I think Mr. Rauch was the original settler of that farm, and must have wettled it previous to the beginning of the present century. Mr. Rauch seems to have fully understood the importance of taking care of number one; living a quiet life, never concerning himself about the affairs of his neighbors, and never paying much attention to the gratuitious counsel of others in his business. He conducted himself peacably among his neighbors, was a member of the Evangelicol Association, in his last will bequeathed part of his estate to that denomi nation. Mr. Kauch died about 46 years ago bowed down with dirt age. He raised four sons and several desighters. All of the sons moved to Michigan where they became immensely wealthy. John Rauch had a brother named Michael

Rauch who settled where Henry Zoller now lives, but he was less favored with this world's goods.

As you go out still further, to within mile or two of Ociontal, you find the farms of George Klinger, John Shaffer, Daniel G. Garman and others.
