VOL. XXXVII.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21, 1883.

A LITTLE PHILOSOPHER.

The days are short and the nights are long, And the wind is nipping cold; The tasks are hard and the sums are wrong, And the teachers often scold.

But Johnny McCree, As he whisties along the way? "It will all come right By to-morrow night," Says Johnny McCree to-day.

The plums are few and the cake is plain, For money you look in the purse in vain-

But Johnny McCree. Oh, what cares he,

As he whis les along the street? Would you have the blues For a pair of shoes While you have a pair of feet? door.

The snow is deep, there are paths to break, But the littlearm is strong, And work is play if you'll only take Your work with a bit of song. And Johnny McCree, Oh, what cares he, As he whisties along the road? He will do his best, And will leave the rest To the care of his Father, God.

The mother's face is often sail. She scarce knows what to do: But at Johnny's kiss she is bright and gladne loves him, and wouldn't you? For Johnny McCree, Oh, what cares he, As he whistles along the way? The trouble will go, And "I told you so,"

Our brave little John will say. THAT SUNDAY.

Nobody goes to church on Easter Day without a new suit in the very latest fashion!" said Mrs. Clairville. "Certainly not!" said Alicia, her eld est daughter. "Mrs. Pelham has written to Paris for a new bonnet, to my certain knowledge. "And, of course," added Emily, the youngest section of the house of Clairville, "As you are spending the winter with us, Madeline, you will be expected not to disgrace us,' Madeline Moray looked from one to the other of the speakers with a troubled look of countenance.

"But, aunt Clairville," said she, "mamma writes me that our old cousin Zephaniah and his wife have come from Maine, very poor, and that we must economize as much as possible,

"They are very old, and they need a great many little luxuries, and whatever

Mrs. Clairville's face darkened visi-"Madeline," said she, "will you never forget that you belong to a farmer's family down east?

"Of course, while you are my guest, I shall expect you to dress as becomes your station as my niece." Madeline knitted her pretty brows in sore perplexity after aunt Clairville had rustled out, leaving a strong odor of patchouli behind her. She had a some bank-notes yet left of the store which they had scraped together at home, when they sent her to spend a winter in Boston with aunt Clairville, and she took it from her purse and smoothed it out upon her dock.

Twenty five dollars!

She had hoped to save it all for cousin Zephaniah.

Har pretty shot silk, with the damass front, was very fresh and pretty stillshe had only worn it some half-dozen times -and her nest little split-straw hat would look very nice, if she bought new ribbon for it and re-arranged the flowers.

At least that was the mental conclusion at which she had arrived, when Mrs. Chaiville issued her commands, binding as an imperial ukase, that a new Easter suit was among the necessi-

Madeline knew very well that she was

She never looked into the glass without perceiving the difference between her tresh apple blossom of a face, and the enamelled and rouged complexions of her city consins.

She knew that her hair was like burn-ished cons of gold, her long-lashed eyes like stars, and she would have liked a new Easter suit as well as any one-and think you the nearest to perfection of the bonnets in Madame Printemp's any girl whom I ever saw." window tooked infinitely beautiful in was the old man and his enfeebled wife to remember—the ancient relics of a And then you shall tell me whether you bygone generation, who had out-lived the sympathy of almost all the world. said Madeline to herself, "I must not spend this money, Easter suit or no Easter suit."

So she sat herself down, in the rainy March afternoon, to rip up the short silk dress and alter it over so that even Alicia and Emily should not know it for the But, with all her skill in amateur dress-making, the folds would not hang stylishly, the old creases would obtrude themselves on the eye, and the costume proclaimed, in its every glisten and puff-"Made over, made over!" Emily Clairville shook her head.

"Madeline," said she, "it is of "You never can wear that dress! And your hat, too!

"A plain split-straw, without so much as a French flower." Madeline burst into tears.

"Very well, Emily, 'she said. "Then I will remain at home.

"You need not fear that I will dis grace the congregation of St. Etheldreda on Easter Sunday."

And this pledge evidently relieved the mind of Miss Clairville. And the two elegant sisters did take the trouble, when Captain Brabazin dropped in to five o'clock tea, to send up word to Madeline that there was company in the parlor. "I suppose she don't care to see me, the captain thought, with a sinking heart, when at last he went away, after having lingered as long as politeness

"I suppose he never asked for me," Madeline said to herself as, from her window, she saw his retreating figure saunter slowly down the street. about the Easter suit,

"Nobody will know whether I have one or not."

But when Easter Eve came, and Madeline was crying softly in her own room, to think of the radiant spring sunset

"Piease, Miss Maddy," he said, 'hyar's a basket o' laylocks.

Brabazan, miss!"

