VOL. XXXIV.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1880.

FADES THE DAYLIGHT.

Fades the daylight, and the shadows Slowly gather on the lawn : Now the night falls on the meadows An I the light of day is gone. In the darkness which enfolds me Tender memories come once more-How each thought enchains and holds me, Of the dear ones gone before

Not in pain and not in serrow Think I of the loved ones gone ; Every night has still a morrow. Darkness but precedes the dawn Were it not for heart-ties riven For the friends that come no more. There would be no hope of heaven In the bright forevermore

So while shadows darken o'er me, Sit I at the close of day : Love I, lost features are before me, Faces which have wassed away : Voices which made happy laughter Come again in tones of love, Sweet's echoes follow after-Twilight angels bend above. It is daylight which is failing. Licht of day which now must floo It is but the happy shading

Of a brighter day to be. So when twillight dreams have found ma Twilight voices fill the air, Loved, lost beings gather round me, And their forms are passing fair.

Magnolia's Lovers.

Magnolia Vane was a dark-haired, tropical-eyed young beauty, who had come up from an orange farm in Florida to spend a season in New York with her aunt.

"You see, Aunt Pen, I don't know anything at all," frankly acknowledged Miss Vane, "about people, and manners, and his brow. customs, you know. Of course I've had a governess and learned whole pages of ancient history, and exercise books, and all that sort of thing, but there isn't any soci | gaged!" ety at Orange Glade, and I'm a perfect barbarian.

Apparently, however, beautiful young hand lightly on Mr. Clifford's arm. barbarians in white silk and pearls suited "But," cried out Major Brabazon, in a became the fashion at once, you are ar engaged young lady." "Am I flirting?" said Magnolia, lifting then." society and its manners."

dence in the world. Major Brabazon, the fiance of this be- his reach. witching "belle sauvage," took matters Miss Vane went back to Florida in the it overwhelms each insect it touches and under him. As soon as the British, under up between his mother, a handsome old "Mamma," said she to her scandalized It is a bird of the Western hemisphere and despot in point lace, diamonds, and a parent, "so long as I am happy, what does despot in point lace, diamonds, and a parent, "so long as I am happy, what does Roman nose, and Magnolia's father, a it matter, whether my name is Smith or less than all other species of birds put todomineering Southerner, who believed that Jones, Brabazon or Clifford?" marriage in Floridian families, like royal "But my dear," groaned Mrs. Vane, "it alliances, should be arranged while the had all been planned since you were ten parties were yet in their cradles.

"Young people, my dear madame," said "Young people, my dear madame," said he, sententiously, to Mrs. Brabazon, "have own hand's, sometimes," said Mr. Wayne pomies, which are saddled and ridden no experience of their own. It is only Clifford. right that we should give them the benefit of ours." So, when Major Brabazon came to Orange Glade, Magnolia looked out at him

Orange Glade, Magnolia looked out at him

As by nuts in our own vernacular, when a humane invention, with a thin leather from beneath her dark, drooping lashes, differential adjective or the name of a strap for a thong, and devoid altogether of thinking how handsome he was, and secret-country is not prefixed, we understand al-alash; the ponies despise it utterly, and ly wondering what he thought of her. She ways the product of the Corylus Aveliana, although it makes a noise, it evidently does supposed, of course, she must be in love it may be interesting to what very different not hurt. Accustomed from his birth to with him-people always were in love with things are intended in the two Scriptural find his way over his wild mountain paswith nim—people always were in love with the men they married, weren't they? And when she heard that he had obtained leave the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the "Song of Solomon," the great natural—sure-footed as to give his rider a sense of the sense of the and all that sort of thing," said she. But Major Brabazon did not trouble himself especially to make the winter agreeable made me gardens and orchards and I plantself especially to make the winter agreeable made me gardens and orchards and I plantwhen crossing water upon a bridge of snow, solomon, though not proved to have come from his pen, when he informs us that "I safer way, being particularly on his guard out on horseback, attended by a small es-whom I may like better? And if I once begin systematically to devote myself to her shrine, she'll expect too much of me. I may see fit to break off the engagament I may see fit to break off the engagament took place probably at a very early period.

ly considering the situation. "Aunt Pen," said she, "when my uncle was engaged to you, how did he behave?" "he was devoted to me," said Aunt Pen mercial with a little natural pride.

Magnolia.

and parties?" "Of course he did."

much for granted."

"My dear!" remonstrated Mrs. Penfield. "He has never once alluded to our engagement since I have been in town," said Magnolia, biting her lip. "In fact, he rather avoids me than otherwise. Do you know, aunt, I think he's tired of me!"

"Nonsense, my love!" But while Major Brabazon was slowly cian? The adder. making up his mind whether be would When it is a drift. marry Miss Vane or not, there was another young gentleman engaged in the same so- he is out of patients. cial problem-Wayne Clifford, a handsome young artist with only his profession to de-

"Little gurl." said Uncle Penfield, putting Magnolia's cheek one day, as they it cannot see itself? A mirror. came home together from a morning concert. "take care." "Take care of what, Uncle Pen?" innocently demanded Magnolia.

"Of Wayne Clifford!" returned the old gentleman.

