A Post office money forger was captured at Altoona on Thursday, the 19th inst.
The Altoona papers of the 20th day of the forger and his capture, as follows: "For some time past H. S. Surls, a one-eyed soldier, who is postmaster at East Liverpool, Columbia county, Ohio, has known that forged money orders purporting to be sent from his office were in circulation. Mr.
Surls got on the track of the forger and arrived in this city last night. He went to the post-office and notified Mr. Nicodemus if Alfred Coles or an order payable to him came up, to detain the man. It seems the forger arrived on the same train with Postmaster Surls. This morning Coles went to the post-office and presented six money orders purporting to be issued from the East Liverpool office, and each calling for $50 or $100 in all. He presented the orders to Post-master Patton, who went through the usual forms, having him sign the receipts, &c., and meanwhile Jimmy Winn slipped out and soon returned with Officer Schlitzky, who arrested Coles and took him up to the mayor's office. Here he was searched, and blank money orders to the sum of $9,800 were found upon him. He also had a gold watch and chain, and $75 in money. He also had upon him letters addressed to various post-masters, requesting them to send the money for postal orders enclosed, to his address at New Haven, Conn., asking that the money be sent in large bills. These letters were addressed to Huntingdon, Tyrone, Lewisport, Newport, Duncannon, Marysville, Petersburg and Mil-lertown. Coles is about thirty-three years of age, five feet five inches high, with clear, bright eyes. He had railroad tickets on his person from Wellsville, Ohio, to Boston, Massachusetts. He had also receipts for registered letters addressed to himself and sent from Blairsville to Boston, Mass., and from New Florence to New York city. His crime is as original as it is daring in plan, and has been boldly executed. Had it not been detected he would have been several thousand dollars ahead at the expense of the various post-masters upon whom the loss would have fallen. Coles had a regular schedule for his movements, which reads: Arrive New Florence 11:50, leave 3 p. m.
Arrive Johnstown 8:20, leave 7:12. Arrive at Altoona 9 p. m. He put up at the Logan House and was captured as related. His schedule eastward: Leave Altoona 8: 30, Tyrone 8:51. Leave 12:08, Huntingdon 12:50, drive to Petersburg. Leave 3:30, arrive Lewisport 10:22, arrive at Duncannon 10:47. Leave 2:30, go west to Newport.
Drive from Newport to Millertown. Leave Millertown 6:16, arrive at Marysville 7:08.
His route was laid out, but the law has now in its coils, and it is likely he will go to the penitentiary for a long term. Postmaster Surls deserves great credit for acquiring his detection and capture.

narrow cot lies the hapless mother with her three babies. They are hunched. The boy is a sturdy little brute, with fists and bullet head, and the girls are bright, sweet-faced little chips, perfectly formed and ready for milk all the time. The man's condition would be comical if he had money, but as he hasn't a dollar in the world it is rather dismal. I dare say they will be helped somehow, but as a romance thus far the Colorado girl's life is quite a success.
Isn't it?—or is it?

General Orders, No. 1.

HEAD-QUARTERS LIEUT. DAVID H. WILSON
Post, 184, DEP'T of PENN., GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC, Mifflintown, Pa., May 20th, 1881.

I. In accordance with our rules and regulations, Monday, May 30th, will be observed as Memorial Day, and all comrades of Post 184, G. A. R., are ordered to meet at Head-Quarters at 9 o'clock A. M. of said day, in uniform, to proceed from thence to Union Cemetery, decorate graves, and return to Head-Quarters. At 11:45 A. M. take the train to Port Royal; march to Church Hill Cemetery, where an address will be delivered by Comrade James J. Patterson; decorate graves, and return to Head-Quarters at 3:54 P. M. At 5 o'clock P. M. proceed to Lutheran and Presbyterian Cemeteries, in each of which the beautiful ceremony of strewn flowers on the graves of comrades gone before to the re-union of the Grand Army above, will be performed. Then gather around the Soldiers' Monument in the Court House Square, where the closing ceremonies will be held. Prayer by the Rev. Geo. Benagh. Music by the Post and Band. Address by T. D. Garman, Com.
II. All churches, Sunday-schools, weekday schools, civic societies, and citizens of the county generally, are earnestly requested to co-operate with us in this work, so throughout the county no grave of soldier or sailor, however lonely, however humble, be unadorned with flowers on the evening of May 30th.

All persons in town and vicinity having flowers to donate, will please take them to the Post Room.

III. On Sunday, May 29th, at 10 o'clock A. M., will meet at Head-Quarters, in uniform, from whence, preceded by Post 184 Band, in uniform, but without instruments, it will proceed to the Methodist church, where the Rev. W. V. Ganoe will preach a Memorial Sermon, as a fitting preparation for the solemn duties of the succeeding day.

As the associations of the day are sad, and its memories sacred, may its influence be ennobling and elevating, inciting in each a purer and more generous patriotism.

By command of
JOS. W. HUGHES,
Post Commander.
W. H. ROGERS, Adjutant.

Eminent Physicians

are prescribing that tried and true remedy, Kidney-Wort for the worst cases of biliousness and constipation, as well as for kidney complaints. There is scarcely a person to be found that will not be greatly benefited by a thorough course of Kidney-Wort every spring. If you feel out of sorts and don't know why, try a package of Kidney-Wort and you will feel like a new creature.— and the spectators contributed.

The committee appointed by Presbytery to settle the matter of difference between the Presbyterian congregations of Mifflintown and Lost Creek, came to this place on Tuesday evening last week. The Lost Creek committee had been in town on Tuesday; they retired to their homes in the evening. On Wednesday morning the visiting committee and the Mifflintown committee went to Lost Creek. The plan, as agreed upon by the committees, is that Mifflintown congregation is to pay Lost Creek congregation two hundred dollars annually for a period of four years, and costs of suit, and cost of repairing Mifflintown church property, in consideration of which Lost Creek relinquishes her right and title in the Mifflintown property. The Mifflintown congregation will meet on Saturday next, to consider the question as agreed upon by the committees.

It is a fact well known to people that read that the orthodox church appointed a committee of able and good preachers several years ago, to revise the Old and New Testaments. The work of the revision of the Old Testament has not yet been completed. The work of the revision of the New Testament has been completed. John Horning, of this borough, is agent of the Student's Revision of the Testament, being the Anglo-American Revision, completely reprinted and exhaustively compared with King James's version." The Testament that Mr. Horning is agent for, is not only a publication of the revised work, but it contains a foot-note on every page, wherein is published the words that have been changed. The reader and student of the Bible Word can thereby see what word changes have been made. When Mr. Horning calls with the prospectus of the work, the value of such a publication will be seen at a glance. Rev. George Benagh, Pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place, says of it: "Having examined the Prospectus of the proposed edition of the Revised Version of the New Testament Scriptures, I heartily endorse it, and would commend it to every student of the Bible.
Every one will be anxious to see the changes that have been made. This book proposes to give a complete and correct reprint of the Revised Version, together with all the changes which have been made. There ought to be a copy of it in every family."
