Court Proceedings.

There were only four civil cases tried last week in court. The great trial of the court was that of William Dunn against the Borough of Mifflintown, for damages, for personal or bodily injury sustained in falling sover the quarry" at the south end of Third street. No case has ever been tried in Ju roaring lion. niata county that has awakened such a general interest as the one just mentioned. The bridge, 15 to 8. plaintiff claimed $3,000 damages. The Jury in the case were, John L. Patterson. D. K. Barton, William Gingrich, Wm. Mc-Clure, A. F. Henkles, A. Y. Leach, John Leonard, S. B. Barton, Thompson J. Ster rett, Wm. Wise, O. M. Kerlin, Wm. Yohn. The verdict of the jury was for the plaintiff in the sum of $1160.30. Reasons for a new trial have been filed.

The second case was that of James Stimeling and Benrietta Stimeling, his wife, for diameter, for ladies. the use of said Henrietta, vs. Ephraim Ranpels, Darwin C. Rannels and James Calhoun. The trouble grew out of a constable's sale of goods that Mrs Stimeling Robison and Wagner. claimed belonged to her. Verdict for plaintiff for $76. Verdict amended to $65 instead of $76.

Levi Dundore, for use of W. H. Kreider, vs. J. B. M. Todd. This suit was for the recovery of the freight on a boat load of bark. Verdict for plantiff, $14.11, with 6 ing the family of Sheriff Kelly. cents damages and 6 cents costs. Wm. B. Leas et al vs. William D. Walls.

This suit was one that grew out of one of the Joseph L. Deering raised notes. The note was one raised from eight to eighty dollars. Verdict for defendant.

Commonwealth vs. William Frey, Oliver little water now, as in August last. Frey, Joseph Farleman and David Huntsberger. Indictment - Breach of peace. has lost three thildren by diphtheria. Miss Strunk, prosecutrix. The charge was that the parties indicted acted improperly fering in the last stage of consumption. and used obscene language in front of the prosecutrix's house. Verdict, complaint dismissed ; officers' costs to be paid by county; costs of witnesses of Commonwealth to be paid by the prosecutrix.