Madeline uttered an exclamation delight.

of lilae fragrance.

ordered.

The three bonnets did not come until Sunday morning.

to church, to the glitter of golden sun- the tenacity with which men, badly beams and the clanging of melodious armed and lacking skilled leaders, bells, like three fashion-plates. And then she put on her plain little pinned it across the split-straw hat, "There," she thought as she fied the strings under her chin, "no Paris exotic ever looked half so sweet as that!

"And I am sure Heaven will incline its ear no less favorably to my prayers than if I went to St. Etheldreda's in Worth's newest design."

And she crept to the little church in the adjoining street, which had long been out of fashion, and where the spectacled old clergyman practiced all the austerinecessity.

Easter Sunday

She sat there, listening to the anthems, "Your consin Zephaniahs are nothing to relieve their sore necessities, and offering had once been so precious in the holiest of eyes. Hers was not much now, but she also had given it from a free and willing retire." As she moved quietly, and with reverent, downcast eyes, out of the church, some one stepped to her side.

"You have dropped something, Mis-Moray," said Captain Brabagan, And he held up the cluster of lila drooping now, and a little faded.

She put her hand up to her bonne with a scarlet blush.

"Your hiacs, Captain Brabazan," she

His face brightened.

"I am proud that you deemed them orthy of your wearing. "Your cousin to'd me that you meh an anchorite that you did not care for flowers, or books, or society-that you were not even going to church on Easter Sunday." "I?" cried Madeline.

"Oh, Captain Brabazin, I tike all "I cried over your flowers when they ame last night. "They seemed to me like dear friend from home.

"And I wore them in my bonnet be cause-because I could not afford artifical blossoms

"There! now you know just how poor I am.

And she laughed, even while roseate tinge suffused her cheek. "I do not know whether you are poor or not," said he; "but I do know that I > think I am right or wrong. They walked slowly home from church in the soft, bland sunlight of that Easter Day, and when they reached the brown stone mansion in Silverston street, Captain Brabazan went in and formally asked Mrs. Clairville's permission to address her nice with a view to mar-

"May I tell you all about it?" she her eyes, with their French roses and asked hurriedly, "for I do not want you perfectly simulated violets; but there to think me avaricious or semi-barbarian, as my consins sometimes prenounce me.

A man's true and loyal heart-the lawn of a great happiness, over a life which up to this hour had been but chill and solitary. There was no denying that Mrs. Clair-ville was much disappointed. Emily and Alicia had been in society three seasons now, without having received any eligible offer; and it did seem strange that this pale, quiet little girl from the back-woods, as Mrs. Clair ville contemptuously expressed it, should have carried off such a glittering prize as Captain Brabazau; for it never occurred to them that Madeline's sweet unselfishness and quiet self denial could possibly have had anything to do with

And so long as old cousin Zephaniah and his wife lived, Captain Brabazan made them an annual allowance which was ample for their simple wants.

-During the past fifteen years 3,500

Feroclous Courage of the Aighan

"Reminiscences of the War in Afghanistan," Referring to the fighting qualquarter, but fights with the ferocity of "Well, it matters less than ever now a tiger and clings to life until his eyes glaze and his hands refuse to pull a pistol-trigger or use a knife in a dying effort to maim or kill his enemy. The stern realities of war were more pronounced on the battle-fields in Afghanistan than perhaps they have ever been that was flooding all the world at home, in India, if we except the retributive the waiter came grinning up to the days of the mutiny. To spare a wounded man for a minute was probably to cause the death of the next soldier who unsuspiciously walked past him. One "Real springy-smellin', I do declare! thing our men certainly learned in "Wid de cappen's card — Cappen Afghanistan, and that was to keep their enemy or passing over a hard-won field. There might be danger lurking in each Oh, the lovely purple things! Clusters seemingly inanimate form studding the ground, and unless care and cantion Delicious reminders of the springtide were exercised the wounded Alghan would steep his soul in bliss by killing Oh, how kind it was of Captain Brab- a Kaffir just when life was at its last azan to remember that she was a coun-ebb. This stubborn way of fighting try girl, exiled here among brick walls. an extremis is prompted doubtless by which Mrs. Clairville and her daughters that there should be no mistake as to the deadliness of the wound. The physical courage which distinguished the untrained mobs who fought so resolutely But Madeline watched them sail forth against us was worthy of all admiration; clung to their positions was remarkable "made-over dress" and, taking a fresh ness they often showed when retiring. to say nothing of the sullen doggedcluster of lilacs from the vase of water, But when the tide of the fight set m more deeply, there was so sudden a change always apparent that one could scarcely believe the fugitives hurrying over the hills were the same men who had resisted so desperately but a few hills, or in making their escape by fleetness of foot; and the host generally wolves and fought with desperation, his poor old wife would ever know that faint attempts at aiding each other. deficient training, and they resorted to the tacties they had pursued as tribesmen, when once they were forced to Railway Accommodation In these days when it is fashionable to complain of corporations as purely selfish, it is greatly to the credit of the Pennsylvania Reilroad Company, that it is constantly furnishing increased facilities for the ecommodation of the traveling public. Recently they have commenced running a through Pullman Sleeping Coach from Washington and Baltimore to Chicago on their Pacific Express, which leaves Washing every day in the year at 9 50 p. m., and Baltimore 11.15 p. m. The arriving time at Chicago is 8.00 o'clock the second morning. The portion of the trum which starts from Washington joins at Harrisburg with the section from New York and Philadelphia on which there is a hotel car. This arrangement gives passengers from Baltimore and Washington just the same eating facilities as enjoyed by those from New York, as the first meal en route is two sections have become one train.

