

JENTINEL & REPUBLICAN
MIFFLINTOWN.
Wednesday, March 16, 1881.

B. F. SCHWEIER,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Schwarz is still in progress for the forger of the Moray letter.

Electric lamps are being introduced in New York houses.

The Pittsburgh riot has not been looked upon with favor by the Legislature.

General and Mrs. Grant have been to Washington and called on President Garfield.

Mrs. Serley, of Wyoming county, has sued Mr. J. C. Coon, an editor of the same county, for libel.

Arthur Strauss, of New York, was taken to Washington, Pa., and cremated last Wednesday.

There is a bill in the Legislature authorizing notices public to perform the marriage ceremony.

European livestock dealers have reported that the American hog is a diseased animal, and dangerous to health to eat.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has bought a controlling interest in the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad.

The Car of Russia was assassinated last Sabbath. The common rights of men, free government, and equality under the law have never been obtained through the work of assassins.

Ex-President Hayes and family, with several friends, arrived at Evening, Ohio, at 7 o'clock on the evening of the 8th inst. They were met at the depot and enthusiastically welcomed.

President Garfield is setting the Golden Club right, as to the misinterpretations that have directly or indirectly got abroad from the Club as to what Mr. Garfield wrote to the Club on the question of tariff.

A fight over a Baptist church in Pittsburg has been ended by an order of court decreeing the sale of the building and the equal division of the proceeds between the two congregations which are parties to the contest.

General Simon Cameron was in Havana, Cuba, on March 8th, his 82nd birthday. The Captain General extended to him the freedom of the island. A dinner was given in honor of his birthday, and a good time generally for all present was had.

At the Toronto General Hospital, Canada, recently, the left leg of a young man was amputated by means of a wire and electricity. Reports of the operation say that it was speedily done, and with great satisfaction to the large number of doctors who were present.

The North American says: In view of the failure of the Funding bill, the important fact has been brought to light that under existing laws the Treasury Department has power to raise one hundred millions of new four per cents for the funding of the matured sixes.

Temperance ladies had a full length picture of Mrs. Hayes painted for the White House. The picture was presented to President and Mrs. Garfield. The President, in his speech to the presentation committee, declared himself in favor of temperance, but he did not say that he is a teetotaler.

A girl, under marriageable age, in St. Louis, undertook to deceive a magistrate. She passed the figures 22 in her shoes, and when asked how old she was, she said she was 'over 22'. The magistrate was not satisfied, and proposed to examine her under oath, when she acknowledged she was a minor. The wedding was postponed.

During the reign of the Roman Emperor Justinian, Constantinople was shaken for a period of 40 days by an earthquake, and a vibratory motion was felt throughout the Roman Empire. Two hundred and fifty thousand people perished in an earthquake at Antioch. The city was filled with Christian strangers at the festival of Ascension. So says an historian.

Secretary Blaine is asking British authority to correct the mis-statements that certain British Consuls have been making about American pork being diseased. Pork and fish are important items in matters of eating, and Mr. Blaine does not seem to suffer in either pork or fish at the hands of the British. Go in, Mr. Secretary, the country will hold you hat.

'Every member of the new Cabinet is married, Secretary Hunt, of the Navy, having his fourth wife. Windom is the only one man, Blaine, James and Hunt were Whigs, Kirkwood originally a Democrat, and Lincoln consistent Republicans. Blaine is fifty-one years of age; Veagh, fifty-four; Ames, fifty; McGowan, fifty-eight; Lincoln, thirty-seven; Hunt, fifty-two.

When the 3 per cent. refunding bill passed Congress, or when it was plainly to be seen that it would pass that body, many of the National Banks notified the Secretary of the United States Treasury of their resolve to not bank under the new law, or proposed law. They asked for a withdrawal of currency. President Hayes vetoed the bill. The veto put a new phase on the face of financial affairs, restored the tranquility of the banks, and now the banks that asked to withdraw their circulation are asking to recall the request for the withdrawal of currency. The new Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Windom, has denied that the first request of the banks for a withdrawal stand, and shall not be recalled, and that he will relieve the tightness of the money markets by buying bonds to the amount of the money withdrawn by the banks.

Personal.

Brief biographical sketches of the Cabinet officers of President Garfield have been written and published as follows:

SECRETARY OF STATE.
James G. Blaine, the new Secretary of State, was born in Washington county, Pa., in 1833. He graduated from Washington Presbyterian College about the year 1854, after which he taught school for a while, and then became editor of the Kentuck Journal. He was elected to the Maine Legislature in 1857, and served in that body five years. In 1862 he was elected to Congress, and was Speaker of the House from 1868 to 1875. He was elected to the United States Senate in 1877, and was a prominent candidate for the Presidency in the last two Republican National Conventions. Mr. Blaine is a strong partizan, and may properly be termed a "stalwart" Republican.

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.
William Windom, the new Secretary of the Treasury, was born in Belmont county, Ohio, in 1827. He received an academic education, was admitted to the Bar and practiced in Ohio until 1855, when he removed to the State of Minnesota. He was elected from that State to the Thirty-third Congress, and served five terms in the House of Representatives. He was appointed to the United States Senate in 1870 to fill an unexpired term, and was elected to the Senate in 1871 and re-elected in 1877. Mr. Windom is a pronounced Republican.

POSTMASTER GENERAL.
Thomas K. James, of New York, the Postmaster General, was born at Utica, N. Y., in 1831, and was educated at the Utica Academy. He edited the Madison county Journal in that State for ten years, and filled several subordinate positions to which he was appointed. President Grant appointed him postmaster of New York, which office he filled very acceptably until he tendered his resignation to enter President Garfield's Cabinet.

SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.
Samuel J. Kirkwood, the new Secretary of the Interior, was born in Harford county, Maryland, in 1813. He received an academic education in Washington City, removed to Ohio in 1835, read law, and was admitted to the Bar in 1843. He removed to Iowa in 1835, and was elected to the State in 1856, and in 1859 was chosen Governor of the State. He was elected United States Senator in 1866 to fill an unexpired term, and in 1875 he was again chosen Governor. At the time of his appointment to the Cabinet he was United States Senator, and his term would have expired on the 4th of March, 1883.

SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.
William H. Hunt, the new Secretary of the Navy, was born in South Carolina, and removed to Louisiana with his father when quite young. He is a lawyer, and was appointed by Mr. Hayes to a Judgeship in the Court of Claims, in 1878.

ATTORNEY GENERAL.
Wayne MacVeagh, the new Attorney General, was born in Chester county, Pa., in 1833, and is a son-in-law of Simon Cameron. He graduated at Yale College in 1853, and is about thirty-seven years of age. After his father's assassination he went to Chicago, where he studied law, and he has practiced there since his admission to the Bar.

SECRETARY OF THE WAR.
Robert T. Lincoln, the new Secretary of War, is the only surviving son of the late President Lincoln. He was born in Springfield, Illinois, and is about thirty-seven years of age. After his father's assassination he went to Chicago, where he studied law, and he has practiced there since his admission to the Bar.
