A Health State. People are constantly changing their homes from East to West and from North to South, or vice versa, in search of a healthy State. If they would learn to be contented, and to use the celebrated Kidney-Wort when sick, they would be much better off.

The most wonderful curative remedies of the present day, are those that come from Germany, or at least originate there.

LECTURE.

A Lecture will be given to the Court House, Millintown, on Friday evening, March 21, 1892, at 7 o'clock, and the charity fund of the benefit of the Charity Fund of Lieut. D. H. Wilson Post, No. 134, G. A. R., by Rev. John A. Banks, late Colonel of the Sixty-third Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers.

A New York exchange says: Elias Dupuy, residing near Lackawanna, Ulster county, New York, is cutting a new set of teeth at the age of 95 years, nine having made their appearance. He has had five wives and eight children, his last marriage having taken place when he was 60 and his wife 19.

A dispatch from Scranton, Pa., on the 15th inst., said: The Court to-day awarded to Professor J. E. Hawker, Superintendent of Schools of this city, $4,000 damages in the suit brought by him against Morris Goldsmith, a prominent merchant of this city, for signing a libelous petition to the State Superintendent of Schools.

A certain New York judge was once obliged to sleep with an Irishman in a crowded hotel, when the following conversation ensued: "Pat you would have remained a long time in the old country before you could have slept with a judge, would you not?" "Yes, your honor," said Pat, "an' I think your honor would have been a long time in the old country before ye'd been a judge, too."

"Said the pastor to one of his elders, who was secretary of the county agricultural society: 'There is too much horse-racing at your county fairs. I should like to know what horse-racing has to do with tilling the soil.' Said the elder to the pastor: 'There is too much grab-bag at your church fairs. I don't see what pig-sticker has to do with the spread of the Gospel.' They changed the subject."

Dr. Elder, assisted by Dr. Banks, made a post-mortem examination of the body of Miss Kate Lybe. Her case was a complicated one. The heart was largely diseased, one of its valves being entirely destroyed. The lungs were to a certain degree congested. The liver was greatly enlarged. Three large gall-stones, almost 1/2 of an inch in diameter, were found in the gall-sack. Before her death Miss Lybe expressed a consent that such an examination should be made of her body.

An umbrella story: A gentleman, who had no umbrella and who had just come into town on a local train, perceived before him as he stepped into the street a person whom he took to be an acquaintance and who had a fine new umbrella hoisted over his head. Running up to him, thereupon, he clasped him on the shoulder, saying, as he did so, by way of a joke: "I'll take that umbrella, if you please." The individual thus addressed looked around and disengaged a perfect stranger, but before the other could apologize he said, hurriedly: "Oh, it's yours, is it? Well I didn't know that. Here, you can have it," and broke away, leaving the utensil in the hands of the first party to the conversation.—Boston Journal.

There is almost a general desire expressed by the people that Mason, who shot at the murderer Guitau, should not serve a term of imprisonment, as sentenced by the court-martial. Discipline demanded that he be put upon trial and be sentenced for shooting at a prisoner, but the sense of the country is strongly in favor of having him pardoned. The country would really have been glad if he had shot the murderer Guitau, but to permit a guard to shoot at a prisoner in jail without taking notice of the act, would be the destruction of order and discipline. Mason is the almost general expression. There is, however, another class of men that say that to pardon Mason is to countenance disorder and lawlessness. Their point is not well taken. The right to pardon is obtained by law. The laws of the country give the President the right to pardon a man that has been lawfully sentenced. Mason was tried and sentenced lawfully for an unlawful act, and he can be pardoned in accordance with the provisions of law.

The Secret of the universal success of Brown's Iron Bitters is simply this: It is the best Iron preparation ever made; is compounded on thoroughly scientific, chemical and medicinal principles, and does just what is claimed for it—no more and no less.

By thorough and rapid assimilation with the blood, it reaches every part of the system, healing, purifying and strengthening. Commencing at the foundation it builds up and restores lost health—in no other way can lasting benefit be obtained.

Brown's Iron Bitters does not contain whiskey or alcohol, and will not blacken the teeth, or cause headache and constipation. It will cure dyspepsia, indigestion, heartburn, sleeplessness, dizziness, nervous debility, weakness, &c.

Ponder these Truths. Kidney-Wort is nature's remedy for kidney and liver diseases, piles and constipation. Sediment or mucus in the urine is a sure indication of disease. Take Kidney-Wort. Torpid liver and kidneys poison the blood. Kidney-Wort revives them and cleanses the system.
