

B. F. SCHWEIER.

VOL. XXXV.

THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

Editor and Proprietor.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, MAY 11, 1881.

Shooting the Walrus.

AT NIGHTFALL.

Coming along by the meadows, Just after the sun went down. Watching the gathering shadows Creep over the hillside brown.

Coming along in the gloaming. With never a star in the sky, My thoughts went a-roaming, a-roaming Through days that were long gone by,

Days when desire said. "To-morrow, To-morrow, heart, we'll be gay !" Days ere the heart heard the sorrow Which echoes through yesterday.

Life was a goblet burnished. That with love for wine was filled ; The cup is bruised and tarnished, And the precious wine is spilled.

But to the traveler weary, Just coa ing in sight of home. What does it matter how dreary The way whereby he has come?

Coming along by the meadows, And watching the fading day, Duskier than night's dusky shadows Fell shadows of yesterday;

In the northern sunset's glimmer, The Great Bear opened his eves Low in the east a shimmer Showed where the full moon would rise Lights in a window were gleaming. And some one stood at the sate. Said, "Why do you stand there dreaming: And why are you home so late ?"

Vesterday's shadow and sorrow That moment all vanished away ! Here were to-day and to-morrow-What matter for yesterday?

Nobly Avenged.

Uncle Harry suddenly looked up from his evening paper at the beautiful girl standing beside the window, whispering to the canary, that fluttered its gold-colored wings Not"-and a quick, strange look came into and reached its bill for the lump of sugar her eyes-"you do not mean Herbert Carshe held for it.

"Maud, what was that young fellow's name who was down at Milton's Hotel last loves me, and-" summer-that handsome young chap that used to come up here of evenings and Maud felt a little warm flush on her face, and was conscious of a curious little un steadiness in her voice as she met the old gentleman's eyes.

"Malcolm Carlyon," she answered, and it seemed that her voice caressed the name -as only a woman's voice can caress the name of the beloved-while a brighter, more conscious flush warmed her cheeks. "Yes-Malcolm Carlyon! I thought 1 recognized the name. He's married, sharply, leaving her as white as ever she would be when that icy touch should come. no! no! no!" "Married? Married? It can't be true.

it must be some other Carlyon." She reached out for the paper, her sur prise, her dismay, in her eyes; but it was for I love him, and he loves me just as very plainly recorded there-"Malcolm well."

Carlyon, of Forest Dale, to Emilie Rose old flame of yours. Why, Malcohn, she not know that Herbert is lying dangerous does know you!" For General Howard, with the fair queen ly ill of brain fever? Mr. Carlyon's physi-cian has just been to tell me his reason, has of beauty and fashion on his arm, and com-ing towards them, Mrs. Glyn smiling gra-and, mamma, I am going to him, because "It surely is Mr. Carlyon," she said, as "It surely is Mr. Carlyon," she said, as she gave him her hand. "We were old friends, I think," she added, coldly court-eous; and Malcolm Carlyon's heart gave a dull, smothered throb, as he thought how "You will go at all events, Lily?" completely she had forgotten the little epi-"Mamma, I love him, Wouldn't yo do as much-so little-for anyone yo "It is like a woman, to put such a mem ory forever out of her life," he thought, Ah, she would have died, in those early bitterly, as she passed on, as if further un- days, for this sick boy's father! "Wait," she said "until I come "I think I shall go home," Mrs. Cariyon And while Laly sat crying and praying, said, imperiously. "There is nothing here her mother went to Malcolm Carlyon, and to amuse me, and I fancied Herbert was was shown to the bedside of the delirious not as well as usual when nurse took him to put him to sleep. Get my wraps, Mal-guish, looking at the fever-flushed face, the colm, and take me home.' tangled, curling hair. He looked up as she entered.

He was willing enough to go, and the thought of his new baby-boy, not yet three months old, made him forget Maud Glyn "Your work!" he said, sternly, as he "But I will atone! Oh, Malcolm, I am

While she, walking away on General Howard's arm, said to herself sharplysorry sorry, sorry! Laly is coming to hun, and I will stay and fight death with him! "He has forgotten it! But I have never He will live-he shall live, and heaven forgotten, and I never can forget?" will forgive me!" And when a score of years, with all their And he sprang towards her, pale and lights and shades, their pleasures and pains, passionful, and lifted both her hands to his had been marked off her life, she had not lips. iips. "It is my own little Mand again! Yes, forgotten. "Mamma, 1 have come to tell you somehe will get better now. The doctor says he will, if Lily comes; and Maud-Maud, thing. Will you listen?" Mrs. Laurence Glyn looked up from the cannot we go back to that day so long ago, letter she was writing, with the fond, ten- when I wanted to ask you to bless my der smile she always gave het teenen, daughter-a shy, sweet girl of seventeen, so hke what the mother had been at the emony was performed, and Maud Cariyon's emony was performed, and Maud Cariyon's der smile she always gave her beautiful

Tou wart a new dress, or some other incar was the necessity, from the non-possession of which you are suffering so terribly?" Her soft, white hand, jeweled and strengthful, smoothed the girl's fair har, and she smiled down at the flushed, hushed wise man writes f

Lite Saving Rules. Don't you love the maxims which son wise man writes for the newspapers, useful rules which are intended to save human "Not a new dress, Lily, or a trinket, or another new pet pony? Child, what is it? hfe and alleviate human suffering? There is always so much practical common sense in them. Here is a batch for instance: "For dust in the eyes avoid rubbing and lash water in them.