"Is he regarded as dangerous in an way?" solemnly questioned the girl.

"But you may be dangerous to him!" Magnolia looked up at her uncle with a shy, sudden glance, like a frightened bird-

Why is a fool in high station like a man him off with a "hypocrite" gold ring done in a balloon! Because everybody appears little to everybate. Well—it serves that conceited puppy late. Well—it serves that conceited puppy Brabazon right. That's all I have to say."

Just about that time Major Brabazor went to Boston in the train of a popular contralto singer, with whose yellow tresses

He returned, heartily disgusted and disenchanted, to New York.

the roar of Niagara Falls. Let me see—it's a week to-night since I left New York. I really suppose I ought to have told her shining afar. Waves of shifting blue shining afar. Waves of shifting blue Major Brabazon. "But—I think she's engaged, sir. Mrs. Penfield, I don't doubt, however -" argument as hopeless.

artist bending tenderly over her hand.

"What does this mean?" shortly de- fabric; gauze is not, and woven spider manded Major Brabazon, advancing into web would not, be half so aerial. the apartment with a lowering cloud upon the apartment with a lower cloud upon the apart

"It means," said she, that I am en, the New Yorkers, for Miss Magnolia Vane stifled voice, "you are promised to me!" "Oh, yes, that was in the old times," "Don't flirt, my dear," said Aunt Pen-said the heiress of Orange Glade, with sub- from my disengaged hand; but I directed field, gravely. "You must remember that lime indifference. "I have changed my no motion toward them more violent than the black velvet eyebrows that were arched "Ladies are always privileged to change ignorance with the most charming confi- And he had never realized how deeply he years old." "One must take these affairs in one's

The "Nuts" of the Old Testament. when she heard that he had obtained leave of absence from his regiment, and was to spend the winter also in New York, she was rather gratified than otherwise.

"Of course he'll take me to the opera "Of course he'll take me to the opera" the "Song of Solomon," the great natural-istre-toted as to give his rider a sense of this curious security, even in the most awkward places, and if left to himself he will never make a missake. He is as cautious as an eleganten would seem to have been one of the many of the same kind mentioned in the Pook of Ecclesiastes also ascribed to come and testing it with his fore foot; if distance will have to get thing "said she." Solomon, though not proved to have come ceed, and he turns aside to search for a self especially to make the winter agreeable to the young lady from Orange Glade.

"These early engagements are a confounded nuisance," said the Major. "Miss Vane is a pretty little girl nough—but how do I know that I may not see some one whom I may like better? And if I once whom I may like better? And if I once that it denoted the walnut—the nuit may not see some one whom I may like better? And if I once that it denoted the walnut—the nuit may not see some one whom I may like better? And if I once that it denoted the walnut—the nuit may not see some one whom I may like better? And if I once that it denoted the walnut—the nuit may not see some one whom I may like better? And if I once the tit denoted the walnut—the nuit may not see some one that it denoted the walnut—the nuit may not see some one that it denoted the walnut—the nuit may not see some one that it denoted the walnut—the nuit may not see some one that it denoted the walnut—the nuit may not see some one that it denoted the walnut—the nuit may not see some one that it denoted the walnut—the nuit may not see some one that it denoted the walnut—the nuit may not see some one that it denoted the walnut—the nuit may not see some one that the some that it denoted the walnut—the nuit may not see some one that the some that the neighborhood of boiling springs. Even where the ground was roughest I have not hesitated to throw the rather on the situated to throw the rather of the nuit may not see some one that the seems was qualified by springs. Even where the ground was roughest I have not hesitated to throw the rather of the nuit may not seemed to prevail among the mintaneous cort, for the scene of the fight. Upon their cort, for the scene of the fight. Upon their springs. Even where the ground was roughest I have not hesitated to throw the rather of the nuit may not see some one one the nuit A tree so remarkable alike for excellent Boggy ground is to a horseman always a While in her turn, Magnolia was solemn-produce, scent of foliage, and a handsome considering the situation.

The produce of foliage, and a handsome produce, scent of foliage, and a handsome by the country in June, 1878, could be conveniently carried in a carriage could be conveniently carried to conveniently carried could be conveniently carried to c notice of the early cultivators of plants, or that bogs could be avoided, and we were a be left to exist exclusively in its native good deal annoyed by dust and drifting

"Did he ever take you out?" questioned lagnoila.

"Everywhere."

"Everywhere." Everywhere.

"And haunt you like a shadow at balls everywhere, from Persia to the Himalayas, jogged along with great perseverance, looking in both countries like a native. Magnolia shook her head. "That isn't introduced into Britain, most probably by light color, dun, pale chestnut, white or > round the Lake of Genneserat. How does a stove feel when full of coals?

When is a boat like a heap of snow?

When is a doctor most annoyed? When When is a literary work like smoke? When it comes in volumes. Why is the letter G like the sun? Be ause it is in the center of light. What is that which shows others what Why is the letter N like a faithless Because it's in constant.

How does a cow become a landed tate? By turning her into a field. Why is whispering a breach of good manners? Because it is not aloud.

What is an old lady in the middle of the river like? Like to be drowned.