breakfast on the first morning, after the On their West Jersey connection, also, they arranged for placing, since February 19th, a through passenger car between New York and Jersey City as follows: Leave Brooklyn 12:30 noon; New York, 1:00 p. m., and arrive at Atlantic City (via Trenton and Camden) 5:47 p. m. Leave Atlantic City at 7:25 a. m., arrive

mer visitors to New York city on business to take a run down to the "City by the Sea" conveniently and in a few hours. Origin of the Ceresi Grain Wheat ranks by origin as a degenererate and degraded fily. Such in brief is the proposition which this paper sets out to prove, and which the whole course of evolutionary botany tends every day more and more fully to confirm. By thus from the very outset ter-plantations, to the time when savage man found it growing wild among the untilled plains of prebistoric Asia, and took it under his special protection in the little garden-plots around his

By the proposition to expel from French territory all the members of families which have reigned in France, Madame Cressonde's young women sat up until twelve o clock that night, that our men at close quarters always de Chartres, and their children, Prince de Chartres, and Robert, Henri and Jean, and Princesses principal chief, Makenge, resides not far tally fell upon his garments. He was Marie and Marguerite, all of whom are with their parents. The Due de Ne- Kassai. Pogge tells us that the inhabi- and his daughters besought and immours, general of division, who is residing in the avenue du Bois de Bou- family, for each inhabitant is treated by father in pie-es, leaving the disconsologue in Paris, follows with his chil- the rest as a relation, and one member of late girls to care for his remains as they dren, the Duc d'Alenson, captain in an the community stands by another, "for could. They, by the side of the dead, artillery regiment, and his wife, the duchess, who with their little son and daughter, Prince Emmanuel and Berlin to Dan'zic—not having received

Princess Louise, are now sojourning at any present except a brass chain, supple-Vincennes, and Princess Blanche mented by the promise of a musical tox in case Dr. Pogge should reach the Luaifully against them and they saw that d'Orleans. The Comte d'Eu and the abs, and return thence in safety. The Princess Marguerite have become discovery of the annable tribe of Tusselforeign subjects, the former through ange, and of the accomplished Bassonge, Upon their roturn to their home he his marriage with a princess of Brazil, took place in the following manner: The now his adopted country; the latter by Dr. Paul Pogge and Lieutenant Wissmann her marriage with Prince Ladislas to establish a station at Mussumba (# deg Czarterpski. Next comes the Prince de 24 minutes 10 seconds S. L.), the capital minutes before. They acted wisely; Joinville, vice-admiral, with his prin- of the kingdom of Lunda, over which one cess, both of whom reside in the Rue of the strangest among swarthy potentates, the mighty Mwata Yanvo, reigns. Both de Berri in Paris, and their children, Porge, in 1876, and Dr. Max Buchner, in dissolved with a rapidly which no one the due de Penthievre, a heutenant in 1879 to 1880, had found it impossible, ties of the early fathers, through dire but an eye-witness can appreciate, If the French navy, and Princess Fran- though they otherwise met with very ond, one of his best swordsmen. As the spring, you know-the Siberian cavalry overtook them, they turned like coise, married to the due de Chartres, kindly treatment, to penetrate to the east, soon as they arrived at their home a species. I mean, I suppose you've selling their lives as dearly as men ever division and a member of the Academie that the European travelers could have no singular duel was to take place in a and thinking of the dear ones at home, sold them; but there was no rally in Francaise. The due de Montpensier other object than that of buying elsewhere stockade made of bamboo, and thouand wondering if cousin Zephaniah and the true sense of the word, and but and Princess Cleneutine, brother and ivory and estrict feathers cheaper than sands gathered to witness the combat. iard through his marriage with the In- (between 10 and 20 degrees S. L. and 19 might see fair play accorded to all parwhile the latter is the wife of the duke while the latter is the wife of the duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha. The members Kiokos having quarreled with Mwata witness these heroic sisters meet in "Haven't even got a Flip of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha. The members of the Bonaparte family who would be directly affected by the adoption of the Fioquet proposition are Prince Napoleon and his wife the Princess Cloudille, with their two sons—Prince Victure of the Land of Friendship. Following the west-tilde, with their two sons—Prince Victure of the Land of Friendship. Following the west-tilde, with their two sons—Prince Victure of the Land of Friendship. Following the west-tilde, with their two sons—Prince Victure of the Land of Friendship. Following the west-tilde, with their two sons—Prince Victure of the Land of Friendship. Following the west-tilde, with their two sons—Prince Victure of the Land of Friendship. Following the west-tilde, with their two sons—Prince Victure of the Land of Friendship. Following the west-tilde, with their two sons—Prince Victure of the Land of Friendship. Following the west-tilde, with their two sons—Prince Victure of the Land of Friendship. Following the west-tilde, with their two sons—Prince Victure of the Land of Friendship. Following the west-tilde, with their two sons—Prince Victure of the Land of Friendship. Following the west-tilde, with their two sons—Prince Victure of the Land of Friendship. Following the west-tilded with Mwata deadly combat the trained swordsman of the potent Prince of Sendat, and how the blood was stirred in the hearts of the blood wa tor, who is at Orleans with his regi- ern bank of the Chikapa up to its conflu-out from the multitude in behalt of the plied the wretched promoter of pelicans

