Langmore, a citizen well known to the people of Mifflintown and McAllisterville has moved to Philadelphia. A partitioned jail in Harrisburg a few nights ago, resulted in 49 jailbirds finding a lodgement in the lock up. Lawyer Stone has his name enclosed on the curtains of his office window, on the South side of Court House square. Everett, Bedford Co., people, are shocked over the fact that two young boys of that town appeared drunk on the streets of that town. Heron, that have been to Black Eggs and the Big Ticket, report that they were enough to be seen once in a while during a week's hunt. The Railroad Company will sell you an excursion ticket to Florida, good till May 31, 1883, for $48.50 for the round trip from Pittsburg. Holman, the boatman, has bought a lot of ground opposite the ferry, and will build a dwelling house on it between this and spring time. A number of bachelors in Bedford have been captured, and are about to step out of the line of single people to enjoy the richer joys of the life of married people. The post month, coal oil worked its way up in the figures. Many fortunes were made. A few days ago the price declined rapidly and many handsome fortunes have been lost. The late election reduced the force of the Greenbackers in Congress from nine to one member. The survivor of the tidal wave is C. N. Brann of the 13th district of this State. The unmarried marriageable young men in this vicinity were surprised to hear of the marriage of Sister Allen, at McAllisterville; the crowd has put a number of others to thinking about matrimony. Astronomers are declaring that magnetic and electrical disturbances, and shooting northern lights are all caused by spots on the sun, but the cause of the spots on the sun seems to be beyond their knowledge. The long evenings are at hand, subscribe for the Sentinel and Republican, a pleasant newspaper companion full of news and information that will do you and family good during the winter nights and days to come. An exchange says: It is said that the latest thing in kid gloves is gloves that cover the arm and shoulder, and go over the back and button together like a corset—that is, if a corset buttons in the back. Jeremiah Lendenslager, of Delaware and P. F. Richards of Rindfield have bought 1000 acres of land, set with heavy oak and pine timber, in Todd township, Fritts Co., this State. The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church here designated Tuesday January 9, 1883, as the day of the week of prayer, on which the cause of temperance shall be made the subject of conference and prayer. Professor (explaining the influence of different densities of air on sound) "If, now, from here we should hear a whistle down in the harbor, that should we infer?" Bright-Hum said: "Shouldn't coming in."—Yale Record. A Philadelphia paper says: How will our sweethearts and wives look in bonnets decorated with bouquets of tansy, carrots and onions, with spines, thrown in as a garnish? These bouquets are displayed in milliners' shop windows, and it is only a question of time when we will be brought to the ordeal of seeing them in juxtaposition with fair faces.

Have a smoked glass ready to see the planet cross the face of the sun on the 6th of December. The average cost of a child in the common schools per month is 78 cents; there are 950,000 scholars in the schools of the State. Al Tyhurst, esp., editor of the Huntington Globe, died of consumption at Huntington on Saturday. He was aged about 40 years. The comet, is still to be seen, on a clear morning, and that fact has caused some folks to wonder whether it is going to stay around all winter. A two-inch installment of the beautiful came down on Sabbath; it proved to be a good thing to catch rabbits in; many were caught on Monday. Lancaster papers quote tobacco at a handsome figure, per pound, but somehow when the buyers course this way, the figures are very different from those quoted. The Newport News says: Some wag deposited his compliments, in the shape of a rag baby, on the porch of a home of a well known Front street young man, one evening last week. The railroad company issue a new kind of through ticket that requires the man of the purchaser to be described on its back. The scalpers will have a more trouble now with tickets. When Dr. Rider passed through the upper end of the county he was reported to be Mr. Vanderbilt of New York, and everybody up there went to bed and dreamed about the railroad. To mail a safe secure against the interference of burglars. Write or point on: the safe door "Dynamite" kept here. That says a city editor will keep burglars from attempting to open a safe. Health journals are now asserting that to maintain a sound constitution you should lie only on the right side. The health journals may mean well enough; but what are you going to do if you are editing a Democratic paper?