

TERMS. Subscription, $1.50 per annum in paid...

GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY AND Mounted Torch-Light Parade!

A Republican Meeting and Torch-Light Parade will be held at MIFFLINTOWN, ON Friday Evening, October 29, 1880.

MEETING.—There will be a Republican meeting held in Arch Rock school house, in Fermanagh township, on Wednesday evening, October 27th, 1880.

MEETING.—There will be a Republican meeting at McAllisterville on Thursday evening, October 28, 1880.

MEETING.—A Republican meeting will be held at East Salem, on Monday evening, November 1, 1880.

DEMOCRATIC GENERAL ORDER NO. "329."

WE pledge ourselves anew to the Doctrines and Traditions of the Democratic Party, as illustrated by the teachings and examples of a long line of Democratic Statesmen and Patriots.

THE LONG LINE.

Jeff Davis, James Buchanan, John B. Floyd, Robert Toombs, Jake Thompson, Gen. Lee, Wade Hampton, Yellow Fever Blackburn, Wilkes Booth, Beauregard, Fort Pillow Foreard, Butler Chambers, Vallandigham, Adam Sedgwick, Butler, Butler, John C. Breckinridge, Wirtz, Lamar, Preston Brooks, Josselyn, Wm. H. English, Ben Hill, Rufus T. Wey.

THE DOCTRINES.

Slavery, Slave Territory, Fugitive Slave Slave Law, Dred Scott Decision, State Rights, Free Trade, Greenbacks are Rag-wounds, Rag Baby, the War a Failure, Ohio Idea, No Coercion, No Negro Suffrage, No Resumption.

THE TRADITIONS.

Sanbury, Belle Isle, Andersonville, Libby Prison, Knights of the Golden Circle, Ku-Klux, Chisholm Massacres, Night Riders, Red Shirts, Yazooism, Rebel Brigadiers, Shot-Gun Policy, Mississippi Plan Tissue Ballots.—You vote, We count.—Tilden and Reform. Coercionism, Buchanan's Miles, Garretism, O'Connor Legislation, Saint Chigham, O'Connor Legislation, Nationalization, Alabama 95,000-Rep-put Nationalization, Rebel Claims, Rooming Majority, Rebel Claims, Rooming for Rebels.

REAL SOLDIERS UNION SOLDIERS

Senate Vote, April 17, 1880; For, Democrats, 31. Against, Republicans, 25. House Vote, May 29, 1880; For, Democrats, 78. Against, Republicans, 75. Lost Cause, Solid South, Northern Muds and Greasy Mechanics. In the shade of the principles for which Lee and Jackson fought.

A Cordial Invitation.

The Republican campaign club of Harrisburg have arranged for a magnificent demonstration on the evening of October 25th (Thursday) as a final rally of the Republican forces of Central Pennsylvania.

Agents Wanted

Agents Wanted to sell the first, authentic low priced book containing the lives of JAMES A. GARFIELD and CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

SHORT LOCALS.

Get out every vote. Vote for Lemon and Green. 329 Stopped. Vote for Fisher. A cubit is two feet. Vote for Fisher. A fathom is six feet. Vote for Lemon. This is inspection week on the railroad. A pace is three feet. Vote for Pomeroy. Vote for Groninger for County Surveyor. Corn husking in earnest. Vote for Fisher. One vote may change the result of the election.

GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY

A palm is three inches. Vote for Groninger. A great cubit is eleven feet. Vote for Garfield and Arthur. A league is three miles. Vote for Fisher. There are 2,750 languages. Vote for Garfield and Arthur. Oats, thirty-three pounds per bushel.—Vote for Pomeroy. Bran, twenty pounds per bushel. Vote for Groninger. Barley, forty-eight pounds per bushel.—Look out for bogus tickets. A day's journey is thirty-three and one-eighth miles. Vote for Fisher. Two persons die every second. Examine your ticket. Sound moves 743 miles per hour. Vote for Pomeroy. A storm blows thirty-six miles per hour. Vote for Lemon. Snow rivers flow five miles per hour. Vote for Fisher. A hurricane moves eighty miles per hour. Look out for bogus tickets. An acre contains 4,840 square yards.—Vote for Sanley. A span is ten and seven-eighths inches. Vote for Green. The campaign cometh to an end. Vote for Garfield and Arthur. Save us all from seventy cents of a shavé. Vote for Fisher. John Etka caught a five-pound bass. Vote for Pomeroy. Philo Pannebaker shot two wild turkeys, one day last week, on Shade mountain. Vote for Groninger. The river is low. Vote the whole Republican ticket. Remember the Democratic promises on the tariff in 1844. Vote for Pomeroy. Remember the promises of James Buchanan to a Free Kansas. Vote for Fisher. A hand (horse measure) is four inches. Vote for Sanley. Buckwheat, fifty-two pounds per bushel. Vote for Fisher. Coarse salt, eighty-five pounds per bushel. Vote for Pomeroy. The first lucifer match was made in 1829. Vote for Sanley. The paper of Jimmy Walls was shaved 70 per cent. Vote for Fisher. Nice and consistent Greenbacker, to vote for a hard note shaver. Vote for Fisher. Corn, rye and flaxseed, fifty-six pounds per bushel. Vote for Pomeroy. Wheat, beans and cloverseed, 60 pounds per bushel. Vote for Sanley. A tub of butter weighs eighty-four pounds. Vote for Garfield and Arthur. A barrel of rice weighs 600 pounds. Vote for Groninger. A firkin of butter weighs fifty-six pounds. Look at your ticket. A barrel of flour weighs 196 pounds.—Vote for Green. A barrel of pork weighs 300 pounds.—Vote for Lemon. A rifle ball moves at the rate of 1,000 miles per hour. Vote for Pomeroy. A rapid river flows seven miles per hour. Vote for Fisher. The first horse railroad was built in 1826 and 1827. Vote for Sanley. William Wallace will have a successor elected by the next Legislature of this State. Vote for Pomeroy. William Banks, of Fermanagh township, has stabled a herd of western steers. Vote for Fisher. The Democratic party have always been for free trade or for a revenue tariff. Vote for Garfield and Arthur. The Republican meeting on the evening of the 25th in Mifflintown promises to be a grand triumph. Vote for Fisher. Remember the Democratic cry in 1856, Buchanan and Free Kansas. Vote for Garfield and Arthur. A square mile contains 640 acres. Look out for the deceiver in tickets; he and the 329 find are first cousins. The Post 134 Band held a cake-walk in the Court House on Saturday evening. Vote for Fisher. You talk great risks in voting the Democratic ticket, but you take no risk by voting the Republican ticket. There is a rush to Straver's store in Patterson, to see the splendid stock of new clothing. Professor A. L. Guss addressed the Garfield and Arthur Club in this place on Monday evening. It was a lively address. The people are running out from under the Hancock and English Free Trade and Cobden Club dead-fall. The time to talk of the vexed question of "Who is the author of 'The Beautiful Snow'?" is about here. Vote for Pomeroy. The broken board sidewalks in this town should be repaired before some one breaks a limb, and brings suit for damages. Vote for Lemon. The Republican meeting at Port Royal last Thursday evening was a grand affair. Come to Mifflintown on the evening of the 29th. Vote for Fisher. The average human life is thirty-one years. There is to be a man in every district with mixed tickets to deceive voters. Examine your ticket. Electricity moves 228,000 miles per hour. That's at the rate the 329 finds will hunt their holes in November. Vote for Garfield and Arthur. Timothy seed, forty-five pounds per bushel. Examine your ticket, and then you will know that you vote as you desire to vote. Vote for Pomeroy. Long evenings; just the time to have a good county paper to read. Subscribe for the Sentinel and Republican, the best paper in the county, and vote for Pomeroy. It is reported that Mr. Spear has never paid the money that he subscribed toward the erection of a Dunker school building in this place of Harrisburg. Vote for Fisher. A Minnesota farmer who has five grown-up daughters, has named the county on a claim that his residence has been used as a "court-room" for the past two years. Vote for Groninger.

SHORT LOCALS.