ment, the 32d artillery, and Prince Louise, now studying at the Lycee Louise, now studying at the Lycee country, they traversed this deep stream, Charlemagne, and their daughter, the shout 1,000 feet broad, and there met a for grief that resounded over the place mebbe there is something else you gregated 214,611, as compared with the other, both of them, and of the wail of grief that resounded over the place mebbe there is something else you gregated 214,611, as compared with 291,320 in 1881. at Moncalieri, and the Princess Mathil- who insisted upon taking Lieut. Wissmann the victor. For awhile it seemed that te. The other members of the Bonaparte family, children of the late Prince Pierre and Prince Murat, would hardly be included in the prescription.

Motioes of the Habsburgs

The celebration of the foundation of

the compilation of the mottoes adopted between the rivers Kassai and Lulus, guest at the Brighton Pavilion in the the compilation of the mottoes adopted covered in a large measure by large forests, days when that singular ediffee was the by the Emperors who have successivein the midst of which are prairies, which abode of royalty and roysterers. Her y occupied the throne. The founder the inhabitants cultivate, and where they physician had recommended a moderate of the dynasty, whose motto was "Fentina lente" before his accession, aftertina lente" before his accession, afterwarm, is salubrious. Trade chiefly conwhich was deficient in her system, and ward adopted that of "Melius bene and bumilating as it may sound to the imperare quam imperium ampliare." ears of our lacy readers, the average price and sound and sound and sound are so that the average price are of our lacy readers, the average price are of remember well," says Grantley and the time, are so that the time, and sound are so that the time, at New York, 11:40 noon; Brooklyn 12:30 noon. The car will not be ruu in either direction on Sundays.

Albert I, with "Fugam victoria nescit," and Frederick III, with "Beats mortedirection on Sundays.

The latter will furnish not only desirable facilities for the citizens of New York and facilities for the Company of New York and facilities for the Company of New York and were "Amicus optima vitie possessio," reached the Lake Mukamba. On January and "Amor electis, injustis ordinat ul- 5th, 1880, they reached the Lubi, a fine to my astomishment the patient held a Leeds Dispensary, England, was found to my astomishment the patient held a Leeds Dispensary, England, was found to my astomishment the patient held a Leeds Dispensary, England, was found to have a distinct blue line on her gums.

