

IN THE LONG RUN.

This old-fashioned saying... So slightly expressed... And carefully uttered...

The Fatal Quarrel.

But I say you shall not... And I say I will... The speakers were husband and wife...

Mount Washington.

The view from the top of Mount Washington... The highest peak of New England...

The Toilet of the Fly.

The toilet of the fly is a carefully attended to... as that of the most frivolous of human beings...

For the Jealous of Life.

Never indulge sacred things, or what others may esteem as such... never show levity when people are engaged in worship...

The Medical Ice Hat.

Dr. Richardson believed that by icing blood that went through the carotids to the brain and blood that came back through the jugulars... should directly lower the temperature of the brain itself...

Utily of Light-Ocean.

If you have ever crossed the ocean and have approached land in the night-time... you know something about the utility of light houses...

Feathers of a Bird.

Of a feather's lightness we may form some idea when we find that the largest quill of a golden eagle weighs only six or seven grains... and that seven such quills do not weigh more than a copper penny-quiz...

Walls of a Dozen of 'Em.

At a store in Virginia, Nevada, is a patent fly-blower, by Tricketts, or what is ever made of it... rather unique appearance... it rises somewhat in the shape of a tower or light-house from a central pedestal...

Dinner-Giving.

As a general rule, we believe that an apportioned dinner party is more agreeable to the hostess than the host... To a woman there is something pleasant in the fuss which precedes her entertainments...

A Flower Farm in England.

In a corner of the County of Essex, England, the Messrs. Carter, renowned throughout Great Britain and her dependencies as floriculturists, have established a farm devoted to the growth of flowers... These plants are not destined to adorn the gardens of the wealthier classes...

The Castle of Chillon.

A correspondent writes, to-day the Castle of Chillon was the point of attraction... This was accessible by rail or by the lake, and was frequented by thousands of people...
