EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

STATE.
For Governor,
GEO. JAMES A. BEAVER.
For Judge of the Supreme Court,
W. HENRY RAWLE.
For Lieut. Governor,
W. T. DAVIES.
For Secy of Internal Affairs,
JOHN M. GREER.
For Congressmen-at-Large,
THOMAS M. MARSHALL.

There is prospect of a war in Egypt.
President Arthur has signed a new Chinese bill.
The Anti-Monopoly League is sending out documents.
The wife of W. W. Hensel editor of the Lancaster Intelligencer died a few days ago.
The State Medical Society met at Titusville last week. 200 members were present.

Thousands of Chinamen come to British Columbia; they will soon outnumber the whites.
DARWIN said—Man is the only being of the animal creation that abuses the female of his race.
The European communists are all infidels. They say the God of Moses was too much of a boss.

A railroad company desires to run a railroad through the Indian territory. The Indians say "no."
A citizen of Luzerne county proposes to raise silk, and to that end has planted 1000 mulberry trees.
The kickers, if they could have done so, would have kicked against the weather and denounced the whole of it as the work of a boss.

The older Cameron planted a tree in front of the Harrisburg post office, last week on the day that the Republican State convention met.
The President has pardoned General Fitz John Porter, from the disability to hold office, which was put upon him by a Court Martial.
There are over two hundred graveyard insurance companies in this State. Proceedings have been instituted at Harrisburg to have them dissolved.

The court in Trenton N. J., is wrestling with a case in which one man charged another with having accepted a bribe, while serving as a member of the Legislature.
The Supreme court in its decision last week leaves no room for Sergeant Mason, to escape the verdict of the court that tried him, excepting a pardon from President Arthur.

Last week the management of the Boston Mystic Rubber Company proposed to reduce the wages of the people they employ, 25 per cent. They employ 400 women. The women all struck, that is they quit work.
The people in favor of amending the state Constitution, so as to forbid the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, excepting for medicinal and scientific purposes, held a convention in Huntington last week.

The Republican State convention in its nomination of Davies, and Marshall showed great satisfaction to the foreigners by birth. This is the home of the free, and the land of the oppressed, excepting for John Chinaman.
The statement that Sergeant Mason would not accept a pardon from President Arthur is most forcibly contradicted by his wife Mrs. Mason calling on the President last Friday and asking him to pardon her husband.

President Arthur, issued a proclamation against certain rioters in Arizona, and called upon them to desist from their riot work, but so far, the proclamation has only had one effect and that is to cause the rioters to hold indignation meetings to denounce the President.
A Philadelphia newspaper says that Rawle, the Republican candidate for Supreme Judge denounced Cameron's politics as being demagogue.

Perhaps the newspaper was misinformed, as to Rawle's expression. Rawle would hardly be so unwise as to give expression to such utterances.
The election in this state the coming fall will be a lively one. The offices to fill will be a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of Internal Affairs, a Justice of the Supreme Court, two hundred and one Assemblymen, twenty-seven State Senators and twenty-seven Congressmen, and numerous local officers.

Americans, that believe that fortunes 100 years old, await them in Holland or the Netherlands are informed by both the National and State governments that no fortunes can be obtained by heirs that have been away 100 years; the laws of limitation debar heirs from inheritance long before they had been away 100 years.
Under date of the 9th inst the following was despatched through the land: "Rev. E. Dove, a Methodist minister of Beerfield, has been arrested charged with burning a parsonage two years ago. He has been absent for a long time in England, and was arrested immediately on his return. He gave bail for his appearance. The probability is that the charge against the preacher is a false charge. A man in committing a crime always has a motive; what motive could a preacher have in burning a parsonage?"

A committee of ex Union and ex-Confederate officers appointed to arrange a series of joint reunions of the Army of the Potomac and the Army of Northern Virginia, to fix historic points for the Government history of the battle of Gettysburg has decided on June 7 for those engaged at or near the "Fench Orchard," "Wheat Field," "Devils Den" and "Round Top;" June 14 for those engaged in the first day's battle, and October 18 for those engaged at or near Culp's Hill or East Cemetery Hill. The hour and place for meeting to be the eagle Hotel, Gettysburg, at 8 P. M. Other meetings will be called as the history progresses."