-Hunnews to have a distinct blue line on her gums. ter." Charles V, had two mottoes, tributary of the Lobilash, and in the midst liquor bottle over a cup of tea and bemotto of Ferdinand I, the founder of the German line of Habsburgs, was forming stream at the contents, with a peculiar purblind look, upon the back of a teaspoon. Presently she seemed the German line of Habsburgs. was forming streets straight as an arrow, the Bassonge live under the shadow of palm was about, turned up the spoon the of Rudolph II and two or three other sovereigns, that of Charles VI, the author of the Pragmatic Sanction, posfirm. By thus from the very outset placing clearly before our eyes the goal of our argument, we shall be able the better to understand as we go whither each item of the cumulative evidence is really tending. We must endeavor to start with the simplest forms of the daughter, Maria Theresa, who founded grass meadows and through villages ten ably uttered, amused me so much that great group of plants to which the co- the house of Habsburg-Lorraine, chose cannibals, the travelers reached the Lemani part of the day's entertainment seemed reals and the other grasses belong, and as her motto, "Justitia et clementia," under 5 deg, 42j mm., and proceeding to have departed with her, we must try to see by what steps this The motto of her husband, Francis I, again across the inundated districts and we must try to see by what steps this primitive type gave birth, first to the brilliantly colored lilies, next to the degraded rushes and sedges, and then to the still more degenerate grasses, to the still more degenerate grasses, from one or other of whose richer grains man has finally developed his wheat, his rice, his millet, and his barley. We shall thus trace throughout the whole pedigree of wheat from the time when it ancestors first diverged from the common stock of the lilies and the was contented the pedigree of wheat from the time when it ancestors first diverged from the time when it ancestors first diverged from the time when it ancestors first diverged from the strength and unity in the dual empire.

The descended this river into the Kasku, and the Luliaba on the 16th. In Nyangwe the Arabs gave them goods on credit, and on May 5 Porge started back for Mukenge, while Wissmann with some difficulty succeeded in making his way to the Emperor Ferdinand's motto was, "Rectangular to the Luliaba on the 16th. In Nyangwe the Arabs gave them goods on credit, and on May 5 Porge started back for Mukenge, while Wissmann with some difficulty succeeded in making his way to the Emperor Ferdinand's motto was, "Rectangular to the Luliaba on the 16th. In Nyangwe the Arabs gave them goods on credit, and on May 5 Porge started back for Mukenge, while Wissmann with some difficulty succeeded in making his way to the time when its ancestors first diverged from the time when its ancestors first diverged from the sovereign is, appropriately enough, "Viribus unitis," for there is more of the Batus, who seems to the Batus, who seems to the Batus, who seems to the time when a strength and unity in the dual empire threats are sweet.

The Luliaba on the Luliaba on the Luliaba on the Isth. In Nyangwe the Arabs gave them goods on credit, and on May 5 Porge started back for Mukenge, while Wissmann with some threat the Luliaba on the Isth. In Nyangwe the Arabs gave them goods on credit, and on May 5 Porge started back for Mukenge, while that of the reigning its school of Washington because the composed mainly of Europeans. Active recruiting for this body has been goods on making his way to have a large weet.

The Luliaba o strength and unity in the dual empire than when he came to the throne

An African Utopia German explorers have thrown so much light on the immense tract of country situa led between 18 degrees and 20 deities of the Afghan soldiery, he says: if it should be adopted, no less than bend of the Congo, that it may interest thirty-one persons are affected. Of the your readers to hear a short account of elder branch of the house of Bourbon, what has been done by them. If you take only two-the Comte and Comtesse de the western half of Stanley's Map of Chambord, resident in Australia, but ceive tour large tributaries of the Co Equatorial Africa to hand, you will perat present free to live in France if they dotted down-the mouths of which Stanplease-would suffer. There are Bour- ley discovered-and a "reported" large bons of Spain, of the two Sicilies, and lake, "popularly Lake Lincoln of Livingof Parma dwelling in France; but they stone," to the west of which "vicious and most murderous dwarfs" named Watwa are foreign princes, and would not be are surposed to exist. Now if Pogge and included in this sweeping banishment. Wissmann had done nothing but confirm On the other hand, upwards of 23 mem- the existence of these pigmies, whom they bers of the Orleans family—which, by the way, has been remarkable for its peculiarly quiet attitude-might be 46 min. 25 sec. S. L., they would merit turned "bag and baggage" out of the praise. But we cwe far more to them. country. These are the Comte and They unveil to us the existence of an wits about them when pursuing an Country. These are the Counter and Utopia, where strangers are gratuitously Counters de Paris, living at the Chatenu Comtesse de Paris, living at the Cantenu supplied with food, and they reveal that the Bassonge, subjects of King Katshitsh, a for the season, and their children, the strong and handsome race in a densely desired to acquire a knowledge of the father.

"Afrikanische Gesellschaft" had charged

avenged.

