B. F. SCHWEIER,

Bepublican State Ticket. STATE TREASURER, SILAS M. BAILEY. OF FAYETTE COUNTY.

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

LAST Saturday President Garfiel was siezed with a relapse, followed by a chill. One chill after another sucthe Republicans. Going on from ceeded each other, till on Monday evening, when there was a seemin lent of the undercurrent of Ameri abatement in the extreme symptoms can history sees a suspicious signif ance in the fact that Vice Presiden At 10 o'clock on Monday evening the Arthur belongs to a Republican fac-tion adverse to that headed by Pres-President's pulse was 106, and hopes ident Garfield. Upon such data h were entertained that he again might comes prophetic and formulates pass the crisis. But alas for human ule that whenever the President an hopes! in fifteen minutes after that Vice President happen to represent seriously conflicting policies there will be great danger that an attempt time the doctors found him almost will be made to pat the President ou without pulse. At 10:15 P. M. he of the way. placed a hand on his heart and com plained of pain. In 20 minutes after -10:35 o'clock P. M - his brave spirit had fled to whence it came.

If the President had been stricken down by a rebel against the system of free government, the people of the to be increasing country would not be so profoundly shocked, but that he should die by the hands of a man that professed to believe in the freedom and equality of all men before the law, seems like a bitter satire on the pretensions to free government. The Republican party mourns more deeply, if poss ble, than any other organization in the Republic, for it was one of their number that struck down the President, and the President's immediate and closest friends are shocked almost out of all expression, for the monster that did the deed was to a certain degree encouraged by them in his seeking for office.

President Garfield was one of the finest types of individual develop ment that the free system of govern ment has produced. The govern ment can be preserved in its integrity and freedom, but the only way to do it is to shove to the rear th bad men that are coming to the fron for office. If the Guiteaus are to be encouraged in their seeking for office. the temple of freedom cannot endure, for such men will destroy it to secure government places. May the great high Judge of all the universe give the American people fortitude an wisdom, and self individual govern ment to guide them peaceably through this great national calamity, to the end that the Republic may live.

Vic President Arthur took the oath of office as President of the United States on Tuesday morning at 2:15, at his place of residence in Lexington Avenue, New York City. PRAYER for Guiteau was delivered in a Cincinnati church. Who would want to attend such a church? The peo ple that pray for such a wretch as Guiteau are sentimentalists, and waste their pity. They do worse; they indirectly wrong society by praying for such a wretch as Guiteau, for every other wretch in the country takes en-couragement from the pity that is manifested toward the murderer, and instead of being humiliated and made to feel the enormity of their bad acts they are clated and feel proud over them. Let the murderer pray for himself. The Lord will mete out justice to him in his own good time. Pity expressed and help extended to such human devils as Guiteau only make them bold and insolent, and a man owes it to society that such fiends are not encouraged. It is only the realization of responsibility that causes them to cry out. When the public sentiment against Guiteau cropped out through the shot that Mason fired at the murderer the wretch for the first time stood face to face with the fact that the people of the country have no feeling of sympathy or pity for him, and then he prayed "Oh, God! why did I shoot the poor President ? Be merciful to me, a poor miserable assassin-the assassi of the President of a great country. I could not help it. The devil seized me and I was compelled to fire the fatal shot. Oh, Lord, if I was only out of my misery. Take me now oh Lord! take me now." During this prayer he wept bitterly.

The people of the Republic are in need of no churches where men meet and pray for such assassins as Guiteag. Such places ought to be shunned as the door direct to ruin.
