VOL. XXXIV.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1880.

NO. 48.

LOOK UP, NOT DOWN.

Life to some is full of sorrow-Half is real, half they borrow Full of rocks and full of led ca. Corners sharp and cutting edges. Though the joy bells may be ringing. Not a song you'll hear them singing ; Seeing never makes them wise, Looking out from downcast eyes.

All in vain the sun is shining. Waters sparkling, blossoms twining ; They but see through these same sorrows Sad to-days and worse to-morrows : See the clouds that must pass over , See the weeds among the clover Everything and anything But the gold the sunbeams bring Draining from the bitter fountain, Lo ! your mole hill seems a mounts in. Drops of dew and drops of rain Swell into the mighty main. All in vain the blessings shower, And the mercies fall with power. Gathering chaff, ye tread the wheat, Rich and royal, 'neath your feet.

Lat it not be so, my neighbor ; Look up, as you love and labor Not for one alone wee's vials ; Every one has cares and trials. J y and care are linked together. Like the fair and cloudy weather. May we have, oh, let us pray, Faith and patience for to-day,

An Adopted Child-

Mr. John Falconer was walking slowly color suffused her cheeks. towards his pretty little cottage one after-Every morning she looked out for the noon in autumn. He was the head gardener of Warren Hall, a beautiful estate, situated a few miles from the picturesque situated a few miles from the picturesque away with a sigh.

Every morning she looked out for the noon in autumn. He was the head gardener of Warren Hall, a beautiful estate, without leaving any letters, she would turn away with a sigh.

Every morning she looked out for the noon in autumn. He was the head gardener of Warren Hall, a beautiful estate, without leaving any letters, she would turn away with a sigh.

Every morning she looked out for the noon in autumn. He was the head gardener of Warren Hall, a beautiful estate, without leaving any letters, she would turn away with a sigh.

Every morning she looked out for the noon in autumn. He was the head gardener of Warren Hall, a beautiful estate, without leaving any letters, she would turn away with a sigh.

Every morning she looked out for the noon in autumn. He was the head gardener of Warren Hall, a beautiful estate, without leaving any letters, she would turn at a dozen hoppers from find the looked out for the noon in autumn. He was the head gardener of Warren Hall, a beautiful estate, without leaving any letters, she would turn at a dozen hoppers from find a dozen hoppers from find the looked out for the noon in autumn. He was the head gardener of Warren Hall, a beautiful estate, without leaving any letters, she would turn at lea was a favorite at the hall,

Warren, from a boy. The young heir turned out of their pretty home. had been very fond of John, making him his companion, and treating him almost ful. as an equal. When they both grew up to Mr. Falconer thought it very strange be fine, handsome men, however, the inti- that she should go about with a smile on

Young Lionel, on the death of his father, took possession of the estate, and when and the pink in her cheeks deepened to been on a strike, and being resolved not to John applied to him for the post of under-carnation. gardener, he was immediately appointed ren, who had gone abroad, returned, bring- room. ing with him a little son to gladden his home. He had married an Italian Indy, kitchen and gave him a chair. who had died shortly after the birth of bear the sight of that bright land which remainded him so much of his young wife, Mr. Warren, now a grave, sad man, came

More years passed away, and little Reginald was now nine years of age.

Though John Falconer was now head gardener, and lived in a pretty cottage on the estate, he was still unmarried.

So on this bright afternoon he was walking homeward after his day's work. He which led to the house, when he nearly stumbled over a tiny child, who stood crying in the middle of the road.

She was about five years of age. A slender, little thing, with beautiful dark eyes and raven curls, clad in a tattered before his eyes.

calico frock. "Who are you, little one?" asked John.

"I'm Evy Gray," she replied, in a sweet

"Where do you live, dear?"

The tears rolled down the pale cheeks. "I don't live anywhere. Mother's deal She died a long time ago, and auntie took live on till I can do more." me. We lived in London, but auntie came here to sell things. She's gone away today, and she beat me and left me here.

Oh, what shall I do?" The poor little thing sobbed bitterly and then I wrote for love of you!" John's benevolent heart was touched as he looked at the lovely, tear-stained face. He took the tiny hand in his, and led her towards his home.

"Where are you taking me?" asked the floor of the cosy kitchen, where the fire her husband. was burning brightly, and where a rosy servant-girl was toasting muffins for her when John bade her wash the little thing, after many days. and make her presentable.