CANDIDATES AND PLATFORM OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN PENNSYLVANIA.

The Republican State Convention met last Wednesday at Harrisburg and nominated for

GOVERNOR
James A. Beaver of Center county. James A. Beaver is a native of Perry county, having been born in Millersburg on October 21, 1837. He was graduated at Jefferson College, Canonsburg, in 1856, and was admitted to the Bar in 1853. At the outbreak of the war Mr. Beaver served for three months as Lieutenant when he was appointed Lieutenant Colonel of the Forty-fifth Pennsylvania Volunteers, but immediately afterward was made Colonel of the 148th Regiment. He was at or through the body at Chancellorsville, was slightly wounded at Spottsylvania Court House and at Cold Harbor, and was seriously wounded by a shell explosion in the first assault on Petersburg. In the battle of Reams's Station, while in command of a brigade he was struck in the right thigh by a rifle ball and his leg was amputated at the hip. While he was lying on the ground helpless, F. E. Rohm a Junata county soldier, now a citizen of Millersburg, came that way and saw the helpless officer, called upon some comrades that were with him, to stop and take the Colonel along in their retreat, so that he might not fall in to the hands of the advancing enemy. The comrades of Rohm all readily seconded his good Samaritan intention and carried him off the field. If General Beaver becomes Governor he should appoint Rohm to an office, if Rohm desires an office. In December, 1864, he was mustered out as a Brevet Brigadier General for wounds received in battle. After the war he was a brigade commander in the State militia, and had command at Altoona during the riots in 1877. In politics General Beaver's first essay was as a Republican candidate for the Legislature in 1865, when he was defeated. In 1878 General Beaver had at first a leading place in the race for the nomination for Governor, but failed to secure the prize.

In 1880 General Beaver was one of the leaders of the third term element at the Republican Presidential Convention in Chicago. He was for a number of ballots the leading Republican candidate for Senator in 1881, but was not elected. He has been President of the Board of Trustees of the Agricultural College of Pennsylvania, in Centre county.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR
William T. Davies of Bradford county. William T. Davies of Glomorganshire, was born in Wales, December 29, 1831. He came to this country in early life, and after studying law in New York was admitted to the Bar in Bradford county, Pa. He served during the war in the 114th Regiment. In 1875 he was elected District Attorney for three years, but was chosen Senator in 1877, and was re-elected in 1880.

SECRETARY INTERNAL AFFAIRS
John M. Greer of Butler county. John M. Greer was born in Jefferson township, Butler county, August 3, 1844. In 1867 he was admitted to the Bar, and from 1869 to 1872 he was District Attorney of his county. In 1876 he was elected State Senator and was re-elected for four years.

SENATOR
William Henry Rawle was born in Philadelphia on August 31, 1823. He was graduated at the University of Pennsylvania in 1841, and was admitted to the Bar in 1844. He is the author of several legal works.

CONGRESSMAN AT LARGE
Thomas M. Marshall, Allegheny. Thomas Mercer Marshall was born in Newtown, County Derry, Ireland, November 20, 1819. Two years later the family came to this country and settled in Pittsburg. In 1824 they removed to Butler, though a year later the boy returned to Pittsburg to reside with his brother, who was engaged in mercantile pursuits there. After receiving a fair education in private schools he entered the service of his brother as book-keeper and general assistant, and at the age of eighteen years was admitted to a partnership in the business. At the age of twenty-three he began the study of law, and in 1846 he was admitted to practice. He identified himself with the Whig and Republican parties and took an active part in political affairs. He has never held office other than member and President of Pittsburg Councils. In 1879 he joined the Greely movement, and stumped extensively throughout this and adjoining States. In 1880 he again joined the Republicans and labored for Garfield.

