The Difficulty Between the Chapel Church of Millintown and the Lost Creek Congregation.

Editor Sentinel and Republican.—I am exceedingly sorry that the Chapel church have behaved so strangely of late.

I will enlarge upon two points referred to by L. C. C. The paper referred to by L. C. C., as signed by the two committees of the two separate churches, which met the committee of Presbytery on the 18th of May, 1881, is not the proposition of the church of Lost Creek.

The Bloomfield Advocate advertises for an intelligent boy to learn the printing business. PATTERSON—Your communication came too late for this issue. It will appear next week.

Superintendent Smith visited the schools in Patterson and Fernagh township last week. Republicans of Snyder county present Charles Hower as a candidate for Supreme Judge.

Rev. G. W. Goodlin preached in the Lutheran church on Sabbath morning and evening. The free bridge people will again petition Court for a free bridge across the river at this place.

Young Mr. Weller, in Fernagh township, lost a highly-prized black and tan colored fox hound. Members of the Reformed church in Bedford will build a new house of worship in the Millin church and also to the Presbyterian church and also to the Presbytery reported to the Presbytery at its meeting in June, stating that the Church of Lost Creek had agreed to the conditions recommended by them, but that Millintown had not, and offered a resolution that with this has nothing special to do but with the question. It was never the action of the church, and they were in no way bound by it.

Mr. Shuman has already begun to put in repair the Will Hotel property that he bought last recently. Moral suasion was a failure, as a preventive of disorder in Tyrone schools. They whip now like blazes.

S. C. Tussey, of Morris township, Huntingdon county, has a coon dog that caught 27 coons the past fall. Jeff Moyer hauled ice last week from Cuta dam. The ice varied in thickness; 2 1/2 to 3 inches was its thickness.

There was a snow of 6 inches in depth to greet the people when they awoke from their sleep last Friday morning. Rev. Spangler, Lutheran preacher at Bloomfield, Perry county, has resigned and will go to another field of labor.

The belief is abroad in this community that Vanderbilt is about to engage extensively in railroading in Pennsylvania. Mrs. Swartz, wife of Mr. M. Swartz in Fernagh township, fell and sprained her right wrist quite severely a few days ago.

The Masons held a banquet last Thursday night, on the occasion of the installation of officers. John Hallowhugh furnished the supper. To every subscriber that is in arrears more than one year, a bill will be sent by mail between this date and the 25th day of February, 1882.

Take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral to stop your Coughs, Croup and Bronchial Affections before they run into Consumption that you cannot stop. Some days ago, while axing boards at a saw-mill in Beale township, James H. Cole got his right hand too near the saw, which resulted in the hand being sawed across the palm to such a depth that amputation became necessary.

MEFFINTOWN.—Your communication on the certain operation of "paster and folder" at Harriburg lies on the table at present. Call and have a personal interview with the editor of the Sentinel and Republican on the subject. An embankment in the road in Jackson township, Perry county, upset the buggy of James A. Robinson, by which upset Robinson had an arm broken. He brought suit against the road supervisors of the township, and in court recovered a verdict in his favor of $50.00.

By having your bills for sale of personal property printed at the office of the Sentinel and Republican you may obtain a number of blank promissory notes to be filled up for purchasers that are entitled to credit under the terms of sale. The Conference News, a semi-monthly publication in the interest of the Methodist Church, lies on our table. It is published at Harriburg, and is edited by Rev. W. Media Frymager, D. D. It is a handsome little gotten up paper, and is full of church news and general information. A new serial has just been commenced in it, which promises to be exceedingly interesting.

Go to Heck's, on Bridge street, and buy the Keystone boot. It is the best boot to wear and to keep out water that is sold in Juniata county. He warrants every pair to give entire satisfaction, and if they don't give satisfaction he will replace them with another pair. Henry Spiece will sell, at his place of residence at Thompsonstown, February 22, 1882. Three head of horses, four head of horned cattle, farming implements, plows, harrows, one wagon, buggy, sleigh, sled, harness and a lot of household furniture.

The long winter nights are here. You will want a paper that gives you home news, general news, and miscellaneous reading. The Sentinel and Republican is the paper that supply that want. It gives all the important home news, all important general news, besides a large quantity of miscellaneous reading, more than any other paper in the county. Subscribe, and suggest the paper to your neighbor.

SHORT LOCALS.

Nails have advanced in price. Houses for rent are scarce in Chambersburg.

The ladies look perfectly splendid in their large hats. Ex-Judge Junkin has resumed the practice of law. The Lebanon bar—legal bar—has a lot of bad lawyers in it. Two newspapers in Perry county are edited by preachers.

Go to Heck's, on Bridge street, and buy your boots and shoes. St. Jacobs Oil ointment is a humorous and instructive little book. William Hawk has a job of masoning at Logan, Middle county.

Rev. Joseph Mathers was visiting friends in town last Wednesday. The Blair county Radical looks well in its dress of new type. There was a fall of an inch and a half of snow last Wednesday morning.

Three young ladies joined the Chapel Presbytery church, on Sabbath. A. G. Shulenberger, of Richfield, has been appointed mercantile appraiser.

Samuel Brown of Patterson has been taken to the asylum at Philadelphia. Communion service was held in the Patterson Evangelical church last Sabbath.

The Mayor of Harriburg issued a proclamation asking everybody to vaccinate. Astronomers say that on the 17th day of May there will be a total eclipse of the sun.

Miss Tillie Greer, daughter of A. J. Greer, of Altoona, has been visiting friends in this place. The mother of S. D. Batesholtz, foreman of this office, has been killed if the past week.

