

SHORT LOCALS.

The river is low. Come to the Fair. Vote for Pomroy. Vote for Groninger. Peaches are plenty. Vote as you thought. Eyes had downward. Apts-butler boillings. Weddings are scarce. Politics grows warmer. Ladies wear broad belts. Crickets is the game now. Fall styles are coming in. An early fall is predicted. Seals' head southward. Abundant—Tax-gatherers. Vote for Lemon and Green. Hay fever—Cold in the head. Farmers are preparing to sow. Vote for Garfield and Arthur. This week ends camp-meeting. The catch of young grass is poor. Base ball playing is out of fashion. The picnic season draws to an end. "Short redingotes are again worn." Lawyers are getting ready for fight. Greenbackers got a dose in Alabama. Fertilizers will be tested this season. Election day in Maine, September 13. The lumber fleets his horn and pouter. The polar bear will be revised this fall. A labor-saving institution—The loafer. The census enumerators should be paid. The Soldiers' Re-union will bring a crowd. Croquet playing no longer rages as a mania. Ex-rebels want to be put on the pension roll. Samuel Rollman will build a house this fall. Teachers' examination in town on Tuesday. Some preachers are opposed to cakewalks. Merchants are getting ready to buy new goods. Socialism—Let the rebs do as they please. The politician keeps count of every campaign note. A refreshing rain fell last Wednesday and Thursday. A drove of cattle passed through town on Thursday. The turnout of Democrats on Saturday was large. They lie people in Licking Creek Valley for swearing. Mrs. Kepner is enlarging her house on Cherry street. Frank Noble puts in new pumps and repairs old ones. The Republican party is the only friend that the thief has. Many of the girls in town are learning instrumental music. Everybody is settled; pic-nics and camp-meetings are over. The season of the year to clean out fence rows is here now. The attendance at churches on Sabbath evening was large. Among fashionable colors this fall are cardinal, and old gold. A drove of cattle passed through town on Saturday morning. There is a great growth of rag weed in the wheat stubble fields. Fashion writers say that velvet will be much worn next winter. Democratic leaders and the ex-rebels want a new Supreme Court. The Democracy showed their claws to the Greenbackers in Alabama. Kennedy & Doty have re-painted their lumber wagon and coal cart. Small bass can be seen in all of the small tributary streams of the river. The thermometer indicated 75 degrees of heat in the shade on last Friday. A spark took a blacksmith fire injured an eye or Stewart Kill last week. People who attended Newton Hamilton camp-meeting came home pleased. The Democratic Congressional Conference will meet in Patterson on Thursday. The Democrats will oppose the National Bank system if they get too power. See that every Republican voter is registered before the 1st of September. Farmers now talk about sowing wheat, cutting cloverseed, and topping corn. REGISTER EVERY REPUBLICAN BEFORE THE FIRST OF NEXT MONTH. When lumbermen roll logs into the basin, the splash of water is as high as a house. Harley will be ready with a full stock of clothing for men and boys by Fair week. Chairman Thompson calls the County Committee to convene September 4, 1880. Frederick Espenshede has bought the dry goods and grocery store of Dr. Bantz. Mrs. Mary Phossant, of Cassville, Huntington county, hung herself on Sunday a week. The attendance at Newton Hamilton camp meeting, it is said, has been larger this year than in the past few years. For effect the Democracy claim that many Republicans will vote for Hancock, but whose names are asked for, all, yes, the names! Fashion writers say that short dresses will be fashionable on the most common occasions this winter. FOR SALE—Five share Old Follows' Hall Association stock. If you wish to buy, call at this office. The Republican conventions of Franklin and Huntington counties have declared for H. G. Fisher for Congress. The Garfield and Arthur Club of this place have organized a glee club within the circle of their membership. Hancock admires Thomas Jefferson, but he does not, like Jefferson, hitch and unhitch his horse. Be consistent. Union Cemetery has been put through a course of weeding. Joseph Watts is the Janitor. A grand display of the Bickford & Hoffman pattern drill will take place at Foreman's hotel in Patterson next Thursday. Hats and clothing, ready-made, or made to order, to suit the season, at R. E. Parker's store. Millin is not a great place, but every one who has lived here, after they move away, express a longing to come back. The three races that the American and European came to have little love for—The Boats, the Goddesses, and the Indians. Congressman Fisher held a big social party for his friends to inaugurate a tea company Aug.

