THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

Juniata Sentinel sie and Republican.

VOL. XXXVI.

B. F. SCHWEIER,

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 1882.

New Mathed of Wipe-Making.

NO. 201

SHILL WHENEVER TOP CAN.

When things don't go its said you. hut drive away light frome; some ble is oft perplexing The munit line waterd to an To being all trials between g. And anti-s whenever you can.

Why should you dread to desiry or And their despectations For while you mustile borrow You must support to pay ; If do a provide the standing Where stands be often pranthedhigh gross the bridge bidder you Catil the bridge is reached.

You might be spared much sighing it you would bear in min-The thought that good and eva-Are always here could ned. There must be something wanting. And though you roll in wealth, You miles from out your casket the procious jewel-bealth.

And though you're strong and starsly, You may have an empty purse And earth has many trials Which I consider worse But whether joy or sorrew, Fill up your motial span, Twill make your pathway brighter To attale waene'r rou can.

A NATURAL SISTAKE.

"1 say, Prince!"

Prince Winslow, fishing under a fragrant bank of sweet fern, looked up and beheld the good natured countenance of his triend Doctor Denleigh. eleven o'clock to practice.

"Helen wants you to come up this afternoon, if you can,

"Have they come?" "Yes."

The two men smiled into each other's ducted a young gentleman into the faces. The younger one looked at his parlor. waten.

"I shall have to go home and dress, about tour o'clock."

spotied a delightful day's fishing for and Honor advanced into the apart- ered, and the thieves admit that their de France: but he accepted the situation ment. quite good naturediy. Indeed, perfect "Ronald!" she exclaimed.

is was the weather and excellent his luck; he no sooner heard the expected relived both her outstretched hands in and succeeded in carrying off their planaer. go the joys of the seen for the delights one and then the other to his lips, lived for years in the towers or bastionof the unseen took possession of hun. Prince could not see Honor's face; but at the angles of the Imperial Palace, and And as soon as the doctor's cheery face the joy of the gentleman's there was no often when lights were observed in the the marc of purple grapes in such a way disappeared from the bank, he with- mistaking.

drew his patent fly from the water, wound up his line and with his fishing- said, rod over his shoulder, began to ascend Frince could play eavesdropper no ing path to the road! girls were not plenty in Red-i the Millses Selwyn had been leigh in?" he said. the winding path to the road! Pretty girls were not plenty in Reddescribed to him as very pretty, also accomplished and very charming. They stincuvely regained her self posseswere the orphan meces of the Denletghs sion. -heiresses in a small way-and had of October with their relatives. Now Mrs. Helen Denleigh was a nice liftle woman, but not altogether disin-terested any more than the rest of mor.

tals. Pretty girls were rare in Redfield with a happiness which, to Prince, at Honor S-lwyn's sweet, strong face made she said simply. "Will you let me tell him fear to dare his fate; and day by you how it is day he hugged his secret. He bowed and they sat down side by Fortunately, Amy, young and elastic, side, recovered instantly from her cold water

Innge. There was week after week of unexceptional weather, and as Mrs. Den- for this he is not to blame, and is him-leigh means to make her nieces' stay self unexceptionable in character. For ments of the present day. Owing to the Toronto reporter: A few years ago, desperate acts of the Berar county vigi- of a division of the New York National -The total cost of the Afghan war is as enjoyable and attractive as possible, a year past, he and Amy have loved various diseases to which the vine has of on a delightful July evening, I saw a lant committee in the palmiest days, when Guard, was admiring the picturesque set down at $108,010,000 rides, drives and sails followed each each other. Round, however, could late become a prey, grapes have increased body of coldah rise by the edge of the Mexican horse-thieves might be seen features of the display, the color and -Kossuth insists that Hungary will other in merry succession. Other never visit her and they were both very considerably in value, so that it is of great whirlpool's outer circles, and immediant hanging from the limbs of adjacent trees excitement and ghtter, as the masses young people were invited to the unhappy, until I decided it to be right importance to get the ately after the coi had risen a whale on almost any day in the week. Dur- swept by the reviewing stand. Looking that I should be friend Roland. For the other day, them. By the old method, a very con-

