Richfield Joint Institute.

According to previous announcements, by respective county Superintendents, of Juniata and Snyder counties, a joint institute was organized in this place on Thursday evening, February 22, 1883. At the designated time for opening the institute, the house was filled to overflowing. The McAlisterville Cornetband being in town, were called upon and responded by giving several pieces of its best music during the evening, for which they received a hearty vote of thanks from the institute. Prof. Wm. Moyer, Supt., of Snyder county was chosen president, and J. L. Zimmerman, secretary of the organization. After which each Superintendent appointed reporters to the different county papers, of each county, as follows: J. G. Honberger, for Selinsgrove Times, J. W. Haas for Middleburg Post, P. G. Snelly for Freeburg Courier, J. N. Keller for the Mifflintown Democrat and Register, and I. H. Wilis for the Juniata Sentinel and Republican. The above organization being complete Supt. W. Smith, on the part of the Juniata teachers, gave a very appropriate address of welcome in which he urged on all friends of education to come to the van and aid in making the present joint convention an event, which should be a time to be long remembered and revered by those who had the pleasure of being present. In response Superintendent Moyer, of Snyder county expressed himself as being highly gratified to have the pleasure of meeting the co workers in this sister county and assured the audience that he with the teachers could feel at home after receiving such kind words of welcome; also inviting all to participate in the discussions that might arise. Prof. J. A. Keller spoke on "Elements of Governing power," which was so ably discussed by the gentleman that nothing further need be said except to give the outline into which he cut the subject divided, as follows: 1 System, 2nd. Energy, 3rd, Vigilance, 4th, Self control—5. The teacher should avoid showing anger; 6. The teacher should be patent; c. He should be emeritus; d. Should avoid controversy with his pupils—8th. Confidence in its work, in his pupils and in himself; 6th. Culture of mind, of manners, and of voice; 7th. Love for his pupils, for love only begets love; 8th Personal magnetism; 9th Executive ability; 10th. Will power—The teacher's will must be firm, however firmness and kindness must be united; 11th. So long as human nature is imperfect the teacher must have power to punish; 12th. He must have teaching power, since that is the only thing that creates interest. Lastly; a teacher must be impartial under all circumstances. P. G. Snelly read a paper on Morals and Manners,' setting forth briefly, the estimate that one should possess who has charge of the education of youth. Institute adjourned with music till Friday evening, February 23.

FRIDAY EVENING.

Institute caued to order by the president, music by the Juniata Valley Cornet band, and by the institute. Dr. J. W. Wauer, Principal of the Bloomsburg State Normal School, was then introduced by the chairman who took up the subject; Does education pay? He showed clearly that education pays by suppressing crime, and cheapening labor, because it develops the thinking powers of man which is the whole object of a well trained and cultivated mind. He also argued very forcibly that the cheapest teachers are the dearest, and does not pay to lose a good teacher, thus showing that the cause of education is the glory of our whole country. After which, Peter Sheily declaimed "The Boys," and received a hearty round of applause. The Institute with music both by the band and the audience with Miss Ida Moyer presiding at the organ.

SATURDAY MORNING.

Reopened with music entitled, "Good Morning," followed with devotional exercises by Dr. Waller. "Teaching Power," by T. R. Landis, covered the subject by a discussion of requisites of governing power and duties of the teacher, Mr. Landis speaking three times on this topic brought out all the fine points pertaining to his subject, showing that a school teacher must be as nearly perfect as possible. Music by the institute, entitled "Soft soft music." "Objective points of teaching," by Dr. Waller. He said, that no one should do anything without an object in view, and the object a teacher should have, to teach his pupils how to think. Every branch should be purchased with a definite object. J. A Zellers, Editor of the Liverpool Sun, gave his opinion on supplimentary reading, our schools, which he thought was productive of much good. After a piece of music, a vote of thanks was tendered to Dr. Waller for his presence and the instructions given by him, who responded with a touching farewell.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Music by the institute. Mr. J. A. Martin, opened the subject, "Reading in and out of school. Followed by Supt. Wellington Smith, Adam Wilt, and others. The discussion was animated and to the point. Mr. T. J. Nichols, read a paper on, "Is our teaching practical"? By this paper it was shown that our teaching becomes only practical when it is presented in such a way as to become useful to the pupils in after life. J. H. Willis discussed the topic, "How to teach spelling," followed by J. A Zellers, who said that correct spelling was of greater importance than penmanship and grammar, though it still being bitter to be proficient in all common branches. Mr. Landis and others also advanced some excellent points on this subject. "Map drawing," by W. H. Deibl, Wm. Moyer, and W. Smith, who all spoke highly in favor of drawing, on account of it cultivating observation yet should not be made a hobby horse in teaching Geography. J. L. Zimmerman, opened the Subject "Judicious and injudicious punishment. In which discussion J. N. Keller, and Supt. W. Smith took part, on which it was agreed that punishment judiciously administered is just, and it should be inflicted in proportion to the offense. By motion of Supt. W. Smith, a unanimous vote of thanks was tendered to all the citizens of Richfield who provided so cordially for the success of the institute. Professors Moyer, and Smith, made very excellent closing remarks by bearing on the importance of mental improvements and attending those feasts of light and reason, which institutes afford. Adjourned by singing the doxology. The following is a list of teachers present: J. L. Zimmerman, J. W. Haas, T. R. Landis, Cloyd Cauffman, T. J. Nichols, J. A. Martin, Luther Kinzer, Isadore Dunn, Maggie R. Kinzer, Kate Leight, P. G. Shelly, E. S. Hockenbrok, W. H. Deibl, W. L. Dimm, S. H. Oberholtzer, Miss Eva Vanormer, John McConnel, T. W. Lauver, D. H. Arbogast, Miss —— Cauffman. J. H. WILLIS, Reporter.

