

SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN
MIFFLINTOWN.

Wednesday, August 9, 1882.
B. F. SCHWEIER,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

PATTON has vetoed the River and Harbor Bill. In his veto message, he expresses great reluctance at the necessity of vetoing the bill for some of its provisions provided for the reclamation of marshes, and establishment of harbor lines, but notwithstanding the bill provides for what the President deems needful, it goes far beyond that scope and "contains appropriations for purposes not for the common defense or general welfare and which do not promote commerce among the States. These provisions, on the contrary, are entirely for the benefit of the particular localities in which it is proposed to make the improvements. It regards such appropriations of the public money as beyond the powers given by the Constitution to Congress and the President." The amount appropriated by the bill that the President vetoed was $18,743,875.

The President's veto was followed by Congress speedily taking up the vetoed bill and passing it by a two third vote over the President's constitutional protest. There was no party politics in the deal, as is demonstrated. A Washington correspondent sums the vote as follows:

The North American says with regard to the position of the Pennsylvania Senators on the bill. It is gratifying to find in looking through the details of the vote by which the Senate concurred with the House in passing the River and Harbor bill over the President's veto that both of the Pennsylvania Senators took their stand with Mr. Arthur. Mr. Cameron voted with the minority in the negative, and Mr. Mitchell was paired with a Senator who would have voted aye. People who believe in honest government, and who think with the President that the extension of the River and Harbor bill is both demoralizing and unconstitutional, will make a note of that circumstance.

PATTON, the Democratic candidate for Governor, may have merit as a man. But the superhuman attributes that are said to belong to him, are only the imaginings of an excited party over the prospects of winning a state election. The power behind Patton is lawyer Lewis C. Cassidy. Mr. Cassidy is an intelligent, cunning man, one of the most subtle politicians while his own political ambition has not troubled him, or been a thorn in his flesh, he gave such political turning and direction to four students in his office that they all became office seekers, and all won the places that they up to this time desired. Patton is one of the four; he holds office in Philadelphia. James Kennedy, was one of the four students, he is a State Senator. J. G. Gordon was one of the four students, he is a State Senator, and is the young man that excited the old men of the Democracy, by declaring that the young Democracy should not be made to fight the mistakes and battles of the old men of the party. Cassidy would put a plaster on Gordon's mouth if he had known that he would talk the old men around in that way. W. H. Harty is one of the four law students that Cassidy inspired, and he is Chairman of the Democratic City Committee. The boss himself does not seem to care about office, but it is understood that if the Democracy carry the Legislature he will manifest a desire to be sent to the United States Senate when Senator Cameron's term expires. This modest but uncommonly shrewd lawyer, it is said, has not only planned the careers of the State Legislature, and placed for himself in the United States Senate but he is said to be grooming Mr. Randall of Philadelphia as a candidate for the Presidency. Such are said to be some of the plans of the controlling mind that directs the movements of Mr. Patton. With the Republicans united on Beaver or Stewart, or any other good Republican there would be no doubt about the result of the battle for the State with Cassidy's young man. There is still a hope that before the election day comes around, there may be only one Republican candidate in the field for the office of Governor.

The crop prospects in England are reported as not encouraging. One of Garibaldi's sons is raising a company of soldiers to go to Egypt to help Arbi Bey. So dispatches from Italy say. The Philadelphia Sunday Transcript knows that the Mollie Maguire case to be humped around loosely to keep them within the traces of the law, but it is woefully lost as to the geographical locality or whereabouts of the Mollie Maguires, when it represents them as flourishing in Juniata Co.

ENGLAND explains the cause of the bombardment of Alexandria to be the desire, to secure the free navigation of the Suez Canal. She made war to secure the peace and authority of the Khedive, who to a certain degree was left unsupported by the Turkish authority at Constantinople. ENGLAND is pressing the Sultan hard to proclaim Arbi Bey a rebel, as yet the Sultan has not done so. At this distance it almost seems as if the Sultan is winking at Arbi, telling him to go on and drive out the English, while with the other eye, he is steadily watching the movements of Johnny Bull. It is funny to hear certain Republicans, who repeatedly advocated the election of certain Democrats to office, enjoy great care upon people to be careful that they do not wander into the Democratic camp. It is laughable to hear certain Democrats, war other certain Democrats to be careful and not wander into the Republican camp.