What word may be pronounced qui-y adding a syllable to it? Quick. Why is a miser like a man with a short nemory? Because he is always forgetting. How does a sailor know there is a man in the moon? Because he has been to sea

Humming Birds.

and china-blue eyes he had fallen despergreat center of attraction for the humming from the "fitful fever" of American househirds which come here from early morning. A glowing circle of balm in flower is a and china-blue eyes he had fallen desperately in love. But the contralto singer had found a Bostonian, with a longer pedigree, a deeper purse, and more settled intentions and go westward and return again, at frequent intervals, until after nightfall. I hardly get seated at my open window behad the right time and in the right manner. It is a frequent intervals and performed their duties with little noise, and the postal business of the young republic were conducted from efficiency to American house. It is a frequent intervals, until after nightfall. I hardly get seated at my open window behad the right time and in the right manner. to the matrimonial line than Miles Braba-zon possessed, and frowned ominously upon seems of the second, as if a boy were at hand with a second, as if a boy were at hand with a second, as if a boy were at hand with a second, as if a boy were at hand with a second warmen to do the work which half to make the wheel swiftly revolve. But a "After all," he decided, "there is no daintier or prettier to be seen than the one half so beautiful and winning as Mag- color, motions and enthusiasm of the humnolia Vane. I'll marry her at once; and ming bird when he is taking his repast. A we'll dream away our honey moon on the sitting on the air with his feet curled banks of the St. Lawrence river or under tightly up, and buoyant as a feather, mov-I was going away—but, fortunately, she is used the health of the sunlight, giving the effect of a suddenly transformed drapery, and when a suddenly transformed drapery and thoroughness. In Germany private institution, and had no connection the suddenly transformed drapery and he ordered the backman to drive to a suddenly transformed drapery, and when he turns to you in front, his red gorget, or than once in three or six months—and then throat-piece, glistens with the reduces of the is done by extra help hired for the occasion. "Yes, sir, she's at home," said the sol- is so surpassing swift I can think of no emn footman, looking rather curiously at winged motion like it. The bees would be The female bird of this specie (trochilus colubris)-the ruby throated dispenses with the red neckerchief, and it is said the "She'll see me," said Major Brabazon, young birds do not have it. In the autumn imperiously, and the footman gave up the the males in the young brood get a touch of of red color, but it is not until the follow-"Please to walk in sir," said he. And brilliancy. Recently both heads of the accordingly, Major Brabazon walked in. family dropped down upon the little balm yokes, with a chain and hook at each end, Uncle Penfield was reading the evening patch, and I saw that the female was a paper cozily in his own particular corner much more demure and less aggressive by the lamp. And in the middle of the character than her gay lord. In size she room sat Magnolia Vane, with the young when used to buoy them up, seem more like a fine mist or vapor than like any

No. — Lexington avenue, where Mrs.

Miss Vane arose and made a sweeping almost always choose a dry twig, or one of the place was peaceful and drowsy.

Almost always choose a dry twig, or one of the place was peaceful and drowsy.

Piggapa coved, swallows twittered, from pedestal. When one sits thus for a moment-it is never long-you will see him morn until night. These, and the musical wipe his bill on both sides against the twig branch two or three times, as if he wished cattle and the muffied rumble of wagons "No; to this gentleman." laying her to be relieved of the protruding honey, after which ceremony he will strike as direct a line as possible for his nest. Both sional shriek of a locomotive was the only took a seat recently on a little bush which reminder of a world outside this Sleepy pushes nearly into my window a distance Hollow of a place. of not over three or four feet, respectively mind on a good many subjects since the glance of my eye, which they bore for the usual space without flinching, and then took flight. The diet of the humaning bird from the West Indies with the purpose of is composed of insects and honey inciden- landing on the shores of Chesapeake Bay so perfectly. "Dear Aunt, you must tell me these things, for I know so little about a bow that was truly Chesterfieldian." Is composed of insects and noney incident tally, and they do the flowers a service in removing them. Audubon says their determined for the safety of the capital by was in love with her until she was beyond its protruding, double-tubed tongue is coverned with a "glutnous saliva," by which scattered over quite a large area of country,

In order to travel with speed and comalternately, while the loose horses and those carrying the baggage are driven forward in a fittle herd, with shouts and Twice in the authorized version of the cracking of whips. Spurs are unknown, country. Solomon's great love of com- sand. The posies got nothing to eat, exmercial enterprise would be sufficient to cept the scanty herbage by the wayside, account for the introduction of it, at all abounding especially in Cashmere. It is making up for little food with much drink found also in Asia Minor and in Greece, at the numerous streams which they had to of gush has been written about the preser-looking in both countries like a native. ford. Iceland ponies are generally of a variou of this picture. Even Mr. Lossing. like Miles Brabazon at all." said she.

