A COURSE OF STUDY FOR THE UNGRADED SCHOOLS OF JUNIATA.

As a rule ungraded schools are arranged according to the judgment and discretion of the teacher. Teachers change, or are changed, quite frequently, and the course of study...

1st GRADE.—This includes reading and spelling from charts, word-cards, blackboards and first reader, writing on slates...

2d GRADE.—Second reader: Spell orally and write in script characters all the words in the lesson. Teach name and use of all the punctuation marks...

3d GRADE.—Read from third reader. Spelling: Oral, written and phonic of all words used in lesson, and give much attention to definition, abbreviation, accent, emphasis and inflections...

4th GRADE.—Fourth reader: Drill on elementary sounds. Combine new and important words, as many as six daily, in original sentences. Teach diacritical marks used in the dictionary...

5th GRADE.—Use fifth reader and newspaper. Point out and exemplify pitch, force, rate, slur, emphasis, etc., and complete biographical and historical sketches. Spell and define words as in fourth grade...

PENNA. CONFERENCE, U. C. CHURCH.—The Penna. Conference of the United Christian Church held its third annual session in the U. C. Whitehall church, Juniata county, Pa., on the 11th, 12th and 13th of November, 1880...

The McVeyton Journal says: Henry Kaufman, of Manayunk, shot an other along the river near that place, the other day. He informed us that there were more than a dozen of the same kind measured about four feet from the tip of nose to tip of tail and nearly two feet around the body...

SHORT LOCALS.

Give thanks on Thursday. Nine brass bands in Mifflin county. The beautiful came down on Saturday. The fashionable bonnet string is one yard long.

Altoona people want to ballot for the new post-master. Did Vennon predict the late cold wave? Who knows? Slater Allen has been visiting friends in Cambria county.

Some of the boys when on the street at night are too noisy. Literary societies throughout the county are in full operation. Expression on Monday morning—'What's the matter with the fire?'

Deputy Sheriff Hamilton received almost twelve hundred dollars back pension. Jacob Thomas is still abed, the last wild turkey that he shot weighed 19 pounds. President elect Garfield passed eastward on Tuesday on his way to Washington.

The Indian is for peace, now that the cold has come. Next summer he will be for fight. Rev. Benagh was called to Philadelphia last Wednesday to attend the funeral of a friend. Miss Lydia Stover occupies her new home at the corner of Patterson and Valley streets.

Joseph Wildman, of Shamokin, has been in the county visiting friends within the past few days. The mis-guided young man—The youth who stands at a church door at the close of preaching. The court of Lancaster county sent ten tramps to jail last week for a period of nine months each.

There is a gang of thieves at work. Most likely they will all be gathered up between now and spring. An exchange says, if your shoes squeak, drive a couple of wooden pegs into the center of the soles. The cold of Saturday night and the firewood of Sunday discounted the appearance of growing wheat.

FOR SALE.—Five shares Old Fellows' Hall Association stock. If you wish to buy, call at this office. Now is the time for the man who villainously abused his political opponent to hang his head in shame. A couple of Indiana drovers sold a drove of cattle to citizens living in the vicinity of this place last week.

One night last week, Imps of old Stanton's 3rd regiment's dog in Chester county, and stole six turkeys. A sportsman counts 29 wild turkeys that have been shot this season on Shade mountain directly north of this place. They no longer wait for cakes, but for turkeys and ducks and geese, and therefore they say a turkey, duck and goose walk.

Union Thanksgiving service in the Methodist church at 10 o'clock A. M., on Thanksgiving day. Sermon by Rev. E. E. Berry. If the house-breaker continues his depredations it will become the faithful house-keeper to sleep with a shot-gun by his side.

Teachers' Institute.

The fourteenth annual session of the Juniata County Teachers' Institute will be held in the Court House, Mifflintown, Pa., November 29 and 30, and December 1, 2 & 3, 1880. The following general programme will afford an idea of the character and extent of the work intended to be accomplished:

INSTRUCTORS. Miss Letti E. Patterson, of Philadelphia, will present the entire work and give instructions in Reading, Education, etc. E. V. DeGraff, A. M., Superintendent of Public Instruction, Patterson, N. J., will give instructions in Spelling, with Methods of Teaching.

The most complete New Testament that has been offered to the people of Juniata county is "Abbott's Illustrated New Testament." The book contains 50 full-page maps and engravings. The explanatory notes are most satisfactory. Another interesting feature of the book is a history of the English translation of the Bible. Another prominent feature is a chapter devoted to the prominent men and women of the New Testament. It should be in every house, and if you have no complete New Testament in your family, buy one at once. You can receive Abbott's by addressing G. W. Van-Ormer, Coalmaster, Juniata Co., Pa.

Rev. William J. Gibson, Presbyterian preacher at Decaturville, Blair county, has been preaching 50 years. He has done 40 years of ministerial service have been spent within the limits of Huntingdon Presbytery. Friends of Dr. Gibson, in the congregations of Huntingdon Presbytery, desiring to manifest their appreciation of the long period of service that he devoted to the church, met last Thursday, the 18th inst., in the Democratic meeting house, and, after interesting service appropriate to the occasion, presented to the pastor, in cash, $1,000, and goods to the value of more than $500. Among the addresses delivered was one by E. S. Doty, of this place. The contribution from Mifflin was $27.50.

IN MEMORIAM. WILIAM INOQUOUS TRIBE, No. 42, I. O. R. M. At a stated meeting of Iniquous Tribe, No. 42, I. O. R. M., of Pennsylvania, held on the 3th sleep of Beaver Moon, G. S. D. 329, the following preamble and resolutions in relation to the death of P. S., Isaac Coffman, were adopted: Whereas, That the late Kilde Manitou has been in His Providence, to remove from our Forest, our well beloved Brother, P. S., Isaac Coffman, of Patterson, Juniata county, Pa., then, while we bow in submission to this dispensation of the Great Spirit, it behooves us to express our sincere feelings of sorrow and regret at the loss we, as a Tribe, sustain therein, our worthy Brother having helped to institute our Tribe at its beginning, and shortly after its organization deposited his sacred and continued a member up to the time of his death. He served in all the elective and appointive offices of our Tribe, and was respected by all. G. S. D. of this Tribe, and our personal sympathy in their bereavement.

Resolved, That the wife and children of our departed Brother, and all persons who may be drawn in, in mourning for those souls, and our hearts, wearies and Bravos were the usual tokens of sorrow and sympathy.
