A Hunter's Plight. This has been an unusually successful hunting season. A 'arger number of deer have been killed in the mountains of Northern Pennsylvania than ever before, and many remarkable adventures have been met with. Dr. George W. Klump, a well-known Williamsport dentist and a great lover of the chese, has just returned trom a hunting expedition in the Laurel Hill Mountain, near Liberty, Tiogs county, which involved one or two thrilling advenwhich involved one or two thilling adven-tures worthy of notice. Mr. Carl Bock, the Swedish traveler has recently returned from an adventur ous trip into Siam, and has visited many tricts where no European has previously penetrated. In spite of the cordial projesty's command that Mr Bock should car ry the royal standard of Siam, the whiteelephant flag, the traveler met with great opposition in various parts of the country. The inhabitants were not impressed with a sight of a white-elephant flag, perhaps because they had no idea of the importance attached to such a national emblem. Unfortunately, they showed their dislike by destroying a large portion of the natural history collection which he had accumula ted.