Evy looked like another child after her year or two, leaving the estate in the care elephant: "He is yours, I return you your of a hard, exacting steward, who, unknown paper cutter alive.

to Reginald Warren, oppressed the tenants, and was feared and disliked by all. And changes came for Eveline. John

Evy had never been accustomed to it. ous literature into the Czar's dominions in man. He said that John Falconer must tchinovnik, who had stolen the scal of one either pay the rent or go. He would give of the imperial departments. Cabinet hinsect to peet him." him two weeks, but not a day over.

"My dear home!" he said, 'the home I "Never mind, papa. We will think of some plan." Evy had been acting very strangely for Every morning she looked out for the right man of forty-five, with a pleasant John Falconer to leave his home. He had plainly that the Duke of Morny, when face and honest, gray eyes, John Falconer | been unable to obtain the money, and Mr. Stevens was to call during the morning. He had known its owner, Mr Lionel If he could not pay him, they would be

And yet Evy did not look at all so rrow her face, and a happy light in her eyes.

"I am not gay, papa. Here is Mr. Ste-A few years passed away. Mr. War- you too much;" and she ran out of the the connivance of the custom officials, it, Bridget, the old and faithful domestic

"Where is your father?" aske! Mr.

Evy, as she laid the money on the table. "Will, you give me a receipt?" The eyes of the steward opened wide.

"I am quite aware of the fact," retorted

"How did you get the money?" he in-had turned the corner of the quiet lane Evy, icily, as she took up the receipt. liner who was about to settle in New York, came in with a cigar box under his arm. "Good morning."

"See, papa!" she said, waving the paper

"What is the matter, Evy?" "I have paid the rent, papa, and this is

"Evy, how did you get the money?"

"But, my child I never knew you could "It came to me naturally, papa. wrote first for the love of the thing, and in the world which is really smuggler-de com sheaks."

"Evy, my own child!" And in that glad moment John Falconer

John Falconer lives with them, and is called "Grandpapa" by Evy's children. His reward for his act of benevolence, is

A Living Paper-Cutter bright, while her long hair fell in curis over the shoulders. John wrapped a shawl learned their language after a fashion, frearound her, and placed her in a chair by quentity visited some years ago, as the els abroad by himself, and the Grand around her, and placed her in a chair by the fire, with a bowl of bread and milk on her lap. Then Susan, who always went home at night, was dismissed, and the two home at night, was dismissed, and the two pened to see lying on the table. When he returned the programment of the latter acopy of the Edinburg Review, which he hap hap and the latter acopy of the Edinburg Review, which he hap hap and the latter acopy of the Russian navy, he had a see that the pened to see lying on the table. When he is now High Admiral. As he had a second the latter acopy of the latter acopy of the latter acopy of the Russian navy, he had a second to be himself, and the Grand Duchess Constantine by himself, and the Grand Duch were left alone.

How the child enjoyed her nice supper, and her cosy seat by the fire! The little to the magnetic firm it. "Oh! yes," he replied, "many in it. "Oh! yes," he replied, "many beautiful things, but also many disconnected to see tying on the table. When he is now High Admiral. As he grows elderly he stiffens and shows hereditary pipe-clay. His carriage has the bolt upright stiffness of the Prussian officer, and his trousers fit as if held down to the property of and her cosy seat by the fire! The fittle tongue chattered incessantly, until at last she fell asleep in her chair.

John Falconer gazed at the pretty face of the sleeping child, until the tears stood on the sleeping child, until the tears stood of the sleeping child, until the tears stood in his eyes; then he said:

"My poor birdle! You have no home or friends, my pretty one, but I will be writtened, and, as long as I live, my home shall be yours."

And John Falconer kept his word.

And John Falconer kept his was puzzled and firedeliow got a hip lock ground. At St. Petersburg his illustrious this illustrious the kerner shawls, but.

At St. Petersburg his illustrious the kerner shawls, but.

At St. Petersburg his illustrious the kerner shawls, but.

At St. Petersburg his illustrious the kerner shawls, but.

At St. Petersburg his illustrious the kerner one claimed little Evy, so he adopted her as his own child. He sent her to an excelent school, and worked hard to gain monlent school hard to gain monlent school, and worked hard to gain monlent school to gain the feet were covered white schools as though he felt him glass, the feet were covered with coarse of constantine looks as though he felt him glass, and reced, the descent of the needs to work the school to gain the felt him glass and receds, five feet high, to constantine looks as though he felt him glass. Her feet were covered enleather with the court

On the Belgian and Spanish frontiers the couriers of all European nations enjoy the privilege of exemption, as far as their persons and luggage are concerned, from the Custom-house officers' examinations. The Custom-house officers' examinations. The break my heart to leave it!"

