Sweet Evenings Come and Go.

Sweet evenings come and go, love, They came and went of yore; This evening of our life, love, Shall go and come no more.

When we have passed away, love, All things will keep their name; But yet no life on earth, love, With ours will be the same The daisies will be there, love,

The stars in heaven will shine; I shall not feel thy wish, love,

Nor thou my hand in thine. A better time will come, love, And better souls be born; I would not be the best, love, To leave thee now forforn.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spormatorrhofd, Induced by Solf-Ahuse Inluntary Emissions, Imputoncy, Nervaus Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally; Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Auther of the "Green Book," &c.

The world-recovered author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequen-ces of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicines, and without dangerous surgical operations, housies, instenments, rings or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may care himself cheaply, WF This Lecture will prove a boon to thou-
