

Subscription, $1.50 per annum in advance...

Advertisement for a National Prohibition Convention held in Chicago last week.

SHORT LOCALS.

Malaria, Malaria. Grapes are plenty. Splendid rains last week.

There are seventeen school marmas in Duncan. The school house is being put in to a state of repairs.

Several families picniced at Macedonia, last Thursday. Stewart will speak at Somerset, on the 30th of this month.

There was a picnic at Arch Rock school house on Saturday. Snakes are reported as unusually plenty in Chester county.

Potatoes sold on the street last Friday at 45 cts per bushel. In certain parts of the county rabbits are reported as plenty.

Hornington Sabbath School held its annual picnic last Saturday. Vendor predicts a great storm, for the first few days of September.

People are governed more by their feeling, than by their judgement. Sportsmen are ready for the game that may be shot on September 1st.

Artist Hess, and Mrs. Hess, each have a young lady niece visiting them. The Thompson town picnic was not as largely attended as in past days.

The late Legislature passed an act to punish fraud at the primary elections. The railroad "turn table," in this place, got out of working order last week.

There is a great scarcity of apples, for miles around Bealeton, this county. An organ grinder was in town on Saturday; he had the music box on wheels.

SHORT LOCALS.

Yellow fever rages in Brownville Texas. The cattle disease in Berks county has disappeared.

Mr. T. Zellers, who has been on a sojourn in Ohio, since last February, returned to Juniata on Saturday.

Mason's Fruit jars and Tin Fruit Cans, for sale cheap, at McClellin's tinware store, Bridge street.

It is said that tar, placed around in cupboards, and closets, that ants frequent, will drive out the troublesome little things.

Frank Patterson, a son of lawyer Patterson, in this place, was hurt by being struck on the head, by a stone thrown by a South Main street youth.

The turkey thief is about early; S. C. Pomeroy had 25 turkeys stolen from him not long since.

Alton Sholl, a lad aged about 13 years, fell off a crab apple tree, on Saturday and bruised his lips, his nose, his forehead, and sprained his right wrist.

There are a few political rats about town, whose chief business is to stand around and spy out every man that comes to town, and watch who he talks to.

On account of the rain last Sunday, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was not administered in the Lutheran church. The communion service will be held next Sabbath.

Jefferson Moyer, threshed 150 dozen of oats, and the yield was 177 bushels of oats. He threshed 140 dozen of Fultz wheat, and the yield was 97 bushels of wheat.

The Borough school board announce by poster, that all persons that pay their school tax on or before October 25 and 26, will be allowed an abatement of 5 per cent.

Col. Bell expects soon to have a 2 horse power threshing machine on exhibition at this place.

The Philadelphia Times among its sea side notes tells the following: A woman bathed in a red flannel costume at Rye Beach the other day and a cow in a neighboring field made a dive for her, and for a time there was more surf than Neptune had provided.

Candidates Beaver, and Stewart were both at the Grangers picnic, in Cumberland valley last week.

Five years ago, John Oberholzer, in Walker township, planted or sowed 186 grains of a peculiar white wheat that he obtained in a field of other wheat.

For spite: "I feel I am going, going," said the sick man as the doctor felt his pulse and his wife hung over the footboard of the bed eagerly watching the physician's face.

The Newport Ledger says: Tuesday last week, while H. B. Derrickson, of Wild Cat Valley was burning brush, in a back field on his farm, his clothes took fire on his back, burning a hole in his pantaloons and several in his shirt.

A phase of slavery of the olden times of 40 years ago is told in the autobiography of Senator Ben Hill, of Georgia, who died not long since.

The Chicago Tribune tells how honestly he took the last piece of pie, as follows: "Do you think so, darling?"

Last week the Garfield Republican Club of Huntingdon met and resolved that the Garfield Republican Club of Huntingdon would recommend to the Independent Republicans of Huntingdon county the holding of a convention for the nomination of a county ticket.

Last week the Huntingdon Journal published the following: A trio of nocturnal prowlers whose epicurean tastes craved for a mess of roasting ears, on Wednesday night of last week, lying south of Broad Top railroad track, and commenced an examination of the too young corn.

Joseph Earnest, of Patterson was at work, near McVeytown, last Thursday, on a telegraph pole repairing a wire; the pole broke off at the ground, and in the fall Earnest was severely hurt; he was brought to this place, and his injuries were attended to by Dr. Crawford and Dr. Van Valzah.

Col. Bell expects soon to have a 2 horse power threshing machine on exhibition at this place.

The Philadelphia Times among its sea side notes tells the following: A woman bathed in a red flannel costume at Rye Beach the other day and a cow in a neighboring field made a dive for her, and for a time there was more surf than Neptune had provided.

Candidates Beaver, and Stewart were both at the Grangers picnic, in Cumberland valley last week.

Five years ago, John Oberholzer, in Walker township, planted or sowed 186 grains of a peculiar white wheat that he obtained in a field of other wheat.

For spite: "I feel I am going, going," said the sick man as the doctor felt his pulse and his wife hung over the footboard of the bed eagerly watching the physician's face.

The Newport Ledger says: Tuesday last week, while H. B. Derrickson, of Wild Cat Valley was burning brush, in a back field on his farm, his clothes took fire on his back, burning a hole in his pantaloons and several in his shirt.

A phase of slavery of the olden times of 40 years ago is told in the autobiography of Senator Ben Hill, of Georgia, who died not long since.

The Chicago Tribune tells how honestly he took the last piece of pie, as follows: "Do you think so, darling?"

