

B. F. SCHWEIER.

THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

High Art in Copper.

Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. XXXVI.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, JULY 19, 1882.

AT HOME.

The tired ones are all at home : with slow and wearied tread and mien, That tell of toil-full hours between The cheery morn and this, they've come

All day the summer's soughi peace, its beanty, freshness, all were mine, And brought me gladness half divine That with the evening doth not cease.

Oh, could I, like a mantle, fold About their weatiness my joy, My soul would know more sweet employ Than all the happy day hath told.

Do ve so wait until we come, O loved ones in the mansions fair ? so fold o'er us the peace ye share, When we, the tired ones, reach home

A MAN THAT SUCCEEDED

"There's a factory near by here," she "My only daughter, sir," said Colsaid, calmly. "The country girls earn onel Monteagie. "And, as I venture to hope, accomplished in her way, We are not much in the way of schools or academies here, but I have been her instructor myself, and she is a thorough mathematician, an excellent musician and a tinguist of no mean capacity. We are studying Hebrew every day, she and I, and she devotes her evenings to comprehensive reviews of her Latin and your salad to-day, and I baked the The voting begins at eight o'clock in rich maroom, plain, clouded in pinkish Greek. She will be a scholar, if I live to complete her education."

Mr. Crofton looked curiously at the it, to menial labor." oddly assorted pair-the silver-haired, shabbily-attired old gentleman, with ton, his bald forchcad, eagle eye and deli-"That is what 1 wanted to know, cately-white hands; and the dark-browed, said Mary, hastily, "because, living at the gate distributing tickets. sullen-looking girl, with a gypsy skin, here all by myself, in such a strange, untidy frock and patched boots. unnatural atmosphere, I sometimes get Pretty? Yes, she might be pretty confused, and scarcely know right from under some circumstances. The diamond wrong." "But they will have to know it itself is not an attractive stone before the tapidary's art has polished its rude when-"When I really go into the factory," angles into glittering facets of white fire. But she certainly possessed no sweet, feminine graces now. pang. I am to have a dollar a day, the interior.

"How old are you, Miss Monteagle? he asked, finding it imperatively neces sary to say something.

"Gallery of American Rosebuds, words, "Seventeen," while her looks and the baker," "You are a noble sirl," said Mr replied, plainly, "None of your business! that moment, Mary Monteagle was

"Go, my child, and gather some glorified with rare beauty, as she stood "The voter nods in recognition, the going leaves in natural tints, four-leaf there, the fresh wind blowing her jetty curls about, the reflection of orange returns it to the elector, who hands said the old gent'eman, magniloquently, while he conducted the son of his oldest house, where the carpets were motheyes half-veiled beneath the long-lashes, drops into the box. eaten, the furniture mildewed, and every "And if I could be of any assistance to trace of decayed gentility told the sad you in this task-" story of better days. "You can," said the girl, abruptly, less he is called in. Near six o'clock

Mrs. Monteagle, who had b. en a beauty . You can stay here and amuse papa, so the room fills up, for every elector has once, and had her portrait engraved in that he will not suspect what occupies a right to assist in escertaining the re-

our dinner? Papa smokes has segers How the French Vote. and talks about the Mexican war; and mamma poses in the great chair, and The French elections always occur or dreams of embroidery work and ta- Sunday, as on that day, it being a holi- progress lately made in the art of metal pestry statch; and I-I am expected to day the voters can go to the polls with-learn Arabic and Sanscrit, and nobody out losing time from their work. Vot. not to be compared in size to the lost Gotknows what else, and ignore our wretch- ing being ranked as to its ceremonial ed poverty. But I can't. Who could?" importance, with wedding and funerals, Mr. Crofton looked nityingly at the Mr. Crofton looked pityingly at the the workingman goes to the polls dress- from their quaintness. Many decorative gurl's sparkling eyes and pale, excited ed in his best. He pays no poll tax. articles, together with those for service, are

The only qualifications are that he is a "I am very sorry to hear this," said Frenchman, is twenty-one years of age, he. "Can nothing be done?" and has resided six months in "Yes," said Miss Montcagle, brus-ter in which he seeks to vote.

