

SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN

MIFFLINTOWN. Wednesday, March 29, 1882.

B. F. SCHWEIER, Editor and Proprietor.

GERMANY has a population of 45,000,000.

THE CROPS in Kansas are reported as promising.

THE Democratic State Convention will meet at Harrisburg on June 25.

TWO thousand men were killed last year while in the act of coupling cars.

JOHN BENNINGS, Bradford, Pa., millionaire, died a few days ago, aged 81 years.

CONSUMPTION is practicing law, and is no longer a thorn in the flesh of the office-seeker.

PLEURO-PNEUMONIA, a lung disease, has made its appearance among cattle in New York State.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR gave a dinner for General Grant last Wednesday. Thirty-five guests were there.

RENTS, according to Philadelphia papers, have advanced considerably in the city of Brotherly Love.

THREE hundred and fifty houses were destroyed by fire in Enos, Hungary, a few days ago. Nine lives were lost.

ON Monday a week, a Chicago shipowner agreed to ship 72,000 bushels of corn to Buffalo, N. Y., for two cents a bushel.

THE question of the imprisonment of American citizens in Ireland has been brought to the consideration of the English Parliament.

A STATISTICIAN says that the debt of civilized nations is increasing. In 1848 it was eight billions; in 1880 it was twenty-eight billions.

THE Allentown silk mill is turning out silk goods. The ladies of the place buy largely of the home-made goods to make into dresses.

SAMUEL BLATCHFORD has the appointment to the Associate Justice, which Conkling declined. Mr. Blatchford is a New Yorker.

HESE WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW died at his home in Boston at 3 o'clock last Friday morning. He was distinguished as a poet. He was born in 1807.

A DISPATCH from across the water says, the Fenians are plotting to destroy London. Suppose it possible to destroy London, how would that help the Irish?

WHILE a debate was progressing in the Canada house of Assembly, an alarm was started by the burning of some paper. The Assembly was adjourned pell-mell.

MR. TILDES is building a $600,000 house in New York. Evidently he did not empty all of his barrels at the feet of the Democracy when he ran for the Presidency.

WHO would want the picture or autograph of a wretch like Guiteau? The murderer is permitted to sell his picture, and autograph every Sunday to callers at the Washington jail.

THESE are days of fast men and fast women. The men of 60 years ago—two generations ago—are looked upon as "old fogies." Take care: "the stream cannot rise higher than its source."

THE colored cadet, Whittaker, of whom it was said he slit his own ears, and bound himself in escape class examination at the Military Academy, was discharged from West Point a few days ago because of deficiency in studies.

IT is terrible to think that five men were hanged in one day—last Friday—in this State, but society must take care of itself. Those five men murdered six of their fellow mortals. If it were not for the terror of the hangman's noose, violence would walk abroad unobscured at high noon, and strike down without remorse, pleased for gain, for lust, for jealousy, for malice.

THIS item, from Iowa, is cheering news for ladies that are in favor of women voting: "Iowa has fallen into line on the universal suffrage question, the Legislature having agreed to an amendment to the constitution of the State striking out the word 'male.' The friends of the measure are confident that the amendment will be ratified by a vote of the people."

TEN tons of "gold brick" were received at the Philadelphia mint on Friday. Each brick weighed 18 to 20 pounds. The brick were in boxes; each box held 200 pounds of the precious metal. The invoice was worth five million dollars. A special guard sat in the cars in which the gold was brought from New York city, and an armed guard accompanied each driver of the different wagons that hauled it to the mint from the railroad station.

THE Foreign Affairs Committee at Washington have been conducting an investigation in regard to claim on a guano deposit that certain Americans say they hold against Peru for $1,000,000. Mr. Blaine had got the Garfield administration about half committed to the interest of the claimants, but, as the saying goes, "New Lords, new masters," so in this case, when the Arthur administration came into power there was a change of policy with regard to the guano business, and hence the investigation.

THE Legislature of Ohio is wrestling with the railroad pass business. What power has a Legislature to prevent a store keeper from giving a hat or pair of boots or anything else to whoever he pleases? What right has a Legislature to say that a doctor shall not doctor whoever he pleases for nothing? What right has a Legislature to prevent a lawyer to work for a client for nothing? What right has a Legislature to say that a man may not work a day or a dozen days for another if he chooses for nothing? What right has a Legislature to say that the management of a railroad company may not issue a pass here and there if it chooses? This is a question that has two sides, and the men that denounce individuals or corporate management for disposing of their favors to suit themselves have the wrong side.

GENERAL ITEMS.

FRANK and HENRY REMBERGERS were hanged in the Harrisburg jail last Friday, for the murder of Daniel Troutman, November 14, 1880. The men were of the same name but were not related. They confessed the crime.