The Hon, Grantley Berkeley tells the country. The lady is a leading society woman here, and she prides herself o

bome with him as his guest. Thus, after the victor. For awhile it seemed that sixty-two days' journey from Kambundu, Pogge arrived alone, on October 20, 1881, 2 Mokenge's place of residence, situated by them and offered at the grave of their foe was carried away by them and offered at the grave of than 20 degs. E. of Greenwich. He describes the Tusselange as capital tarmers, Everywhere around he saw broad fields of fine mandiocs, maize, millet, earth-nuts or beans. Tobacco and hemp are both the Habsburg monarchy has suggested grown for smoking. Their country is a following amusing story of old Lady to a writer in one of the Vienna journals fertile and well-irrigated, undulating plan Clermont, who used to

"Fiat justitia, pereat mundus." "Deus providebit" was the pious motto of Maximilian II; and, passing over those of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other" "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other" "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other" "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other" "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other" "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of Rudolph II and two or three other "End of constructed straw huts, despised by the Baluba tribes, these small, ill-shapen, attenuated dirty and wild-looking people. Of course the admiral's wife apelolive. They do not grow anything, nor do gized for not knowing what should have they keep pigs or goats, but only a fex been a well-known fact—and a fact fowls, hving for the rest upon wild fruits which she had in reality heard but had tles of champagne. After a visit to the French missionaries at Tabora, and to Dr. Bohm and Dr. Reichardt at Gonda, he enjoyed some good shooting, and on No vember 17, 1882, he embarked for Sucz at tenge we have heard nothing as yet, but that he has founded a station there, and that we may any day hear of his arrival at Lounda on his way homeward. Wissmann arrived at Carro on New Year's Day, on the very same day as Mr. Joseph Thompson, who has proceeded to Zanzibar at the request of the London Geographical Society.

Avenging Their Father. ffair which occurred in Yeddo, China, and connected with the life of Il-i historic character who was executed for Yeddo he gave lessons in sword exercise. One day two young girls came to himthey were sisters-wishing to be instructed in the use of the sword and halberd. Curious to know why they Due d'Orleans, who is studying at the populated country teeming with natural use of arms, he inquired of them the College Stanislas, the Princesse Helene produce, excel in artistic manufacture of reason. When they informed him he who made her debut in society about workmanship of various kinds, in wood, approved their determination and taught who made her debut in society about three months ago, and two little prin- clay, copper and iron, weaving stuff out them with all the care and attention he of the Mabele plant and showing skill in could bestow. These sisters were the cesses. Then come the due de Char-tres, younger brother of the comte de no foreign influence has ever touched them. The Utopia has received the honorary pened, as they were in the fields with spithet of Lubuku, i. e., "Friendship," their father, a young and gay retainer of epithet of Lubuku, i. c., "Friendsnip," their father, a young and gay retainer of but its real name is Casselange; its inhafrom the confluence of the Lulus and the in a great rage, and though the father tants of one village, or sometimes of plored his pardon for the unintentional

Way, I never knew a first-class colweather, ch!" took an oath to be revenged on the young murderer of their parent, Nobu and Kiyo were the names of these two sisters. After the sepulture of their Some kind of bird-you don't mean Mo., has presented each of the letterfather they walked to Yeddo and made ostri--?" their wishes known to U-1. It is said they studied under his tuition for a whole year, U-i standing their friend in furnished them with approved weapons with which to fight the slayer of their there and tell me you haven't got a shipped from Lynn, Mass., in 1882 is single Azimuth to your back?" ngle Azimuth to your back?" 310,525. This shows a gain of more "Don't believe I have," admitted the thau 25,000 over 1881. Then, and until a few years past, it was deemed praiseworthy to siay an enemy in revenge for insults or wrongs inflicted. As U-1 knew these girls were to challenge their enemy to deadly combat, he sent with them, to act as a seccoise, married to the due de Chartres.

Lastly, the due d'Aumale, general of lons. The latter was thoroughly convinced them at a given day at Shiraishi. This singular duel was to take place in a pripgoohlies that reached New York the got one of those Rectangular African by diphtheria, within a brief year, sister of the due de Nemours, would from him, and so he thwarted all their The Japanese loved to witness feats of man; "here I've been keeping an agent bushels and seven ounces on a half acreshe, Madeline Moray, had cast her mite to reheve their sore necessities, and the faint attempts at aiding each other. Sister of the duc de Nemours, would endeavors to penetrate further. On arriving, therefore, on July 20, 1881, from such meetings as the fighting propension of the duc de Nemours, would endeavors to penetrate further. On arriving, therefore, on July 20, 1881, from such meetings as the fighting propension of the duc de Nemours, would endeavors to penetrate further. On arriving, therefore, on July 20, 1881, from such meetings as the fighting propension of the duc de Nemours, would endeavors to penetrate further. On arriving, therefore, on July 20, 1881, from such meetings as the fighting propension of the duc de Nemours, would endeavors to penetrate further. On arriving, therefore, on July 20, 1881, from such meetings as the fighting propension of the duc de Nemours, would endeavors to penetrate further. On arriving, therefore, on July 20, 1881, from such meetings as the fighting propension of the duc de Nemours, would endeavors to penetrate further. On arriving, therefore, on July 20, 1881, from such meetings as the fighting propension of the duc de Nemours, would endeavors to penetrate further. On arriving the first and the fighting properties are the fighting properties and seven of the duc de Nemours, would endeavors to penetrate further. On arriving the fighting properties are the fighting properties and seven of the duc de Nemours, would end a such a such meeting as the fighting properties are the fighting properties and seven of the duc de Nemours, would be decayed the fighting properties and seven of the duc de Nemours, would be decayed to the fighting properties and seven of the duc decayed to the fighting properties and seven of the duc decayed to the duc decayed to the fighting properties and the duc decayed to the duc decayed to the duc decayed to the duc decayed to the duc fante Louise, sister of Queen Isabella, and 20 degrees E.) they were hardly sorry thes. The chronicles of the event tell our money on second-hand panthers to hear that both roads thence to Mussum- of the breathless interest manifested by and kangaroos with the rheumatics. I'll their father. Their parent had been even an Azimuth, eh? I should think tary Skamgatibus-Great Scott!" And as the disciple of Audubon possed nto a saloon across the street and beer the bar-keeper heard him chuckle something to the effect that he had got rado) mines for the past three mouths even on that old hyena puncher, and is as follows : Pounds of lead, 17,000, don't you forget it.