Sons and luggage are concerned, from the Custom-house officers' examinations. The suspicions of the French douanier at hopper there in a day or so. He then sent Theresa Maria, dwelling in the village of Portugal and "courier extraordinary" of the Russian by refurnishing the embassy repeatedly and selling the furniture, which had, of course, been imported duty free. One of the most romarkable smuggling movements of the present day was that at Roubaix, France, last Summer, when twice every day the contrabandiers crossed the frontier into Belgium several thousand strong, bring back with them coffee, coal-oil and tobacco, and defrauding the customs of at "You seem gay, Evy," he remarked; least 50,000 francs a day. The men had starve, organized a smuggling army too powerful for the authorities to cope with. Some very extensive smuggling must have pet hopper. Not finding Mr. Mackay in, life in vain. A false belief, alas! for the vens. I will go to him as it would try been done at Hamburg, apparently with within the last few months, since we read She ushered the steward into the little that a miller, one Herr Wegner, has been fined nearly $95,000 for smuggling 6,500 hed the girl, in her self-possessed way.

Operations and devices of smuggling at this knew all about Mackay's game.

Hoeflich pumped the domestic knew all about Mackay's game. States at the maker's risk, and an extensive business was done in reaction. Mackay soon arrived with half a dozen knowledging the acquaintance of a doomed "I do not think that is your affair," said On the 31st of August last a Montreal milwas stopped at "the lines" with eighteen

Mr. Stevens took his departure, and trunks full of silks, velvets, laces, silver- here mid der hopper and der com." Evy bounded up the stairs to the invalid's ware, and wines, although she had a certificate from the American Consul-General that all these were non-dutiable immigrant's effects. It is de riqueur for silly American women who go to Montreal to buy silks and similar goods and smuggle them home, a practice that is gradually going out of favor, now that our fair and free-trading countrywomen have discovered that the guileless Canadian tradesman "It came by post yesterday morning, usually furnishes them with an inferior Canadian neighbors have enjoyed the benefits of a protective tariff smuggling into raise the pot 100 shares of Union Con. Canada has been very lively, jewelry being Hoeflich wrote an order on his broker and one of the articles most extensively intro-remarked: arch, Moroko. When the King found his councillors attending the palaver furiously which held Hoeflich's chloroform.

The Russian Lord High Admiral.

master's tea.

Susan looked at the child with wondering eyes, and was still more astonished in the waters, has returned to him cast upon the waters, has returned to him cast upon the waters, has returned to him society, and has a good deal of light chit. chat for all sorts of persons. But in pri- smell. vate his speech is curt, and he deals in those expletives without which the sailor's vocabulary would be incomplete. The

He took all the Bets Rent day came, and John Falconer was in despair. He found that he was unable to pay his rent. The poor man knew not busts of Napoleon III. The Russian Nihibusts of Napoleon III. what to do. He was unfit for work, and lists have introduced many tons of sediti-She was fitted for a governess, to be sure, but how could he hive without her devoted discovered a very extensive smuggling as-Mr. Stevens, the steward, was a hard possible by the venality of a Russian marked to Mackay:

tchinovnik, who had stolen the scal of one "I'll bet two dollars dot you cand find a "I'll bet two dollars dot you cand find a Mackay bet ten dollars that he could Pagny were aroused by the unusual number and dimensions of certain trunks, for which the usual exemption was claimed by of Hoeflich.

Trusted emissary down to Carson Valley Fratel, on the frontier of Portugal and Spain, on the way across the fields with of Hoeflich. Government, passing the Franco-German Carson Vadey catching hoppers. He sent about. Never having seen one in her life, the last few weeks. Mr. Falconer was not observant, or he would surely have noticed it.

Carson Valley catching hoppers. He sent about. Never having seen one in her me, an official report to Mackay, stating he had to Paris. He therefore took upon himself the responsitility of opening and examinate the responsitility of opening and examinate the responsition of the Sometimes she looked pale and sad; then she would brighten up, while a burning she would brighten up, while a burning was rewarded by the discovery of 24,000 was rewarded cabinet course.