of day. If Mrs. Denleigh had had more that they might meet here. Aunt Helen is derable quantity of valuable substances leisure in which to observe the signs of was not in the plot, but she knows how to which wine owes its aroma, body and geyser attracted the attention of a small to church on Sunday with hangman's the formation was the same-company the times abe might have discovered it is now, and has no objections to color, remains in the marc after must- fishing boat not less than a half a mile ropes in their pockets. He lives on the front, elbows t uching, uniform step, her error in regard to Prince; but her Mr. Raleigh They will be married ing. duties as hostess to so much company soon, and I-left her little leisure to make investiga-"And you!" said Prince, enraptured with hope. The sisters were seldom far apart, and "And I love you!" said dear Honor, seeing Prince generally near Amy, she hiding her blushes on his breast, did not susp et that she had jumped to a hasty and wrong conclusion. Stripping Palaces of Gold.

Eut this is not the mistake of my story. I must go on to tell that bonny been perpetrated from the Winter Palace out, as in the case of Petror's and to. around, but they went on asing an around, but they went on as around around they went on as around aro story. I must go on to tell that bonny been perpetrated from the Winter Palace out, as in the case of Petiot's and Dr. around, but they went on fishing un. and hu g him up to a tree, leaving him miles further, in the same close order very uncertain. but equaly tall of conflicting hope and ese criminals attach to any property. In the wine, fear, come lightly up the maple avenue the summer, 6th moon, the disappearance one morning and found the parlors of the brass and iron armory in the upper and library deserted. open hall door, expecting as usual, to duty had stolen them to eke out their mea meet some of the ladies, but no one greallowance, and in consequence an extra was to be seen, and, passing on, he sea- use of allowance money was granted. On ted hunself in the little music room, the 30th of the 11th moon the theves' where he knew Honor usually came at leg' was found in one of the palaces, which aroused suspicion, and on investi

He had seated humself and carclessly gation it was found that a large bras-palace. One of the chains will weigh

His elegant appearance, and evident several hundred weight. They were all sign was piece by piece to strip every palace of its ornamentation. It is a woo Honor turned with a start, but in-"Auntie has gone to see a sick neigharrived to spend the delightful month bor, Mr. Winslow. Let me introduce you to an old friend, Mr. Baleign." If poor Prince was almost speechless, terested any more than there in Redfield tals. Pretty guits were rare in Redfield but eligible young men were not; and she certainly had no objection to her instant's meces making nice matrimo-husbanat's meces making nice matrimo-instant a delusion. Honor could not ref. Ta-bu and Hou Shanghsiang, the brazier who received the stolen goods. The following are still at large: inan () the stolen goods. The following are still at large: inan () the stolen goods. The following are still at large: inan () the stolen goods.

It is well known that the art of mak- A Scandinavian emigrant gives the A Mexican by the name of Senobia The method of marching troops is a ing wine according to the old method following account of a tragedy in the Martinez was brought to San Antonio, subject of no less interest to the soli- at Niagara is beturned at $25,000 "Any and I have long lived with an practiced over one thousand years ago, famous Lofoden maelstrom, his rustic Texas, recently from the Mediua, is iers of the State than to those who trend

Adolph Reihlen, of Stuttgart, has whale blew there was cod, they fulled incurred the displeasure of his neigh- already beginning to tell on the plucky the new comet will be visible in full patented a simple and profitable process toward the spot. In the boat was a bors from the fact that Senobio has been but overdriven men, as shown by white sunshine, which opens a new era in the wine in-pretty old man and his son, a lad of suspected of appropriating other peo-lips, starting eyes, dilated nostrils and -Senator Logan has been improving dustry, because it affords a means of a out sixteen. They had just come for ple's horseflesh to bis own use and dis- pasting chests. Turning to a friend, ever since he reached the Arkausas Hot thoroughly utilizing the grapes. An in- the first time out to the Lofoders, and posing of the same for private gain. One the General said, "This is sheer cruel Springs. crease in the percentage absolute quan- now palled carelessly inside the circle. Inght a mob of unknown men went to ty." Had he known that some of these