Think," very slowly, "he takes too itself at home with that one might also be many good qualities, and are as well adapted for the peculiar country which tempted sometimes to think it aboriginal. piebald; under a rough exterior they hide as saying to a couple of gentlemen who in-In the time of Josephus it grew in profusion they inhabit as is the noblest thorough-ored do not let it fall into the hands of the Britof Arabia. A vicious animal is almost un- ish.' known, and a dealer in ponies, who has passed more of them through his hands Commodore Barney's men stood the blunt When is a wall like a fish? When it is than anybody else in the business assured of it for some time. He was finally woundme that he has not encountered more than one. The endurance of the little nags is astonishing; they will keepup a steady jog men fled in all directions, throwing away Which of the reptiles is a mathemati- for hours together and will travel on through the long summer days of Northern latitudes their coats to the ground the better to facilwith no other sustenance than may be litate flight. Most of them came through picked up during an hour's midday halt. A Begagement Ring.

"Say, mister," as he walked up to the proprietor of a jewelry store, who stood behind the counter, "have you got any of these here finger rings-these here-these

-oh, I forgit what you call 'em?"
"Gold rings?" asked the proprietor. "No, not quite gold rings-oh, yes, hypocrite gold rings; that's it." 'Can't understand what you mean by that," said the proprietor, with a stare. "I mean," said the young man, "this kind of gold that looks like gold and isn't gold; this here kind that most everybody s wearin' nowadays. I want a ring for my girl, and I want you to scratch on the maide Jim Brown to Sallle Jones. Don't care what it costs; you can go as high as half a dollar for it all if you want to. It's begagement ring."

The boss took it all in, and soon fixed

The routine of life was quiet, even monotonous, but to an American woman, fresh now nearly completed, stands, on the from the "fitful fever" of American housetin wheel on a string, which he pulls so as to make the wheel swiftly revolve. But a that number would be required to perform close look reveals a much more animated mechanism than that. There is nothing other hand, it must be stated that taey have not half our conveniences. The utensils are primitive and cumbrous, and they have much to "fetch and carry;" but looking at results, one can only indulge in an envious and useless sigh. The absence of the Government." Some of these note those pests of American housekeeping, the weekly washing and ironing day, is one ish, and Gen. Ross believed it to be a Gov. reason why the German servants are able to go about their work with so much more when a citizen informed him that it was a flame-like flower he salutes. His motion work, according to my observations, the try woman of yours. On Monday of the week devoted to this sole support of a poor Irish widow, a counwomen came and began preparations. The clothes, etc., were sorted under the supervision of the lady's-maid or housekeeper; the wood laid ready for lighting under the great boiler in the wash-house and every tub, hogshead, etc., filled with water. The water was pumped laboriously and brought from some distance in cumbrous buckets. The carriers were upon their shoulders for this purpose heavy wooden yokes, like oxto which the full buckets were attached. The next morning at three o'clock they were at work, busy as bees, and out chat tering the swallows in the 1vy which grev about the wash-house eaves. Wash-boards,

Capture of Washington.

and thirteen armed barges, and sailed up troops down the pike toward Washington.

In July, 1814, it was rumored that a

The Feminine Foot. those instruments of destruction, were unknown, all rubbing being done between their horny knuckles. The ironing is done wil in Germany by means of a mangle, where Pigeons cooed, swallows twittered, from baying of the hounds, the lowing of distant which the ear became attuned. The occa-

> his lady-love's health in a shoe he had stolen from her, and at this day it is a prac bronze and use it for a paper-weight. large force of British soldiers had sailed shortened by the stitched lines and other devices, a small, symmetrical foot is secured. command of Gen. Ross, who was aftermain without fainting during a sir Chesapeake, Gen. Winder became impressed with the fact that Washington would be can be done by delusion that a No. 5 Loot "But what can I do

Commodore Barney came up the the Poto-There are boots sold in New York City for that stream to its head waters, where he militiamen besides. The number of Commodore Barney's men is not given. On the night of the 23d of August, 1814 It was with blue silk lacings, tied with lovely night of the 23d of August, 1814 It was known in Washington that the British were and banded horizontally, with inch wide Biadensburg, a village about six miles from filled with the finest goods, fancy silk and Washington. Gen. Ross was marching his At about eight o'clock on the morning of the 24th the Cabinet met at the Executive ental satins, heels four inches high, and in-Mansion preparatory to a visit to the battlepedicure, who steps to the front with his

> After all, it is the willing feet, the help ing feet,-the feet that are swift to do er rands of mercy—the "beauteous feet" climbing the hill of Zion, or of difficulty, hat are the most value in the world. There are feet for whose step loving hearts watch and wait, and when they come it is like the listlessly along, and there are feet that res from their labors.

Raiser Joseph and the Spielberg.

