

SENATOR SMILES is talked of as a candidate for State Treasurer.

SIXMAY LOAN is spoken of as a Presidential candidate for 1884.

THERE were 60 infants on exhibition at the Pittsburgh baby show, last week.

THE State Medical Society held its 34th annual session at Norristown last week.

MR. KIM has withdrawn his name for appointment as chief examiner of Civil Service Reform.

THERE is a talk among the Democracy of re-nominating Hancock for the Presidency in 1884.

THE Indiana Republicans are reported to be in first rate fighting trim. Political fighting is meant.

A LARGE percentage of the Philadelphia Methodists are opposed to holding religious conferences in theaters.

Governor PATTERSON's first reception since the inauguration was given on the evening of May 9, it began at 8 o'clock and was over by half past 11 o'clock.

IT is said that the Confederate soldiers are organizing to make a united effort on Northern Congressmen to secure pensions for them, just as pensions are secured for Union soldiers.

THE New England Genealogical Society have sent Henry F. Waters to England, to find out how blue the blood of certain New England families was previous to their coming to America.

JUDGE KELLY of Philadelphia, had a difficult surgical operation performed on the interior right side of the mouth, a few days ago. It was a tumor that grew in his mouth. He is doing well.

OHIO, KANSAS, MINNESOTA, INDIANA, IOWA, CALIFORNIA, MICHIGAN, ILLINOIS

Kentucky last year produced 390,000,000 bushels of spring and winter wheat. It is thought the yield this year will show a shorting of 20 per cent, as compared with that of last year.

QUESTION, did the Pennsylvania Legislature bury the bloody shirt when it marched through the streets of Richmond to the step of Union music, and with a Rebel flag waving at the head of the procession? The visit to Richmond was made two weeks ago.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, had a sensation a few days ago, over the confession of Major Wesson, government paymaster, that he was robbed of $24,000, the story was gotten up to cover his short account with the government. He was put under arrest, and will be court martialed.

THE Philadelphia Times suggests the propriety of giving a pension to all such members of the Pennsylvania Legislature as took a headache while visiting the battle fields of Virginia. For so advocating the Times has a trivial name not worth understanding that it is a popular thing to get a pension these days.

THE objections that have been stated against Keim as Examiner of the Civil Service Commission, so far have all been of a trivial nature not worth feather in the mind of an intelligent man. If Mr. Keim is not the right kind of a man, why are the disqualifying defects not stated? If he is not a fit man for the place, why is he not fit? What are his defects?

THE New York Independent remarks: The Democratic Party doesn't know what to say about the tariff question; and yet it must next year define its position when asking the people to trust it with power. One difficulty, and perhaps the most serious one, consists in the fact that Democrats are very far from being agreed among themselves on this subject. The party, as such, doesn't know what it wants, or what will best unite it.

THE opposition that certain journalists declared to the appointment of De B. R. Keim, as examiner of the Civil Service Commission seem to be grounded on the fact that Keim is a friend of Cameron. It will not be many months till these same people that are denouncing him because they are friends of Cameron will be anxious for the support of Cameron and his friends to help prop up political organization so that they may enjoy the spoils of office.

GENERAL GRANT'S mother died in New York last Friday after a sickness of a few hours. She said that she felt weak, and lay down on a bed and before her son could be called, she died. She lived with her daughter, Mrs. Corbin. Her maiden name was Simpson. She was born in Montgomery county, Pa., in 1798. She was a woman of "good common sense." The fame achieved by her eldest son never disturbed her. To her he was her boy Hiram.

THE North American speaks of the spirit of Democracy as expressed by Mr. Hendricks as follows: Mr. Hendricks, of Indiana, has no doubt expressed correctly the spirit of the Democratic party generally in reference to the tariff in the present emergency. The main point seems to be that if the country generally acquiesces in the new tariff, and trade becomes prosperous and flourishing, the Democrats will not, of course, undertake to make a new tariff. But if business is dull and stagnant, the party will try it on.

An illustration of true love is mentioned by a Leadville paper as follows. Ex-Senator Tabor's first wife, whom he discarded when he becomes a millionaire, is said to remain faithful in her affection for him and though she is now rich, she declares that the happiest days of her life were when she kept his grocery store at California Gulch. She prays that he may soon lose his wealth, when she believes his Oshkosh bride will desert him and he will be glad to return to his first and true love.