of the brass and iron armory in the upper strainer operates as follows: The circle grew smaller and the swift moved rope around his neck with both hands a crime to keep men braced up continu-story of one of the gates was observed and berries are gently pressed, the must faster. At length the truth dawned rope around his neck with both hands a crime to keep men braced up continu-Europe for New York between 1870 and He had entered upon the luckless old man and the boy. for six hours, he succeeded in saving ously for such a distance; as well might 1880, 2,518 died in transit. with the boiling must for three A faint scream of terror from the lad his life and was cut down next day by the reviewing stand be as long as the or four minutes, whereby the coloring came over the water: they grasped friends. The poor fellow cannot tell route. Well-seasoned regulars are never Japan at a cost of $750 has shapped to inatters, tartar, aroma, and other valua- their oars and pulled with desperation. who the parties were who committed abused in that way; why should occa- America enough idols to bring $7,000. ble substances, are extracted, and at the But they were in the meshes. It seem- the outrageous act, nor now many there sionally exercised militia be so ill-treatsame time the injurious albuminous sub- ed as if some fiend were dragging them were in the gang. He only knows that ed? There can be but one answer to "Atlantic Monthly," leaves for Europe stances are rendered insoluble. The to the vorter. For a time they held he went through the horrors of death, the query, I fear-"It is our custom." next month, to be absent about the taken up a book, when he heard car-riage wheels grind the gravel of the ed to it, had been stolen. These chains attach by this process, but is capable of bat only for a while. The old man's mare is, however, not duite exhausted their own against the transformation of the by this process, but is capable of bat only for a while. The old man's mare is, however, not duite exhausted their own against the transformation of the bat only for a while. The old man's drive, and in a moment a servant cou- are attached to the oragon heads, griffins, imparting the rest of its still valuable strokes became less steady, so did the

etc., which adorn the side ridges of the contents to weak wines, so-called frui lad's. The latter again rallied, and was wines, and saccharine liquids generally. | pulling with the desperation of despair eager anticipation of meeting some one, heavily plated with gold, and it was for By Reihlen's method (which has been in when his oar unshipped and fell over. Tell Mrs. Denleigh that I will be around instantly attracted Prince's attention, the save of the gold principally that the operation since 1880), when purple in a moment it was carried away. They A sudden fear had come over him when thetts h ve been perpetrated. But for the grapes are worked up for wine, a deep the two set up a wild, piercing cry. put So the arrival of the Misses Selwyn there was a rustle of silk a light tep, leg the theft might not have been discov- blush red must is obtained in a few min- their hunds up, praying to God for utes without fermentation, the quantity mercy-they could not expect deliverof coloring matter extracted by the boil- acce. In a minute or two it was all church architects take this subject into er how the thieves reached the high roof- ing must being from three to seven over. The boat was whirled round and times as much as that extracted accord- round, then her stern was seen to rise news than a sudden willingness to fore- either of his, and then rai-ed first the it has been discovered that the thieves ing to the old method after three months' in the air, then with all she contained, fermentation. Reihlen further prepares she dissappeared forever buildings the palace cunuchs, who had that even after years this will impart a "How is my darling? Tell me," he been privy to the nefarrous scheme of color to red wines which have become plunder, threw off all suspicion "by repre- bleached, or revive the taste of deterior- flowers amounts to a passion. They senting that it was the Hu-hsien or the ated wines. amortal tox with his lighted torch pros-rating hunself. And so the deception also that many of the cannon holes in the distant, and knowing that where the Medina, and for a long times past has quies time-while in front the pace was

In a Masistrom

The robbery recently discovered to have tity of wine produced is attained, with- Their boat began to more slowly the house of Martinez, took him away regiments would march two or three convention June 15th, and the result is ment increased, as every minute the ever, neglected to the the man's hands passion would have been unbounded. have 250,000 member population of 750,000. Reihlen operates as follows: The circle grew smaller and the swirl moved behind has back, and, by holding the L is a greevous mistake and sometimes ( idvocated y a correspondent, who pl-a is the cause of those who are debarred from attending church services because there are no facilities for their and the route step a welcome relief, 1 -The deputations to Soffa have exspecial comfort. He says : "Will not lose the inestimable privilege of uniting variety to the spectacle; besides, the ed that a man had his arm broken a few in the worship of the Holy Temple, of listening to the words of Go 's messen-with greater case the more precise dining-room. gers, while for five or ten dollars th * isovements when ordered, and that, you s me invali can e sky and thoroughly will agree with me, is a sufficient rea-