CASSIDY, is the power behind Patton's throne. As yet the English have not made a breakfast job of Arbi Bey. The man that believes that Conkling is not a power in the administration of President Arthur, has lived in vain, to read aright the acts of men, and correctly interpret human events. Upon the bill passed by Congress recently against Cinnamon, a son of the Flowery Kingdom was denied naturalization papers by a Washington D. C. Court, last Thursday. Things are shaping up in Egypt, for a fierce struggle, and if Arbi is not completely routed within the coming 3 months, all Europe will become involved in the contest on one side or the other. It is said that President Arthur, does not seek the society of ladies a great deal; but when he does find his way into a circle of the fair sex, for the time being, the promise of a trip to Paradise would not get him away till the circle had broken up.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITION. A series of public meetings in the interest of Constitutional Prohibition will be held in Juniata County, at the following places. Johnstown, Wednesday, August 9th. Patterson, Thursday, August 10th. Mifflintown, Monday, August 14th and Tuesday, August 15th. The following additions and changes have been made. McCulloch's Mills, Sunday morning Aug. 6, at 10:30 o'clock. Thompsonstown, Friday, August 11th. McAlisterville, Saturday August 12th. Richfield, Sunday, August 13th. The meetings will be held in the evening, commencing at half past seven o'clock.

During the past week we received two letters of inquiry. The first inquirer, asks "What is a Socialist? To which we answer. For the definition of the word socialist consult Webster. James B. B. was asked, while on the witness stand recently at Washington for the political meaning or application of the word "socialist." He said it means a man who was for Grant for President at the Chicago Convention. The second inquiry reads, "Please, state in the Sentinel and Republican, in what history I can find an account of the meeting of Alexander the great, and the high priest which you printed some weeks ago?" To which we answer; read the 11th book of the Jewish Anti-Quities, by Josephus.

There is a diversity of opinion as to why Providence allowed President Garfield to be shot. One man says that it was because of the wickedness of the nation; another man says, that it is because of so much Sabbath desecration; another man says that it is because of the wickedness of the murderer, but the latest interpretation is given by W. B. Thomas of Philadelphia, who addressed a Democratic meeting in Philadelphia last week one night. Thomas said that "it was nothing more than an act of retributive justice that sent the bullet through General Garfield in return for his rascality in the Southern Election funds of 1876." Since that speech was delivered, a good many people believe that Thomas should have a plaster over his mouth.

The Democrats of Montgomery county met last week, and in their resolutions passed by the convention, they called the Patton State ticket a superb ticket. That is what they called Hancock in 1880. Superb, ah, yes, superb! Does Patton wear coronets?

Miss Jennie Boggs was a prepossessing young lady of sixteen, whose home was in Baltimore, but who lived with a family in Hagerstown. She had luxuriant black hair, which when loosened from its fastenings reached to her feet. One night recently her room was entered and while she was asleep her hair was cut off close to her head. She was so overcome by the loss that her nervous system gave way to the shock and she died in a few days thereafter. It is not known whether jealousy or the money value of her hair tempted the robber.

On Monday about noon, 5 of the Lewistown encompant soldiers put in an appearance at this place; they were run-aways. Mrs. Jones was reading in a paper the other day about a widow that received $60,000 from the railroad that killed her husband in an accident. Jones couldn't imagine what made her look at him and sigh so hard after she finished reading it.—Plainfield Bulletin.

Republicans should remember that the last day for being registered and assessed is Thursday, September 7, for this year. The last day for paying taxes Saturday, October 7. The last day for naturalization Saturday, October 7. Nearly 2 years ago, a son of Porter Deviney living in Little Horse Valley, Franklin county, disappeared. About that time a newly made grave in the mountains above Concord was discovered. People talked awhile about the new grave, and then had it opened, but it was empty. Some days ago the finding of human bones in the mountain near to Concord brought to mind the missing Deviney and the grave. The conjecture now is that Deviney was killed and placed in the grave, but after the grave was discovered, the murderer took the body out. It is reported here, that a Huntington county blacksmith has been arrested, and that his arrest has resulted in the arrest of a Franklin county man.