—Lancaster, Pennsylvania. A lawyer recently lost a bride in a peculiar way. He appeared at the wedding, but on being called to the ceremony, from a sister force of habit protested that he was not ready to proceed and asked for delay. And so the bride got mad and shipped him.—Lancaster. If you desire to see the planet Venus pass over the face of the sun on the 6th day of December have your smoked glass ready. The planet will not again pass between the earth and sun in the same way till the year 2004; so astronomer says. At that date you will not be here. The Bloomfield Advocate says: Some mean thief took a sheep out of the stable of Mr. John Zimmerman, on the McCaskey farm, in Carroll township, on last Friday night, killed it, had the skin under a stack of straw and carried away the meat. He is a fit candidate for the penitentiary. The Chambersburg Public Opinion publishes the following: It is said that the scarcity of partridges is attributed to moving machines, which clip the clover so close that the nest is exposed and destroyed. They are being more and more exterminated every year. DO NOT FORGET. That at Hess's Photograph Gallery you can have done up in first class style, right here in this home gallery. All the latest style pictures, such as cabinet, parrot, paneled, boulevard and so forth promptly made and framed to suit purchaser. A Pennsylvania exchange says: Japan clover is a small yellow variety and adapted to all kinds of soil. There are several kinds of Japan clover, one of which takes possession of the ground greedily to the exclusion of other plants, forming a dense and beautiful sward. It is short in growth, will thrive on light soil and is suitable to this climate. SCHOOL REPORT. Report of Smith School for the month ending Nov. 22, 1882. Whole number in attendance during month 20. A RELIGIOUS NEWSPAPER.

We desire to call the attention of our readers to one of the largest, ablest, and most popular religious newspapers published—one that secures the best writers in this country and Europe, regardless of expense; has the best and finest book reviews of any paper in the country; has able articles upon financial and commercial subjects; has departments edited by specialists and devoted to Fine Arts, Music Science, Religious Intelligence, Missions, School and College, News of the Week, Hymn Notes, the Sunday-school, Legal and Sanitary questions, Biblical Research (something that cannot be found in any other newspaper in the United States), Farm and Garden, Insurance Weekly Market Reports, etc.—in fact, a newspaper which, with its twenty-four departments, is suited to the requirements of every family, containing a fund of information which cannot be had in any other shape, and having a wide circulation all over the country and in Europe. We refer to THE INDEPENDENT, of New York, now called "The largest, the ablest, the best." See advertisement in another column, and send a postal card for free specimen copy. The Philadelphia Times of November 22 1882, published the following: A bright eyed boy of eight years, nicely dressed and having all the appearance of being the child of well-to-do parents, was called yesterday as a witness in Judge Pierce's Court of the Quarter Sessions. "Do you know what you do when you kiss the Bible?" asked the prosecuting officer. "No, sir." "Do you go to school?" "Yes, sir." "How long?" "Two years." "Is it right or wrong to tell a lie?" "Right." "Right to tell a lie?" "It's wrong where you will go when you die if you tell a lie." "Do you know where you will go when you die if you tell a lie?" "No, sir." "Have you ever been to church?" "Once." "Do you go to Sunday school?" "My sisters won't take me." "Have you ever heard of heaven?" "No, sir." "Did you ever hear of God?" "No, sir." He was not allowed to testify. A $20.00 BIBLICAL REWARD. The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for December, among which is the following: We will give $20.00 in gold to the person telling us how many verses side the word, which caused it to turn up side down. Both words of the reward and the correct answer will be published. This may be worth $20.00 to you; cut it out. Address RUTLEDGE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Easton, Pa. THE INDEPENDENT. THE INDEPENDENT needs only to be better known to suit its already large list of readers. It has been published for thirty years and has acquired a world-wide reputation as the best religious and literary newspaper. THE INDEPENDENT is not denominational. Its creed and field are broader than any sect. As a Christian journal, its aim is to strengthen and extend Evangelical religion and to defend it against the attacks of Materialism, Atheism, and Unitarianism. It is free to approve or criticize in any of the denunciations whatever it believes is designed to