Tanner's fast so loosened his loath that he had to have taken out, and a new set put in. A children's service will be held in the Lutheran Church in this place next Sabbath evening at 7 o'clock. John S. Graybill, the enterprising furniture man, has the Garfield and Arthur lead pencil, the best pencil out. The small boy's vacation in town is nearly over, and he sighs when he thinks that the schools will open in September. The mineral water and sarsaparilla made by Lapp and Criswell is up to the standard water, and it is said to be better than any other. The Perry county Republican convention last week nominated Charles H. Smiley for State Senator and H. G. Fisher for Congress. Subscribe for the Sentinel and Republican. It gives you a greater variety of reading matter than any other paper in the county. Old fishermen miss the autumn fish basket. Alas! for the good old days of the past. But there is no use of sighing for the past. James McCaskey will display agricultural implements in Patterson on Thursday. The chief piece of machinery will be a grain drill. Lightning struck a barrel of butter last week, in Medina county, Ohio. The butter was not hurt. The barrel was slightly wrecked. James Greider has bought Orlando Bonaldi's grocery store, and will enlarge and continue the business at the old stand on Bridge street. Lightning seems to have a strong affinity for coal oil. Scarcely a thunder-storm can pass over the coal oil region without striking oil tanks. The report of County Superintendent Wellington Smith, unavoidably, goes over till next week for publication in the Sentinel and Republican. The apple crop on the east side of the river in Juniata is much larger than on the west side. Last year it was the west side that had the apples. For snake bite, tie the wound up, and saturate the bandage with turpentine. This is said to be a certain cure, with little inconvenience to the person bitten. Happy Hollow Sabbath-school will hold their annual picnic, in Mr. Oles' woods, on Saturday, August 28, 1880. A cordial invitation is extended to all. The Patterson Union Sabbath-school, in connection with the Evangelical Sabbath-school of the same place, will hold a picnic in Laver's wood, next Thursday. A new stock of goods has been put into Strayer's store—Clothing, Hats and Caps. Everybody will be in town on Re-union day, and then you can see for yourself. The Democracy are good at getting in votes. More votes were cast in some of the wards in New York city than the whole number of men, women, children and dogs. The men who called Lincoln a murderer, an ape, a clown, an idiot, now seek to find a favorable word that he said in favor of the bonnet of the Democratic party for President. When did General Hancock denounce the Democratic cities in Mississippi in 1875? When did General Hancock denounce the "white line" horrors of South Carolina in 1876? When did General Hancock denounce the Democratic "bulldozing" in Louisiana? When did General Hancock denounce the methods by which a solid South is secured? While millions of human people in the country have been shocked by these outrages and vehemently expressed their indignation and vehemently expressed their indignation, General Hancock has been dumb. Can the people trust a man who has been thus silent while the country has been threatened and alarmed by the outrages? STRAWBERRY PLANTS. The undersigned has a large quantity of the Sharpest Seedling strawberry plants, and now offer them for sale to all who are desirous of cultivating this choice variety of fruit. The Sharpest is the largest and most prolific strawberry ever known, and is offered at one-half the usual price. Price 50 cts. per dozen, $3.50 per hundred or $25.00 per thousand. Will be shipped by express or otherwise to any point. Call on or address E. E. Berry or H. A. Stambaugh, Middletown, Pa. (aug25-4t) Teachers Wanted For Principal and Primary Schools in the borough of Thompsonstown. Wages, $30 and $20. Address I. N. GRUBB, Sec'y., Thompsonstown, Pa. Aug. 6, 1880-3t

Gabriel Garver, in Olver township, Mifflin county, had seven sheep killed recently by a stroke of lightning that came down the tree under which the sheep sheltered. The Democracy are talking about having a big meeting on Saturday, September 4th. Our reporter has engagements to be away on that day, but he will have to send his regrets and stay at home and tell what pleases the Democracy out of the 4th of September. Squire William Dunn, who had the great fall into the quarry south of town some days ago, was sufficiently restored to health as to permit of his being taken to his home in McAllisterville on Saturday. A bed was put on the floor, bottom of a top spring-wagon, and in that he was lashed home. If the reported translation of the Tinogone inscribed on some of the sides of Cleopatra's Needle be true, many cities like that at the bottom of the Pacific ocean. The inscription, it is said, tells of the sinking of the land and the forming of the Pacific ocean, many long years before the Christian era was ushered in. A meeting of the Fayette Garfield and Arthur Club will be held on Saturday evening, August 28, 1880, at the school house in McAllisterville. The officers of the Club are as follows: President, T. Davis; Vice Presidents, George Martin, J. McCaskey, S. C. Myers; Secretary, S. T. McCallister; Treasurer, J. G. Smith. The Democracy talk about corruption, but corruption is the life blood of the party. There are as many corrupt Democrats as there are corrupt other people. The percentage of corrupt men and women is as large among the Democracy as among that many people anywhere else in Christendom. Honesty is an individual matter, that no party or church can impart. And did you ever hear the like before? "English, the Democratic candidate for Vice President, presided at a political meeting held in his own interest in Indianapolis the other day. He is also Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee. The Ledger thinks this is not a very attractive spectacle to people who consider the proprieties of public position." The Democrat and Register says that many Republicans in Juniata will vote for Hancock. As yet, no Republican in town has declared his purpose to be to vote for Hancock, but as far as his influence goes it amounts to nothing. The cause that has him opposed to it is better off than if he were its advocate. It will keep the individual busy to control his own vote. The Greenbackers, who thought the Democracy just the people to join with to reform the country, are learning differently by experience. Read of the work of the Democratic reformers as practiced on Greenbackers in Indiana and Alabama. See account as published in another column. It would do some other people good if they could pass through the hands of the Democratic reformers. The Detroit Tribune asks: When did General Hancock denounce the Kuklux? When did General Hancock denounce the Democratic cities in Mississippi in 1875? When did General Hancock denounce the "white line" horrors of South Carolina in 1876? When did General Hancock denounce the Democratic "bulldozing" in Louisiana? When did General Hancock denounce the methods by which a solid South is secured? While millions of human people in the country have been shocked by these outrages and vehemently expressed their indignation and vehemently expressed their indignation, General Hancock has been dumb. Can the people trust a man who has been thus silent while the country has been threatened and alarmed by the outrages?