With the Japanese, the love of private box? Let us have private boxes in our chu ches-we will call them 'inhave distanced us in botany. Enthuvalid pevs'-kep strictly for the use of What has been said about red wines sinsts in gardening would fain hve to those who is no other way can have the rating himself. And so the deception applies equally to white wines, and the see the day when every householder will privileges thus obtained. Let these bouquet peculiar to the Riesling and have his plot of garden and will know pews be controlled by the rector of the also that many of the cannon noises in the outer cit, gates have their wooden shutters clevated for years, and many have supposed that it was for ventilation. No such ed to the must from other kinds of spread of such knowledge seems to be Sanday fo their use be devoted to some home, the dwelling of his wife and some were kinded and 115 injured. posed that it was for ventilation. No such the must from other knass of spread of such almost as hopeless as the possession of the must form other peculiarity of Behlen's process consists in using the carefully plots for its exercise in our large towns. It is many feel entirely at ease, knowing confortable, but pleasant. Let bin, as richest in the world. Among their posedulcorated grapeskins which are taken But the Japanese are taught gardening that the money expended in personal far as circumstances will permit, be sessions are 80,000,000 she p, and the have already been executed. Their names out while hot, drying them, and u ing in their schools, and all have their little comfort is benefiti g some greater sufare Yuen fama, Yuen Li-erb, Wang-w them as a ferment. Reihlen states that plots of ground. They are instructed ferer. Of coprse there will be architec-

-The gross cardings of vallroads in

MEWS IN BRIDE

-The estate of a decouver backman

soon separate from Austria. -A vase was sold for $11,500 in Lon-

-- f) e Massachusetts sea serpent is now off S ... Diego, California,

-Gen, Robert Toomb's eye-sight is eported to be rapidly fuling

-Dr. Swift, of Rochester, N. Y. says

-Maine will hold its Republican state

-Of the 1 563,644 persons who laft

-A missionary who was shipped to

-Mr. T. R. Aldrich, the editor of the armories the rules prescribed for in New York-due to leaving faucet -The waste of water every cold day marches should govern. In case of a open to prevest freezing-is 20,000,000

-Joseph Proctor, the Boston tragereviewing point ; the uneven and slip- dian, expects to celebrate, early in 1884, pery stones of city streets make the the fiftheth anniversary of his debut upon and the route step a welcome relief. am sure that the change would be ap-Prince of Balgaria to recatablish the preciated, not only by the soldiers, but constitution,

-Augus McDonald, whose cap was loo, died in Mastreal the other day at the age of 106 years.

-The first permanent bridge over the Danube below Vacuua, since the time of the Romans, was built at Pesti 1840.

Invalid Pews. The idea of "iavalid pews" is foreibly consideration? Why should an invalid

Gardentus in Japan. enjoy a musical entertainment from a son, and the ennuch Hsu Cohhsiang. The grapeskins prepared in this way excite in practical horticulture and in the artistic arrangements of bouquets, and overcome in a music hal why not in a make it agreeable and attractive. Let are streams of the State during the last ten

Home Adocument.

Marching Volumbers.

Nature is active in adorning her dom inions; and man, to whom this beauty is 1849, at a cost of $3,200,000. addressed, should feel and obey the les-

-The Fish Commissioners of New

mare is, however, not outle exhausted their own against the centerward force, and usek. review, the route step should be taken gallons, until within a very short distance of the uniform step difficult and wearisome, the stage,

Hang og fo. Six Hours to the girls. He was a good natured vain, feliow, cuitared a.d intelligent, weaithy and belonging to one of the best families in the country.

Since both the girls were beautiful. and entuer could make him a sui-able wite, why should not this young scioof a titled colonial family become Mrs. Helen's nephew?

The lazy October afternoon was at autumn-red avenue of the maples. A servan meeting him at the door of the ted for the woods, to avoid her. mansion, said that the ladies were in the Mrs. Demelgh, after waiting long in garden, and Mrs. Denlaigh would like to have burn come there. He turned sway and went down phaton, much vexed.

among the flowers; but scarcely had he "This making matches is the most dicated, when he stopped in alarm. A fallen in love with Honor?" she said. pretty figure rose among the shrub- Meanwhile Honor, who knew the pondsleaves, and as quickly went down with bering distressf illy that she was a wo of all kinds can be multiplied almost in a scream of terror.