Montpelier, Va. Before her departure she directed two servants, John Lowri and Up to a a few decades ago Austria divided with Russia the honor of poseessing Thomas McGrath, to remain in the buildsome of the worst dungeons in Europe, ing and, in case it was fired by the troops and perhaps the most terrible of these to save the famous portrait of Washington, living tombs was the Spielberg of Brunn. Major von Rosanegg, of the Engineer Staff, they could not save the picture with its frame, cut it out and secreted it. It now hangs in the White House. A vast amount in one of his books, describes Mrs. Madison "Save that picture; save or destroy it, but The battle began at about noon, and their arms and equipments, and dashing moodily waiting for release or death, their coats to the ground the better to facil-Washington, and dispersed toward different points in Maryland and Virginia. Mr. act of passing the first door and proceeding Madison followed his wife. Every ablebodied man in Washington, excepting the bade him open the cell. The visitors were Roman Catholic priest, had gone to the front. When they returned most of them found that their families had already fled from the city. The British entered the finement in solitude and darkness, and gibcity about eight p. m. While marching bered and mouthed fearfully. The next down Maryland avenue toward the Capitol cell a model of the first, was empty, and a shot was fired from a private house owned the Emperor without a moments hesitation, by a gentleman named Sewall at Gen. Ross. insisted upon being locked up alone for an He was not hurt. His horse was killed, hour in it. Remonstrance was useless and me near enough to ye," said she. however, and the troops surrounded the the imperial will had to be obeyed. The Hill, where the Botanical Gardens are now located. That night they fired the Capitol and Executive Mansion. The light of the conflagration was seen, it is said, as far as Balumore, forty miles distant. Only the walled up." The Imperial command was solved, and next morning came the stone-walls of the buildings were left standing.

On the following morning the British set fire to the Treasury, a two-story brick of the first words he said were, "I am the last months, an' phoy wudn't I throy to see glare. To their great surprise the boys and Caiherine. "You're pretty n-ar right there, Katie," "Suppose we say three months this time."

"You're pretty n-ar right there, Katie," "Suppose we say three months this time."

"You're pretty n-ar right there, Katie," it was fine sport. The old beavers gave of skill a hittle beyong one rides on their broad flat tails obeyed, and next morning came the stone-months this time."

"Plaze yersel', Yer Honor, an' ye'll all sliding down very rapidly, Just then one of the boys sneezed, when the beavers one of the boys sneezed, when the beavers one of the boys sneezed, when the beavers to pay double freight across that the trade of the boys sneezed the properties and the country of the months, an' phoy wudn't I throy to see glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To their great surprise the boys say the glare. To

"I Guess I'll go Aloot." Half an hour before the departure of a lake in private residences. They were not harmed after firing the War and Navy De partments. Gen. Ross marched his troop "Are they all right?" to the cornor of Fifteenth and F street and "They are." "Can your crew launch a life boat?" by the Bank of the Metropolis, now the "They can. National Metropolitan Bank. This institu "Is your life raft all right?" tion had loaned the Government $300,000 and the plate from which its notes wer "Is the fire hose all ready for instant s > in case of disaster? "He will." "Do you call yourself a cool and collected man in the presence of danger?

this honest citizen, as the story goes, "il do in case of a terrible gale or fire? you burn this property you will destroy the "I do." "She must be a poor frish widow to own such a valuable property in Washington, "And will your crew stand by and obey said Gen. Ross savagely, but he did no destroy the building.

The British remained in camp here about "They will," "Are your green and red lights forty-eight hours, and then left the city by the same route they had entered it. "They are." demonstrations were made against them but they appeared to fear the return of the bounds!

shown before.

American troops in large numbers and animated with more courage than they had and Pennsylvania avenue, The War and Navy Department buildings, which were built where the present imposing structure,

There is no doubt that the foot plays a nost important part in social life; often wields an influence over destiny. We are speaking now strictly of the feminine foot, upon which so much time, labor and expense are lavished. In dancing it becomes vocal and expresses a whole language of sentiment used to emphasize emotion, it gesticulates with startling force, and a over who hesitates to anneunce his devotion can be brought to an immediate avowal by the transitory, but maddening glimpse of a dainty foot, encased in pink, silk-embroidered hose, and Mignon slippers thrust distractingly forward.

A story is on foot of a courtier who drank tice with the young bloods who ape the manners of the French regime to have the foot of their favorite east in marble

There are no people in the world so exacting in the matter of feet as actresses, and it is largely true of them they do not have patrician feet, but they have artists for shoemakers, and by dunt of pinching and compressing, wearing patent heel and toe bands, having the heel under the middle of the foot and the leagth of the upper It happens, however, with some of our best actresses, that they can only endure the when their stage dresser i noves the shoe get drunk on. Oh, I'll catch it, sir, if you

Mr. Madison, and 15,000 minutes of spinal and brain diseases can ten the Maryland, Virginia and the District of the story.

Columbia were placed at his disposal.

