DELAWARE TOWNSHIP, April 9, 1881. Editor Sentinel and Republican:—Sir: The leading question in this vicinity seems to be, "Are you in favor of a free bridge at Millin?" which is, with a very few exceptions, answered in the negative.

The Town Council will meet on the first Monday of each and every month to transact such business as may be brought before it relative to borough affairs.

Stock dealers predict an advance in the price of horned cattle. Don't fish with a seine; the law imposes a fine for fishing in that way. Read the free bridge law as published in another column in this paper. Harley, the clothing man, is now in the city laying in a stock of new clothing. Merchant Pennell has been to the city and his new goods are beginning to arrive. Wanted—Two shotguns, that weigh about 60 pounds each, at 5 cents per pound. Petitions will be sent up to Court, to remonstrance against the movement for the building of a county bridge across the river. Fishermen say that the late cold spell drove the fish that had started out on the early excursion up stream, back to deep water.

The amendment to the State Constitution "forever prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors excepting for medicinal, medical and scientific purposes," will doubtless pass the Legislature, and be submitted to a vote of the people. On last Thursday afternoon the roof of the house of Mr. George Howen, residing in Fernwagh township, took fire from a spark out of the chimney. It is supposed. Many neighbors gathered and put the fire out, but not till the roof was seriously damaged.

People that are on the shady side of life say that in 1846, wheat fields presented an unpromising appearance on the first day of May as they do now, but after the last mentioned date the weather became propitious and the harvest was a most satisfactory one. A man who was sentenced to be hung was visited by his wife, who said: "My dear, would you like the children to see you executed?" "No," replied he. A youth who attended a Scotch revival meeting for the fun of the thing, ironically inquired of the minister "whether he could work a miracle or not?"