Prince comprehended instantly that from a man. The time for their depar- proved, no only in quantity but in quality, the girl had ast her balance and fallen ture from Redhela was drawing near, and make to be the chapest of chesp into the pond. He heard the splash Mr. Baleigh, at her suggestion, was an od. This fact should be related over and other screams of fright, In an instant he was on the spot.

soon be drowned but for timely help, for going to Europe. At length Honor with which he cultivates a like patch ci The other ladies who were running away heard of this. for assistance, returned at sight of him, and besonght the young man, incoherentiy, to "save Amy!" as he flung off hope." she observed, one day. his coat and sy raug into the water. The chill or shock had made the does," remarked Mrs. Denleigh promp-The chill or shock had made the tily, girl quite unconscious by the time he tily. Pitying Prince, whom she sincerly reached her, and, hiting her petite form in his arm, waded out of the wabir. Let some one who is dry take her soon sent him a note, bidding him come up to the house-and she will come to the Maples. She wrote: up to the house-and she will come to in a minute," he said, trying to rid note girl from i , y-n would blash at your foo taking girl fromor i , y at would blush at your fool-takings in loving such a little gausse as Amy. But come to the Mayles at once, I shall never Lorgive you if you allow in bluees to go home, without your most courteous fareweil. himself of some of his superfluous moisture.

Two of the men servants wrapped the dripping girl in a blanket, from the Prince's brow ached with thought grass, and bore her away, while Mrs. Denleigh besonght him to to,low her, and grief, and he aid not make much of this letter. He recognized Mrs. Denan I allow her to furnish him with some leigh's old error, however, that he loved dry clothing.

Now it had not occurred, so far, to Amy. "I will not be rude, and offend all my Prince to fall in love; but, looking up he beheld a face which, while regardfriends," he said, screwed up his courage ing him with concern, was so altogether to the sticking point, and went to the lovely that he then and there lost his Maples. It chanced that he again crossed the familiar por al unannounced, and found "Honor, my dear, please lend Mr. Winslow that blanket from the ham- the reception rooms unoccupied. But mocs, and, Prince, do hurry-there's a in the same moment there was a light good tellow! If you get your death, tootstep, the rustle of siks, and Honor, the doctor will say that it was all my bright and beautiful, looked up in his fault-that I did not take immediate face. "I thought-I was afraid you were precautions," "I'u run to the kitchen, auntie, and not coming again," she said, softly. He stood ho ding her delicate get something hot for them to take," he could not speak for a momen" sail Honor,

"Honor," he said, at last, "I forced "Yes, do, dear;" and Prince folmyself to come here to day. It was lowed, now quite willingly to the house. "I don't think it would hurt me to hard to see you again." "Why?' she asked.

walk home for another suit of clothes," There was something strangely gentle he said; "but I will take a glass of Jamaica gauger before I go," stalking up and yielding in the soft brown eyes, and in spite of that troublesome mistake, they stood so near together she "She is very pretty," like an Indian. in an aside to Mrs. Denleigh, as Honor could hear the heavy beating of his heart. dissappeared,

"Because," he said, unconscious re-"Yes, charming!" nodded Mrs. Denproach in his blue eyes," I love you; leigh, well pleased. and-and I saw your meeting with Mr

"So it's to be Amy. The accident has settled the whole thing," she said Raleigh, Honor had been unusually pale. The to herself.

Thus she took no pains to show off color came brightly now into her smooth olive checks, as she turned and pointed Honor's graces, but henceforth Amy's through he window at one of the gar perfections were strenuously dwelt upon. I do not know why Prince tell in with den walks. Amy and Mr. Roland Raleigh were this state of things. He understood stroning there. "You made a very natural ' mistake Mrs. Denleigh's mistake very well. Perhaps it was because something in bitter enough; but Mrs. Denleigh, dis- the heard them remark to the bystander-

It she had opportunity to tell Prince his hardshood. The cuauchs knew the its richest when Prince came up the Prince, fast growing misanthropic, star- He lost his head for his temetity. The Emperor could not understand why one There he passed the long day, while shoe only should be missing.

> Fish for Fresh Water Ponds. vain for his return, reentered her pony There are few cuterprises enjoying oubic attention at the present tone that protaken a dozen steps in the direction in- trying work! Why couldn't he have mise more profitable results than the mutapiying of food fishes in fresh water It is the benef of all who have sery, reaching for a branch of crimson truth, and all the truth, was remem- studied the subject, that fresh water fickes man and that all solvances must come | actinitely, and so cultivated as to be in after day passed and Prince did not patch of water on his premises latre enough for tadpoles and shroers, can make ground. The food thus produced is too erly without a sharp trimmer.