THE NEW GOVERNOR OF GEORGIA

was inaugurated last Thursday, and in his address he expressed a desire to maintain the credit of the State. His ideas of honesty is of a different quality from that of some of the recent Governors of Virginia, who expressed themselves as favorable to paying a certain percentage of the State debt, and requiring the creditors to knock off the balance.

THE wheat crop prospects are reported from Washington under date of last Thursday, as follows: The returns to the Agricultural Department shows that the average condition of the winter wheat is 834, against 80 in April. The loss in area from replanting in other crops may be assumed to reduce the prospects to that of April 1. It is not probable that increase in spring wheat areas will be more than make good the loss of winter acreage. Without regard to the spring wheat breadth the present prospect for the winter wheat area, in consideration of reduced condition and acreage, is 20 per cent. less than in May last, representing a loss of about 77,000,000 bushels.

Neighboring News.

Perry County.

Bloomfield is 260 feet higher than Newport above tide level.

A number of Duncannon people are off for a trip to Europe.

A black snake 6 feet long was killed in the Newport grave yard. It was a great snake to scare people.

Mrs. Long, wife of Elder Peter Long, died in Toboyne twp., on the 13th, at the good old age of 82 years.

Rev. M. L. Heiler, pastor of the Blain Lutheran church, has received and accepted a call to a charge at Lykens, Dauphin county.

Marshall Furnace, near Newport, will blow out in a few days, and will not resume operations until the iron business becomes more profitable.

J. D. Hamilton formerly a resident of Liverpool has moved to Colorado for the benefit of his health. He is suffering from a gun shot wound received in the war against rebellion.

As the Millin accommodation train was leaving Newport station, Sunday noon May 6th, station agent Barclay signalled it to stop. Mr. Barclay had discovered a tramp lying on one of the trucks of the cars, immediately under the floor of the car. The fellow, being ordered off the train, crawled from his perilous position and walked away a very much disgusted man.

On Ascension day John W. Finton, of Buffalo township, accompanied by Warren and Lizzie Stephens (children of J. Wesley Stephens), aged respectively 12 and 15 years; James Finton's youngest daughter, Jennie, aged 15; Effie Liddick (daughter of Jerry Liddick), aged 13; and Harvey Liddick (son of Benjamin Liddick), aged 13, were fishing in a boat in the Juniata river, near Pattersons, above 5 miles east and narrowly escaped drowning. Their boat struck a rock, upset and threw them into the water, about 6 feet deep. The current was swift and the boat floated away lodging about half a mile farther down the stream. John W. Finton took the children in his arms and waded to the shore, how he got through the depth of water with the precious load can not be fully explained.

Millin County.

Milroy is to have telephone connection.

Lewistown comes up every time to the circus.

The wheat and grass about Belleville has a promising appearance.

Quite a number of young men in Lewistown have gone into raising chickens by incubators.

W. B. Lukens at Beaver dam has a beautiful spotted colt, which he takes great pleasure in exhibiting.

Mr. McCarthy rafted a number of telephone poles to Lewistown via canal on Tuesday, from McVeytown.

A 63 pound bass was caught in the river at Bixler's station a few Sundays ago. The act was doubly illegal.

A citizen who lives near Allen ville who has been raising tobacco for some years has planted the ground in onions.

Millin county has two survivors of the war of 1812, William P. Elliott, of Lewistown, and Bernard Erberhart, of Decatur township.

The commissioners are receiving paving bricks from Harrisburg with which to relay the pavement on the east side of the court house.

After the Lewistown policemen put on their new hats last week they went on the streets and arrested all the pigs that were out of their pens.

The Gazette is responsible for the following: One of our young ladies was so glad at the return of a gentleman friend recently that she wore her lips through welcoming him.

George M. C. Casner aged 23 years was almost instantly killed at the railroad shops at Lewistown on the 8th inst., being caught in a hoisting machine while coaling an engine.

On the afternoon of the 8th inst., the house of Henry Ort, living not far from Lewistown was entered and ransacked by thieves. A few old coins, and some jewelry were carried away by the thieves. The loss amounts to about $75. The family was away from home.