Beautiful feet require fine adornings. There are boots sold in New York City for $125 a pair. They are imported from Paris, and the cloth is a mixture of gold tears at this point. Tell her that I called they are flying with an apparently settled they are flying with an apparently settled they are flying with an apparently settled. that stream to its head waters, where he thought he was safe from pursuit, and joined his forces to those of Gen. Winder. Gen. Ross marched through Mariborough directly upon Washington. Mr. Lossing says that Gen. Winder had 3,000 effective men. He probably had 4,000 ineffective militamen besides. The number of Commilitamen besides. The number of Commilitamen besides. The number of Commilitamen and the cloth is a mixture of gold tear at his point. Tell her that I called her dear name as I went down for the last time. Watch and see if that melts her. If I can get her all broken de wn and overcome l'il bust in on her and get her forgiveness before she gets over wiping her pair are worn with them. A pair of boots made for Annie Louise Carry, to wear in this word and the cloth is a mixture of gold her dear name as I went down for the last time. Watch and see if that melts her. If I can get her all broken de wn and overcome l'il bust in on her and get her forgiveness before she gets over wiping her pair are worn with them. A pair of boots made for Annie Louise Carry, to wear in this point. Tell her that I called her dear name as I went down for the last time. Watch and see if that melts her. If I can get her all broken de wn and overcome l'il bust in on her and get her forgiveness before she gets over wiping her are worn with them. A pair of boots made for Annie Louise Carry, to wear in the pair of the dear name as I went down for the last time. Watch and see if that melts her. If I can get her all broken de wn and overcome l'il bust in on her and get her forgiveness before she gets over wiping her are worn with them. A pair of boots in the pair of the carry and the carry a opera, are of light blue satin, soft and thick. I think Mary will melt under your soft and banded horizontally, with inch wide wife that her husband was hiding in the ribbons of gold braid. The feet may well alley, and then took a position where he be handsome now, for there is everything could witness what followed. He had them, and, to your amazement, if they are to deal with is the lady who says that "she fancy boots and slippers; opera-ties, walk, tance by the wife, armed with a loe-haning ties, patent leather and kid shoes, die. There were no words spoken, but > salves and instruments when nature becomes obstreperous.

has just published an interesting tittle more wretches, ill-clothed and dirty, sat described, and to strip it off the plate. ground cells-dark, clammy and reeking, with evil smells. The jailer was in the house and burned it to the ground. Who heavy door was slammed, so the others refired the shot has never been discovered.

tired and the monarch was left to himself.

The troops encamped at the foot of Capitol

When they came at the end of the hour Hill, where the Botanical Gardens are now Kaiser Joseph looked sick and ill. The warn't ye the lasht to gumme me three was reflected from the ice with a great here expressly to be finished. It seems that steamer from her wharf at Detroit the cap-tain was approached by a stranger who had been inspecting the boat from the dock for the last ten minutes, Introducing himself as a would be passenger, he asked:

"Captain, is this boat provided with life-

"She is."

"Will your engineer stand to his pos

"I do. "Do you know exactly what you would

"Can the mate be depended on to second all your efforts?" "He can."

"Machinery in perfect order?"

"It is." "Going to overload the boat?" "No, sir." "Expect to do any racing?" "Is she fixed to blow off at forty-six

"She is." "Donkey engine working all right?" "It is." The stranger heaved a deep sigh and was walking away when the captain asked if his baggage was aboard. "No, and I guess I'll go afoot," was the reply. "Every boat which has burned up or gone down for the last five years had inthebox!" reply. everything in the neatest kind of order, and I'll either look for a craft making six feet of water an hour or run the risk of going

The Melting Business." just back of a tumbledown rookery, a nember of the sanitary police squad found man lying under a wagon and inquired if he was ill. The man pointed to the old ouse, cautioned the officer to speak low, "I'm the husband of the woman you see anging out clethes over there. "And why are you hiding here?"

"I've been off on a spree for a whole "Ah! I see. It is the return of the pro-"Wuss than that, sir. The prodigal had no wife and didn't steal the rent me

"But what can I do?" with the fact that Washington would be assaulted. He communicated his fears to the footlights. The doctors who treat spinal and brain diseases can tell the rest watch house and say that you have news for ner. Watch her face and see how she takes it. Then tell her it is about me. Watch and the mouth house and say that you have news for her. Then tell her it is about me. Watch and see if she gets white around the mouth. Tell her that you have news that I was words. The officers slipped around and told the the man simply threw up clouds of dust curtly observed:

Inversion of Gelatine Negatives M. Izard's method consists in making two layers of caoutchouc dissolved in benzine; when the first of these layers is dry and wait, and when they come it is like the he interposes a film of ordinary collodion coming of sweet, glad music. There are containing about 1-5 per cent of pyroxyline, heavy feet borne down by sorrow that drag and covers it with the second layer of caoutchouc, this latter being itself again coated with a film of ordinary collodion. When this is finished, strips of the peculiar black paper called papier a' aiguilles are glued all round the plate, so as to forat a breaks up, but only shortly to reunite frame of the required dimensions, and the whole is then allowed to become thoroughly dry. If now it be desired to at once tranfer the negative, it is only necessar, to cut through the layer along the outer edge of the paper frame, and by raising one of the corners of the pellicle with the point of ,a volume on this now unused fortress. One knife the whole may be stripped off in one charming and authentic tale is worth repeating. It was in 1783—the first centenbeen taken to let the paper get perfectly of 1841-2, rescued an Afghan pilgrim from did not prove successful. The first glass ary, therefore, of the deliverance from the Turks—and Kaiser Joseph in person made an incognita visit to the Spielberg to inquire himself who was deserving of free-processes we are enabled to get films quire himself who was descrying of freedom. For the centenary was to be marked by the release of prisoners. Colonel Count Auersperg was his aid-de-Camp. Jailer Cyrill received his orders from the Gover- increase of prisoners from the Gover- increase of prisone Cyrill received his orders from the Gover- inversion while leaving the pillicle acherent nor to show the two gentlemen the prison, to the glass plate on which a negative and led the way down the dark passages, a image has been taken; and when we wish mighty bunch of keys in his hand. After to invert the negative, we have only to cut viewing many sad chambers, where one or through the edges of the film as above

Easily Suited. When Catherine was arraigned before the Police Court, New York, a smile of recognition spread over the face of His

"Yis, sor, since I cudn't go wudout seein' me old frinds wanst in a whoile," said "That's right, Katie, but you shouldn't som get drunk in order to see them." said the

"Back again, Katie," said His Honor.