It is the responsivity of opening and cannot best gait any of them had was 17½ feet. He doubted if a bigger jump could be selected by the discovery of 24,000 was rewarded cabinet course.

On receipt of the letter the Bonan-box should be proposed by the discovery of 24,000 was rewarded cabinet course. cigars, which the pretended cabinet-courser had intended to smuggle into France. him up anyway. The next day he are unfinished and made for its disturber, him up anyway.

tain 27,000 cigars. Bismarck tells us very box to himself, and every morning they plainly that the Duke of Morny, when were taken out and put through their paces. It was impossible, however, to get one to bit and tore her flesh; the undaunted wo-jump over 18 feet, although all sorts of in-man contrived to keep his throat closely vigorating food was given them. ammonia on the table and immediately been alarmed, and came hurrying to her incredible. Next day Mackay announced to the hospital at Niza, where, pitiful to to Hoeflich that he was ready for the teil, she expired exactly a month after match. The expert was ready at nine ward, consoled in her dying hours with > he sat down in the study, and there noticed shepherd-boy died of hydrophobia a day the bottle of ammonia. While examining or two after his lamented deliverer. of the Gould & Carrieficm, came in with: "Don't be techin' that numonia, Mr.

Albans and Rouse's point and Montreal, A light broke upon Hoeflich; grabbing approached the door of the tribunal, he It was once the practice for certain Mou-kin's drug store, threw away the ammonia treal tailors to employ New York cutters and ordered it filled with chloroform. In and send agents through New England and ten minutes, he was back, and leaving the Northern New York to take orders for bottle where he found it got out of the eyes, she replied: "I don't know you,

States at the maker's risk, and an extensive business was doze in running over mining superintendents he had invited up to see him have some fun with Hoellich.

On the 31st of Angust last a Montreal mil.

They were largle content when Hoellich.

They were largle content when Hoellich. They were hardly seated when Hoeflich "I vas a leetle late, Mr. Mackay, but I'm

He laid down the money which was covered promptly. "Anyone else to ped?" Joe Stewart laid down $100 John Kelly put up $50. Warren Sheridan stepped in for $200. Hank Smith wanted a like amount.

Sam Jones had only $60, but he put Then a few got into the corner of the "It came by post yesterday morning. usually furnishes them with an inferior room and concluded it was a shame to rope papa. I—I wrote a book and got fitty article purchased in New York or Boston Hoeflich in that way, and finally agreed to pounds for it; so we shall have enough to and sold at an advance price. Since our give the money back after they had won it. Mackay then bantered Hoeflich to pened; and when the people gathered > duced. There is perhaps only one country "Dar's no limit to de bets, gentlemen, proof-Boralong, in South Africa, which Nearly every man doubled his bet, and is ruled by a benevolently despotic mon-then Mackay got behind Sam Jones and swept the coin into a canvas sack, and Mackay wrote out an order for the stock. Ing a rope around one prostrate form, enliven a scene which, during the other ten Hoeflich went up the street with his hop-The Grand Duke Constantine is a mari- per under his arm, leaving the others too

"Chloroform by gracious!" Then the Milesian woman who was the cause of all the mischief, appearing with a loosing her long hair, twisted the luxuriant broom announced that it was "swapin" tresses with the rope. The rope was he remarked "That fellow, Hoeflich does play in queer

And to this, all hands inwardly agreed. How Ladies Dress in Persia

She wore a bright red skirt, richly em Maste Regic, from the hail, took a great facey to Eveline, and they became it pleased init isolated some very terminal position of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be and they own of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be a shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be a shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be a shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be a shortly own of the went on. Regio grew to be a shortly own of the standard people in the province and t

Female Herolan.

In October, 1877, the brigantine Moor-burg left Foochoo, in China, for Melbourne, And changes came for Eveline. John Falconer was taken ill the winter after Regie's departure for the continent—a long, lingering illness, which prevented him from working, and used up all his savings.

Some weeks ago John Mackay was burgleft Foocheo, in Chins, for Melbourne, arrying four seamen, captain, mate, and son, Nevada reading about the "jumping there poorly fed and regularly beaten by confederates wearing the uniform of the from working, and used up all his savings.

Some weeks ago John Mackay was burgleft Foocheo, in Chins, for Melbourne, arrying four seamen, captain, mate, and son, Nevada reading about the "jumping ton Confederates wearing the uniform of the from working, and used up all his savings.