quely. "Something can be done-and Each year, before the election, he I am doing it, in so far as . can. But must procure a card bearing his name, papa and mamma must not be allowed address and age, besides the stamp of to suspect it. I am-learning a trade !" "You!" he echoed. "A trade!"

sement, in which he resides. But priate acid. The sets in these trays con French officials are accommodating. A ceiver and alcohol lamp, after the fashion a little pocket money there sewing on careless voter, who has neglected this of the famous lamp of Aladdin. In the a little pocket money there sewing on shirts. I am to have a machine as soon as I have learned to manage it. I go every evening, while papa fancies I am at the Greek and Latin, to Farmer Pelham's whose wife teaches me the use proceedings we will let Mr. Henry lobsters, water and pond lilies, lotus blo of the machine. I am learning house- Bacon, an American artist residing in soms, cranes and many marine conceits, work too. I made the mayonnaise for Paris, tell, we condensing his narration. as in the Limoges ware. Most noticeable is the coloring of many of these articles, bread. Our servant can do nothing of the sort. But it would kill mamma to hight, and takes place in the school-thurk that I storged as she would call rooms of the different aroundisconding and is concluded at six at thurk that I storged as she would call rooms of the different aroundisconding and is concluded at six at thurk that I storged as she would call rooms of the different aroundisconding and is concluded at six at thurk that I storged as a she would call rooms of the different arounding and is concluded at six at thurk that I storged as a she would call rooms of the different arounding and is concluded at six at the school storged as a she would call rooms of the different around storged around a storged aroom a storged around a storged around a storge think that I stoeped, as she would call rooms of the different arrondissements and has resided six months in the quar-

Several sergeants de ville walk back and others are finished in the Japanese figure "You are quite right," said Mr. Crof- forth before the entrance. Men with in copper or silver applique. These obwhite bands about their hats, on which

> Across the school room there is long table made of planks and in its of consideration.

centre rests the "urn," as the unpainted pine ballet-box is called. It is fastened with a padlock, and in the top is a hole large enough to pass a silver dol- of luscious ripe grapes. The delicate veins until then. I would fain spare them the is unlocked, and those present examine and the surface of the autumnal tinted Mrs. Pelham says, if I operate the The President of the Election Com-machine skillfully. And a do lar a day mittee stands behind the box; the vot with oxidized silver spiders and flues, ap will buy mamma many a little luxury, er, with his hat of, hands in his card, parently making efforts to reaca the edg And Mary Monteagle answered in and go far towards paying the grocer The President calls out the number and of the vessels and to gain the goars of cream and sugar so temptingly placed bename on the card; one of the assessors fore them. finds the number and name in the vot-

Crofton, warmly; and in his eyes, at ing list and repeats both aloud.

President clips a corner from the card, clover, a new moon, with face in it, from Florence; a genuine Indian flint, bound to an arrow by a silver chain; the Patience sunset deepening the color on her check him a ticket so folded that the name is churn, a parrot's head with large pearl in with outspread wings, upon which are en-

The crowd in the room is oniet and orderly, and no policeman appears un- tences,

A Strange Dance.

my time. You can divert his attention sult of the day's voting. As soon as the of Luxer to the Lahengrin we consul, Mustspha Agha, who begged us to come to the fantasia held at his father's Myrtle's Three-Ply Love. The beautiful specimens in copper to be "Myrtle, dear?"

"Yes, George, what is it?" replied the girl, glancing shyly upward. coloring and workmanship. If they are The radiant glory of a summer moon torp globe of copper, inside of which ten made of copper in original conceits, or after models before created in the generally used silver, hardened with a certain proward of the castle. On the edge of the portion of copper. Curious urns, vases, stands and other antique and modern shapes are shown, with caue tops or mountings, and trays for cigar sets, plain, starboard ribs she seemed to Myrtle a per-fect picture of sweet content and almost helv calm polished, in imitation of birch bars, or finished with etchings, attained by fret holy calm. the authorities of the ward, or arrondis. work, after the application of the appro> making strange lights and shadows that flit among the shrubs and flowers in such sweetheart."

there silently in the bosky glade, George for their lives or fortunes; and even the passed his arm silently but firmly around offer of a surrender might be refused, Myrtle's waist.