Last week the Garfield Republican Club of Huntingdon met and resolved that the Garfield Republican Club of Huntingdon would recommend to the Independent Republicans of Huntingdon county the holding of a convention for the nomination of a county ticket.

Last week the Huntingdon Journal published the following: A trio of nocturnal prowlers whose epicurean tastes craved for a mess of roasting ears, on Wednesday night of last week, lying south of Broad Top railroad track, and commenced an examination of the too young corn.

Joseph Earnest, of Patterson was at work, near McVeytown, last Thursday, on a telegraph pole repairing a wire; the pole broke off at the ground, and in the fall Earnest was severely hurt; he was brought to this place, and his injuries were attended to by Dr. Crawford and Dr. Van Valzah.

Col. Bell expects soon to have a 2 horse power threshing machine on exhibition at this place.

The Philadelphia Times among its sea side notes tells the following: A woman bathed in a red flannel costume at Rye Beach the other day and a cow in a neighboring field made a dive for her, and for a time there was more surf than Neptune had provided.

Candidates Beaver, and Stewart were both at the Grangers picnic, in Cumberland valley last week.

Five years ago, John Oberholzer, in Walker township, planted or sowed 186 grains of a peculiar white wheat that he obtained in a field of other wheat.

For spite: "I feel I am going, going," said the sick man as the doctor felt his pulse and his wife hung over the footboard of the bed eagerly watching the physician's face.

The Newport Ledger says: Tuesday last week, while H. B. Derrickson, of Wild Cat Valley was burning brush, in a back field on his farm, his clothes took fire on his back, burning a hole in his pantaloons and several in his shirt.

A phase of slavery of the olden times of 40 years ago is told in the autobiography of Senator Ben Hill, of Georgia, who died not long since.

The Chicago Tribune tells how honestly he took the last piece of pie, as follows: "Do you think so, darling?"

Last week the Garfield Republican Club of Huntingdon met and resolved that the Garfield Republican Club of Huntingdon would recommend to the Independent Republicans of Huntingdon county the holding of a convention for the nomination of a county ticket.

Last week the Huntingdon Journal published the following: A trio of nocturnal prowlers whose epicurean tastes craved for a mess of roasting ears, on Wednesday night of last week, lying south of Broad Top railroad track, and commenced an examination of the too young corn.

Joseph Earnest, of Patterson was at work, near McVeytown, last Thursday, on a telegraph pole repairing a wire; the pole broke off at the ground, and in the fall Earnest was severely hurt; he was brought to this place, and his injuries were attended to by Dr. Crawford and Dr. Van Valzah.

D. W. HARLEY'S THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST MENS' YOUTHS' & BOYS' CLOTHING HATS, CAPS, BOOTS, SHOES, AND FURNISHING GOODS.

SAM'L STRAYER Has constantly on hand a full variety of MEN & BOYS' CLOTHING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS & SHOES, ALL SIZES, GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS.

F. ESPENSCHADE, AT THE CENTRAL STORE MAIN STREET, 2ND DOOR NORTH OF BRIDGE STREET, Mifflintown, Pa.

A Great Cause of Human Misery Is the Loss of MANHOOD How Lost, How Restored. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY.

DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, GROCERIES, BOOTS AND SHOES, for Men, Women and Children, Quincunars, Glassware, Wood and Willow-ware, Oil Cloths, and every article usually found in first-class stores.

PHILADELPHIA SINGER MACHINE Equal to any Singer in the Market. The above cut represents the most popular style for the people which we offer for you for the very low price of $20.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 25, 1892. Wheat, at $1.10-1.15. Corn, 75c-80c. Potatoes, choice, 45c-50c per bushel.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Aetolonia, Juniata Co., Pa. Office formerly occupied by Dr. Sterrett. Professional business promptly attended to at all hours.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Aetolonia, Juniata Co., Pa. Office formerly occupied by Dr. Sterrett. Professional business promptly attended to at all hours.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Aetolonia, Juniata Co., Pa. Office formerly occupied by Dr. Sterrett. Professional business promptly attended to at all hours.

PRIVATE SALES. A HALF-ACRE LOT, SITUATED IN Walker township, about two miles west of Thompsonport, on the old pike, having thereon erected a comfortable two-story Dwelling House, with kitchen and outbuildings.

Largo Farm at Private Sale. The Valuable Farm of the Heirs of William Okeson, deceased, is offered for sale. It is located in the fertile valley of Tuscarora, Juniata county, Pa., and has a bearing of about 200 acres.

Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer. It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the scalp from all dandruff, restore gray hair to its natural color, and produce a new growth where it has fallen off.

PRIVATE SALES. FARM FOR SALE, in Tuscarora Valley, near Fern Mills, containing 100 acres nearly all cleared, the balance well set with good white-oak timber.

ATTENTION FARMERS. Farmers in Juniata county, who desire to improve their lands, and increase their crops, will find Whalton Warren Co's. Diamond Soluble Phosphate, just the thing for this purpose.

PHILADELPHIA SINGER MACHINE. The above cut represents the most popular style for the people which we offer for you for the very low price of $20.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 25, 1892. Wheat, at $1.10-1.15. Corn, 75c-80c. Potatoes, choice, 45c-50c per bushel.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Aetolonia, Juniata Co., Pa. Office formerly occupied by Dr. Sterrett. Professional business promptly attended to at all hours.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Aetolonia, Juniata Co., Pa. Office formerly occupied by Dr. Sterrett. Professional business promptly attended to at all hours.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Aetolonia, Juniata Co., Pa. Office formerly occupied by Dr. Sterrett. Professional business promptly attended to at all hours.