Some weeks ago John Mackay was burgleft Foocheo, in Chins, for Melbourne, arrying four seamen, captain, mate, and wile, who was a little delicate woman, and her baby. They had not gone far on the roady find the ground state of two of these beautiful error of all that some sort of a trick like that would be a their voyage ere all the crew tell sick, and one after another died. The mate did not splendid thing to ring in on Maurice Hosting in the Goold and Currie office. Carrying four seamen, captain, mate, and wile, who was a little delicate woman, and her baby. They had not gone far on their voyage ere all the crew tell sick, and one after another died. The mate did not splendid thing to ring in on Maurice Hostingon."

And yet you say this man, half your size, thumpest you till your face looks like a load of coal!"

"That's the way I mix it, jedge," respect to give any one who wears a little time and money as possible be expended for showy surroundings. They had not gone far on their work of a trick like that would be a specific decorum and social respect. We are not will we had walked briskly to the mate of two of these of the will two of the other only in the like the complainant stood up.

Why, jedge, I'm right from Custer City in the thory of all that the row of all that one of the town of the two of ing his bedside, and was besides, very caretaking care to give any one who wears a uniform the widest possible berth. RocheRent day came, and John Falconer was

When they at once "strike for their nomes, taking care to give any one who wears a uniform the widest possible berth. Rochesure to get in some sort of a dispute and offer a bet. Mackay don't like betting has skeleton, and was incapance of the sure to get in some sort of a dispute and offer a bet. Mackay don't like betting has bedside, and was incapance of the sure to get in some sort of a dispute and offer a bet. Mackay don't like betting having swollen tremenduously, and his body being a mass of sores. His wife alone held up under the terrible heat, although she had nursed the sick till they needed nursed the sick till the sic up under the terrible heat, although she had nursed the sick till they needed nursing no longer, had looked well to her baby's enman's work beside. To make matters worse, the ship sprung a leak, which the captain luckily was able to stop, and eventually the Moorburg got into Brisbane harbor, half full of water, with two sick > her husband's dinner, was told by a shepenfolded by her left arm, while she bat-Mr. Mackay was in despair, but one tered his head with the stone, and at length morning a hopper suiffed at a bottle of killed him. Meanwhile, the villagers had jumped thirty feet. After making a few aid, armed with guns, sticks, and stones, experiments it was found that one whiff of meeting Theresa on her way home covered amonia so enlivened the hoppers that with blood from terrible wounds in her they could make jumps that were almost face, arms, and hands. They carried her o'clock, an hour before the time, with his beheving that she had not sacrificed her Courageous in another way was a wo man of the Commune, who during that terrible rising had worked day and night tons of wheat and rycin'to the district without paying the comparatively small impost on such grain. New York readers are When the insurrection was quelled, the Hoeflich pumped the domestic and soon doctor was arrested and marched off to be tried by drum-head court-martial. As he met his late female assistant con between two soldiers. "Why, Adele! he exclaimed, "how came you, here?" Looking hard at hun, with unrecognizing to death when she had repudiated all knowledge of him and forbore appealing to his aid, rather than compromise him, and render his chance a desperate one.

A poor servant girl of Noyon, in France, once proved herself a real heroine. A comunder their weight, and precipitated them strangled by an invisible hand. Unforbad become unfastened; and when, after groping along the dripping, clammy wall, ground for England's aristocracy. Of late her hand touched it, she had not strength sufficient to pull it down. Dazed as she swinging by her hair, and to all appearance dead. Fresh air and prompt administration of stimulants brought her to con that, if she had failed in saving all, her brave endeavors had restored three of the readwinners to their families.

From Custer Hills.

scattered more'n a ton of brains at different services. needs, and done duty at the wheel in car right in front of me. Didn't have the dead a "good send-off." The coffin is covroom, jedge. If I'd had the room, I'd ered with trusel and finery totally out of corpse now.

the judge. men on board as her crew, all told, and a whole prairie, jedge. When woman at the helm, the gallant woman I draw back like this, see? I need space. Then I lunges, so. Look ! Then I fetches like this, and where'd the man be if I had room? I was afraid of breaking some man's real estate with him. Didn't dare turn during years of sickness and suffering. If loose. That's where he fetched me. Send him out to Dakota, with me. other than the Sabbath, so as not to inter-frat's all I want. Make him come fere with the pastor's regular duties at where there's distance to move around in. Give me a fair show with him, but don't the too frequent and very often disgusting confine me where there ain't room. 'Spose habit of public leave-taking of the body est slung him around like I ought to! leave-taking of our beloved dead should That's where he took advantage of me. Fine him, fedge. Lock him up for a term