"Remove cinders with the point of pencil." We never saw that operation tried but once, and then it was successful. The man got out the cinder. And also put out "Before passing through smoke take would present if every man kept that rule

"Smother fire with carpets, water will come! Tell Malcolm Carlyon's son I say man's house is on fire and burning faster The girl's lip quivered, and her face > the money to buy a whole carpet store to throw over the conflagration.

pestry Brussels would do any good. Mrs. Glyn laughed coldly. "That is all nonsense about your heart "For fainting, lay the body flat. bears are breaking. I tell you I know that hearts do man, untrodden by his foot. The banks of the former wonderful river are untrod-A Turkish Watch-Tower. den because man can not reach the heights.

The Schooner San Diego, Captain Cathcart, arrived at San Francisco, recently the latter because there is nothing to tread after a five months' cruise in pursuit upon. There are a few landings upon the we love each other. Oh, mamma," and the steady voice faltered, and the tears sprang to her eyes, "if I might only go with non-operative control of the second of the secon purposes, but the market heretofore has been supplied by whalers, who, when the river on the occasional high ground. story goes-a very handsome Turkish maiwhales were scarce, eked out a cargo with Silver Springs, is the terminus of the reguthe product of the walrus. To the usual lar trips of the beat; but was but a half. garian knight, was overtaken and brought articles of ivory and oil the San Diego had way place to us. It is a basin of water 260 back by the Agas Janissaries, who led her feet across, and the water is so clear that a to the Babakan rock to be put to death. added the hides, of these immense animals. five-cent nickle thrown in at a depth of Her spirit was often seen wandering over Walrus abound in immense numbers among the islands of Behring's Sea. Like sixty feet can be distinctly seen upon the the seal they clamber up on the rocks and white sand at the bottom. The water the seal they clamber up on the rocks and beaches, and, hudding closely, sleep for days without movement. In this condition they can be readily approached and by skilled marksmen, shot at will. The crew of the San Diego shot seven hundred in one shoal on the beach at Ha'l Island before the myriads composing it took to the water growth of reeds and water plants, and the for safety. Many of them weighed over next morning found us sailing through an 3.000 pounds. Owing to a violent storm open prairie-like country. Here are great but two hundred of this number were secured. 'Near Cape Upright, and the southcastern end of St. Matthew's Island white herons, curlew, water-moccasins and southeastern end of St. Matthew's Island white herons, currew, water-increasing unanger in source alligators. Everywhere on the river quanting during which both anchors were lost, titles of black bass can be caught. Our places, causing powerful eddies and im-cruise was half completed. Heretofore the great deal of noise, and those of the Commethod of capturing walrus has been with modore and Captain Edwards did considerthe harpoon. The alarm which this method able execution. It was not, however, till created soon rendered it impracticable. The we got into Lake Griffin that we began to plan adopted by the crew of the San Diego was for each man armed with a Winches-ter or Sharpe rifle, to approach the sleeping animals cautionsly and shoot at the partic-ular portion of the skull covering the brain. Any failure to preserve the head a giant rock on the edge of a sharp promoundary, the river expands will Any failure to penetrate the brain does not of the lake or by some marshy inlet. Sud- a sharp promontory, the river expands until kill. The front of the head is impervious denly we hear our colored pilot exclaim ; to a bullet, and the neck is so well protec- "Dar's a 'gator !" The pilot's bell jungles, ted by the blubber that a ball produces no the boat slows up, and, as we draw nearer other effect than to alarm and excite the and nearer to the monster, the rifles are abruptiv two tremendous walls of rock, animal, and thus cause the entire shoal to raised and the Commodore's or Captain's with lofty peaks and precipitous inclinestake to the water. Every shot must kill signals breathlessly awaited. There is a showing mighty cracks and rents like the nstantly without producing any commo- sharp report, followed by a regular volley, tion or the game disapears. The walrus and then, while the great tail splashes the is very stupid unless disturbed, when it water or beats the ground, the grinning seem ready to pounce upon the river and fights with great power. Throwing its deck-hands are summoned to drag the beast mense head back so as to elevate the on board, sometimes not dead, but woundtusks to a horizontal position, it springs ed, and the upper jaw rises and falls with task and runs through the narrow pass and ject-" forward, and by the rapid move of the vindictive energy, the teeth grinding on comes out into broader water unharmed head strikes with an unerring aim any the nearest object, causing among object within three or four feet. Woe to the captors a lively apprehension as to the man or animal within the limit. He is safety of their feet. Many "gators" fell we pass Trecule, which appears to have tranfixed in a moment. Fights among the victims to the brigade, but more escaped, males are frequent and terrific, often ter- as it is hard to approach them near enough man domination in these parts, and directly minating in the death of one or both. Few for a shot on account of the noise made by females are found in the Behring's Sea the boat. We spent that night at Lees- trance of the Kasam Pass-the grandest during the summer months, the theory burg, having during the day sailed over a and most remarkable sight on the Danube, among hunters being that they pass this great deal of the lake, and gone into creeks. The stream here—as if driven by some unsea-on with their young in the Arctic and and inlets where no steamboat had ever accountable power-cramped in a space appear below the straits late in the fall and been. The next morning (Sunday), as we of about two hundred yards, rushes with a spread before me some half dozen of every winter. Unlike the seal, they have a habit were sailing down the river on our return of sleeping in the water with the head par-voyage, alligator steaks were placed upon sage, which resembles a breach made by "Now what in of sleeping in the water with the head par-tially exposed. The ivory of the walrus sells readily for forty-five or fifty cents per in taste somewhat resembling, but being name an improvement upon sturgeon. pound. Billiard balls, cancheads and all rather an improvement upon sturgeon. vory articles of similiar size are made of it Few, however, care to make an entire meal here, but the larger part of it is sent to upon alligator meat, and one gentleman, Chima and used extensively in the manu- who was known as Prof. Appollinaris, facture of Chinese ornaments. The oil is from his fondness for that exhilarating equal in quality to whale oil, commands beverage, Appollinaris water, absolutely the same price, and is used for the same refused to touch it. He offered $2 to any purposes. The hides are from one and a balf to two inches in thickness. When where it had been placed before he knew moan of the rushing stream, gives an surpassed for polishing silver plate. White onto a bread-plate, he built a barricade of impressive that it can never be forgotten. me some time since; it has had a wonder-