Twenty-six tramps slept in the boiler-house of the Newport furnace the other night. The Bloomfield Advocate advertises for an intelligent boy to learn the printing business.

Lost.—Last Thursday evening between Millintown and Reno's, a black and white checked woolen scarf, yard and a half long. The finder will confer a favor on a poor girl by sending it by stage or otherwise, to the Post Office at McAlisterville, where it will be called for.

The Huntington Journal says: Congressmen Fisher wants a new Mint in Philadelphia. The putting up of new buildings at public expense is a cheap way of gaining notoriety—cheap for Mr. Fisher, but not for the public—and the notoriety, when obtained, will hardly last as long as it will take to build Huntington's Reformatory.

Edward Hines wrote to the Liverpool Mercury, "I am willing to risk my reputation as a public man, if the worst case of small-pox cannot be cured in three days simply by the use of cream of tartar. One ounce of cream of tartar dissolved in one pint of hot water drunk at intervals when the cold is certain, never failing remedy. It has cured thousands, never leaves a mark, never causes blindness and avoids tedious lingering."

The Huntington Local News says that on Wednesday evening, Anna, aged sixteen months, daughter of John and May Smith, of Huntington, swallowed a number of morphine pellets which she found upon a table. Shortly afterwards she was noticed to become stupid, and then it was discovered that she had taken the morphine. Dr. Birmingham, who happened to be passing the house, was called in and administered strong coffee and other antidotes, and the life of the child was saved.

The Newport News says: A recent dispatch from Wilmington states that W. E. Graham killed, robbed and burned Philip Egly, at Venango, Elk county, and was subsequently hung by a mob in front of the court house. Graham was the son of Isaac Graham, a blacksmith by trade, who moved from Newport to Millertown last spring. Egly was also formerly from Newport, having emigrated to the west a year or so ago. According to the information received Egly had obtained some money by the sale of his property, and to get it Graham fired on him and then set the house on fire to cover up his tracks. Egly was Graham's uncle.

On the 10th inst., W. Lloyd Goss, division foreman on the railroad, with residence at Black Log valley, three miles north of this place, was run over by the cars and killed. The distressing event took place about noon. Mr. Goss had partaken of his dinner and gone out, and was only about 100 yards from the house when he was struck by a passing freight train. He had stepped out of the way of a train coming east on the south track into the way of a train going west on the north track. His wife was the first person to see him after the accident. She was looking out of the window and saw an object of the appearance of a man by the track. Quickly she ran to a neighbor to the place. The neighbor returned with the painful intelligence that it was her husband. Dr. Binks was called, and examined the body of the unfortunate man. Both thighs were broken; the skull was broken, and the left leg was nearly severed from the body. Instant death was the result of the stroke from the train. Mr. Goss leaves a wife and two children to mourn his death. He was about 49 years of age. His remains were interred on Thursday, the 12th inst., in the Licking Creek Lutheran graveyard.

The turn-out to Dr. McCabe's entertainment in the Court House on Wednesday evening, Jan. 18th inst., will no doubt be large, many tickets having already been sold. It has been decided to admit ex-soldiers and their families through back-door of Court Room, where they will find reserved seats. The Soldiers' Orphans from McAlisterville will be admitted separately. The Court Room is being renovated and will be in good order, with extra chairs and benches to accommodate the audience, as well as extra seating from various sections of the county.

"My Mother's Beautiful Hands," as rendered by this great-souled and wonderfully-voiced man, is worth more than money. If you do not want to laugh to drive away blues and digest heavy suppers don't come; yet if you do come (and we hope you will), you will find the entertainment in perfect keeping with the Christianity the Doctor represents. The proceeds will go to the Church in this place.

When Dr. McCabe lectured in Chambersburg, Pa., a gentleman called him in off the street, and hearing him sing and speak, and said he would give him five dollars for your work if you let that song again, entitled "The Trinitie-Red." The Chaplain complied, and sent the money where it has made others to sing the glad "new song" of redemption.

"I Don't Want a Plaster," said a sick man to a druggist; "can't you give me something to cure me?" His symptoms were a lame back and disordered urine and were a sure indication of kidney disease. The druggist told him to use Kidney-Wort and in a short time it effected a complete cure. Have you these symptoms? Then get a box of bottles to day—before you become incurable. It is the cure; safe and sure.—Knoxville Republicans.

A shocking railroad accident took place in New York State, along the Harlem river near Spuyten Duyvil station, last Friday night, whereby eight lives were lost and many persons wounded. Something got out of the river which captured twenty-two, and of another who took sixteen out of one nest and fourteen out of another. As this establishes the fact that they hibernate in large numbers, they can readily be exterminated when so numerous as to become nuisances.

Pastry county papers last week reported as follows: There resides in the vicinity of New Buffalo, Perry county, a man named Squire Perry, whose wife was in the habit of indulging in the luxury of smoking a clay pipe. On Wednesday morning last the Squire was called away on business, to be gone a couple of days. On Wednesday evening a boy paddler in passing the yard in front of the Squire's residence saw the dead body of Mrs. Squire lying in the yard. The clothing had been entirely burned off the corpse and it was blackened and in some places burned to a crisp. It is supposed that Mrs. Squire, who was but 35 years old, was taking her usual smoke and fell asleep with the pipe in her mouth. The pipe slipped from its resting place and the burning tobacco ignited her clothing. Suddenly awakening and finding herself in flames she ran out and had fallen extended all the place where her body was found.