CARDS.—Fancy illustrated cards, by popular American artists. Sent to A. M. Collins, Cope & Co., No. 35 and 37 Beekman street, New York. The Democracy and the Golden Club, and the Southern Brigadiers are one and the question of free trade. Vote for Garfield and Arthur. A moderate wind blows seven miles per hour, and the gale from the north in November will blow away the cross and crown and the 329 idiot. Gold was first discovered in California in 1848. Democratic leaders discovered the English Cobden Club gold in —. Vote for Garfield and Arthur. Capt. William Fry is visiting New York and Philadelphia this week, laying in a large stock of staple goods for his store in Mexico. Look out for brigans next week. If the railroad to the Pacific is a benefit to the country, then Credit Mobilier and Oakes Ames have contributed no little to the good of the States. Vote for Garfield and Arthur. Charles H. Smiley, in passing through the county on Thursday, stopped off here a few hours, and attended the Republican meeting at Port Royal in the evening. Vote for Sanley. Hancock's platform says, free trade or a revenue tariff only. Hancock's last letters say, protective tariff. He is two-faced on the tariff question. Vote for Garfield and Arthur. This church will be preaching in the Methodist church next Sabbath. Rev. Mr. Ganoe will be away to preach for some brother to whom he is indebted for service in the pulpit in this place. Farmers will find it profitable to use Whitman's Corn and Cob Mill. Col. Bell, of this place, has the agency for selling them in Juniata county, and is prepared to supply farmers. [Oct 27-2m.] The regular meeting and paper-reading of the Academia Literary Society has been postponed from Friday evening, October 29th, until November 5th, by order of the President. Rev. Mr. Keefler, from Greencastle, Pa., while on his way home from the western county, sojourned a couple of days in the beginning of this week, at the parsonage, with Rev. Mr. Ganoe of this place. Joe Dull, of McVeytown, went to the woods last week to shoot a wild turkey. He shot a turkey, but it turned out to be one of a tame flock owned by James Hambricht. Dull paid the bill like a man. The first steambath pined the Hudson in 1807, but next November will not be the first time that the people have voted down a dangerous Democratic ticket. Vote the Republican ticket. Examine your ticket. If railroads are of use to the country, then Credit Mobilier did a great work; if railroads are of no consequence and a wrong, then Credit Mobilier was all that the whooping Democracy say of it. Vote for Fisher. A mile is 5,280 feet, or 1,760 yards in length. The people next Tuesday will cause the brigadiers and their Democratic allies to think that there are more feet and more yards in a mile than that, as they journey up Salt River. Vote for Fisher. David Guyer offers at private sale a valuable farm situated in Delaware township, containing 150 acres, with a large frame two-story house, large frame bank barn, summer house and other outbuildings thereon erected. It is said that Mr. Spear, Democratic candidate for Congress, can foreclose a mortgage as quickly as any other man in central Pennsylvania. They say that English, in Indiana, cannot beat him at that kind of business. Hancock's Fodder Cutter and Grinder is the best machine in use for that purpose. Col. Wm. Bell has the agency for selling them in Juniata county, and is prepared to supply all farmers who want that most useful, profitable and economical machine. Oct. 27-3m We are in receipt of the Weekly Freeman from Dublin, Ireland, but by whom sent we know not. Its space is largely devoted to proceedings of meetings on the question of land tenure. Vote for Garfield and Arthur; they are the men who helped to bring about the free homestead law. John Brown's letter, describing the Thompsonston Republican meeting, came too late for insertion last week. It was done up brown; only one copy was lacking, and so look out for desperate Democratic stories by the last of this week and on next Monday. PERSE SALES.—L. Light, executor of Joseph Light, deceased, will sell at public sale, at the late residence of said decedent in Susquehanna township, at 9 o'clock A. M. on Friday, November 12, 1880, one horse, two mares, one cow and calf, two fat hogs, one sow and six pigs, farming utensils, and household goods. Also, at the same time and place, will be offered for sale the following real estate of said decedent: A good farm of 150 acres, having thereon erected a large house, bank barn and necessary outbuildings. They had just exchanged their rings, and sat on the sofa together, discussing the subject of weather and other things. It was midnight ere he rose: And a little piece of card plaster From her cheek of fair alabaster Was stuck on the end of his nose. —Hawkesack Republicans. FOR SALE.—Five shares Odd Fellows' Hall Association stock. If you wish to buy, call at this office. AGENTS WANTED for our popular New Book, THE ESSENTIAL HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES. Its Agriculture, Manufactures, Mining, Banking, Insurance, etc. Agents make $25 to $100 per week. Send for Special Terms to HENRY BELL PUBLISHING CO., Norwich, Ct. Organs! Organs! Organs! $50 AND UPWARD, WITH FROM $70 IF STOPS. I buy direct from the largest and most reliable Organ manufacturer in this country. Stool and Book with each Organ. Call on or address W. H. AIKENS, Main street, Mifflintown, Pa. Room formerly occupied by W. F. Snyder. [sept-2m.] DON'T BE DECEIVED by such dodges as a $50 Organ at $65 to $80, when you can buy the same grade of instruments at home at $60 to $70, and save the freight, by calling on W. H. AIKENS, 41 Ann St., New York. June 1-ly Post-Office Box 4586. If you wish to buy real estate, consult the columns of the Sentinel and Republican.