My friend Tom has a natural affection A little below Moldava the "Babakai" rock rises from the head of the river, about the middle of the stream; and standing upon its high platform is a watch tower, nected with which is also a very sad le gend-but then you must remember that it is only a legend. At one time-so the maculate no longer. den, having run away with a gallant Hunthe runs of the old tower and leaping over word he was covered with mud. The length in the gutter. At my carnest solicitation, he once purchased a suit of precisely mud color, It was a capital idea. He crossed the street three times; he walked a half a mile, and returned, in apruins of Castle Columbacs-in Turkish. Gogerdschinik-which was the key of the navigation of that section of the Danube as pearance at least, unscathed. The thing far as the Iron Gate. The Iron Gates of was unprecedented. True, he was welcomed by the affec. the Danube are not iron, but a continuation of rocks and heavy boulders that obstruct bath from the wheels of an omnibus. But difficult and dangerous passage to navigate. Soon after leaving Columbacs the steamer gild refined gold-to paint the lily." "Tom will be a neat man yet," I said, clears the first in the numerous rapids which, as far as the Turn Severin, form as I witnessed the success of my plan.

newly-painted window blinds.

it forms quite an inland sea-calm and smooth—until you near the famous passage called "Greben." Then on both shores rise very decided tone: very decided tone:--"But it must be done, and there is an end to it.' "Really," was the reply, "anything within the limits of possibility, but to make a coat in ten hours-I will promise any-thing in the world, but I really fear I shall Hanging boldly over the water's edge, they not be able to perform." gulp it up in one supreme, herculean

"If double your price will be any obdraught. But our steamer is equal to the "Certainly, sir, if you insist upon it; certhe and ready for another trial. A few miles upon it; it shall be done in time. Good orning, sir." The door opened, and a fellow with been one of the culminating points of Roshears and measures passed out. could Tom be doing with a tailor? atter Trecule you reach the imposing endo you think most becoming?' and he

"Now what in the name of all that is deep, bounding and leaping, striking and know you. But you cannot support the tashing the obstructing enemy with its character; if you had taken that of a chimmighty breakers and shimmering spray. ney sweep, now; but that would have been

"Why, the fact is, Frank," passing a the narrow channel, and the mysterious And we tanned they furnish a superior article of what it was; then, as no one would help him, with the handle of a spoon poking it frightful beauty, and the whole scene is so

NO. 19.

-Boston is to be lighted with the

BRIEFS.

for dirt, or rather dirt has a natural affecelectric light. tion for Tom. It is to him what gold was to Midas: whatever he touches turns to dirt. No matter how white the cravat, no dirt. No matter how white the cravat, no -Cadet Whittaker's ears already -One cord of birch wood weighs ment it comes within the sphere of Tom's have cost the government $100,000.

Why He Became a Fop.

influence its whiteness is gone; it is im--Venice is built on 72 Islands. -It costs over $30,000 a year for the maculate no longer. Dogs, sweeps and lamp-lighters never pass him without leaving upon his dress unequivocal marks of their presence. him blipped from Ma'ne to India this sum-Once, and only once, I saw him cross the mer.

street without encountering the wheels of -There is a deficiency of about $00, the cataracts. But steam navigation, with a carriage. I opened my mouth to con- 000 in the State Auditor's office of Virgratulate him, and before I could utter one ginia, -Dolgourouki, widow of the late careless blockhead lay at my feet, full czar has $30,000,000 to her credit in Berlin.

