Republican Committee Meeting.

Under a regular call by the Chairman, the Republican County Committee met at the W. H. hotel on Saturday, June 19, 1890, and appointed a time for holding the Primary Election and Convention.

Republican Primary System.

The following is the system under which Republican Primary Elections are held: First, The candidates for the several offices shall have their names announced in one or more of the Republican county papers at least four weeks previous to the primary meetings, stating the office, and subject to the action of said primary meeting.

SHORT LOCALS.

It is said the chestnut crop will be large this year. A number of heavy rain showers fell on Saturday.

Col. Bell is selling the Hagerstown grain, seed and fertilizing drill. Wheat cutting commenced this year in Juniata county as early as the 18th of June.

William Wagner, who conducted the watch and jewelry business at the Post-office, has gone west.

Charles Greer, son of A. J. Greer, one of the editors of the Altoona Tribune, is in town, visiting friends.

The camp-meeting at Newton Hamilton has been ordered to open August 10th, and close August 20th, 1890.

There is a circular note one hundred dollar note on the National Exchange Bank of Baltimore in circulation.

The name of the gentleman on the Democratic ticket for Vice President is English. His home is in the State of Indiana.

On Monday, as the Sheriff of Mifflintown county, passed through the town, he took occasion to pay the jail a flying visit.

Owing to the great heat, and bitterness of straw, a great deal of wheat was cut in Lancaster county, last week, by moonlight.

If the weather be favorable, this week will finish wheat cutting. A number of farmers in Juniata finished wheat cutting last week.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets, at reduced rates, on the 3rd, 4th and 5th of July, good till the 6th of July.

Rev. David Melat, a German Baptist preacher, says that once in his time harvest came as early as this season, but he cannot recollect the year.

Acknowledgments and thanks are due A. K. Dunkel, Secretary of Internal Affairs, for public documents sent to the office of the Sentinel and Republican.

Rev. Mr. Beuaght preached in the Presbyterian Chapel on Sabbath. It was the second time that he came from Philadelphia to preach for the congregation.

Harry Remington, of Walker township, while on a tree picking cherries, a few days ago, lost his hold and fell to the ground, a distance of twenty-five feet, and was severely hurt.

What a splendid dose of crow the leaders of the errand brethren got when they swallowed Hancock. If he was crows in 1861 and in 1864, how can he be the less crow to-day?

The Prohibition National Convention met at Cleveland, Ohio, on the 17th, and nominated Neal Dow, of Maine, for President, and A. M. Thompson, of Ohio, for Vice President.

There seems to be two days that may be celebrated as the 4th of July, this year. In one place the 2d will be observed as the 4th; in another place the 5th will be observed as the 4th.

The 4th of July Sabbath-school picnic parties will meet at their respective churches at 10 o'clock A. M., and form in the Court House yard, and be ready to move, at 8:30 A. M., on Saturday.

Rev. W. M. Fryberger, A. M., of Harrisburg, Secretary of C. V. S. Assembly, and No. 1 Sabbath-school man, will preach in the M. E. church in this place, next Sabbath, July 4th, morning and evening.

The editor who wrote the following item must be a patron, or member of a church. If it were not so he would not ask the question: "Where do the old palm-leaf fans go?" "They don't go anywhere. They stay in the other paw."

At the Republican Primary Election, three Senatorial Conferences are to be elected, also Chairman of the County Committee, Representative Delegate to the State Convention, Member of the Legislature, Senator, Congressman and County Surveyor.

The Democratic National Platform is in favor of a revenue tariff, which means free trade. What do the American manufacturers say to that? Will they vote for Hancock on a free trade platform? Will they vote for a good soldier and an able general, and throw away the principle of protection to American industry?