Tae noble girl did not shy. specimens have hammered silver, and "Do you love me, sweetheart?" he asked sisted on instead. There is no darker ing all the time in the most unbeco.. ing in accents that were tremulous with trem- blot on the character of Edward III, terms of native abusive language. On now, and the rosy blushes of Calumet avenue innocence were chasing each other her more closely to him. If a mosquite had tried to pass between them then it would have been bad-for the mosquito, made to him of the danger he might indesigns, render them particularly worthy "Can you doubt me, darling?" he whispered.

not love me a little in return?" For an instant the girl did not speak. said Mary, "Yes, I know that, But lar. Before the voting begins the box of the leaf show through the gold lining sorge heard the whisking of the brindle cow's tail break in rudely upon the solemn leaf. Smaller autumn leaves, quite as sugar-bowl, which are further decorated intly Myrtle placed her arms about his neck, and with a wistful, baby's-got-thecramp look in her face, she said to him: votion that will eventually keep you broke." Beautiful collar and lace pins for ladies are made of this colored silver. Among her rumpled bang and fearlessly led the the newest concerts at Wilson's are beway to an ice cream lair.

A Confused Memory.

fence, and who spend an hour every evening in swinging clubs and otherwise degraved characters, which might easily be mistaken either for Chinese or Greek sen-

"I am sorry to lose your money and your company, but I feel it my duty to say that Lon learn some a While returning along the steep bank say that I can learn you nothing further. generosity toward their foes which the You have got the science and muscle to clean out a crowd, and heaven help the man who stands before wart?" "Cer requite. Froissart gives one striking pounded.

you do it !'

mush a brick wall.

Warfare in Chivalrous Times. One instance of promiscuous slaughter is remarkable for the high esteem to which it sometimes raised its chief per- which have been reported, says Buckpetrator. In the famous war between land, about the children of a mahout be bathing in all its mellow splendor the lenfy branches of the sturdy eld oaks that had for centuries shaded the entrance to than when the lord of d'Anghien took ried mahout if you can, with a hardhad for centuries shaded the entrance to Castle McMurtry and laughed defiance to the town of Grammont by storm one the form rate whole family become, as it were, parasites to the elephant by whom they working wife and two or three children. the fierce gales that every winter came howling down in all their cruel force and mercy to man, woman or child. Numearn their living. It is only a questio fury from the moorlands lying to the west-bers of old people and women were of degree to what extent an broad demesne that stretched away to the burned in their beds, and the town, may be trusted with a baby; but I have seen a baby placed by its mother syssouth stood a large brindle cow, and as the being set on fire in more than 200 places, tematically under the elephant's care, moonlight flecked with silvery lustre her was reduced to ashes, even the churches and within reach of its trunk, while the

"Is it not a beautiful night, dearest?" tive, "you are a valiant warrior, and, if inurmured the girl "See how the moon- it pleases God, will be a gallant one; beams flutter down through the trees, you have made a handsome beginning." History cannot but rejoice that the a werd, ghost like fashion. The dell is young duke's first feat of arms was also indeed clothed in loveliness to-night, his last, and that, not many days later. he lost his life in a skirmish. Of course,

"Yes," said George W. Simpson, "this all persons found within a town taken is the boss dell'-and then, looking down into the pure, innocent face that was litted to his, he took in us own broad, third- and all the male adults likely, to be base paim the little hand that erstwhile killed. Only by a timely surrender elephant seems to endure on the princiheld up Myrtle's polonaise. As they stood could the besieged cherish any hope that it does not hurt her, while it amuses the child. You see a little naked and an unconditional submission be in-ulousness. Myrtle's head was drooping than the savage disposition he displayed arriving at the water, the elephant, when, with respect to the brave defend across her peachy checks. George drew ers of Calais, he was only restrained from exercising his strict war-right of putting

"You surely must know that I car of an equally sanguinary retaliation ove you with a wild, passionate, wheama love that can never die. Do you strong feeling against making ladies prisoners of war; nor could the French ever forgive our countrymen for allowing the soldiers of the Black Prince to take prisoner the duchess of Bourbon, ame the dull thud of the bullfrog as he mother to the king, and to obtain a ranamped into a neighboring pond. Pres- som for her release. To the French ap-I love you, George, with a deathless de- treatment of prisoners. Both the Spaniards and Germans were wont to their captives nor put on them shackles

There are scores of respectable and to obtain a better ransom-curses on admiring them. eputable heads of families who take re- them for it. They are without pity or man lessons in the manly art of self-de- honor, and ough never to receive any veloping and hardening the muscle. One prisoners well and ransomed them courof the most enthusiastic of the lot had teously, without being too hard with finished his boxing lesson the other night, them." In this spirit Bertrand du cumstances.