-Forty corus of oak wood will yield jus: about ten cords of mercha: charcoal. -Gen. John A. Gordon is reported to have sold a Southern coal mine tou $100,000.

-The last census in this country onate caresses of a dog that had been enjoying the coolness of a neighboring horse pond; true, he received a shower gave as relative numbers 983 women to every 1,000 men.

-The new census in Germany shows to plaster mud on Tom's new coat was "to a total population of 45,194,172, and increase of 2,466 812.

- Over twenty-five thousand tourists have visited the Yosemite Valley since In about half an hour it was my fate to its discovery in 1565. meet a gentleman with seven stripes of -Colonel Jerome N. Bonaparte, of green paint on his neck-it was my friend Baltimore, is to build a residence for himself at Washington.

-New York last year spent $7,000, Having no other amusement, one morning I strolled over to Tom's rooms. As I intoxicating beverages. 000 for amusements and $60,000,000 for

-In the English university boat race Oxford defeated Cambridge by fully four lengths.

-The Chicago Packing and Provision House kills 10,000 hogs every day, a day being ten hours.

-Judge Choate is rapidly recovering his health. He has been spending some time at Wallingford, Conn.

-The elevated railways of New York carried 63,000,000 last year without the tainly. I will put every man in my shop loss of a passenger, it is claimed.

-Of the cities of Holland Amsterdam has a population of 280,000; Rotterdam, 129,000; the Hague, 80,000.

What -The Mexican Government has paid $1,200,000 on account of subventions to sections of railway thus far com-"Just the man I wanted to see," he ex-plated. -A lady about to remove from Hart-ford, Conn., to St. Louis had four cats shipped to that city by express a few days ago.

-Within the last ten years 2,300 car couplers and draw-bars have been patented, yet but five patterns are in general use.

-The Gutenberg Bible, about the first book published with movenable The comparative darkness, owing to the height of the hideous cliffs, which hem in does all this mean?"

-During the war 5,221 officers and 90,868 privates belonging to the Union Army were killed in action or died of their wounds.

he first girl baby born in Louisville,

Ky., died on Sunday, aged 103 years. She has never ridden in a steam car.

-Capt. Mayne Reid, the famous ro mance writer, has a small estate in Hertfordshire, England, where he takes great interest in sheep breeding.

connty, 7,000 acres of mountain land, assessed at ten cents per acre, has been sold to a Pennsvlvania firm for $23,000.

-Mrs. Amelia Lewis asserts in Food md Health that nearly $15,000,000 is invested in oleomargarine factories, and

-Bishop J. L. Spaulding, of Peoria, location for a Catholic colony.

Iil., is in Arkansas looking for a suita-

Funds are ready to purchase 200,000

-A box containing $11,000 in bonds and other securities, and belonging to -The average age of members of the

Garfield Cabinet is 51. Mr. Gladstone's

Cabinet averages 58. There are two septuagenarians in the English Cabinet but the majority are between 50 and

-The Marquis of Lorne will go to

-When the Austrian Empress goes to England or Ireland, she carries her with an extremely hard mattress. Her own room is always arranged in so plain and simple a manner that it looks almost conventual. -Admiral Carr Glyn, to whom

Adelaide Nelson left the bulk of her fortune, has determined to set aside the sum of $15,000, the interest of which shall be devoted to the relief of necessitous members of the profession to which Miss Neilson belonged.

-Mr. Gladstone has eight children, seven of whom are living. His eldest son is a member of Parliment, his second son is Rector of Hawarden, his third is engaged in mercantile pursuits. His eldest daughter is married to the Head Master of Wellington College. Mr Gludstone was about thirty years old when he was married to the daughter of Sir. Stephen Glynne.

own bed with her-a plain little bed

a private depositor, has mysteriously disappeared from the vault of the Fay-ette National Bank, Lexington, Ky.

that they have added nearly $4 to the value of every ox killed.

acres of land for the purpose.

70.

