duced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c. agance, &c.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be rad-leasly cured; pointing out a mode of cure clear and in a good state of curivation. at once simple, certain, and effectual, by battere in timber, in Spruce Hill Leanshup, means of which every sufferer, no matter at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and redically.