Etephants Minding the Baby.

There is nothing by any means uncommon or incredible in the stories

NEWS IN ORIEF

-Two million barrels of salt are annually exported from Michigan. -The flesh of the manutus or sea cow is used for food and resembles beef. Lord Rosebery paid $10,000 for the large Vandyck at the Hamilton sale.

NO. 28.

-The fruit exports of America have creased a hundred fold in five years. -It has been calculated that a single cat will devour twenty mice in one day. -Of the 1150 convicts in the Ohio Penitentiary, but seventeen are women. -The Zuni Indians have used the inflower for decoratious for centuries, -Miss Annie Louise Cary's physician tells her that she must not sing again for a year.

dinner. No jackal or wolf would be -Hanlan the oarsman, is said to have likely to pick up and carry off a baby nade $80,000 during his recent trip to who was thus confided to the care of an England. elephant; but most people who have

-In Liverpool, the only public elevalived a life in the jungles know how tors are those in the grain docks at very possible it is for a jackal or a wolf Liverpool. to carry off a baby, even when lying in

-Mr. Ruskin is said to be about to a hut, when the mother s back is turned. dispose of Turner's most celebrated The children thus brought up in the companionship of an elephant become drawings.

ridiculously familiar without, and take -The standing army of France comall kinds of liberties with it, which the prises 499,000 men, with a reserve force of 327,000.

-The recent census showed that here are 9,945,916 families in the black imp about two feet high standing United States. on the elephant's bare back, and taking

-In Havana is one sugar cane factoit down to the water to bathe, vociteratry capable of producing 125 pounds of sugar per diem

-The present Chief Justice of Alaba cstensibly in obedience to the imp's ma used to set type command, lies down and enjoys itself, paper for $5 a week. ma used to set type on a weekly news

just leaving a part of its body, like a -Oscar Wilde is reported by Mrs. small island, above water, on which the Grundy to be engaged to a Boston "literary lady,

-The Rev. A. C. Diekson has accepcompanions of his own age, also in ed the presidency of Wake Forrest charge of their elephants, all wallowing College at Raleigh.

in the water around him. If the imp -Mrs. Langtry had a special train at slips off his island, the clephant's trunk the cost of £103 between Glasgow and promptly replaces him in safety. These London the other day, little urchins as they grow up become first mates to mahouts, and eventually arrive at the dignity of being mahouts. -Senator Hill's cancer was caused by neotine, which got into a blister on his The wife of a mahout is almost always tongue while he was smoking.

great favorite with her elephant, and -The destruction of vinevards in remember a case in which the wife of Europe by the phylloxera is estimated pears to have been due whatever ad- a mahout who was killed by his elephant at 3,000,000 francs within ten years. vance was made in the more humane (I believe more by accident than from -A German traveler says the scheme actual matice) succeeded in quieting the beast, which seemed to understand the of flooding the Sahara is impracticable, as it lies 900 feet above the sea level.

poor woman's anguish at the death of her husband, and endeavored in its -The Peterboro [N. H. ]public librabut of the French Froissart says ex-pressly: "They neither imprisoned their captives nor put on them shackles animals, and those who have had most -A pendant carbuncle on the neckand fetters, as the Germans do in order t odo with them cannot help liking and lace of Mary, Queen of Scots, was valued at 500 crowns, a large price for those days.

-The oyster trade of the United States employs nearly 53,000 persons, and the annual product exceeds 22,000, Hoffenstein was busily engaged scolding 000 bushels,

Herman for not polishing a lot of chesp -The number of persons drowned by jewelry in the show case, when a stooped shouldered countryman entered the store the recent flood caused by the sudden rising of the river at Verseez, Hungary,

jects in copper certainly claim quite as much attention as those of Benares brass, are printed the candidates' names, stand tor, although they do not posses the same kind of attractions as the brass goods, their peculiarity in coloring, and unique

Very handsome, too, are the novelties in oxidized alver. One set consists of a gold-lined berry dish, in leaf shape, curled, overlapped and joined together by a bunch stillness of the night, and ever and anon brightly colored, form cream pitcher and

And with these fateful words she adjusted fasten their prisoners with iron chains;

was sit ing up in state in a battered from Sanscrit and Arabic, and all these polls are closed the President opens the Achmet Effendi, the son of the English boudoir, in a black si k dress that must mysteries." box.