-The Brandy tano, in Rockbridge

-The portrait of Milton, which was once owned by Charles Lamb, has just been bought in London by Mr. Quarful effect, I assure you." Now, it so happened that of all the good itch for $1,775. -The annual report of the Ameri advice I had ever given Tom, this was the very first instance in which he had seen fit can Steamship Company, of Philudelto follow it. So I could not attribute the phia, shows a deficit on the business of metamorphosis of my friend to my elo. 1880 of $57,510 15. quence. Who but a woman ever changed -Since March 1st, 1880, the Denve "Pray, where are you going this even-ing?" I continued, "that you must have a -It is estimated that during the last new coat so suddenly?" "Going, nowhere in particular. I had, year over 1,100 miles of telegraphic indeed, some idea of calling on my old friend, Mr. Murray; no harm in that, I and telephonic wires were placed over New York City. -The best time for visiting the "Your old friend, Mr. Murray; and his Holy Land Is in March, April and May, young niece, Miss Julia, has no share in the Later in the season there is danger of visit, I suppose? I heard that she arrived malarial fevers. -The managers of the State Agriin town last night." "Now, upon my word, Frank, you miscultural Society have decided to offer premiums to the amount of $28,000 at take me entirely. I did not know that she the coming fair. was in town last night-when I-that is, when I did not know anything about it." -In 1830 the number of miles of rail "And so you were there last night, too! road in the United States was only Really, this is getting along bravely." twenty-three; we have now more than "Why, the fact is, Frank you must 94,000 miles, and by the end of the year know everything. I called last evening to we will have over, 100,000. claws of the animal, a large strip of skin and flesh having been torn off his back. real estate, you know. I had no more idea and probably over 40,000 pots, are en--Over four hundred men and boats. of meeting a woman than a box constrictor gaged on the Massachusetts coast alone in the lobster fishery. -my beard was three days old, my collar saying that, after gamboning over the sleeping bodies as described, when the darm was given and the shouts and creams were raised, he had made one or -There were 1,986 failures in the United States during the first quarter of the current year, against 1,304 in the corresponding period of 1880. "And so you are going again to-night--Mrs. Elizabeth Givens, who was

"Oh, go on-don't stammer-blue is her

"The fact is, Frank-take another glass

"Exactly! 1 believe 1 have seen Julia;

This is especially useful when riding of the cars and there isn't a drop of water in the country nearer than the engine or the next lake, 43 miles behind you.

full breath and stoop low." Just imagine what a circus a smoking car pasted in his hat. mother says 'no!' Lily, you have always

"That's all well enough, but when than three steam engines can throw water, he hasn't the time, and frequently hasn't

"But, mamma, it will break my heart, don't suppose that anything else than ta-lyon? "That is what I mean. Oh, he says he "And you told him what, Lily?" "I said it must be just as you said, na," Lily replied sode m her life.

and the past.

onscious of his existence.

"And you-care for him? You are such a child-the mcrest baby! What do you know of the love that sways hearts, and makes or wrecks a human life?"

Lily looked up in her mother's stormy his eye, passionful eyes. "I know I care a great deal for him," she said, simply. "Yet you will tell him 'no,' Lily! When he demands your answer, tell him your see." And, as if Death had suddenly laid his cold hand ca her, the lovely flush faded been a dutiful daughter, and in this I ex-pect your usual obedience. For years I have been waiting, and now my turn has "Smother fire with carpets, water will often spread burning oil and increase the danger."

ighter of James Pitt Lynton, Esquire, of the Laurels, Bristol-and she had heard him speak of Miss Lynton many a time. Well, it was the first keen sorrow of the girl's life, and she laid the paper down, and what my decision is." went up to her room alone, and cried, and sobbed, and writhed with this crully murdered love, that was the very first love her girl's heart had ever known-that was no less a pain to her to endure that Malcolm Carlyon had not in so many words told her he loved her.

For, in a hundred ways, he had shown her that she was dearest to him, and she had-for all her maidenly modesty-not entirely hidden her sweet preference from him. And he had gone away, leaving such beautiful hopes in her heart, and now--He was married!

Up in her room she had her first fight with her fate; and when, an hour or two later, she came down into the parlor again, she had silenced, conquered it-and Lau rence Glyn, stepping forward to meet her, thought he had never seen her look so fair, and sweet, and subdued.

"I am so glad to find you at home and looking more charming than ever, Miss Tudor, though your cheek has lost its roses."

"Pale? Am I? I think not. Perhaps my dress makes me appear so. 1 never liked myself in any shade of gray. He linked her arm familiarly his. They had been friends for yearsthis rich, handsome man, who was twice Maud's age, but who, for all his wealth, has never touched the girl's heart.

"And I like you in anything, my dear Maud. I have come to you to-night pur posely to ask you to be my wifel My dar ling, am I to have that great, undeserved happiness? Can you love me, little one, with the first, the pure love of your girlish heart?" She drew a quick little breath, then dropped her lovely eyes.

"I cannot see, why you want me, Lau rence; but if-you do-"

And a month atterwards, when the stood at the altar, Laurence Glyn - knew nothing, suspected nothing of the ashes piled on the grave of the buried love in his wife's heart-the love for Malcolm Carlyon that had faded into cool, white ashes.

"But I can never forget him," Mrs. Laurence Glyn said to her own heart-"I can heaver forget, and I will never forgive him! "I understand the condition of never forget, and I will never forgive him! My turn will come."

A year later still, Mrs. Malcolm Carlyon, I think, Mr. Carlyon; and as to your son, leaning on her husband's arm, asked him who the elegant, distinguished lady was, in black velvet and satin, and diamonds, to whom General Howard was talkin .

