumping. Suddenly we saw to be in doubt. She then apparently made them apparently made of butter, a teacup of molasses and two lived in vain. tablespoonfuls of garger. Poor child! he cattle, but they will feed the soul, and the have no royal rank. On June 5, Caroline Good. His old machine has struck a opened his honest little eyes, and looked at the structure opene brought before the House of Lords. Her and waited. He came down slowly with the rope. It seemed as if it would never and swaved under her feet, and in this way. the rope. It seemed as if it would never and swayed under her feet, and in this way place, and mobody but a mutton-head none!) Next morning I sent for a cup of sociability, gentleness, refinement and love treason, as they had been committed beyond place, and nobody but a mutton-head none!) Next morning I sent for a cup of sociability, gentleness, refinement and love treason, as they had been committed beyond place, and nobody but a mutton-head none!) Next morning I sent for a cup of sociability, gentleness, refinement and love treason, as they had been committed beyond none!) stop slipping over the roof like a long ugly caught a swisging motion that tries the would go slashing around on an empty raisins and two sewing machine needles. will flow out from such a home and such a seas, but a bill of pains and penalties was suake. It soon became slack, and it was, nerve of the most experienced balancers. Stomach in this malarious climate. His By this time my sixteen-year-old Jim took of course, much harder to balance on it; When she had reached the middle it was health? What is his health compared to in the situation, and half bursting with fun. traction and good influence all through the withdrawn, although the votes of condem-summer, and the home itself will be happier, and the inmates better for the pure trial made the fortunes of the lawyers eninfluences of plants and flowers. Don't gaged in her behalf. One of the Lords aid neglect to trim up the front yard, provide not hesitate to say that "if it had not been a few flower beds, and keep the home sur. for the ill usage she had experienced in the roundings in neat condition all the time. early part of her married life, there would One of these days, you will find yourself have been no hesitation in coming to an un-loving and caring for flowers, and a better favorable conclusion upon the evidence produced." After the session of Parliament was over, the coronation of George IV. took place. Caroline claimed to be ensued.

Winnipeg, Manitoba. sidewalks, and rows of shops of every shape thought I went to pick him up, and could feel his poor broken bones grating against steadied herself wildly and instinctively a stand by him lake an Indian's memory, and just before evening service I sent a polite him and then another, and he was well brick. High over all towered the handand size. Some were rude wooden shaneach other, and his poor bloodshot eyes stared wide and cold at me."

They were far from being rich. some spire of the Knox Church. Several by his villainous noise grow fat and sleek, and from the poor bloodshot eyes moment with her arms as she knelt on the rope, and then fell.

They were far from being rich. some spire of the Knox Church. Several by his villainous noise grow fat and sleek, and rich, and live to beat him for the only hymn book for the evening, as mine had and sometimes the little that Uncle Willow to be the solution of white steam into the clear air. The been mislaid' (I knew he sang in the choir, liam are was missed by the hungry chil-and was extravagantly vain of his voice, dren, but no one ever spoke unkindly to were wagons of all descriptions standing One night last week, after the old man carts were loading with freight for the in had sought his bed and the children were terior. The sidewalks were filled with a asleep, as husband and wife sat down to miscellaneous crowd of people: German many respects from English. More is say to each other that work was scarce, peasants, the women in dark blue gowns made of each guest, and he or she is alis bound to come down to an early break. Here they looked at each other in a shy jaunty buckskin jacket, many-colored scarfs around their waists, and their black hair pected to show themselves before the bell cold wind whistled around the cottage as if shining with oil; Indians, dark, solems, cassins: Scotch and English people, looking "He's so old and feeble-let us wait a as they do all the world over, but here, perhaps, a little quicker and more sner-The middle of the street, though there had been but a single night of rain. was a vast expanse of mud-mud so tenscious that the wheels of the wagons driving through it were almost as large as millwheels, and when we dared to cross it, we tresses, run out with capeline thrown on without speaking. A vision of a poor old ficulty, and feet of elephantine proportion. morning. In France there is a well bred came to either and stood between them ago was nothing more than a cluster of fiction which is acted upon by millionaires with hands crossed in supplication.

who invite you to their country seats. It "He shall stay!" they whispered togethfort, now contains over seven thousand in-evening recently, and while he was sitting by the steam radiator imbibing its warmth. a tall passenger with a mysterious air approached, and after glancing carefully

The timid-looking man was considerably flustrated by the mysterious person's strange manner, and without stopping to consider the singularity of his question, realied that he was. He didn't just understand what or whom he was 'a stranger to, but he knew he was a stranger, anyway, and so he said so. "Because," continued the man with the mysterious air, leaning forward, nearly to the timid-looking party's knee, and gazing cautiously about,

"Wha-what is it?" stammered the timid-looking passenger, in consucrabl confusion. "It is this," replied the man with the to the timid man's perturbation, and sinking his voice to a hoarse whisper: "Why is hat. Giving his hair a twang the old man a desired loan of money.

"I don't know," he faltered. "Because," explained the man with the mysterious air, placing his hand impresavely on the timid party's shoulder, and speaking in a low and earnest voice that left no doubt of the sincerity of his conviction, "because it is the catarrhdin." The timid-looking man staggered to

> The joke lies in the name of the boat "MAMMA," asked a little girl, "why is it they sing in church "We'll dine one," and then go right home and his berth and was seasick all night.

SOLD EVERYWHERE