And, for the first time in his experhave been quite a quarter of a century have been quite a quarter of a century old, with a flower in her silver-sprinkled ience of her, Mary Monteagle laughed says an official, "four electors at each of course accepted, as it is the customary hair, and, still preserving the girlish at- a mellow, bird-like laugh. "I will " said Mr. Crofton heartily, titude in which the engraver's pencil And so the compact was sealed be had immortalized her, oddly contrasting with sharpened ontlines and haggard tween them. Instead of the week he had promise abruptness of her sixty-odd years.

his father to spend with Colonel Mon- sack?" And this was the way is which the old couple lived, in the dead past, as it tengle, the sojourn was extended to were, Colonel Monteagle starving con- three.

tented on the recollection of his past At the end of that period, he gravely tented on the recollection of his past grandeur, and his wife fondly fancying addressed himself to the dark eyed that time had stood still since the days daughter of the house. in which she was counted worthy to be "How is the trade?" said he,

bell at her side.

shail earn a dotlar a day. "Mary," said Mr. Crofton, seriously, "We will dine, Sarepta," she said to the maid.

"Please, ma'am," breathlessly uttered for you. You tell me that this farmer's the table. Each of the markers makes a lighted candle, and fixing it in the mouth that young person, "there ain't nothin' that young person, there and t nothing wife has made a first-class housekeeper a mark upon the paper under the name of an empty champagne bottle, placed beef yesterday, and the dog he tipped of you.

Mary exultantly; "and I have quilted a called. over the pan of oysters, and-" "That will do, Sarepta," said Mrs.

Monteagle, with a red spot mounting to week!" "I don't like the idea of your going each of her check-bones, "I said-we into a factory," said Mr. Crofton, "Supwill dine!"

And Sarepta withdrew with a jerk, pose now, by way of variety; you were The dinner was served pre entiy-an to-marry me?" "But you're not in love with me?" instance of the magnetic power of will-but there was no cold beef, neither were said Mary, opening her bright black the same, one remains valid, the other if they are the same one remains valid, the other if they are at right angles to her body. With her there any oysters. Fruit, a thin, watery eyes.

soup of herbs and parsley, a tastefully great gravity. "I have deliberately sides. garnished salad of lettuce and mayonnaise, and a dish of peaches and cream formed that meal,

"Quite Arcadian!" said Mrs. Mon teagle, with a giggle.

"And very badly served," secretly hours a day for it. That is the business time, the returns are announced. commented Mr. Crofton to himself. "But the salad was nice,"

"Where is Mary?" the Colonel view of the question. Now on to the more personal one. Don't you think asked. Mary, that you could love me? Because

"Drinking in the beauties of the sun set, I presume" the lady answered airily I love you very much indeed!" "I-don't know!" whispered Mary "The dear child has an artist's soul, "I might try!" and we do not tie her down to any hours And then she blushed charmingly.

or rules." The colonel fell asleep in his chair after dinner. Mrs. Monteagle and her Tainted face wi hdrew themselves into the boudoir- and Mr. Crofton, inwardly bewailing himself that he had promised to stay a week at Monteagle Manor, sauntered out upon the heights which overlooked the valley below. As he stood there, a rustling sounded in the bushes, and the dark-Lrowned gypsy sprang up the hillside, "You have a fine place here, Miss Monteagle," he said, by way of making a lingust, a thorough Hebrew student, himself agreeable. and proficient in Latin and Greek, I "I hate it !" said Mary, darkly.

myself was her instructor. It is not "I-beg your pardon!" exclaime singular that a girl of such intellectual Mr. Crofton, in amazement.

power should many well." "I do!" flashed out the girl-"I hate tradesmen howling at the back doors of scholars and poetesses in the worldlike a pack of howling wolves; you don't but a real womanly woman-is not her know that the house is advertised for sale for taxes long in arrears. How should you! How should you be aware that the very clothes we wear are aware that the very clothes that eook not paid for, nor the coals that cook year.