"Sure I cudn't get Yer Honor to luk at me, av I didn't, for the officers wudn't lave "That's a lame excuse, Katie" said the fire to the Treasury, a two-story brick dread cells from the rest of the world. building of modest dimensions, which stood where the present Treasury building is abolished the Spleiberg as a State prison rather late in the day to begin to be particular about a throffic av a month now."

In as one of the boys sneezed, when the beavers trade now demands. It is believed the base of the six feet.

It is believed the base of the world. It is believed the base of the miss of the boys sneezed, when the beavers trade now demands. It is believed the base of the boys sneezed, when the beavers trade now demands.

It is believed the base of the boys sneezed, when the beavers trade now demands. It is believed the base of the boys sneezed, when the beavers trade now demands. It is believed the base of the boys sneezed, when the beavers trade now demands. It is believed the base of the boys sneezed, when the beavers trade now demands.

Mayor Cooper's Nickel

Mayor Cooper, of New York, was recentknown as the "bell punch" and "cash box" bulation wan, ers out through the windows to consort with the confussed noise of the great city. Again, in cadence less musical,

With copious remarks of an impolite nature the driver flings open the front door and yells:-

"Dropanickelinthebox!" His Honor, having finished Jim Blaine's raises his eyes to see what is the matter. "Say, young fellow, get yer fare into howled the driver, looking ore, was far from being a application in straight at the Mayor."

His Honor looked to his left, but saw no young fellow. A fat boarding house keeper of a popular error, that Thackeray, who was grinning at him, and noticing his surprise broke out into a snicker. "Blank, blank, blank yer blanked immortal part," said the driver, "d'ye intend pay vur fare or not?" Mayor. "Yes, I'm talkin' to you. Dropanickle-

"I have dropped my fare in the box," said His Honor. "You don't look like a fellow that'd try to through a railroad bridge. Good-by, captain—I shall look into the dailies all this week to see who of your passengers were saved?"

"You don't look like a fellow that'd try to to be yes: "Was not good Dr. Guillotine executed by his own neat invention?" Now, nothing, I suppose, is more certain the side of the door.

The Mayor, who was recognized by sev-In an alley off Hastings street, Detroit, had paid his fare and would not be imposed that he many a year yet, the real human French had paid his fare and would not be imposed that he many a year yet, the real human French The argument continued for some seconds, the driver meanwhile animadverting on the baseness of the man who would wear a new fall overcoat and try to beat trap. At this juncture a passenger entered and dropped his nickel into the box. On looking down into the receptacle the driver found two coins there, and the mystery was explained. The Mayor's money had led down by the new comer's deposit.

dentity of the per ey to reverently called "young fellow," and his only remark was: "I wonder will the old man complain agin me.

more correct to call it, a "fling"—of Dun-everybody will reply, "Any part," "It lins on the wing is a sight as curbous as it makes no difference," or words to the same they are flying about hither and thither over purpose from one place to another, but when the breast, he becomes an enemy of the the banks in a "fling" of from a few hun-carver for life, and nothing can disabuse hundreds up to thousands in the flock, that their of the impression that he had been wanwonderful lightness and activity on the tonly insulted. It is far better to boldly wing are seen to such advantage as to help people without making any pretence strike even the most casual beholder with of consulting their wishes. They will then admiration. At one moment the spectator regard the carver as a rude and careless sees at a distance a dense, dark body mov- host; but they will acquit him of any ining rapidly along, which a practised eye at tention to impress open insults upon his once sees is a large flock of sand larks. Watch guests. Perhaps the most difficult person hardly secured it when the man came down some distance off, the rapidly moving dark prefers a leg." In the presence of this trythe ailey on a gallop, followed at a short dis-tinee by the wife, armed with a hoe-han-tinee by the wife, armed with a hoe-hanflock simultaneously turning their sides and she abhors chicken legs, and expresses for the edges only of their wings to the spectaemon-colored, old gold, lavender and Ori-ental satins, heels four inches high, and in-steps that form a royal arch, and a faithful and as he passed the officer he somewhat a shadow, the birds reappear, the nock comes into full view as at first, and one is wondering what the next change may be, when instantaneously every bird in the whole flight, turning its white under surface town abnormal fondness for legs, she feels ard the spectator, almost dazzles him with herself outraged if legs are withheid from a momentary flash of bright silvery white- her, and decides that the carver is a seltish ness; the appearance of the flock under brute, who has not sufficient decency to rethis aspect having been most aptly com-pared to a shower of new shillings. These graceful and attractive evolutions are often repeated, each change being a surprise; for, and how much miscellaneous misery has owing to the constantly varying shape of been suffered merely because the duty of the flock, which one moment may be in a carving has been placed in the hands of long-drawnout line, and perhaps the next fathers of American families. in a round ball, no two of the movements are exactly alike. The flock, if large, often

