We have been asked to publish the following extracts from private letters...

MCCOYVILLE, April 11, 1881. My Dear Sir: I write this at a late hour to-night.

I was sorry to hear, from His Honor and others, that some of the Chapel people claim the decision in their favor.

The question whether those worshipping in the chapel have a regular organization will depend on the opinion as to what constitutes an organization.

The effect of the judge's decision, if it had been given before Rev. Sherrard had resigned, would have been to stop his preaching in the church, and I suppose, legally, set aside entirely the action of Presbytery.

Presbytery has no right to divide congregations without their consent. The congregations in this case did not give their consent at the congregation of Lost Creek.

That the congregation at Millintown and the congregation at Lost Creek, although composing one and the same church, the Cedar Spring Church, are separate, and distinct congregations, legally, and could not be divided as such.

The positions taken by Lost Creek are entirely sustained by the court, and it is the duty of the legal organization of the church worshipping in the chapel.

There is another difficulty in the way. The Cedar Spring Church had its existence before the charter was granted, and was chartered as such.

I do hope the chapel church will take such a course as will forever put it out of the power of any one, whether member of the corporation or not, to bring a civil action against them.

There is one thing more I would like to call their attention to. Let them not do anything to make the position of their present excellent pastor unpleasant, or to injure his efficiency.

To all I would say, Jesus is one; His people are one in Him. We are members of His body, and members one of another.

Yours, in our common Lord. J. J. HAMILTON.

SHORT LOCALS.

Court next week. Tight lacing is at a discount. Lent season closed on Saturday.

Will's hotel has been undergoing repairs. Buy Dr. Morrison's anti-billious pills. There are three subscription schools in town.

There are six Indians living in Bedford county. There is a boom in potatoes—they go in price.

Slighting was good in Clearfield county last week. The north side of the mountains are still snow-clad.

For spring trade goods, call at Esplanade's store. James McAuley sells a one-horse wheat and oats binder.

The man that repairs umbrellas was in town on Wednesday. "House cleaning," with its discounts, is all the rage now.

A Western minister charges $1 extra for kissing the bride. A number of citizens in town are having their houses re-painted.

Scarlet fever of a modified type prevails in certain parts of the county. Good Friday was not observed by the business people of the town.

Second-class tickets to the West may be bought at the railroad station. This place was visited by a refreshing shower of rain last Wednesday.

There is a man in Cambria county who has taught school 60 years. There are 36 prisoners in the Eastern Penitentiary from Franklin county.

Wanted—Two shotes, that weigh about 60 pounds each, at 5 cents per pound. S. D. Parker has been kept closely indoors by a painful ailment in the head.

Harrisburg receives 300 gallons of milk from Cumberland valley every morning. Huntingdon Presbytery will meet at Spruce Creek on the first Tuesday in October.

Joseph Rothrock and wife, of Fermanagh township, started on a trip to Nebraska on Monday. A boy revivalist is securing many converts to the U. B. Church in Cumberland county.

The proper remedy for a young lady who is short of stature is to get spiced as soon as possible. The most curiously constructed bridge in this county is in Susquehanna township.

See the new style of Plover Shoes at Heck's Shoe Store. They are the best dirt excluders we ever saw.

People in the vicinity of Manayunk, Millin county, believe that gold has been found on a farm near the station. The Millin Bridge Company advertises for contractors to send in bids for the re-building of the river bridge.

It is said that "small-pox can be cured by the application of raw onions to the hands, feet and arms." Mrs. King, mother of Edgar King, editor of the Altoona Medical, died a few days ago at her home in Duncansville, Pa.

Preacher Bonagoh, of this place, and Preacher McLane, of Lewisport, exchanged pulpits on Sabbath. Mrs. Saylor died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. William Connor, in Patterson, on Saturday. She was aged 82 years.

The property of W. H. Keizer, as advertised by Sheriff Kelly, will not be sold, the claim against it having been paid. TO LOAN—Five hundred dollars, for a period of one year, upon satisfactory security. For further information call at this office.

A child of Samuel Gushard in Patterson, and a child of John Deering in Licking Creek Valley, died of scarlet fever last week. A second child of Mr. Gushard died in Patterson, and was buried on Monday, scarlet fever being the disease that produced death. Three other children of the same family are lying dangerously ill with the same disease.