> "I think I'll let him go," replied the "Then let me go first. Keep him when he comes out, or I won't be responsible for the earthquake. I won't be liable for obliterating the town. If you're a patriot, jedge, you'd better hold him back for half to denote the death of a member in the an hour. "You won't touch him," said the judge to the defendant. "Don't trust him, jedge," interrupted the complainant. "If you're going' to let nim go, I'll stay here. Lock me in a cell. andcuff me. Bind me with shackles, but don't let me get at him. My bile is risin', jedge; I ain't safe.' "I believe I'il give you ten days," mused the judge. "Make it a month jedge. Make it long nough to cool me off, and make him leave own. There ain't room for us both.

Make him get out, jedge, if you want to save his life." And he gathered himself into a small oundle and crept around his antagonist and made a bound for the black Maria.
"I don't mind going to jail," he observed to a fellow traveler, "but I hate to bad in two departments and very bad in two departments and very bad in two departments.

The maize crop. grown made a bound for the black Maria. handed him one on the bridge of the nose, he fell under the seat and shook with suppressed passion.

Something About Bees. The Egyptians exhibit great skill in their ing the bottom of the sewer, and fasten- of the busy bees and the blooming of ling waste at the best, or a pasture for the black tunately, the rope round her own waist faced breed of sheep, or a breeding place had become unfastened; and when, after for grouse, hares and foxes, and a huntingyears many of these moors have been inclosed, the lands have been cultivated, and was, she still had her wits about her, and they are now producing an abundance of potatoes, oats, barley and gress.

The Bandmaster's Account of it.

"Yes, I seen most of the fight," respond ed the gentlemen on the hydrant to eciousness, and the happiness of knowing the eager inquiries of the reportdancing down the street, and waltzed right the eye. I knowed there would be a cotillion, so I chasseed to one side. The tail fellow ba anced to corners, and tripped the little fellow across the car track. He jumped up and poked around until he sec

Advice About Funerals.

now hardly able to distinguish between a siender cane statas, that we take the now hardly able to distinguish between a view of a small herd of zebras. These animuch; while the captain himself was almost in as miserable a plight, his legs having swollen tremenduously, and his body having swollen tremenduously, and his body as soon as he hit me, I drawed back for tendency is toward extravagance and prote, will be the captain himself was sponded the Whoopin' Antelope. "Just tuneral and a wedding. At funerals the tendency is toward extravagance and prote, will be the captain himself was sponded the Whoopin' Antelope. "Just tuneral and a wedding. At funerals the tendency is toward extravagance and prote, will be the captain himself was sponded the Whoopin' Antelope. "Just tuneral and a wedding. At funerals the tendency is toward extravagance and prote, will be the captain himself was sponded the whoopin' Antelope. "Just tuneral and a wedding. At funerals the tendency is toward extravagance and prote, will be the captain himself was sponded the whoopin' and the captain As the vulgar expression is, been helpin the coroner view the dead place, considering the surroundings of the "How much room do you want?" asked so for carriage hire at the funeral of his paidon, staggered, kneered, trembled and fell over, its legs kicking the air. Its comwife, when he never spent a dollar for riding her when alive. At a great sacrifice a husband will buy a profusion of costly flowers for the decoration of his wife's coffin and grave, when he never bought a pot plant for the brightening of her chamber possible, the funeral should be on a day other than the Sabbath, so as not to interstated service. A vigorous protest against 'd smashed a house with him! 'Spose I'd was made. The preacher held that the who'd paid for the holocaust? Who'd always be in private and not before a A settler once captured a zebra when been a lather to the orphans I'd manufactured? Who'd have married the widows of those who fell around like chips? That's the reason I let up, jedge. I'd rather be smashed than a murderer of the innocents.

aways be in private and not before a crowd of idle, curious and wasympathizing the practice of kissing the dead just before the coffin-lid was screwed down, was neither decorous nor proper,
smashed than a murderer of the innocents.

by the practice of the innocents are the presence of strangers.