Young Hostetter McGinnis, one of the fashionable young bloods of Austin, took a young lady to church last Sunday evening. As he had been up quite late the night before, he was very sleepy, consequently he did not stir with the fashionable young lady as he had heretofore been in the habit of doing in church. "What is the matter with you?" she asked in a whisper. "I am not feeling well," he whispered back. "You wake up and giggle a little, anyhow. If we don't misbehave ourselves in church, people will think we are married, and I want you to understand I've got a reputation to sustain." After that Hostetter McGinnis and the young lady acted so improperly that the sexton had to go and whisper to them to keep quiet.—Texas Siftings.

July 20—Hosanna Agnes—Age 14 years, 6 months, and 29 days. July 23—Harvey Milton—Age 2 years, 3 months, and 16 days.

This is truly a sad bereavement. Comparatively few families are called upon to undergo a like visitation of the hand of our over-ruling Providence. One little daughter is left as a comfort to the deeply afflicted parents. May God preserve her as a monument of his mercy.

Wagner, & Robison, the enterprising young carriage makers had a horse to run away from them last Friday evening, after night fall. They had hitched a coil to an open buggy, and drove to the country, on their return, a short distance beyond East Point, a bush got in a wheel of the buggy, and as the bush was broken the cracking noise, caused the horse to jump forward and side-swing by which sudden jerk both Wagner and Robison were thrown out of the vehicle. Robison fell to the lines and was dragged quite a distance on the road, but being generous and unpleasant way of traveling, and safety to himself required that he should stop, which he did by leaving go the hold that he had on the lines. His coat was badly torn but he was not hurt. Wagner was not hurt. The animals, came to town at a furious rate of speed, but slackened its rate of running so gradually till at last it came to a stand still in "Cox's hole," by Frank Noble's stable. The colt was not hurt and did not seem to be frightened. The buggy was uninjured; taken all in all it was a remarkable accident in this, that no injury was sustained.

The Huntington Journal, of last week says: Our readers will remember having seen in these columns within the past fortnight a notice of the killing on the railroad, at Johnstown, of a boy about sixteen years of age, whose identity was a mystery until the arrival in that place of a Mr. Woodhead, of Baltimore. The coroner who had held the inquest on the unknown boy was shown a photograph by Mr. Woodhead, a careful examination of it declared that the original of it had been killed and buried ten days previous. Mr. Woodhead, after obtaining permission from the authorities had the remains exhumed and after an examination of them he arrived at the conclusion that they were those of his son Willie, aged sixteen years, who had clandestinely left his home, in Baltimore, six weeks ago. Mr. Woodhead made all necessary arrangements and shipped the remains to Bristol, this State, his former home where they were interred in the family lot amid the tears and grief of relatives and friends. While the Woodhead family were engaged in eating their noonday meal on the 29th ult., the door opened and in walked the "late departed" alive and well, and as hungry as tramps generally get. The youthful traveler says he was as far West as Cincinnati, and recounts with considerable gusto the good times he had in his peregrinations. This leaves the Johnstown killing still a mystery.

Sixty turkeys were killed by dogs in the neighborhood of Stockburg, Lebanon county, the other day. At Bernville, Berks county, Harrison Hoagy recently assisted in the post mortem upon a cow which died suddenly. He had a scratch upon his hand, and some of the cow's blood getting upon this he died of blood-poisoning a week later. Two others who had been in the post mortem show symptoms of blood-poisoning.

Experienced cattle men say that large additions will be made to this number within the next thirty days.

At the age of three years Miss Lillie in Bowers was stolen from her home at Sandusky, Ohio, by a band of gypsies. That was fifteen years ago. On Monday last a week her mother learned that the girl was living with a farmer near Central Ohio, and going to the place recognized and recovered her. Mrs. Charlotte Ogden, of west Enoch Delaware county, fell down stairs on Sunday last with a coal-oil lamp in her hand. The lamp exploded and the lady was burned to death. James Miller residing on Little Pine Creek, Lycoming county, killed a black bear on Saturday last that weighed 400 pounds. This makes the thirty-eighth bear that Mr. Miller has killed.

TALLAHASSEE Fla August 3—John Hoper, a road worker was found dead in a swamp near Milton covered with mosquitoes, who had killed him by draining out his life-blood. He had left Milton last night intoxicated and carrying a jug of whiskey.
