M. and yet receive no mjury from the chilly sensation. An old railroad track, built on tiles, runs out into the sea some two hundred yards, and is a great resort for fishermen. It is rather a dangerous place, as for fifty cents a pint at Banks & Co.'s drug there are no boards, only the ties and rails to stand and walk on. I have been out on this track in company with Philadelphia friends. I was thoroughly chilled on one of these excursions, but felt none the worse of it. We caught a number of fine king fish and sea bass, which compensated me for the chilliness.

With respects to my friends in Juniata close this letter.

Ayer's Hair Vigor.

NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks failing of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Vigor cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair, The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence. PREPARED BY

MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY. MCALISTERVILLE, PA., (Limited to the Seven Townships East of the Juniata River.)

SAMUEL STRAYER.

Insures Houses, Furniture, Merchandise, Barns and their contents, Live Stock, &c., against loss by Fire or Lighteing.

This Company has, by its economical management, secured the confidence of the public, and has, during the first six months of its existence, issued policies on property to the aggregate amount of $400,000. and we have no hesitancy in predicting that in less than another six months it will reach $1,000,000.

Applications for insurance may be made to the Secretary, who will either call on you, or promptly send an agent.

Manhood: HowLost. How Restored B Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhea or Seminal weak-ness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impo-tency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.
The celebrated author, in this admirable LUMBER. Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheap-