A settler once captured a zebra when it to captivity, and appeared so good natured that its owner thought to make it as useful as the quagga. As a trial, he bridled it particularly in the presence of strangers. Sometimes there was more kissing after death than before. The glass cover should of years, or I may forgit myself if I find not be removed for the gratification of anybody. Nay, more; the reverend ger-tleman suggested that the face of the deceased should never be exposed to stran-

The Grain Crops of the World.

quarto pages. A map showing in various family.

colors the state of the wheat crop in the different departments of France, is also given. Of the whole cereal crops of France, the reports are good. The wheat crop is in five departments very good, in seventeen departments good, in twenty-six de-

Some Inhabitants of Africa. Boys and girls who visited menageries have probably seen an animal shaped some-thing like a horse, but beautifully adorated down the Nanoleon, and the crounter rakwith black and tawny stripes, standing ed it in amid a heap of coin that might be stlent and sulky in its cage. This is the zebra, the wild horse of the great plains of Southern Africa. There it lives in great herds and browses on the thin grass and low shrubs of the wilderness. It enjoys the wildest liberty, and gallops and gam- witted lad named Oxford fired twice at bols merrily with its companions through regions where the foot of man rarely pene. Athert in Hyde park. The boy was tried trates. It is not strange that when cap-tured it refuses to be tamed, and retains some time as a lunacic. In 1845 John its wild nature to the end. There are, Francis fired at her majesty, and some five however, exceptions to this rule. There weeks afterward a man named Bean preare at present, a pair of zebras in the sented a pistol at her. Ten years later, in Garden of Plants, at Paris, which, by the 1852, a fellow named Pate, formerly a lieuup to the big one and fetched him one in constant care and kindness of their young tenant in the hussars, lay in wait for the keeper, have gradually come to show a queen as she was driving out of the resigreat affection for him, and will even dence of the Duke of Cambridge, and aimed allow him to harness them to a little carriage and drive them about the streets of crushing her bonnet over her forehead. He Paris. The zebra's chief weapons of de- was transported. In February, 1872, ocfence are its lively little heels, which it uses vigorously when attacked. It is a lad named Connor, a silly shop-boy whose very wild and cunning beast, and as its proach. The hyenas leave the zebra in carriage at Buckingham palace. He was peace, and even lions and leopards rarely sentenced to a year's hard labor and a good engaged in battle with it. They are quite flogging. content to pounce upon the sickly mem-bers of the herd which have larged behind

In the preparations and arrangements

Europeans, who are envious of its striped skin, while at the same time the meat gives abundant provision to their native followof two of these beautiful creatures on the mountainous hunting grounds of Kitangeh until we had walked briskly over a long stretch of tawny grass, crushed by sheer force through a brambly jungle, and space it is most difficult to stalk them. trived to approach within 250 yards, taking advantage of every thin tussock of grass and, almost at random, fired. herd leaped from the ground, galloped a few short maddened strides, and then on a sudden, staggered, kneeled, trembled and and presently, wheeling in circles with whining, until I dropped another with a crushing ball through the head, much against my wish, for I think zebras were created for a better purpose than to be eaten.

The quagga and the dauw, both inhabi tants of South Africa, resemble the zebra, but are not so regularly striped nor se brilliant in coloring. being tamed. The quagga is made useful by the settlers near the Cape of Good Hope and is taught to draw and carry burdens. one day and jumped on its back. The animal at once began to rear furiously, and rushed with its rider into a deep river. The man clung desperately to the furious little beast, and was safely carried to the shore. But when he dismounted, the z bra turned in a rage, and suddenly bit his ear off. gers. All the funeral ceremonies should After that he concluded to remain content be simple, but strikingly symbolical. A with his quagga. There are many kinds simple piece of crape on the door, or worn of large quadrupeds in Africa, some of on the arm of the person was sufficient which are native to no other country, Bestdes the three members of the zebra family, there is the harmless, shy giraffe, with its beautiful spotted body, its long, slender neck, and its delicate head, which The annual volume on the crops of the it carnes 15 feet or more from the ground. arious corn-growing countries of the This graceful animal is also hunted by the world has just been issued by Mons. Bruy natives for its soft skin and its delicate Estienne, of Marseilles, and the reports it flesh, which is considered as a great dainty contains occupy several hundred large at a royal African feast,

In the meanwhile Monte Carlo, like the mosquitoes, is having a high good time. partments fairly good (assez bonne), in sixteen departments medium, and in six departments only bad. Oats are very good night. There are a good many English in twenty-eight departments, good in forty here, but they do not contribute largely to the funds of the amiable and enterprising Administration. English girls favored by chiefly in the southern departments, is fair. er, put down their five-franc pieces, and, ly good. In three departments it is very good, in interen good, in interen good, in five fairly good, the father or the brother may be discovered the father or the brother may be discovered in five medium, and in one only bad. Rye is reported as very good in eleven departments, good in fifty-three departments, fairly good in six departments, and medium in three departments, and medium in three departments. manner of cultivating bees. As the flowers um in three departments. Barley is the and harvest are much earlier in Upper best crop of the year in France. In twen-Egypt than in Lower, the inhabitants pro- ty-six departments it is very good, in forty players. Looking in at two o'clock this bees. They collect the hives of different villages on huge barges, and every proprietor attaches a peculiar mark to his hives.