THE NEWPORT LEDGER RELATES THE FOLLOWING SERIOUS ACCIDENT:

It is our painful duty to record the sad misfortune that occurred to Mr. John Shuman, an aged citizen of Juniata township, by which he lost his left hand. The particulars of the affair, as they are as could be learned, are these: Mr. Shuman, (as all farmers are,) was engaged in gathering his harvest, and on Tuesday morning about seven o'clock went towards his field of ripe grain with a cradle over his shoulder, and in attempting to climb over a fence, missed his hold and fell backwards, with his left hand immediately upon the sharp edge of the cradle scythe, cutting his hand from its base on the thumb and index across the palm between the thumb and forefinger, severing it completely, as if done by a skillful surgeon, the amputated fingers and hand hanging to the arm by a small shred of skin. The accident occurred near the barn, and the injured man walked to the house in this condition, a distance of about three hundred or more feet. Dr. Shull, of Markleville, was summoned, who hastened to the scene, and who in turn sent for Dr. H. O. Orris, of Newport. The two medical men bound up the injured member and advised it to remain until reaction set in, which was sometime in the afternoon, when the doctor, assisted by Mr. James Scholtz, a student of Dr. Orris, amputated the hand about four inches above the base of the injured member. Considering the age of Mr. Shuman—being seventy-nine years of age—he stood the operation admirably well, and, after his recovery from the influence of the anesthetic used to deaden his nerves and sensibilities, he rallied and became quite talkative, remarking that he "had hoped he would not go to his grave a cripple." Alas! his hopes were not realized, as the above account of the unfortunate affair will prove.

A WAITER for the Harrisburg Telegraph bends the following from York, Pa., last week: Near this borough is the farm of Mr. J. M. Heiges, one of the most successful wheat growers on this continent. On one piece of land he has raised seven wheat in succession, including the present growing crop, which competent judges say, will yield sixty bushels to the acre. Mr. Heiges had several different varieties grown, and that he would put with was disappointed of the United States Commissioner of Agriculture Le Duc, on the occasion of his visit here this week. The price of wheat in this market this week is about $1.18 per bushel, but Mr. Heiges averaged more than double that for all he sold. His success in wheat raising is accounted for by the fact that he manures heavily with a compound of potash, plaster and salt—400 lbs. to the acre—that he thoroughly pulverizes his soil; puts the seed in the ground one-half inch deep, in rows about twelve inches wide and spaces of ten or twelve inches between rows for cultivation, and uses a cultivator. I counted the product of one grain by this process, and found forty-eight stalks, with a well-developed head on each stalk, growing from it. The largest crop of wheat Mr. Heiges has ever raised from one acre of ground was something over one acre of ground was something over seventy-one bushels. The two principal varieties he is growing this year are the Mold and the Heiges Prolific. The latter was ripe enough to cut, and on one of his neighbors, A. M. Heike, had his crop of the same variety already cut and in sheaves. I think any farmer who wants to learn something of great practical value about wheat raising can pick up more on this farm in one day than he could in any other way in a month.

A MEETING of the Committee of Arrangements for the Reunion of the Veteran Soldiers of Juniata county, will be held at Mifflintown, SATURDAY EVENING, July 19, 1890, at 6 o'clock, sharp, in the Headquarters of Lieut. STATE ITEMS.

The barley crop in the northern part of the State will be large. Lock Haven is grieved to discover that she is shrinking in population. A yearling steer, in Washington county, yielded at one shearing fourteen pounds and a half of wool. Washington and Beaver counties are overrun with wool buyers from Connecticut and Massachusetts. John L. King has been committed to the Allegheny county almshouse. He was at one time a millionaire, but lost his money speculating in oil.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gungie, a needy widow of Cambria, a few days ago received a check for $1,700 bank pension. Jails in the northern counties are filling up with tramps. There is a clerical forger, "Rev. Thomas Hughes, M. A.," at large in the northern part of the State. The army worm destroyed a six acre field of wheat near Baston, so completely that it was not worth the harvesting.

Good timber on the farm. The farm will produce 40 to 50 tons of hay annually, and grow grain of all kinds. There is an abundance of LIMESTONE on the farm. We repeat, this is the greatest bargain now offered in this county, to the man who has energy, and desires to farm and raise stock. To such a man, who has a moderate sum of money for first payment, there is a rare chance to secure a property, that in the nature of things must increase in value gradually, for the period of a full generation yet to come.