"Mr. Winslow will not go abroad pay. it affords elements of nourishment without coming to see you, auntie, 1 sorrow that had come upon him, she ponds there are a greater number of ponds of less than five acres each, that are in nke manner capable of development.

for occupation.

amre L

Wooden Houses.

their transportation on ordinary flat cars

these sections are to be taken to Winnipeg or other places in Manitoba, and crected out of its peculiar position and cut dihere on lots, some of which are owned agonally. Close the exp over the tube, by the speculators and others of which put the chimney in place, and the lamp are to be rented. The parts are to be substantially built, and on arriving at their destination a tew hours' work will strictly followed, it will when lighted, small animals and stuffing small birds; ut them together, and the oak pins with yield a broad, straight-edged flam which the sections are joined are easily without a notch or indentation in it, and driven. It is calculated that in one and a farnish a clear, pleasant, steady light. aif days a d velling 18x20, with kitchen 12x14 attached, can be put in readiness Mouth Poisoning.

matic lead pencil.

Solvent for Gallie Acid.

Mr. Frederick Long says that he has of the weed in his vest pocket, took a accidentally discovered a method of dis-solving galice acid. Having a short time since a case of 1 ministures, the result of ered a peculiar taste and noticed that aric acid gravel, he charced to prescribe a his saliva was much discolored-not with ax one containing half a drachin of galic the inge produced by tobacco, but of a topic of discussion for some of the Bos- canula ed vegetable matter, which has race-the men robust, the women fair and and a dracam a si a hall of citrate of deep, purplish blue. He immediately ton people. The discussion was brought sotassiun, and, to his surprise, he found ne had a perfectly clear 1 q id, the galine with the galine insed his mouth, as he supposed thor-Mr. Walter, the English owner, recentac had a perfectly clear 1 q id, the gaine acting vaning winning winni ance made further experiments, and he ing the discoloration. This occured ly sent over for exhibition at the Art to be cultivated by hand, as it is strong Long hours of work, and ill-ventilated inds that, with care, twenty grains of about one o'clock in the afternoon. He Museum. The portrait was painted in enough ta bear the weight of a horse, dwellings, with poor, nay wretched, say, atrate will dissolve as much as fifteen went home to tea, and with the first 1796, and some claim that it is the only While harvesting the hands catch great nave made the shawi workers of cashmere grains of galific acid in an ounce of water and remain quite clear for any length of and remain quite clear for any length of the attempted to swallow he was all known make the father of his counerfect solution is a great as vantage, as ing, and this continued without inter- try look like a man "who might go and coming down suddeniy can see the weak, ill-nourished forms; and, al- oy the Western Union Telegraph to the through life saying 'prunes and prisms,'' growing corn shake all around him. In though the Government of Indha has bit of lead taxen into his mouth caused still Stuart's piture will remain the Still Stuart's piture will remain the simply suspended in muchage. The citrate this there can hardly be a doubt. It standard likeness of Washington. This there can hardly be a doubt. It standard likeness of Washington. The Presbyterians in Minn

to the value of Reihlen's discovery, and ed garden, established in some antique it seems likely that wine making ac- specimen of Japanesee pottery in the cording to rhis method will soon become shape of a papacious bowl. Within this universal. The Enological Institute in receptacle will be walks and trees and Stuttgart is now testing the matter.

Trimming Lamps

Since kerosene came into use as light producing agent, various imple velopment of this odd manipulation of ments for trimming lamps, have been natural objects is the patient training patente. and placed upon the market; but of the minimized trees and shrubs into nothing has yet been invented for the the forms of birds and beasts, or any invited guest at the Maples. And day and over again, until every one who has a purpose quite so convenient, cheap and ebject that may strike the fancy. effective as a pair of ordinary, medium Though the pond was a mere toy-pond for fish, he saw instantly that the white faced girl was beyond her depth, and would for it is impossible to trim a lamp prop-iood fishes, aithough probaby not a thou-sandth part of wait this may be made to produce, at a little exponse of the makage of chimneys—is to cut the and sits up half the night when going to made to produce, at a little existing of chimneys—is to cut the and sits up half the night, when going to the principal roads or lines of are proof against the spines, and one varies between 30 and 35 pointing; that military operations. From this circum-

Hints to Farmers With Sons.