That "murder will out," finds another illustration in the death-bed confession of a woman in Reading, this State. A Mrs. Gottschall, a few days ago, while lying on her death-bed, confessed her knowledge of the murder of David Good, fifteen years ago. Good was murdered in a saloon in Reading one night by three men, and his body was carried in a bag to a lime-kiln a mile distant, and there placed so as to give the appearance of having been suffocated. An inquest was held on the body, and the verdict was that death had been caused by suffocation. Two of the men who committed the murder are officers of a church, and they were arrested last Sabbath while attending divine service.

A LECTURE ON EVERYDAY LIFE IN INDIA. Rev. A. D. Rowe, lately returned from India, will deliver a Lecture in the Lutheran Church, Millintown, on Monday evening, April 25, 1881.

A STABLE ON THE FARM OF WILLIAM PFENNINGER, in Fermanagh township, was set on fire about 3 o'clock the other morning, and burned. The owner of the stable had several tons of hay in it, and in the under part of the stable were stored a horse hay rake, a reaper and mower, cultivators, and other farming implements.

A FRIEND OF DR. D. M. CRAWFORD, living in the Western county sent him a magnificent carriage or sleigh robe, made of the skins of prairie wolves. A number of wolf tails are pendant to the robe, as if to identify the animal from which it is made.

THE HUNTINGDON GLOBE says: A party of French capitalists were in this place last Monday looking for a site to erect works to extract the sap from wood by some process, for tanning leather. We are informed that the party had a well-known carpenter and builder to give them an estimate for the buildings they desire, and then left, leaving him under the impression that they had decided to locate here, and would begin operations at an early day.

THE JUDICIAL APPOINTMENT which as it now appears on its passage through the Legislature, makes a judicial district of Union, Snyder and Juniata. Perry is joined to Huntingdon, and Millin county to Center county. The vote in the proposed new judicial district, of which Juniata is a part, last fall stood, Garfield, 5993; Hancock, 5990. In 1878 the vote stood, Holt, 5123; Hill, 5091. The district is Republican.

THE PERRY COUNTY FREEMEN'S SOCIETY, the contract for re-erecting that portion (about one-half) of the Millersburg bridge carried away by the late flood in the Juniata, has been awarded to Aaron Shredler, of Oliver township, at the sum of $7,700. It is to be built of wood, same as old one was; the masonry to be additional charge, as we learn; and to be ready for use by the 15th of July next.

LAST FRIDAY a three-year-old son of H. A. Stambaugh, of Fermanagh township, took up a corn-stalk and delivered a blow on the body of the family dog. The dog sprang at the child, threw him down, and proceeded to bite the boy in the arm, along with the wrist to the elbow. The child was clad in thick goods, and the teeth of the animal failed to reach the flesh, excepting at the wrist. Afterwards an older son of Mr. Stambaugh, while in the act of tying the dog was also bitten. The dog was not suffering from hydrophobia.

WE earnestly recommend our readers when visiting town to drop in at Heck's Shoe Store, next door to Cheap John's, and see his wonderful selection of Boots and Shoes. It is a curiosity to see the many different shapes and styles. One would wonder where they all go to. But then he has a very large trade all over the country. He keeps nothing but the best makes, and his prices are the lowest.

A man, while driving a cow through one of the streets of Sunbury, took up a stone and threw it at the unruly animal. The shot was a telling one. It took effect in the large wind, and the damage was fifty dollars. The driver of the cow had to fulfil the bill of damage, which was right. A man has no right to trespass and damage men's property in town. But now turn the case round. How often does it occur that town people turn out their stock to wander out to trespass upon farmers, and when they are spoken to in regard to the matter they grin and display their own bad character by hurling vituperation in the face of the man who has only spoken in favor of protecting what is his own. Again, how often does it occur that people from town, when they go abroad, do not stay in the road, which is made for all men to use, but become trespassers on the farms, throw down fences, break rails, trample down the grass and young crops, and when spoken to in regard to the trespass, reply by abusing the people on whose property they trespass. The farmers should treat the town people as the farmers are treated by the town people when their rights are trespassed on.

TIME EXTENDED.—Many subscribers of the Sentinel and Republican, that were in arrears more than one year, paid up their arrears within the past month. A number of others who are in arrears more than one year have requested an extension of time. After the first of May, 1881, a bill will be sent to each and every one that is in arrears more than one year.

Subscribe for the Sentinel and Republican. It gives you a great deal more, and a greater variety of reading matter than any other paper issued in Juniata county.