advance or hinder the progress of the Gospel of Christ. In civil and political affairs THE INDEPENDENT will content for sound sense and principles. It fought against slavery and the tariff system of the United States. It is not fighting against Reformism. It believes in the return of the civil service and tariff, in the purification of politics and in cheaper postage, and will maintain those principles which the highest ethics and best intelligence require. THE INDEPENDENT is designed to suit all tastes and wants. We provide weekly stories by the best magazine writers, poems by the leading poets of America and England (we first published in America Tenney's "Last Poem," and for others, who look especially for instruction, whether in religious, literary, educational, philosophical, or scientific articles, we furnish what no other periodical does or can. We pay large prices to obtain the most eminent writers. Besides the editorial, there are twenty-two distinct departments, edited by twenty-two specialists, which include Biblical Research, Sanitary, Legal, Fine Arts, Music, Science, Pymms, Personalities, Ministerial Register, Hymn Notes, School and College, Literature, Religious Intelligence, Missions, Sunday school, News of the week, Finance, Commerce, Insurance, Sterics, Puzzles, Sections, and Agricultural. 24 Pages small. We will report in full Rev. Joseph Cook's celebrated Monday Lecture, which will begin in January. Mr. Cook has just returned from a two years' trip round the world, and his lectures this winter will attract greater attention than ever. OUR NEW TERMS FOR 1883. One subscription one year..... $3 00 For 6 months, $1 50; for 3 months 0 75 One subscription two years..... 5 00 One subscription five years..... 10 00 These reduced prices ($2 per annum in clubs of five or more) are very much lower than any of the standard religious weeklies. "TRIAL TRIP." In order that one may read a few consecutive number of THE INDEPENDENT, and thus learn its value, we offer a month's subscription, as "Trial Trip," for 30 cents, which can be returned by postage stamp. Payment of $2.75 in addition will secure the balance of a year's subscription. Send postal card for free specimen copy and judge for yourself. Address THE INDEPENDENT, 251 Broadway New York. In letters, mailing, bills, notices, heartburn, etc., nothing is so beneficial as Brown's Iron Bitters.

WALNUT LEAF HAIR RESTORER.

It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately restore the hair to its natural color, and produce a new growth where it has fallen out. It does not in any way affect the health, which Sulphur, Sugar of Lead, and Nitrate of Silver preparations have done. It will change light or faded hair in a few days to a beautiful glossy brown. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. SMITH, KLINE & CO., Wholesale Agents, Philadelphia, and HALL & RUCKEL, New York. IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS. Special inducements are offered you by the Burlington Route. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere in this issue. EMPLOYMENT FOR LADIES—The Queen City Suspenders Company, of Cincinnati, are now manufacturing and introducing their new Stocking Supporters for Ladies and children, and their unequal Skirt Suspenders for Ladies. None should be without them; our leading physicians recommend them, and are loud in their praise. These goods are manufactured by ladies who have made the wants of ladies and children a study, and they ask us to refer them to some reliable and energetic lady to introduce them in this country, and we certainly think that an earnest solicitation in every household would result with a ready response, and a handsome salary and the exclusive agency for this country. We advise some lady who is in need of employment to send to the Company her name and address, and mention this paper. Address Queen City Suspenders Company, No. 179 Main Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. July 25 12th. A GOOD OFFER—The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company has just issued an illustrated descriptive of the wonderful growth of the Six Great States. The book is beautifully printed, and numerous engravings of high merit adorn its pages. Any one sending their name and address with two three-cent postage stamps will receive a copy by return mail, by applying to PERCEVAL LOWELL, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, Illinois. The emigrant, tourist, or traveler bound for the productive mines and fertile prairies of the Great Southwest is unanimous in selecting the route via Chicago. Implicit confidence is placed in the Kansas City line, composed of the C. B. & Q. and Old Reliable Humboldt and St. Joseph Railroads. Though fast trains are run by this line and the equipment is unsurpassed. Iron City Business College.