"Form your tables for counting," man who stands before you !" The citizen went home with a contable." Everybody offers advice, and thing. Accordingly we betook ourselves the noise is tremendous. Taking up a at the appointed time to Mustapha Agha's the noise is tremendous. Taking up a house, built among the columns of the paper bag on which is printed "Bulletin temple of Luxor, and here, after the de No. _____," the President asks: "Would any one like to lock at this ing and coffee drinking, we withcessed usual smoking of cigarets, salutation-mak-

much the same curious style of dance as I have endeavored to describe when first Several assure themselves that there are no votes stowed away in the corners. There were the same eight Ghawazees into it. Then it is closed, pinned up ornaments; the same wild music produced and carried over to the first table. The by performers who extracted shrill sounds one of the "American Rosebuds." Mrs. Montcagle sweetly welcomed her guest and touched the little hand-bell at her ride. "I am to have a machine nert week," and carried over to the first table. The crowd closes around, some standing on benches, while two electors, with large sheets of ruled paper before them, pre-touly think of it. Mr. Crofton -I -only think of it, Mr. Crofton-I pare to record the vote. Another elec- of the performance struck me as being a shall earn a dollar a day. "Mary," said Mr. Crofton, seriously, "I have been thinking of another plan for you. You tell me that this farmer's house the sack, takes out a vote, un-tor opens the sack, takes out a vote, un-shall earn a dollar a day. The pare to record the vote. Another elec-tor opens the sack, takes out a vote, un-folds it, reads the name and passes it to a fourth elector, who spreads it out on to open shall earner in which these Gha-wazees can command the different muscles of their lithe bodies in all the various n o-toos of their ducing. A young girl took you." "I baked mincs-pies yesterday!" said of the candidate whose name has been head, and forthwith commenced to thrill and quaver in a most surprising fashion.

As a hundred eyes examine each ticket, Then, after making these waves of motion quilt and made soft soap, within the no trick is possible, and every mark run from her head to her feet-during made upon the paper could be sworn to which she secmed about to lose conscious by a score of persons. If two tickets ness, so absorbed was the look in her are discovered folded together, there is a noise. But some one reads the law to the floor till perfectly flat on her back, which says that if the names are differ- with the bottle and lighted taper still stand-

es. "Rut I am," said Mr. Crofton, with is cancelled. Thereupon the noise subback again without even compromising the made up my mind that I can't be happy without you. And, although I don't are several counting tables in the room though how she contrived to twist her profess to be a rich man, I believe I can -have made up their counts then a neck at the right moment without dislocamake you a better allowance than six statement of the returns, signed by the ting it, or to turn her body independently of her head, was a wonder to all, albeit doilars a week, while at the same time President and assessors, is sent to the we watched her every movement closely. you will not be compelled to work ten Mayor's office, where, from time to sort were executed, this elicited the most vans around the room, and, as a proof of Cleaning up Things. A barn near Denver was infested with muscle of her body, was a most curious rats, Not long afterward a large steel jaw exhibition. trap was set for the pests, and neatly oncealed on top of a chopping-block.

"A Navy on Toast."

Onium Packed for Smuggling. The same day a man was hired to "clean up things" in the barn. He did his work So Colone: no meagle's daughter with to the fair Floridian plantation on the ishores of the river St. John, and aston-shed every one there with her thorough knowledg: of housekeeping in all its details. And the two old people' with their burden of insolvency and eare lifted off their lives, dwell quietly on in the ancient tower-like house, and talk to everybody who crosses their path of and the cries and yells of the innocent cloth painted black. This could not have churches-that is, $1000 a jece; but in deer, found three human skeletons, and what it seemed. Ordinary crude opium to write.