On last Saturday Mrs. Geo. W. Smith, living at Logan, noticed smoke proceeding from a closet, and getting a bucket of water opened the door and dashed the water on the flames, speedily extinguishing them. Considerable wearing apparel which was in the closet at the time were destroyed. The origin of the fire is a mystery, as no person had been in the closet for two days previous.

On Thursday of last week 2 wild turkey gobblers and 2 turkeys met at the foot of Jack's mountain and a lively fight took place. The wild ones spied persons waiting for them, upon which they quit and left for the mountain at a lively rate. The fight was hard enough while it lasted. They went for each other at a rate that counted when they struck.

There are more miles of railroad in Pennsylvania than in all the New England States put together.

A New Jersey woman rolled off a lounge while drunk. Her face struck the wall, and she was so badly injured that she, being unconscious, lay there and smothered to death.

A young farmer who was anxious to marry, but who did not fancy the girls of his neighborhood, opened negotiations with an Indian agent in Dakota, and the upshot is his engagement to the daughter of a Sioux chief.

One of the severest hail-storms ever known in Denver, Col., occurred May 7th with terrific thunder and lightning. It lasted an hour. Hailstones one inch in diameter lay 6 inches deep in the streets. The fruit crop is ruined.

After John T. Coleman, of Scott, Ill., had felled a large tree he was on the stump to take off the butt end. When the cut dropped to the ground his body was caught between the two ends and he was killed.

The West Chester Republican says that Mr. George B. Roberts, President of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, occupies a house at Pocomoc that has been the residence of his ancestors for 6 generations.

Two young women at the birthday party of Jessie Taylor, Findlay, Ohio, moved his chair from under him as he attempted to take a seat between them, and he fell and broke his neck. One of the young women is now 5 maniac through grief.

A man in Flatbush, N. Y., fell the other day and dislocated his neck. He lived about several days, and died in bed some days ago.

John Kirby of Williamstown, N. J., fell asleep on his work bench while reading a newspaper. The lamp set on fire, the intense heat caused the lamp to burst, and the burning oil flew in all directions. Kirby's shoes were burned from his feet before he was aroused.

A violent thunder-storm passed over Williamstown and vicinity on the afternoon of the 8th, doing considerable damage. A number of houses were struck by lightning, and trees and fences were blown down. The woolen mill of Stokes & Co. had the roof blown off, and stock damaged to the extent of $1000.

The Bank of Towandend North, at Vassar, Mich., was entered by burglars on Wednesday night. The safe was blown open and $4000 in specie taken. The thieves were frightened away before they could open another drawer containing $6000 in currency.

Frank L. Falls, who lives over the bank, was held under revolver while the robbery was perpetrated.

John Frankford, the horse-thief, who was captured in West Chester, still remains in jail at that place. It has been decided whether he will be tried there on the charge against him or be taken to Lancaster to serve his expired term of 15 days. There will be a hearing in the case as soon as convenient for the authorities of Chester county.

During a terrific wind and rain storm on the 8th inst., at Trenton, N. J., the main tent of Forepaugh's Circus was blown over, the canvas was torn in shreds, the seats were blown away and all the aerial apparatus destroyed. Fortunately the last of the afternoon audience had just left the tent, or a loss of many lives would have been the result. One of the circus employes was injured by a falling pole which struck him on the head.

Six men, under indictment for various crimes, confined in the county jail at St. Paul, Minn., escaped on Sunday May 13th. They escaped by the lock on the wall, and then called to the night watchman that one of the men was banging himself. No sooner had the watchman entered the cell than he was knocked down and his keys taken from him. He was then gagged, and the other cells were unlocked.

Such uneasiness is felt by the truck farmers of Virginia about the safety of the growing crops of Irish potatoes. Wet spells, cloudy and cold weather for the past two months have caused the potatoes in the ground to rot badly, especially on the flat lands, some farmers think they will not make a crop. In some sections the stand is fair, but it is the exception to the rule. Crops generally are greatly retarded.

An Alabama paper says, a little boy, just old enough to walk, was found under some bushes near Headland, in Henry county, the other day, and no one knows where he came from or why he was there. It is surmised, however, that the little fellow is a waif of the late great storms that swept over that section and over five States. It is not unreasonable to suppose that he is one of those injured. He is now in the hands of good people and is doing well.