And on this his first social entertainme since his return from abroad with his wife, young hear:s!" Malcolm Carlyon looked on Mrs. Glyn's She smiled, brilliant, smiling face-the face he had thought fairest, sweetest above all other for them, lest their hearts break; when, not faces, and that for a few little days he had so very long ago, you succeeded in- Well, almost decided to obtain for his own, at hearts do not break so readily; and if they which to look, at the head of his table.

But, with pretty Maud Tudor, the Car- or less, that is ruined." lyon table would have been poverty stricken comparitively, for years, while Emilie Lynton had a fortune waiting for him to

"Who is she, Malcolm? How I do dis like having to repeat a question, and you me in my desire for revenge upon you!" do act and look so mysteriously." His eyes kindled passionately.

The small, waspish voice was begin to sicken him already. Months ago he had told himself what a cruel wrong he had done himself in yoking for life to this deli- grown to be." and now, when he came so anddeniy upon Maud Tudor—no, Mrs. Laurence Glyn—so handsome, so brilliant and blooming—" Well, such mistakes will go on being wede so how as human herete are making the thinks you." cate, fretful, pampered child of wealth; and now, when he came so suddenly upon Mand Tudor-no, Mrs. Laurence Glyn-so s made, so long as human hearts are ambi-

Mr. Carlyon looked indulgently down his wife's sallow, peevish face, his heart throbbing just a beat faster than was usual. Mrs. Glyn, I believe I heard "That?

ome one say."

thought, maybe, from your mysteriousness and the way you looked, she might be an

the same, I command that you tell him "But, oh, mamma-" church steeple, or in front of a runaway while in the act of reloading his gun, was Mrs. G yn passionately interrupted the team. It isn't safe. piteous remonstrance.

"Suck poisonous wounds, unless your outh is sore; enlarge the wound, or better "I tell you I have only lived for this hour! There is no 'but' about it, Lilly-it is nothing but 'no' to Malcolm Carlyon's still, cut the wound out without delay." If that isn't a lively piece of advice for started on a run, and was followed hotly by sane man to give to healthy people! the bear, who gained on him at every leap And Lily Glyn crept away, to cry out Listen here-don't you do anything of the her sorrow to herself. kind. And if you get a scratch on the Twenty-four hours later, a servant took throat, don't enlarge it or cut it out. And fortunate enough to kill him, but not until to Mrs. Glyn a card from a gentleman

if you get a wouad on the back of your neck, don't you try to reach it with your mouth. Somebody will try that some day and there'll be a broken neck in the fam-ot July is of about eighteen hours' durawaiting in the parlor, and she went down, with a cold, passionless face, and deliber-ate repose of manner, to look upon Malcolm Carlyon's face for the first time since her widowhood ten years before. "If in the water, float on the back, with He was so like he used to be-of coarse the nose and mouth projecting." Now this is the best rule in the lot. That showing that he was twenty years olderbut, she thought, even handsomer, than in his younger days. Nevertheless, her well disciplined heart did not quicken or lessen its steady beats, and she bowed courteously, not even wonwill never drown.

dering if his thoughts had gone flying back What Day of the Week? to the last time they stood alone in Maud way of finding out: First, divide the date but she hastened to assure him his presence, although a surprise, was no more an intrusion than dozens of calls she received daily. "It is a very serious matter that brings me," he continued, with grave carnestness, "and you will allow me to introduce it a the beginning. I have come on behalf of my son, whose happiness is at stake, and who has been refused by your lovely daughter, in obedience to your command Is this correct, Mrs. Glyn?" of the occurrence-1 counting for Sunday, 2 for Monday, and so on, 0 counting for Saturday. For example: Washington was born February 22,1732. He stood looking in her face, still very enchantingly fair. "It is entirely correct, Mr. Carlyon.

To find out on what day he was born: Your son has been refused by my daughter; in obedience to my explicit commands. Not a word beyond the bare actual state ment.

ary to the 22d of February are 53 days. These add to 2165 equal 2218. Now we divide by 7. 2218 divided by 7 equals 316, "But, pardon me, you may not know how fondly they are attached to each other. leaving us the fraction of 6. Hence, Wash-Surely you cannot know what a terrible ington was born on Friday. sfortune it will be to them to be so need-

Example for a coming event: If we wish to know on which day in 1882 our parents will have the pleasure of celebrating their golden wedding, January 14th: 1882 divided by 4 equal 470. 1882 plus 470 aughter's affairs better than any one else, you can hardly expect me to take an inter equals 2352, plus 14, equals 2366, divided est either way. All I have said is, Lily cannot marry him, and Lily shall not marry by 7 equals 338, leaving 0 as a remainder which falls on Saturday.