They must have had a very hilarions resembles putty or cheese in texture, and these balls, though covered with poppy time over the lighting of the new Eddy-stone lighthouse. At the banquet which these balls, though covered with j leaves and a hardened shell about on it all! The learning, and the purity, and the grand pretenses, and the miserable shifts." "But—" "Ah!" said Mary Monteagle, "you don't know it a'l. You never heard the

the blood. But one may be sure that morphine. The profit of smuggling opium the dimers had a good laugh over that is so great that every device is used to get

The citizen went home with a con-sciousness that only cowards carry re-the Spaniards toward their prisoners, anyding und you don't like it, you gets which should not be forgotten in envolvers, and he wondered how a man would look after he had given him a sock deavoring to form a general estimate of dolager straight from the shoulder. The the character of the military type of next morning as he was leaving his house life in the palmiest days of chivalry. In along came a strawberry man who was yelling his wares at the top of his voice. "Do you sell any more berries for yel-whenever the Castilians took any prisoing in that manner ?" asked the citizen, ners, they tore out their eyes, tore off is the peddler drew rein. their arms and legs, and in such a plight 'On, take in your nose ?" was the reply, sent them back to Lasbon. It speaks "Some one will take your whole body in highly for the conduct of the Lisboner me day !"

"But it won't be a man with a wart on that they did not retaliate such treathis chin!' "No impudence, sir !" "And none from you, either !" "You deserve a good thrashing !" "And perhaps you can give it to me !

The Law of Wills.

There was a golden opportunity. The ne had science-the other impudence. With Horn sound begins the interest The one had received thirty eight lessons in boxing-the other tairly ached to be in Spitzbergen, as the place was the scene of as cruel a tragedy as was ever "Don't talk that way to me or I'll knock you down," said the finished pupil as he gently threw himself in position to "Oh, you will, ch?" Then let's see one of the innermost islands of Horn sound, a few years ago, were found a years ago I sell a bair uf dem to a man vat Even the graduate could not tell exctly what took place. He remembered

ment, but allowed their prisoners every

An Arctic Tragedy.

"Straw-bu-ries-great big ones-red as the year 1853 by a Norwegian sea capcurence for ships that venture up here to lose one or more men a trip, and so when the other members of the small Some very badly drawn wills stand crews-say five or six men-return home the test of litigation, and others well Aithough many other strange fea's of the drawn are easily broken. Neither bad and report that they have lost comrades, grammar nor misspelling in the body no particular attention is paid to the elt the store.

ion't get any danks for it.'

Receipts of Government

surprise from the visitors scated on the di- of a will vitistes it. If the judges can news beyond the little circle widowed by understand what the paper means, they the lost men. the Ghawazee's strange control over each will order that to be done. Wills hav- It happened some where about 1849 ing nearly every important word mis-pelled, and nearly destitute of punctua-tion, have been accepted. Maine papers say that a court has lately taken proof that they lost their captain and two men The box of opium found on the seabcach of a will made in pantomine by a man on Spitzbergen through an accident, de-tails of which were given. The captain near Olema, California, proves to be a neither write nor use the manual a pha-and his men were mourned, and in a

the anchor where they would be everybody who crosses their path of "the excellent marriage which my daughter Mary has contracted." "A thorough scholar," says Colonel Monteagle, with dignity. "A musician, a lingust, a thorough Hebrew student, a lingust a thorough H was written. But if what is written been basely deserted by the basely deserted by the varions items from which this im-recent English journals. In one in- work in the mines of Siberia. The poor of 1881 amounts to $12,677,992. An State in nine cantons, and has an official stance a little girl had bought some heli-captain and his men must have suffered examination of the figures of the inter-existence in 42 parishes. It has 57 ecotrope perfume at a bazar, and had applied it on her face. This caused a vesplied it on her face. This caused a ves-icular eruption, swelling, itching, and, in fact, erysispelas, which lasted for

was forty-four. " Have you got any good jean pants in

"Don't Get Danks For It."

-The importation of opium from India to Chiua amounted in 1798 to 300 "Certainly, my frent," said Hoffensteit.; tons, in 1863 to 3000 tous, and since "we makes a specialty of goods in dot then the increase has been still more rapid.

-During the month of Max the State your money back or somedings else in extreasurer of Texas received from the sale change, you know. Vas you a farmer l "Yes sir, I live up on Red River." of land $65,326, of which $27,488 was first payments, representing sales of "Vell, den, you need a pair of bants like dese,' said Hoffenstein, pulling out a about 500,000 acres of school lands.