When the boat is loaded, the conductors when the boat is leaded, the conductors exception only of Russin, the reports are the five-franc piece, and always staking once proved herself a real heroine. A common sewer of great depth had been opened for repair, the opening being covered at night with some planking; but those in charge of the operations neglected to place any lights near to warn wayfarers of the proprietors, and, after deducting a small danger in their path. Four men returning both the planks, ported his hives from one end of the river. home from work stepped on the planks, with an average production probably tried to retrieve her luck at each and Swabia, with an average production in succession. The bank notes were gone, of 20 per cent. In the south of Italy and she had not away her purse, for it was riched with a quantity of honey and wax, Bavaria and in Wurtemburg the estimates and she had put away her purse, for it was to the bottom. It was some time before any one became aware of what had hap species of industry procures for the Egyp-while in Bessarabia they are 10 per cent.

Bavaria and in wurremourg the estimates are of crops 15 per cent, over an average; easy to hold in her prettily-gloved hand her while in Bessarabia they are 10 per cent. tian an abundance of production of the bee, over. The crops of the year are 5 per cent. hours since I had last seen her, but in the round, no man among the crowd was daring enough to respond to the frantic enties to foreign lands. In the counties of treaties of the wives of the entombed men

Yorkshire and Lancashire, England, where

Yorkshire and Lancashire, England, where Average crops, without either surplus or

Average crops, without either surplus or

Local Counties of the wives of the entombed men

Yorkshire and Lancashire, England, where Average crops, without either surplus or

Local Counties of the wives of the entombed men

Yorkshire and Lancashire, England, where

Average crops, without either surplus or

Local Counties of the wives of the entombed men

Yorkshire and Lancashire, England, where

Average crops, without either surplus or

Local Counties of the wives of the entombed men

Yorkshire and Lancashire, England, where by descending that foul and loathsome the moors are covered with a species of depth. Presently, a fragile-looking girl of heather called "ling," and which blossoms Palatinate, Baden, Switzerland, Denmark, seventeen stepped to the front, and said in August, covering these barren heaths Sweden, Norway, Central Italy, Holland, might have been best relieved by a burst of quietly ;—"I'll go down and try to save the poor fellows;" and creatures calling country, distant bee-keepersload their hives Deficiencies of 15 per cent. are reported in and she stared stonily on staking her Napo-And in that giad moment John Faiconer knew that he was rewarded for his beneration belongs.

In the was rewarded for his beneration belongs attending the palaver furiously inchring the palaver furiously and the furiously and the deficiency is put down at 20 pliants the furiously and the furious "Where are you taking me?" asked the child.

"To my house, Evy. Here it is."

"Evy never who agreed in a subject was caught evading the part of intoxicating liquors of any kind, and when a subject was caught evading the law the penalty was sternly inflicted. "For the pring there was a grand wedding at Waverage, with its strip of bright garden and tage, with its strip of bright garden and tage, with its strip of bright garden and tage. The hore is good in the back with a straw. Hoellich's when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the whole again, and when a subject was caught evading the weeks. Comparatively empty hives when age. The hard have again to that up was ten, and showed to the grashoper described a semicircle in the was again to that up was ten, and showed the best with the gallant girl, brought to the work with the gallant girl, brought to the work again to that up was ten, and the weeks. Comparatively empty hives when age. The heroic maintenance is the work of the work again the two still breathing but unconscious men weeks. Comparativel ter-of-fact purpose as paying her hotel bill. If she had turned her back to the table and walked straight out, she might have kept her purpose; but the ball was still rolling, down the Napoleon, and the croupier rakbetter or even worse spared.

Attempts on Queen Victoria's Life. In 1840, on the tenth of June, a halfsharp ears detect the slightest rusding tional romances, drew a pistol on her ma-among the bushes, it is very difficult to ap-