Lead poisoning is often produced i as one likely to be exempt from it; yet with simultaneous symptoms, such as the last season 4,000 car loads of cattle, a fursed tongue, inflammation of the averaging twenty-two head to the car. pointing to the probability of poisoning by lead. The physician in attendance ped from this one point. hold silk as well as other kinds of thread in the United S ates and six in Canada in her mouth, and that she had done more than one for every day of the A funny story is told of the wife of It will be found that the silk thread of some interior threads are sweet.

"She is dead madam," was the blunt

Old Evens Pumber.

The other morning, while the urbane manager of Woodward's Gardens was smoking a-four-bit eigar, and meditafively listening to the muffl d walls of a tomeat that had just been swallowed alive by the anaconda, a tall, thin, selenthe Berlin Geographical Society is in hopes tific-looking man, with a goatee and blue glasses, entered the gate and remarked in an insinuating manner!

'Of course, you pass the scientific fraternity?" "Of course, we do not!

showman, emphatically, "What, not the servants, not the picneers in the great march of the mind | lulu. into the hitherland of the infinate beyond?" returned the professor, with great surprise. "I will not deceive you," sareastically conspiracy. When he first appeared in replied the proprietor of the only salamander; 'we pas nothing but the quills on the fretful porcupines-I mean the press. You can't see the ost idges Exeter, N. H.

unless you come down and put up," "Dear me, dear me!" sighed the sci- Legislature contains forty attorneys and entist, reflicctively. "To think that a fourteen editors. professor of cosmographic conchology should be dented admittance to a thirdclass Zoo! Has the Skamgatibus been fed yet?"

"Skamimporter.

offe, haven't you?" "Ye-e-s-s; I believe we've a small friend, doubtfully.

lection to have less than two pairs," said the professor, contemptnously; "how government, about $20,000,000 in 1883 do your Azimuths stand this cold "Azimuths?" asked the Napoleon aggregator of curiosities; "what's them?"

successor of Darwin; "ostridges are nothing. I've shot more ostridges with quail shot than you've got hairs on your sixty four years, head. You don't actually mean to sit alligator breeder, mortified; what are they like?" "Oh they're of the order Spinalis, of $1000 a year and upwards, when emabout eight feet high. Fur peels off in ployed in large establishments.

"N-n-o, I guess not," said the fall man, "It would hardly pay me to spend so much valuable scientific time in a fourth-class show like this. Not 10 $2,765,000,000. you'd be afraid of being actually you'd be afraid of being actually ing spring is estimated at 220,000 head, mobbed some time. I'm sorry for you, Of these not more than 120,000 will my good man; sorry for you. I've no reach the open market. The rest will doubt you mean well, but not a soli- be reserved for ranch purposes, Sutter's Mill, Jan. 19, 1848, to June 30. swapped a lead nickle for a glass of 1881, amounted to $1,179,000,000.

n unsuspected manner, The occupation of dressmaking might be regarded burn are to erect at the homestead in a dressmaker just admitted into the is to be ready for use during the comlips, and general debility-all signs for some time failed to discover the ource of the lead poisoning, and was seize a car load of beer in Portland the eginning to think the blue line had other day, but a locomotive came along been caused in some other way, when and carried beer and officers to Ports-he accidentally learned from a merchant month, N. H., 50 miles away where it that silken thread, being sold by weight, is not unlawful to hold beer for sale. and not by length, is sometime adulterated with sugar of lead. He than cember 31, 1881, there were 1, $70 hetels questioned the patient, and she informd him that it had been a common Canada. During the month of Novemractice with her, when at work, to ber, 1881, there were thirty-nine burned this the more readily with silk, inas- month, much as it often bad a sweet to te. This is a sure indication of the presence of lead and all thread possessing it should either be rejected or used with caution.