THE PLATFORM
The Republican party of the State of Pennsylvania, in convention assembled, do reaffirm the principles of justice, of equal rights, honesty and economy in the national and State administration upon which the party was founded and upon which it has so long and continuously triumphed, and does hereby resolve that it always has been the aim and purpose of the Republican party to carefully guard the interest of the working classes by all suitable legislation, and to that end the protection of American industry by advocacy of continuance of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

RESOLVED, That as the sense of the great body of the Republican party of the State of Pennsylvania we declare:
FIRST, That we unequivocally condemn the use of patronage to promote personal political ends, and require that all offices bestowed within the party shall be upon the sole basis of fitness.
SECOND, That competent and faithful officers should not be removed except for cause.
THIRD, That the non-elective minor offices should be filled in accordance with rules established by law.
FOURTH, That the ascertained popular will shall be faithfully carried out in State and National conventions and by those holding office by the favor of the party.

FIFTH, That we condemn compulsory assessments for political purposes, and proscription for failure to respond either to such assessments or to requests for voluntary contributions; and that any policy of political proscription is unjust and calculated to disturb party harmony.

SIXTH, That public office constitutes a high trust, to be administered solely for the benefit of the people, whose interests must be paramount to those of persons and parties and that it should be invariably conducted with the same efficiency, economy and integrity as are expected in the execution of private trusts.

SEVENTH, That the State ticket should be such as by the impartiality of its constitution and the high character and acknowledged fitness of the nominees will justify commend itself to the support of the United Republican party.

RESOLVED that we also recommend the adoption of the following permanent rules for the holding of State Conventions and the conduct of the party:
FIRST, That delegates to the State Conventions shall be chosen in the manner in which candidates for the General Assembly are nominated, except in Senatorial districts composed of more than one county, in which conferees for selection of Senatorial Delegates shall be chosen in the manner aforesaid.

SECOND, Hereafter the State Convention of the Republican party shall be held on the second Wednesday of July, except in the year of the Presidential election, when it shall be held not more than thirty days previous to the day fixed for the National Convention, and at least sixty days' notice shall be given of the date of the State Convention.

THIRD, That we recommend to the county organizations that in their rules they allow the largest freedom in the general participation in the primaries consistent with the preservation of the party organization.

RESOLVED, That it is the duty of the Federal Government to adopt a policy which will result in observing good faith towards the aborigines, by keeping intruders out of the Indian Territory, by enacting laws protecting life and property on the reservations, by prohibiting tribal removals, by educating all Indian children in manual labor schools, and by giving lands in severally and eventually citizenship to all self-supporting Indians who desire the same.

RESOLVED, That we most deeply deplore the loss sustained by us, in common with the other portions of our nation, in the death of President James A. Garfield, who exemplified by his whole life and public career all those principal which constitute the highest type of American manhood, and who, when stricken down by the hand of a cowardly assassin, showed his fortitude and heroic patience that his profession that he was ready to give his life for his country was no empty boast.

RESOLVED, That we heartily sympathize with the widow and mother of our late President and his bereaved children, and we say to them that his life and memory are the richest legacy which could have been bequeathed to them.

RESOLVED, That the administration of President Chester A. Arthur, commenced under such and trying circumstances, has proved to be wise, conciliatory and efficient, and is entitled to the cordial support of every Republican.

RESOLVED, That under the administration of our late Governor, Henry R. Harris, the affairs of our State have been wisely, honestly and economically administered. The interests of the taxpayers of the State have been carefully guarded and his administration is worthy of the confidence of every citizen.

RESOLVED, That the ticket nominated this day combines purity of personal character with eminent ability, is worthy of the hearty and undivided support of every true Republican, and for its election we hereby pledge our earnest efforts.

RESOLVED, That the state committee be constituted according to the usage of the party, the delegation from each district to proceed to the secretary of this convention the name of the person desired to be placed thereon.

Seven people were killed outright, four fatally, eleven were injured, and thirty-nine more or less hurt. Fifty-eight houses were totally demolished and thirty others badly wrecked. The cyclone cut a path through the timber just as a scythe would mow through the grass. The damage to the Osage Coal Mining Company was very great. The population of the settlement was only eight hundred. The suffering caused by the visitation is very serious.

Hugh Buchanan, a resident of Chambersburg, was attacked on the street early on Thursday morning a week by three men, who knocked him down and robbed him of his watch and about $30 in money. The robbers escaped.