Register's Notice.

The following Executors, Administrators and Guardians have filed their accounts in the Register's office and the same will be presented to the court to be held on Tuesday, March 14th, 1883, at 10 o'clock A. M., for confirmation;

1. The first and final account of J. P. Milhouse, Administrator of Aden Showers, late of Walker township, deceased.

2. The account of Geo. L. Herr, Guardian of Clara J. Herr, minor child of Emma A Herr, late of Cedar county, Iowa, deceased.

3. The first and final account of Andrew Sassaman, Guardian of Barbara E. Spicher, minor child of Rhoads Spicher, late of Walker township, Juniata county, deceased; said ward being now deceased.

The citizens of Newport, were all aghast, a few days ago, to discover, whether a few little insects found on a boy in school were body lice or "wood ticks." The committee to interview the insects called them "wood ticks."

FOR RENT.—Three houses for rent, near the McNight farm, in Milford township. Call on A. J. Patterson

The Union League Club, will give an entertainment, in the Academy on Saturday.

Billy Allison, in his splenetic little paper last week, published, what his co spoils organ the Tribune, said about the editor of the Sentinel and Republican, but as the Tribune article was punished in full in these columns, Billy's article is not worthy of further notice. Indeed it would not be worthy of notice even if the performer's article had not been published, for the reason that it does not meet the question that "Inquirer" has raised. It is not certain to the spoils organs, that Inquirer and the editor of the Sentinel and Republican are one and the same person, but if such could be established as a fact, that would not lessen the act of the church member Commissioners one whit for opening the Court House for a nigger-show, at a time when all the churches were engaged in revival meetings.

"BLEST."

BY MARION HENNEFIN.

Blest be the tongue that speaks no ill,
Whose words are always true,
That keeps "the law of kindness" still,
Whatever others do.

Blest be the ears that will not hear,
Detraction's envious tale;
'Tis only through the listening ear,
That falsehood can prevail.

Blest be the heart that knows no guile,
That feels no wish unkind,
Forgiving provocation, while
Good deeds are kept in mind.

Blest be the hands that toil to aid
The great world's ceaseless need—
The hands that are never afraid
To do a kindly deed.

Blest be the thoughtful brain that schemes
A beautiful ideal;
Mankind grows great through noble dreams,
And time will make them real

Do good in thought. Some future day
'Twill ripen into speech;
And words are seeds that grow to deeds,
None know how far they reach.

Like thistle-down upon the breeze,
Swift scattered here and there,
So words will travel far, and these
A fruitful harvest bear

Where goodness dwells in heart and mind,
Both words and deeds will be,
Like cords that closer draw us linked,
In peace and charity

Life's West Windows.

We stand at life's west windows
And think of the days that are gone;
Remembering the coming sunset,
We too must Remember the morn;
But the sun will set, the day will close,
And an end will come to all our woes.

As we watch from the western casements
Reviewing our happy youth,
We mourn for its vanished promise,
Of honor, ambition, and truth;
But hopes will fade and pride decay,
When we think how soon we must pass away.

We stand at life's west windows,
And turn not sadly away.
To watch on our children's faces,
The noontide of sparkling day;
But our sun must set, our lips grow dumb
And to look from our windows our children come.

Still looking from life's west windows;
And we know we would not again,
Look forth from the eastern lattice,
And live over life's pain.
Though life's sunlight be brilliant its sunset is sweet.
Since it brings longed for rest to our weary feet.

Mahoney city Pa., has another elopement case to record. The parties this time are Henry Lochman, a widower, aged 53 years, and the father of four children, three of whom lived with Mr. Lochman, and Mrs Bunsher the wife of a machinist living at Mahanoy City, and working at Delano. She is thirty five years of age and has no children. Lochman's wife died but six months ago. He is a German. He has been visiting Mrs Buscher frequently since his wife's death, and she also visited his house often during her husband's absense, until the scandal became a public one. They left on the early morning train yesterday, buying tickets for Pottsville No trace of them has been found. Lochman is well fixed financially, while Buscher is a poor man.

Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer.

It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the head from all dandruff, restore gray hair to its natural color, and produce a new growth where it has fallen off. It does not in any way affect the health, which Sulpher, Sugar of Lead, and Nitrate of Silver preparations have done. It will change light or faded hair in a few days to a beautiful glossy brown. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. SMITH, KLINE & CO., Wholesale Agents, Philadelphia, and HALL & RUCKEL, New York.

A RARE CHANCE

To Buy a Large Tract of Good Land at a Moderate Price.

To a man who desires to make farming and stock-raising his business, this is the greatest bargain in Juniata county

Three hundred Acres and more, having thereon a large Brick Dwelling House in good condition, barn and other outbuildings; a running stream of water near the door, also, good well water in yard; an Orchard of 8 acres, as good as any in the county; a grove of 30 maple trees, as such if attention were directed to, could be turned into a source of income, as such groves are in somerset county, this State, and as such groves are in New England. Good timber on the farm. The farm will produce 40 to 50 tons of hay annually, and grow grain of all kinds. There is an abundance of LIMESTONE on the farm.

We repeat, this is the greatest bargain now offered in this county, to the man who has energy, and desires to farm and raise stock. To such a man, who has a moderate sum of money for first payment, there is a rare chance to secure a property, that in the nature of things must increase in value gradually, for the period of a full generation yet to come.

Time, 5 to 7 years, to suit purchaser. If you have the inclination, the means, and the pluck to discolope one of the finest tracts of land in the county, call at this office for particulars.

A Great Cause of Human Misery Is the Loss of MANHOOD

How Lost. How Restored.

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure of SPERMATORRHŒA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Sexual and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