Foronto in sections, of a size admitting See that no list or thread remains on the toes and cutting grain in fair weather, furtuer investigations, wick, and that it has not been pushed give him a chance at the yard-tick, and not have him around quareiling the other boys, who are handling horse-rakes and pitchforks, and the like employments. Again, if a boy is skillful in skinning if he practiced making piles of mud teeth from the jaws of a dead horse > reads physiology while his brothers are deep in "Robinson Crusoe," he will be who sometimes carries a small quantity than with a scythe.

number 7.419.

fact she had had her fair and debonair young heighbor, Prince Winslow, in other, and all his love had been in the following are shin at large: than () explanation of this apparent in Sharshi man). Li San kou, Ti Ho rh, Lion in absence draws back the heart by the electric. The consumption of gas by other, and all his love had been in a, ting fu and Fa chion. A triend met the thieves on the way from the Military and a sociation of content. Let this the street lights last year was 17,169,630 the backs of the chairs are high—would the backs of the chairs are high—would the street lights last year was 17,169,630 the thieves on the way from the Military persistently indeed to the skins, and the floriculture so extensively developed. the backs of the chairs are high-would be done, and this sacred spot will bemolecules of sugar being only brought One very curious art they seem to have be indisp nsable," The suggestion is come more surely the scene of cheerfulbitter enough; but Mrs. Denleigh, dis-cerning half the truth—on observing Raleigh closely, during the few days Prince was invisible at her house—re-bitter to call must her dury to call on the dury of the shore once stolen by the shore once stolen by membered her duty, to call upon her Lung had one of his shoes once stolen by It then appears that the ferment is pos-session of trees of the bigger species, arranged at one side of the pulpit and a pleasant, a cheerful, and a happy sessed of an extraordinary power of they have gradually developed the art channel and separated by lettice work home. Waste not your time in accumu-If she had opportunity to ten Prince his hardbood. The canada way what she beneved, she would have various places frequented by the E speror splitting up sugar. The result of these of dwarfling them without in any way from the rest of the auditorium. Here lating wealth for them, but plant in builded better than she knew; but at night and the thief got thus informed. muthal combinations is, that the fer sacrificing their general shape and protheir minds and souls, in the way promenting wine always appears clear. portion. Among their family treasures ed chairs or reclined on cushions. It Wine authorities are of one mind as may frequently be found a well-arrang- was a happy and beneficent device, posed, the seeds of virtue and prosperity.

Stonchenge.

The so-called Druid monument of The pri kly pear, that ugly, fleshy flower-beds, with a great variety of S onehenge, near Salisbury. in Eng- little cactus, with its summer glories of floral favorites, and dwarfed to the land, has just undergone a species of crimson and golden blossoms, fulfils a "restoration," e usisting principally in strange purpose in the animal concomy to Queen Victoria at Mentone. It was a proper proportions. One further dethe erection of timber scaffolding and of the prairies. In itself it appears to returned at once with the brief answer, braces about the huge stones of which t be one of the veriest outcasts among. is composed. A writer says perhaps vegetables, executed by man and re-

such shoring up is preferable to the de- fused as tood by beast. Yet if it were cay and fall of the great trilitha, but not for this plant the herds of prairie the impressiveness of the mysterious antelope would have fared badly enough. group of monoliths rising out of he | ror the antelope, whenever they found

If the only good that a boy ever did grassy plain will be quite destroyed, themselves in straits from wolves or This equals the toanage of aboat $1 The ignorance of the scientific world in from dogs, made straight for the prick- arst rate ships of war. about a farm was to repair the pump, The ignorance of the scientific which dogs, and belts, and there, long, SI test broad, and 54 feet high The behef is quite general that to preany. it affords elements of nourishment The belief is quite general that to pre-accessary to a healing condition of the vent a lamp wick from flaring at the did these things will. vent a lamp wick from flaring at the grindstone, and he did these things will, quite complete. So far the only im- footed pursuers to come near them. For is still living at a green old age at Long body for which ho cheaper available sub sinute can be found. There are 256 ponds must be cut rounding to correspond with him-but a machine shop is. If the of from 5 to 2 000 acres each, aggregating the cap or cover of the burner. This is boy will walk a half-dozen miles after made with regard to them is that in though they lie so flat and insignificanterroneous. The best way to trim a lamp a day's work is done to h ar a political Spain and Portugal the dolmans or ly upon the ground, are studded with root fishes, attough probaby not a trout. to secure the best result-to get the speech; if he takes time from play to When ready to trim the lamp remove the chimney. Raise the cap of the burn. the world more good if you put a law er. Turn up the wick and, with a pair book into his hand, instead of a manure invading expeditions, as guides to those in some places almost invisible to the of sharp sicesor, clip it even with the fork. If he can earn more money in which were to come after them. This cursory glance, are in reality towers of A gentleman avag as Ottawa, Canada, of sharp siesson, clip it even with the trading jack-knives and fish-lines on top of the tube. Be careful not to cut which we can be done in heating be to be great edible division of de, and one with a whip driving, m ks having wooden houses constructed in or squeeze the tube with the acissors. rainy days than he does in hoeing pota- gestion may possibly furnish a clue for the wild prairie nations, and as unpass- ing live men to each team.

