Many people have had fever now, that is, cold in the head. Take care of your digestion, and you will not be troubled with cold of any kind.

On Soldiers' Reunion day, Jeremiah Lyons will deliver the address of welcome, and Charles A. Shibley will deliver the oration for the occasion.

There was a man at the Printers' Pic-Nic who looked like John A. Lemon, Republican candidate for Auditor General, and was often taken in a mistake for that gentleman.

The Republican majority in Vermont over the combined vote of Greenbackers and Democrats is 2,000 larger than over the Democratic vote in 1876.

Two men were severely hurt at a Democratic pole raising at Landburg, Perry county, last week. A derick used in the raising of the pole broke down, and by its fall they were hurt.

NOTICE—The Garfield and Arthur Club of Fayette township will be addressed by B. F. Schweizer, on Saturday evening, September 18, at McAllisterville. The public are invited.

The tramps that were brought here from Altoona and committed by Justice Caveny, of Patterson, to jail, have been discharged, the period of their commitment having expired.

The quantity of phosphate fertilizer shown this year in Juniata county is large. Should the expectations that are centered in it be realized, the trade in the load-smelling stuff will be doubled next year.

Rev. Francis H. Hemperly was the new court reporter last week. Mr. Cummings having become private secretary to Mr. Dill, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee.

The Presbytery to which Rev. Mr. Bezaugh belonged, in Philadelphia, has released him from his ministerial work there, and he may be expected in this place before long to preach for the people who called him.

In Chicago they ran men against horses. The men won the race. On the fair ground on Thursday afternoon there will be a great race between fast horses. The association so announce it.

Martin Pangelaker, aged four years, son of Thilo Pangelaker, in this place, was severely scalded on Monday evening, by pulling a teakettle that was full of scalding water off the stove down over his body.

General James A. Beaver, of Bellefonte, is expected to address the Republicans of Juniata and other counties at McAllisterville, on Tuesday evening, September 21st, on which occasion there is to be a parade of the Garfield and Arthur clubs of the county.

Mr. Soper, the Democratic candidate for Congress, stepped off a train at this place some nights ago, at midnight, and what took place from that time till the next morning no one knows who was outside of the room where he lodged at Nixon's hotel. He left about 10 o'clock next day.

A child about one year old, daughter of Mrs. Cargill, in Patterson, was scalded on Monday evening. The mother had placed a jar of scalding jelly on a shelf. The child was creeping on the floor directly under the shelf. The jar of jelly exploded, and the scalding contents fell down onto the face and neck and head of the child. It is an ugly case.

Last Thursday night a safe in the railroad warehouse at Mapleton, Huntington county, was blown open and $200 stolen. Harrisburg detectives were sent for, and succeeded in arresting five tramps. The tramps received the arrest, firing pistol shots at the officers. The thieves were taken to Harrisburg jail.

The Democratic party is bold enough to now tell the people that if it succeeds in electing a Congress and a Democratic President, it will pass a free-trade or revenue law. Are miners and manufacturing people who are Democrats queer enough to vote with the Democracy after that?

Tobias Aker, State and county tax collector for the borough of Millin, for the year 1879, closed his account last week. He had only been four and five dollars in clerical mistakes. "Well done, good and faithful servant."

It is with pleasure that we acknowledge the receipt of a full set of cards for the Twenty-first Anniversary Exercises of Eastman College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., beginning Thursday, September 15, continuing through Friday and Saturday, closing Saturday evening, September 19, with a reception by Mrs. Eastman to pupils and alumni, at her residence. Eastman College is noted the country over for the short, sharp, practical, systematic business course that it imparts to its pupils.

Victor Aman, aged about 11 years, son of William Aman, of this place, while crossing the ridge north of town, on his way to his father, who was sitting in a wagon, was bitten on the hand by a copperhead snake, one day last week. By the time he reached his father at the mines the effects of the poison seized him, and the hand and arm became much swollen. He was brought home, and Dr. Crawford was called, who prescribed whisky. An onion was applied to the wound by the family. The boy is getting along quite well.

The heirs of John Adams, late of Walker township, deceased, will offer at public sale, on the premises, at 2 o'clock p. m., on Saturday, October 2, 1880, a fine farm in said township, containing 150 acres, more or less, limestone land, 100 acres in high state of cultivation; the remainder in good timber. Large stone dwelling house, large bank barn, full complement of out-buildings, good water. Only 3 miles from Millintown, the county seat. Also a tract of two acres of land, with house and stable, and good water.

The Newport Ledger says: Rev. Thos. Guard, D. D., of Mount Vernon Place Methodist Episcopal church, Baltimore, Md., will preach in the Newport Methodist church on Monday evening, September 29. Rev. B. B. Hamlin, of Altoona, will also be present. Services will commence at 7 o'clock. Dr. Guard is known far and wide as an eloquent speaker, and wherever he has been announced to speak, hundreds of people have flocked to hear him. Go early and get a good seat well up front, that you may not fall to hear every word.

The Beltsbovener letter is a fair specimen of the spirit of the Democratic Congressmen who are sent to Washington to represent Northern Democratic constituencies. They ever were the tools of the champions of the Lost Cause, that is, the cause of slavery, &c., and when Mr. Beltsbovener said that he could do nothing for the cause of the pensioning of Northern soldiers, because a rebel was at the head of the Pension Committee, and because the Democratic House was in no mood to grant pensions, he made a most humiliating confession. Why do people of the North send such spiritless men as Beltsbovener to Congress?

In nine cases in ten when a man is heard denouncing the community in which he lives as an old fogy community, he himself will be found to be the fogy. He is generally one of the smallest tax-payers, and consequently one of the smallest contributors to the keeping up of the affairs in the community where he lives. He does scarcely anything towards paying for the schools; he pays scarcely anything toward keeping up the public buildings; he pays scarcely anything or nothing to the poor-tax fund; he pays scarcely anything or nothing toward keeping up the roads. Keep your eyes to such people.

Some time ago Christian Stouffer, a citizen of Chambersburg, went out into his corn field on a Saturday evening, with a gun to get rid of dogs that had been breaking the corn down in chasing rabbits. A potato patch adjoined the corn-field, and to Stouffer's amazement, he there discovered two men raising potatoes. When he walked towards them they ran. He called on them to stop, but they ran on, into the corn. He discharged the gun at them, but he did not know that he had killed one of the party till on Monday morning, when he again went to the corn-field, and while passing over the ground where the thieves ran he came across the dead body of a man, dressed in a blue coat, and wearing a hat. He went to it and discovered it to be the body of a man who had been killed by the shot. He carried the body home, and it was found to be that of a man who had been killed by the shot. He carried the body home, and it was found to be that of a man who had been killed by the shot.

The following is from the Altoona Tribune of the 9th inst. People here believe that the man who was killed by Wesley McNew instead of John McNew.

Yesterday about noon Coroner Humes was called to hold an inquest on the body of John McNew, who was killed a few hours before on the railroad at Glen White. It appears from the testimony offered that McNew was a headman on the coke car which ran past a post which was standing but two inches from the edge of it, the deceased struck his head out to look back. It was caught and terribly crushed. He fell to the ground dead. The Coroner, accompanied by Dr. Walker, made an examination and a verdict of accidental death was returned. Deceased was a single man, aged about 45 years, and formerly a resident of Juniata county.

A make about ten inches long in a hydra in Lewistown, has led people to wonder what kind of other reptiles they may be drinking.