A Good Deed Rewarded. Many curious stories are told of the influence exercised by the Afghan chiefs over for destruction. But, to his amazement, he remained unburt amid the hottest fire, eral of the enemy disarmed and dragged The chief in question proved to be indentieal with the rescued pilgrim—a disguise nearly $45,750,000. assumed to aid his designs against the Engiish-and the officer, having been hospitably entertained, was dismissed without ran-moonlight nights. Therefore they crept "No, sur, oh no. Sure warn't ye the went to the home of the beavers. At the fusht Judge that gemme me tin days, and dam which the beavers had built the moon of Sheffield razor "blanks" are now sent

Beavers Coasting.

NO. 41.

This machine, which was brought into charged in with an offense with which use in the early period of the French Revohis worst enemy never accused the late lution, is not altogether a modern invention. Similar contrivances were in use in several days of the Ring those hateful contrivances parts of Europe during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, if not before. Achad not been invented as standing affronts to the notorious probity of conductors and drivers of cars of the bob-tailed species, but even if they had it is doubtful if he would have been deemed capable of trying to styled Fallbeil, falling hatchet. A representation of its containing the style of the style sentation of it may be seen in two old en-The history of this most dreadful bloton the municipal escutchen is briefly told.

Mayor Cooper enters a Bleecker street grever, bearing the date of 1553—and also "hob-tail" car just opposite the Register's in an old picture, which, according to Reif-office, and so easy is the grace with which he slings hunself on the back platform that the driver first notices him sitting midway grapher of Louis XII. of France, marrating on the left hand seat absorbed in the Herald dispatches from Maine. Thinking to awaken him to the duty of the hour he sounds a volley on his tinkling bell. The Mayor pays no attention, and the tintinnascribed by Pere Labat in his "Voyage en Espagne et en Italie en 1730." The same had been introdued into Southern France; but even more emphatic, the bobtail driv-er's bell responds to his vigorous jerk, but he minds of the foremost man of New tion of Montmorency in 1632. A similar York is in Skowhegan and Androscoggin, and he hears it not.

Contrivance existed in the Netherlands. The "Maiden" of Scotland, which was used in the decapitation of the Regent Morton in 1581, and is still preserved in the Museum of the Antiquarian Society at Edinburg, was an instrument akin to those above mentioned; and either it, or His Honor, having finished Jim Blaine's at least the pattern of it, has been brought explanation to Garfield of how it happened, from abroad by the very man who suffered by it. The decapitating machine, there-fore, was far from being a novelty when 1789. was evidently well acquainted with French history and French affairs generally, should, in his "Philip," chapter sixteen, have fallen into the common mistake of 'Are you speaking to me?" asked the supposing that Dr. Guillotine perished by means of the instrument that bears his name, but which he did not, as Thackersy says, invent. Thackeray does not actually assert that Guillotine died on the guillotine but he puts it in the form of a question, the answer to which is, of course, intended revolution many years, and died a natural eral persons on the car, protested that he death in 1814. I fear, however, that for physician is doomed "to point moral and adorn a tale," along with Perillus and others who have fallen into their own

Prefers a Leg.

When at last the work of carving is done, the delicate and difficult duty of helping" begins. There can be no peace caught on the top of the box and was jost-led down by the new comer's denosit.

of mind for the man who helps his family and his occasional guests to any food, ex-The driver was subsequently informed of cept soup or oysters, both of which can be accurately and fairly divided. In the case There is no rule in this matter, beyond that of giving the chicken's legs to the boys which can be followed. To ask people what part of the chicken they prefer is simply madness. Either everybody who tells the truth, and demand the b. st cut, in which case, all but one will be exasperated To witness a large flight-or, as it is by failing to have their wish gratified, or

The first glass factory in America was erected in 1609 near Jamestown, Va., and the second followed in the same colony twelve years later. In 1639 some acres of ground were granted to glassmen in Salem, Mass., probably the first year of the industheir followers, among the most striking of try which was prosecuted there for many some British soldiers who were handlinghim did not prove successful. The first glass roughly. The pilgrim warmly thanked factory west of the Alleghenies was set up hero saw one of the enemy point to him re-peatedly, and concluded himself singled out 1810 there were twenty-two glass factories in the country, with an annual product while his men were dropping around him valued at $1,047,000. There are now like leaves, those who had molested the pil-grim being the first to fall: At length sev-ing eight times as much glass. According to the returns received under the recent him down by main force, checking those who wished to kill him by declaring him 210, 554 tons of table and other glassware; to be under the protection of their chief, and the window-glass works produce 2,-644,440. The total value of the product is

Hollow Ground Razors

It is not long since it was confidently asserted toat, even if the required quality of sicel could be produced here, the United States could never compete with England Two boys who live in the State of Iowa cutlery, owing to the excessive cost of in the manufacture of razors and other fine once concluded to see what beavers did on granding and finishing. Like a good many other "insuperable" obstacles to American through the snow just about midnight and success in the art, this seems to have been

> It is believed that the word "never" has been crippled for life.