MARRIED.

COOK—KEPNER.—On the 21st inst., at the residence of the bride's mother, by Rev. E. E. Berry, Mr. Edwin Cook, of Patterson, and Miss Mary Emma Kepner, of Mifflintown.

COMMERCIAL.

MIFFLINTOWN MARKETS. Mifflintown, Oct. 27, 1880. Butter 16 Eggs 18 Corn 40 Flour 60 Potatoes 40 Onions 40 Rags 2

MIFFLINTOWN GRAIN MARKET.

Corrected weekly. QUOTATIONS FOR TO-DAY. Wednesday, Oct. 27, 1880. Wheat 1 00 Corn 42 Oats 25 1/2 Rye 25 1/2 Cloverseed 4 25

PHILADELPHIA GRAIN MARKETS.

Philadelphia, Oct. 25.—Wheat—West. No. 1, $1.12; Penna. red $1.11; amber $1.10. Corn—yellow, 55c; mixed 54c. Oats—white 38c; red 37c. Rye, 84c; 100 lb.

PHILADELPHIA CATTLE MARKET.

Philadelphia, Oct. 25.—Cattle—sales, 3,900 head; prime, 54¢; good, 44¢; medium, 44¢; common, 34c. Sheep—sales, 11,000 head; prime, 5¢; good, 4¢; medium, 3¢; common, 2¢. Hogs—sales, 7,500 head; prime 7¢; good 7¢; medium, 7¢; common, 6¢.

PRIVATE SALES.

Large Farm at Private Sale.

The Valuable Farm of the Heirs of William Okeson, deceased, is offered for sale. It is located in the fertile valley of Tuscarora, Juniata county, Pa., one and a half miles west of Academia, containing 240 Acres of prime limestone land, all in cultivation, except 10 acres of timber. Buildings good, Large Mansion House, Bank Barn, 100x50 feet; Wagon Sheds, Corn Crib, Hog Pens, Good Spring and Spring House, and all other outbuildings, also other springs and running water; Two Orchards bearing choice fruits. It is well located, near churches, schools, mills and stores. The land is well adapted to grain and grass and for making money for a new owner, as its former owner. Price will be reasonable, and time given to suit purchaser. For terms, &c., call on James B. Okeson, Pleasant View, near the farm, or J. B. Okeson, Port Royal.

A FOUNDRY FOR SALE.

A Foundry, in good order, at Johnstown, Juniata Co., Pa. The engine is new. The melting apparatus has just been overhauled and made as good as when new. The shop is large and roomy. All of the several departments are under one roof. The Foundry has the best run of custom in the county. In connection with the Foundry there is 51/2 acres of land for sale, having thereon erected a Large Frame Dwelling House, nearly new, and a good-sized Barn, Good Orchard, Apples, Grapes, &c. Everything convenient about the premises. Will sell all or part. For further particulars call on or address J. H. ROGERS, Johnstown, Juniata Co., Pa.

KENNEDY & DOTY,

(Successors to Buyers & Kennedy.)

DEALERS IN

GRAIN, COAL, LUMBER, CEMENT.

Calced Plaster, Lat Plaster, SEEDS, SALT, &c.

We buy Grain, to be delivered at Mifflintown or Port Royal.

We are prepared to furnish Salt to dealers at reasonable rates.

APRIL 21, 1879—KENNEDY & DOTY.

JUNIATA VALLEY BANK,

OF MIFFLINTOWN, PA.

BRANCH AT PORT ROYAL.

Stockholders Individually Liable.

J. NEVIN POMEROY, President. T. VAN IRWIN, Cashier.

DIRECTORS: J. Nevin Pomeroy, Joseph Rothrock, George Jacob, Philip M. Keener, Amos G. Bonnell, Louis E. Atkinson, W. C. Pomeroy.

STOCKHOLDERS: J. Nevin Pomeroy, R. E. Parker, Philip M. Keener, Sam'l Herr's Heirs, Joseph Rothrock, John H. Irwin, Mary Kurtz, L. E. Atkinson, Samuel M. Kurtz, W. C. Pomeroy, T. V. Irwin, Noah Hertzler, Fred M. Trost, Daniel Stouffer, John Hertzler, Charlotte Snyder.

Interest allowed at the rate of 2 per cent. on 6 months certificates, 3 per cent. on 12 months certificates. [Jan 27, 1879-4]

Manhood: How Lost—How Restored

Just published, new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhea or Seminal weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency and Physical Incapacity. Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay, clearly demonstrates, from