Noah Garritt, a farmer, who resides at Pes Ridge, Garrett county, about 8 miles west of Lonaconing, on Wednesday was in the woods searching for his cattle when he came suddenly upon a huge black bear, which at once attacked him. A good dog which accompanied the farmer at once came to his rescue, and after a terrible struggle Mr. Garritt became free. Leaving the dog and bear in fierce conflict, he sped to his home near by, and securing a trusty rifle, hastened back to the spot, his daughter Annie, aged 11 years, accompanied him. Mr. Garritt found his good old dog fast wakening and the ferocious bear becoming more savage. He at once raised his rifle and fired, quickly repeating the dose, and the bear fell, not killed but severely wounded.

In attempting to make a stop forward Mr. Garritt stumbled and fell, which aroused the patting, bloodied animal. As it attempted to rise Annie stepped over her prostrate father and, snatched the gun, took steady aim and fired, sending a laden missile crashing through his brain.

After I had become almost skin and bone, with neither strength, appetite nor ambition left, and the doctor couldn't help me, two bottles Parker's Ginger Tonic cured me completely.

Subscribe for the Sentinel & Republican.

ITEMS.

A gang of thieves in Western Indiana stole 3,000 horses in 6 years.

Ninety years ago the land upon which Cincinnati now stands was bought for 67 cents an acre.

There are more miles of railroad in Pennsylvania than in all the New England States put together.

A New Jersey woman rolled off a lounge while drunk. Her face struck the wall, and she was so badly injured that she, being unconscious, lay there and smothered to death.

A young farmer who was anxious to marry, but who did not fancy the girls of his neighborhood, opened negotiations with an Indian agent in Dakota, and the upshot is his engagement to the daughter of a Sioux chief.

One of the severest hail-storms ever known in Denver, Col., occurred May 7th with terrific thunder and lightning. It lasted an hour. Hailstones one inch in diameter lay 6 inches deep in the streets. The fruit crop is ruined.

After John T. Coleman, of Scott, Ill., had felled a large tree he was on the stump to take off the butt end. When the cut dropped to the ground his body was caught between the two ends and he was killed.

The West Chester Republican says that Mr. George B. Roberts, President of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, occupies a house at Pocomoc that has been the residence of his ancestors for 6 generations.

Two young women at the birthday party of Jessie Taylor, Findlay, Ohio, moved his chair from under him as he attempted to take a seat between them, and he fell and broke his neck. One of the young women is now 5 maniac through grief.

A man in Flatbush, N. Y., fell the other day and dislocated his neck. He lived about several days, and died in bed some days ago.

John Kirby of Williamstown, N. J., fell asleep on his work bench while reading a newspaper. The lamp set on fire, the intense heat caused the lamp to burst, and the burning oil flew in all directions. Kirby's shoes were burned from his feet before he was aroused.

A violent thunder-storm passed over Williamstown and vicinity on the afternoon of the 8th, doing considerable damage. A number of houses were struck by lightning, and trees and fences were blown down. The woolen mill of Stokes & Co. had the roof blown off, and stock damaged to the extent of $1000.

The Bank of Towandend North, at Vassar, Mich., was entered by burglars on Wednesday night. The safe was blown open and $4000 in specie taken. The thieves were frightened away before they could open another drawer containing $6000 in currency.

Frank L. Falls, who lives over the bank, was held under revolver while the robbery was perpetrated.

John Frankford, the horse-thief, who was captured in West Chester, still remains in jail at that place. It has been decided whether he will be tried there on the charge against him or be taken to Lancaster to serve his expired term of 15 days. There will be a hearing in the case as soon as convenient for the authorities of Chester county.

During a terrific wind and rain storm on the 8th inst., at Trenton, N. J., the main tent of Forepaugh's Circus was blown over, the canvas was torn in shreds, the seats were blown away and all the aerial apparatus destroyed. Fortunately the last of the afternoon audience had just left the tent, or a loss of many lives would have been the result. One of the circus employes was injured by a falling pole which struck him on the head.