FRANK Small was hanged on Friday at Pittsburg, for the murder of Nicholas Jacobs. He declared himself innocent to the last.

JOHN Neveling was hanged at Clear field on Friday, for the murder of Samuel Pennington. He held a spite against the murdered man years before he killed Pennington.

JORATHAN Moyer was hanged at Middleburg, Snyder county, on Friday, as an accomplice in the murder of Mr. Kintzler and Mrs. Kintzler, on the night of December 8, 1877. He declared that he had not committed the murder, but that the night after the murder he went to the house and robbed the place of its money, and then set fire to the house, by which it was burned, with the two dead bodies in it.

THE five executions were in this State. There was also an execution at Rock Island, Illinois. A man named William Hellwagon was there hanged for killing his daughter-in-law.

AT Angelica, N. Y., John McCarthy was hanged for killing Patrick Markey, which completed the list of five executions last Friday, between the hours of 11 and 2 o'clock.

THE Philadelphia Record of last Thursday says that a man named Chad was arrested in a room in Arch street, where he was engaged in sawing out the center of gold pieces, and boring out a certain quantity of silver from silver coins. "His mode of operation was to saw coins apart through the middle and, hollowing them out, fill the space with fine hair-pin wire and platinum. By this means $2-40 worth of metal can be taken from a $5 gold piece. Another of his methods was to bore a hole in the edge of a piece and fill the hole with platinum."

THIS piece of information comes from the western country: "A new subject of complaint against the Chinese has been found in Missouri. It is said that one-half of the silver dollars in circulation in the Territory are counterfeit, and that the spurious coins were manufactured by the San Francisco Chinamen. The pieces are described as being of the exact weight of the genuine, but slightly larger in diameter. But sixteen cents' worth of silver is used in making each counterfeit, all of which is found on the surface."

AT a sale of Norman or Percheron horses at Baltimore last Wednesday good prices were realized, "the highest for a stallion being $1775 and for a mare $1550. The highest price paid for a home-bred colt, 3 years old, was $750. The aggregate amount of sales was $23,255. The sale was attended by representatives of New York, Ohio, Kentucky, Texas, Colorado, Tennessee, Illinois, Virginia and other States taken, and some of the horses were taken by purchasers from the most remote points."

THE Philadelphia Record of last Saturday says: The committee of clergymen that went to see the Chicago Judges about the law respecting Sunday amusements received cold comfort. Its members were shown that the law, as it stands, impartially permits liberty of worship and liberty of enjoyments, prohibits on either hand any stretch of that liberty into license. If clergymen would have this state of affairs changed they are recommended to go to the Legislature.

THIS is what a Montgomery county paper says: "A prominent member of the Montgomery county Bar was very agreeably surprised a few days ago. He went into court for the purpose of entering a plea of guilty for larceny, which had been indicated for him. He was considerably elated to find that the bill had been ignored by the Grand Jury."

THE State Superintendent of Soldiers' Orphan Schools has issued a circular announcing that the custom of holding examinations immediately before the close of the school term in July will be departed from this year and the examination be held in May."

BANXUM is to the front again with an elephant tooth true story. This time it is that a ten-year old elephant has just shed its back teeth, or "milk teeth." The teeth are three inches long and an inch thick. What Banxum's elephant next will do cannot be conjectured.

STATE ITEMS.

JAMES Reese, of Warren township, Franklin county, fell into the fire a few days since, while drunk, and was fatally burned.

A Law and Order Society at Franklin, Venango county, has published a circular giving the names of all the habitual drunkards in that place.

JOHN Robe, an old resident of East Liberty, Allegheny county, fell upon a low picket fence on Saturday, and one of the pickets piercing his body he was instantly killed.

MICHAEL Charles, of Pequa township, Lancaster county, killed a gray eagle on Friday a week that weighed 10 1/2 pounds.

A couple of Chinamen, who visited Pottsville with a view of locating and engaging in the barber business, were so rudely treated that they left to return no more.

HESEY Wilson, an aged maiden lady from Williamsburg, Allegheny county, died suddenly a few weeks ago at New Castle, Lawrence county, while visiting that place. Her trunk, when opened, was found to contain $13,000 in bonds and money and a deed for a farm in Minnesota worth $6,000.

EDWARD Darlington, a farmer in East Bradford township, Chester county, having lost a number of fowls from his poultry-house, set three steel traps in the building one evening recently, and within two hours caught four of his own cats and one old "possum," which was accompanied by nine young ones, which were all secured. The total catch in the brief period footed up four domesticated tabbies and ten wild "possums," and from the fact that his flocks now repose in peace, Mr. Darlington has concluded that the former thieves have all been secured.