-The streets and public places of sky-blue pair from a pile of clothing lying Paris are lighted with 45.815 cas buron the counter, "Dey vas der genervine doe-skin, un ners, sixty-three electric lamps, sixtyfive vegetable oil lamps and two hundey vili last you de whole year round, you tred and ninety-three mineral oil lamps, know." The countryman took the pantaloons to -According to German statistics the hgh', examined the texture of the cloth, crimes and misdemeaners in Prussia and then shaking his head knowingly, he have increased at the enormous rate of 111 per cent, since 1871. In 1880alone "There's too much cotton in them; they the number of prisoners rose by nearly comfort they could expect in their cirwill shrink. 15,000. "Of course, my frent, dey vill shrink -Our exports of domestic breadstuffs but vait und 1 dells you someding. It a during the eleven months ending May man vat owns a pank or keeps a store comes here, 1 don't sell him dem kind of 31 1882, amounted in value to $167. 653 532, against $244,955,413 during bants. Vy? Because dey vas made eggs- the corresponding period of the propressly for de farming pisness. Dey vas de ceding year, dermometer bants, a blessing to de farmer vat vears dem. Do you know, my frent, matic elements of a thrilling novel of the old schools, and finds a fitting de-nouement in the mines of Siberia. On -The exports of petroleum and pe nouement in the mines of Siberia. On one of the invariant islands of Horn dey comes rite down you know. Dree $31,401,000. -The late Ex-Governor Washburn of Wisconsin, left an estate worth about of being kicked on the shins, struck on heap of nine skulls, said to be those of a makes good crops ven de oder people don't $4,000,000. He made his first money chin and twisted over a horse block after Russian crew murdered by a party of make noding, because he always knows by out of government timber taken up by he fell, but when consciousness returned English whalers. These murderets were his dermometer bants vat der vedder be. his brothers when they were surveyors, his wife and children were crying over him and the peddler was two blocks down more remarkable discovery was made in ginning of de blanting season, you know, Afder a while de neighborhood finds out His widow is in an asylum for the inde segret uf Vilkms' success, und at de be- saue.

-It is estimated that there are in dey comes for dirty miles around und if London at the present time no fewer blood-perfect daisies only two shillings tain, near this place, and it is of this I dey see Vilkins' bants crawling up his than 24,000 unemployed mechanics, for a heaping big quart without any thumb intend to tell. It is the commonest ocbut if his bants was down dey goes rite and that throughout the country there Dink uf is a floating population of 50,000 vaback home und put in de crop. it, my frent. Mit de dermometer bants grants, you can tell egxactly ven to put in de cab--Major Bellamy, who once was one bage seed, und blant corn twice as better of Georgia's most promment slave holas mit any almanac, und besides ven de ders, now employs about 1000 Legroes vedder gets so cold und vet dot de bants on his targe plantation, and each family goes up under your arms, den you can sew has a next cabin, a vegetable garden uttons on de front und vear dem as a and some fruit trees; a plantation church and a school maintained at the Major's When Hoffenstein had finished his yarr expense. neerning the pantalo ns, the countryman -It appears from Parliamentary re miled, and turning abrupily on his heel turn that 4044 persons were drowned on the coast and in the inland waters of "Did yen see de vay dot man acted Great Britain during the year 1880. Of terman I" said Hoffenstein angrily this number, however, 471 committed Yes, sir,' replied the clerk, suicide and twenty six were murdered. "Vell, it shust shows dot de more you The number of persons saved from try to help some people along, de more you drowning was 718, of whom 577 were saved by life boats.

-June 1st, the third anniversary of the death of the son of Napoleon III, was commemorated by the ex-Empress The total receipts of the U. S. gov-Eugenie, Prince Lucien and many of rament for the fiscal year ending June their friends by appropriate ceremonies 30, were the largest since the foundation at the tomb a Chiseinurst, A wreath of the government, except for the years others of the crew, for whom they were follows: Castoms, $219,678,698; inter-educes the interest charges from $75,- | tria, is in age a mere youth, but presents 000,000 annually to $57,000,000, a a dignified and commanding presence, reduction of $.8,000,000. It would high culture and the ability to address seem, that a very marked reduction in his heavers equally well in German, taxation might be safely indulged in. Hungarian, English, French or Latin.

Poisonous Hair Bolls. Varie is jeaces of poisoning from the use of perfumes have been reported in ome time. The scent was made with of the winter.