"And you can so deliberately break two She smiled, looking steadily in his eyes.

did, what matter! It is only a life, more

"Maud!" he exclaimed, in a sudden horrified tone. "I am glad you have called me by my name,' she said, coldly. "I have not heard it since my husband died, and it strengthens

"And you will kill our children to wreck your revenge upon me! Well, it is useless to plead with such a woman as you have

"Entirely useless," she repeated, haugh home, where his son awaited his coming in feverish impatience, Malcolm wondered whether it was his sin returning to curse A week later, Lily went to her mother, with pale, resolute face and a steady gleam

"Oh!" in a relieved tone of voice; "I in her eyes, that was her father over again. "Mamma," she said, very quietly-an inous calm it was-"perhaps you do the whole region unpromising for any other than fishing and maritime purposes. is the cap sheaf. You cut that out and Owing to the shallowness of the paste it on your cuff, where you can al-ways see it. Just follow that rule and you very turbulent and dangerous navigation. Hunting Alligators.

to the last time they stood alone in Mand Tudor's home. "Perhaps it is needful for me to apolo-gize for intruding, Mrs. Glyn," he began; way of finding out. Here is a very simple way of finding out. Here is a very simple three large decks, a fourth ard smaller one of the year of the occurrence by 4. The being over the pilot-house and captain's quotient-leaving away all fractions, if state-room, and forming the best stand for there be any -add again to the date of the shooting alligators. In her well-furnished year of the occurrence. To this add the number of days from the first of January to the date of the month of the occurrence-always counting February 28 days. The result of this, now divide by 7. shutters running along each side, the bos days. The result of this, now divide by 7, shutters running along each star, wheels and here the fraction gives the exact day of the occurrence—1 counting for Sunday, 2 for Monday, and so on, 0 counting for just back of this cascade making wheel is a double rudder, which gives great power in turning the innumerable sharp angles of the river. When I arose at 6 o'clock the To find out on what day he was only next morning, and had been green green and had been green and had been green green and h miles from Palatks, the distance from the latter place to Lake Griffin, to which we were going, being about 200 miles. Befor going into a well cooked and heartily enjoyed breakfast 1 had time to appreciate the strangeness and beauty of the river. Its narrow channel, running in a southerly direction from the St. John, into which the river empties, winds about in the Bow They Take Their Tod. Molasses in mine, said the grocer.

I want a phlegm cutter, said the tailor. Give us a mixed drink, said the apoth-An eve opener will do for me, said

Birch beer, said the lumber merchant.

Liquid lightning is mine, said the ele I'll take a high lonesome, said the aer

Trot me a cock-tail, said the milliner. Give us something with a straw, said he farmer." Pure spirits in mins, said the parson A bo rrhon for me, said the politician. Give it to us straight, said the reporter I take it smoking hot; said the fireman. Mineral water's mine, said the geold

Egg nogg, said the produce dealer. • I'll take a little gin, said the white washer. Give us some of your favorite branaid the miller. Gin sling, said the ball player

Rye whisky is my poison, said the phy Liquid perspiration in the shape of brandy, is my tipple, said the proprieto of the I'll take mine plain, said the carpe Sour mash whisky, said the clerk.

numerous in Rohm Now, that is a good rule; there is sense the crew of the San Diego obtained the morsel from sight, and finally, after hear in that. Because if you are careful to lay your body flat before you faint, it may save you a terrible thump when you fall. Let us add to this rule the advice, never faint on a ladder, or in a balloon or on top of a church steenle, or in front of a runaway while in the sat of relading in the sat of relading is a hunter, an one occasion, while engaged in the slaugh-ter of walrus on Hall Island, a hunter, an old skintlint. ing a few joking allusions to the meat of "Talk about your mean men," said old startled by a rustle on the beach, looked honeer Skinderson, at Phil McGovern's aloon, San Francisco : "the very tightest, closest, far seeing, calculating old skin-flint I ever seed, was old Klamskatter, the the spothe occupied. Dropping his gun, he mine superintendent, who died up at Gold men and children : these were followed by Hill the other day." A comrade perceiving his danger, directed "Was, eh?" encouragingly remarked a his aim at the ferocious beast, and was table. "Yes sir-ee; he was just piz n, he was; closer than the bark of a tree. When he was running the Hornet mine up at Vir-ginia, he used to skulk around the levels tion. Very little ice is to be seen there in the summer; the islands are barren, and disguised as a mule tender, just to pipe off the men who didn't keep hard at it, so as o dock 'em the next Saturday.'

"Why the dern cuss!" "But wait. He actually encouraged drill-runner to tell a long story one day while they were waiting for some machinery to be repaired, and afterward docked the man half a day, and all the fellows that heard it four bits apiece for stopping to augh. He charged one man ten cents for a single grin." "Great Gosh !"

