[marl7-6m Manhood: How Lost How Restored Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical care (without medicine) of Spermatorrhora or Seminal weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impo-tency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Con-sumption, Epileosy and Fits, induced by solf-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.
The celebrated author, in this admirable LUMBER, Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty Years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife: pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheap-ly, privately, and radically.