the best makers is tasteless, whereas

and Italians are, for political reasons, excluded. The recruits are not to be Army in England, in his report for 1882, under twenty, nor over forty years of says that in that year 609 or his solutions, in the little garden-plots around his wattled but, whence it has gradually altered under his constant selection into the golden grain that now covers half the lowland tilth of Europe and history more full of genuine romance than this, and there is no page in which the evidence is clearer or more couving the evidence is clearer or more couving for those who will take the easy trouble to read it sright.

mestic animals are kept in an artificial and the game they kill. They have a picture and the game they kill. They have a picture and the game they kill. They have a picture and the game they kill. They have a picture watter weapons and instruments are of a very inferior kind. Iron arrow points are however, sometimes to pay the watter to a horse when he is very warm is injuring the damage may result. Too much water to a horse when he is very warm is injuring the damage may result. Too much water to a horse when he is very warm is injuring the damage may result. Too much water to a horse when he is very warm is injuring the damage may result. Too much water to a horse when he is very warm is injuring the damage may result. Too much water to a horse when he is very warm is injuring the damage may result. Too much water to a horse when he is very warm is injuring the damage may result. Too much water to a horse when he is very warm is injuring the damage may result. Too much water too and they train a kind desires, caused by the manner of a very inferior kind. Iron arrow points are however, sometimes was apparently delighted to see him, and at the constant of their coveraction is the damage may result. Too much water to a horse when he is very warm is injuring the damage may result. Too much water to much water to mann formed a very good opinion of the warling the content and the game they kill. They have a peculiar language, and that of southerwise, and there is to pay the expense of conveyance to Egypt, and there is a special agreement with the warling the content and the game they kill. They have a peculiar langua

NEWS IN BRIEF

NO. 12.

-In Great Britain 375,000 persons work under ground. -California last year parked 500,000 cases of canned fruits. -American patent medicines are in great demand in Belgium

-The Massachu-etts Senate has passed a resolution for biennial sessions. -Berlin with over 1,160,000 population, has only forty five places of wor-

-A Post of the Grand Army of the Republic has been established in Hono-

-A club of climbers will leave Bo ton for the Wnite Mountains during this -One Chicago pawn shop has loaned money on 2200 revolvers during the past year -A lady, Miss S. Clark, has been appointed Treasurer of a savinga bank in

-The Lower House of the Missouri

-Catifornia white wines are exported to Germany in considerable quantities, and find much favor there. -Cash girls in New York stores are paid $1.50 a week, and some of them $2 after years of experience. -A London lecturer declares that "Why, the Skamgatibus; you've got | England has spent during the last ten years £1,440,000,000 for liquor, -We use 21,000,000 spools of thread female somewheres," said the grizzly's a year, and three or four thousand cords of wood in the making of spools. -New York will raise by taxation

> -Au agent has gone to South Africa to seeure oustriches to stock a farm to be established in San Bernardino, Cal--A thoughtful citizen of Kansas City,

-During the past year sixty-one Congregationalist ministers have died in this country, at an average age of -The total number of cases of shoes carriers in the city with a pair of ices

-Women Stenographers of the highest class command and receive salaries

-The Rev. Osborne Ingle, an Episcopal clergyman of Frederick, Md., has lost his wife and seven children, mostly -In a corn-raising contest near Rome, Ga., five young men took part. The "No,' said the much sgitated show- winner of the prize raised thirty-seven the city before certain specified dates.

lives and the wounding of two men,

- A slow watch caused the less of five

-Russia's debt has almost doubted since 1872, the annual deficit in her finances averaging $120,000,000, A long -The Texas cattle drive for the com

-The gold product of California from the discovery of the precions metal by James W. Marshall in the tail-race of

- The product of the Leadville (Colo-228; onness of silver, 1,337,216; onness of gold, 2, 921, Total currency value. $5,792,123.

-The memorial library building which the sons of the late Israel Wash-

Livermore, Me., is to be of granite, and -Hunnewell, Kansas, shipped during

-Some Maine officers atempted to

-- During the five years ending Do-burned in the United States and 360 in -The aggregate value of the eleva tors belonging to the Northern Paci railroad is $300,000. They do an annu grain trade of from $2,000,000 to $4. 000,000, and in their merchandise de partment they did a business last year of years,

-General Booth, of the Salvation age. They are to get from $30 to $60 a including 274 women, were knocked month, from which about $8 a month is down kicked or brutally assaulted