"That's nuthin.' Sim Briggs, who was u on the lode when the miser died, said that about an hour before Klamskatter passed in his checks he sent for the docto says he: 'Doc, give us the straight business. Is there any show for me?" ""Nary show," say the doctor; 'you'll strike bedrock afore night." "Then says old Klamskatter, 'I want some of you fellows to carry me up to Mount Davidson right off. If I can light out from there it will save my soul a clear mile of transportation." " "And did they do it ?" asked a man who had walked over by the stove, "Wall, no, replied the narrator, simply. "The boys took him over, put him on the cage, and let him down to the lowest level of the Hornet instead. They said that they guessed he had made a httle mistake about the direction somehow. To the best of their judgement, his soul was going the other way shortest and sharpest curves to such an extent that the ascending steamer runs now north, now south, then east, then west. Seldom can be had a clear view of over 500 feet of the river, and at almost every turn there is some puzzle to tell where is the way that will let the boat through the sur-stat gradient of the size extent that the ascending steamer runs rounding forest. The average width of the river is between seventy-five and 100 fext. The water is shallow, and occasionally the interiment of the bart on a single supply of fhel out of these proceeds, he set his house in order for the satisfaction to hear the heavy body of the sati grating of the boat on a sand-bar can be to leave their own houses, and to lodge and eight inches in length. felt. The winding of the stream, with its bordering masses of semi-tropical regeta-and comfort. Very soon the ample supply bordering masses of semi-tropical regeta-tion, makes a series of ever changing and most lovely pictures. The gigantic cypress, many feet in circumference, towers above the shorter growth of palmettoes, live oa's, water orks and maples, while their bases are hidden by a jungle-like thicket of young growth; Spanish bayonets, fallen trees and bushes, all bound together by and covered with a mass of clinging vines. Upon the trunks of the palmettoes grows a species of air plant, and on the live oak kranches here and there are green, large bunches of mistices, while from the branctes of all the trees droop the long bunches of mistletoe, while from the branches of all the trees droop the long streamers of the Spanish moss. The green of the forest and the blue of the sky, re-in hus sleigh, his dog, dead, dyiant upon him, and the five horses standing dead in worthy of the study of an artist. There must be some soil for these trees to grow the in the induction to the steps to meet me with a tele-must be some soil for these trees to grow the must be some soil for the solution the tree must be the tree trees to grow the must be some soil for the solution the tree trees to grow the must be some soil for the solution the tree trees to grow the must be the must be the tree trees to grow the must be the tre funting a Panther with Closed Hatches

A Struggle for Existence

The vessel Glenvarney, when leaving the Straits, took on board one of the largest specimens of the black panther. The animal was secured in an iron cage-house, sufficiently strong, it was thought, for its conveyance to calcutta. When in the Straits of Malacca, screams were heard from the passengers in the 'tween decksabering some three hundred men, woa rush upon deck. The panther had got clear of his cage and found his way down customer who was feeding Phil's bulldog with petrified sandwiches from the lunch three hurdred slumbering passengers for some minutes before its presence became known. Every available means of exit were thrown open, and all the passengers got on deck in safety, when the hatches and companions were again closed, and the pather left in indisputed and solitary possession of the 'tween docks. One ma alone appeared to have suffered from the animal while below were given by those who had seen him; but most concurred in ditto, and the rest of my dress in excellent saying that, after gambolling over the sleeping bodies as described, when the > screams were raised, he had made one or two frightened springs from one end of the deck to the other. It was concluded that and that is the secret of your new coat?" "By no means; I wanted a new coat, the animal must have jumped out of the port into the sea, for he could not be and tailors are always so long, you know. Do you think blue will become me? Blue is her favorite-that is-I mean blue-" formd.

The steamer arrived next day at Penang, the passengers settled down in their quar-ters as before, and she started the same favorite color, is it?" evening for Calcutta. During the night of this wine-the fact is-good wine, isn't some boatswain's stores were required from forward, and one of the Chinese lascars it-been two voyages to the Indies-the fact is, I suppose-1 rather fancy-I am a little in love. Try some of that sherry. was sent down to get them, when he pre-sently returned trembling with fear, ex-claiming, "Tiger have gone down there !" What are the symptoms, Frank-a queer feeling about the heart, and something Captain Bolton sent for his breech loading which drives the blood through one like rifle and cartridges, and went down the hatch by himself-ordering it to be closed lightning?" after, lest if the beast really was there it short and chubby, isn't she, with red hair and a little squint eyed?" should get on to the deck, and re-enact the alarm of two nights before. On reaching "Frank, I never did knock you down the store-room and looking round Captain though I have been tempted to do so a

Bolton saw the large yellow-lit eyes of the great many times; but if you don't stop animal glaring down from the top of some that nonsense, I will." spars stowed along the ship's side, and by "Quite valiant is defence of your ladyand by, by the dim light admitted by the love. Well, Tom, I will confess that she

A Struggle for Existence. With many of the settlers of the North-west, the past Winter has been a prolonged struggle for existence against the elements. A German farmer two years ago took up "Would you believe it?" she did not recognize me." "Not recognize you?" "No. You know what a quiz that Mur 15. As soon as he saw me enter, dressed in such style, he came up, shook hands with me, and, without giving me a chance to say one word, introduced me to Juin, as Mr. Frederick Somebody. And, after which they will proceed to Haliwould you believe it, that little witch did fax to witness the military review on not know me. I think I should not forget July 1st.

to the

worthy of the study of an artist. There must be some soil for these trees to grow from, but it is seldom perceivable: On both sides of the river there is an algost continuous swamp. Like the Canadian Saugenay's banks, much of the Ocklawaha's are primeval—unchanged by the hand of