Fisihng in a Cornfield

In Colorado is a ten-acre field, which leons.

is no more nor less than a subterranean Cashmere Shawls. lake covered with soil about eighteen Every one knows that the Cashmerinches deep. On the soil is cultivated a field of corn, which produces thiry shawls which figure so frequently as when he was a child, and extracting bushels to the acre. If any one will wedding presents from the Queen ar take the trouble to dig a hole to the part of the annual tribute paid by the depth of a spude-nandle he will find it to Maharajah of Cashmere as an acknowl fill with water, and by using a hook and eigement of the suzerainty of the Em-A gentleman, a tobacco chewer, and deep in "Robinson Crusce," he will be far more likely to succeed with a lancet line fish four or five inches long may be press of India; but every one does not can ht. The fish have neither scales know in what dens of squalid misery nor eyes, and are perch-like in shape, and by what a physically debifitate. The ground is a black mari in nature, race these shawin are produced. The and in all probability was at one time agriculturists and the boatmen of the George Washington's looks afford a an open body of water, on which as- delicious valley are physically a fine been increased from time to time until to took upon. But in every shawl-prodrive a sail through the crust will fin - non, it is one of the few and sights in _ne Government telegraph of Great Brit--The Presbytarians in Minnesota on releasing it that it will disappear the "Kashmir-ibenazir," or the unrival- in to all papers of the country for that od Cashmere of the Persian poets. altogether.

lights of an evening, 55 of watch are

-The largest cotton raiser in the world is said to be Edward Richardson, of Mississippi, He owns about 52,000 acres of land, and last year raised over 12,000 bales.

- The French Cremation Society now onsists of 406 members. The receipts The Prickly Pear as an Autelope Fence the first year were 7,000 france. The average cost of cremation has been but three francs.

-At Monte Carlo the administration of the Casino sent a magnificent bouquet "Declined."

-The wardens of the Washington jail say that Guncau has accumulated about $1300, fully $800 of which are from the sale of autographs. On a recent Saturday he took in $38.

-Noali's Ark was $1,662 tons burden. It was 547 feet

- The richest and most perfect varie-

-At a Russian Jewish colony in Lonisiana the other day were noticed a yoke of oxen hitched to a plow, a Russian able to the eaters as was that girdle of -It was deemed singular that eight fire and steel which Von Moltke buckled employes of the New York Central Railcond at Buffalo should come out simulso close round the city of the Napotaneously with Sumiay suits of like msternal. The explanation was found in me fact that they find pluadered a treigit car.

-Lovers of statistics will hear with iterest that 5,800,000 fowls, 2,540,000 abbits, 2,500,000 pigeons, 1,000,000 arks, 257,000 partriages, 260,000 mares. and 9,000 head of deer were sold at the caris Halles Centrales in the course of single year.

-The importation of Mediterranean anit at the port of New York during the car 1851 consisted of 117 cargoes by inglish steamers and 25 cargoes by Italan and Norwegtan satting vessels, and comprised 819,223 boxes and cases of starges, and $58,241 boxes of lemona.

- The Prince of Wales has invited Count Geza Zichy, the one-armed Hangarian pravist, to visit London this seaon, and he will make his debut at Mariborough House. The Count, who lost ais arm through an accident at school, mays with his left hand in a marvellone mainner.

-The number of words transmitted 55 daily papers it serves for the cousts year is stated at 611,199,960, while the otal number of words transmitted by period was 243,500,000.

Washington.

with pincers when he got older; if he