Soup speculators. The Fair was a success. Tame turkeys are plenty. Heating Stoves at McClintic's.

New goods at Espenschiede's. Call and see them. The Parker Bank housed a new safe last Wednesday.

Thanksgiving day turkeys are being thought of. Parts of Canada was treated to a six-inch snow last week.

Communication from Walker refused. Two scurrilous. Rev. Benajah attended Synod in Clearfield town on Sabbath.

The State Fair failed to the amount of $7,000 in paying expenses. Samuel Strayer opens, this week, a large lot of new clothing for men and boys.

Lawyer Stone witnessed the Centennial ceremonies at Yorktown, Va., last week. Elijah and Clay Hower, each shot a wild turkey on Shade mountain on Saturday.

The largest stock of goods ever put into the Espenschiede store has just been housed. Huntington county people vote, for or against the sheep law at the coming election.

Guiteau's relatives say he was crazy. Why did they allow him to run at large if crazy? The Fair premium list came in too late for this week's issue. Will appear next week.

A number of citizens will ever remember their investment in soap at the Fair last week. The running races at the Fair last week attracted more attention than the trotting races.

The oldest article on exhibition at the Fair was a patch-work quilt two hundred years old. Joseph Martin shot nine squirrels last Thursday, and Jacob Thomas bagged a wild turkey.

Mr. West has sold her house and lot at the north end of Water street to Franklin Noble for $100. Heaters, Ranges and Cook Stoves for sale at McClintic's.

William Clark has sold his 80 acre farm at Vanwert to Mr. Sellers, of Port Royal, for $8,000. A horseman says that a large percentage of men like to ride at a gallop, and that is why the Texas pony is so popular.

Chambers, from Indiana county, passed through this place with a drove of cattle on Sunday. He stopped over Monday with Christ Reno. The three styles: Some girls are born fat, some achieve fatness, and some fix themselves up at times with old newspapers and things...

The heirs of Samuel Horman will sell a first-rate farm in Lost Creek valley, on the 5th of November. The Dauphin county court last week found Henry and Frank Rumberger guilty of the murder of Daniel Troutman. The murder was committed last November.

Joseph Martin shot a hawk on Shade mountain the other day that was four inches longer from tip of wing than his father's. Rev. J. W. Ryder is around among Lutherans this week, soliciting subscribers for the Lutheran Observer and Lutheran Evangelist.

A subscription of one hundred dollars was raised in the Lutheran church on Sabbath to pay tax, insurance, fuel and repairs to the church building. David Cunningham and George Wilson have returned from an extensive trip in the West. In Kansas they met Col. John J. Patterson, who is engaged in railroad building in that State.

H. H. Brabaker, of Fayette township, a young man favorably known to many people in Juniata, died at his home in Fayette township, last Saturday morning about two o'clock. Rev. C. Keimessnyder, of Lancaster, Pa., preached in the Presbyterian Chapel last Sabbath morning, and in the evening in the Lutheran church, in the interest of the American Sunday-School Union.

That old things shall become new found another illustration at the Fair when the visitors, was pieces of tea sets or dishes one hundred years old. Go out in the damp air, or sit unprotected in a draught, and your throat will feel sore and your head uncomfortable. You have taken a cold, which you can remove as promptly as you received it by using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

SHORT LOCALS.

An application will be made to Judge Sassaman, of the Berks County Court, in November, for a charter for the incorporation of "The Farmers' Mutual Life Stock Protective Association of Pennsylvania."

George B. Arnold shot a wild turkey that weighed 18 pounds. Dr. Sunday shot a wild turkey that weighed 19 pounds. Several turkeys that live in the country frequently walk ten miles to Newport after supper to get a drink of the ardent...

There is a great deal of calumny over in the county. There has been enough corn and potatoes grown in Perry county this season to feed the county. Juniata bells were sold in Bloomfield. A. D. Hoppe suffered from the bite of a wood spider on the hand. A bogus horse dealer was lodged in jail to await the action of the Court next term.

Singing schools have been organized in a number of places in the county. The viewers appointed on the Millerstown bridge, report against its being a free bridge. A horse owned by Beck & Brother at Bloomfield got out of a pasture field and traveled to Cumberland county, where it had been bought. Robert Toomey, a young man living in Juniata township, employed at Robinson's steam saw mill, fell against the saw of the mill recently, cutting off two of his fingers at the hand and two others at the first joint. Jack Shenk, residing near Rockville, was struck and instantly killed by the St. Louis express when near that station last Monday. Mr. S. was on his way to aid a neighbor husk corn when he met his death. A few mornings ago Mrs. George Grubb, an aged lady living in Liverpool township, was found dead in her bed, she having passed away during the night unknown to the inmates of the house. The Fish Warden has come up the Juniata. But all fish-baskets had been taken out before he came up, as they ought to have been for his reception. When they were satisfactorily aired, carefully dried and neatly repaired, they were doubtless again put to doing their usual duty. Such, at least, is the information we have.

MILFILLIN COUNTY, PER MILFILLIN COUNTY PAPERS. Lewistown ladies are reported this fall more lovely than ever before. W. S. McCarthy and Miss Annie Wallace were married in the McVeytown Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening last week. A colored girl that lived with Mr. Paul of McVeytown, left a few days ago. She took with her $77 that belonged to Mr. Paul's mother. The girl was arrested at Harrisburg and brought back, and in default of bail was sent to Lewistown jail. The pier of the Newton Hamilton bridge are above water level. Rev. Steiner, of the Lutheran church at Milroy, has resigned. A thief stole the Garfield funeral parlor at Milroy. J. D. McClintic husked 70 bushels of corn in one day, on the Floyd farm. Luther McClintic shot a 22-pound wild turkey. Belleville cove hunters caught 7 coons one night on Stone mountain. Francis and Woods have undertaken to build a railroad from Altoona into Clearfield county.

Another Candidate. By a large majority the people of the United States have declared their faith in Kidney-Wort as a remedy for all the diseases of the kidneys and liver; some, however, have doubted the efficacy of preparing it from the dry form. For such a candidate appears in the shape of Kidney-Wort in Liquid Form. It is very concentrated, is easily taken, and is equally efficient as the dry. Try it.—Louisville Post.