Six men, under indictment for various crimes, confined in the county jail at St. Paul, Minn., escaped on Sunday May 13th. They escaped by the lock on the wall, and then called to the night watchman that one of the men was banging himself. No sooner had the watchman entered the cell than he was knocked down and his keys taken from him. He was then gagged, and the other cells were unlocked.

Such uneasiness is felt by the truck farmers of Virginia about the safety of the growing crops of Irish potatoes. Wet spells, cloudy and cold weather for the past two months have caused the potatoes in the ground to rot badly, especially on the flat lands, some farmers think they will not make a crop. In some sections the stand is fair, but it is the exception to the rule. Crops generally are greatly retarded.

An Alabama paper says, a little boy, just old enough to walk, was found under some bushes near Headland, in Henry county, the other day, and no one knows where he came from or why he was there. It is surmised, however, that the little fellow is a waif of the late great storms that swept over that section and over five States. It is not unreasonable to suppose that he is one of those injured. He is now in the hands of good people and is doing well.

Noah Garritt, a farmer, who resides at Pes Ridge, Garrett county, about 8 miles west of Lonaconing, on Wednesday was in the woods searching for his cattle when he came suddenly upon a huge black bear, which at once attacked him. A good dog which accompanied the farmer at once came to his rescue, and after a terrible struggle Mr. Garritt became free. Leaving the dog and bear in fierce conflict, he sped to his home near by, and securing a trusty rifle, hastened back to the spot, his daughter Annie, aged 11 years, accompanied him. Mr. Garritt found his good old dog fast wakening and the ferocious bear becoming more savage. He at once raised his rifle and fired, quickly repeating the dose, and the bear fell, not killed but severely wounded.

In attempting to make a stop forward Mr. Garritt stumbled and fell, which aroused the patting, bloodied animal. As it attempted to rise Annie stepped over her prostrate father and, snatched the gun, took steady aim and fired, sending a laden missile crashing through his brain.

After I had become almost skin and bone, with neither strength, appetite nor ambition left, and the doctor couldn't help me, two bottles Parker's Ginger Tonic cured me completely.

Subscribe for the Sentinel & Republican.

The pranks of a city barometer is told by the Philadelphia Record of the 11th inst., as follows: A German-born bachelor, Michael Kinsey by name, who allowed sixty years to pass over his head without being brightened with a wife, has lately amused himself in a matrimonial way that he now regrets. Kinsey lives on Main street, opposite Tulpehook, and recently rented the front of his house to Mrs. White, a widow of 35 years. In the intervals when the tenant was not serving coffee to her customers she acted as house-keeper for the landlord. The latter soon became enamored, and besought the lonely widow to cheer his declining years with the sunshine of her company. But the widow declined to shine, and to accomplish his purpose, a mock marriage was proposed one evening and accepted in a spirit of banter. It was subsequently found that the marriage was legal, whereupon the widow left the house. She returned in the night to remove the fixtures of the store, but was intercepted by her husband. In the morning they appeared to Magistrate Kiebaum who declared the marriage legal, and said that Mrs. Kinsey should be allowed to remove her furniture. This was done, and the bride is now spending her honeymoon alone in the city, while the groom still remains at the home of bachelorhood, pondering on the uncertainty of human aspirations.

Going down the great Jackson route from Grenada, Miss., a regular old homespun native of the State entered the sleeping-car and paid for a berth. He had with him a big, red, leather car of the kind, and everything, automobile him. When the porter came to make up the beds he saw that the native was greatly perplexed, but as he made no direct appeal it wasn't his duty to post him. He glanced anxiously around, paled of one beat, and then took a rest for 5 minutes. When the other berth, came off he had solved the problem. Picking up his books under the berth he started for the rear platform, and nothing was heard from him for about 10 minutes. Then he put his head into the door and called out: "All you uns in that", look out, for 'I'm coming!' And come he did. He had disrobed while standing on the platform, made a bundle of coat, vest and pants, and, as he shot into bed, a nap on the side, he gurgled out: "Old Mississippi may be a little slow, but she ain't gits that" just the same!"

Put a teaspoonful of sulphur in the nest

as soon as house or turkeys are set. The heat of the fowl causes the fumes of sulphur to penetrate every part of their bodies; every ounce is killed, and as all tits are hatched with in 10 days, when the mother leaves the nest with her brood, she is perfectly free from mites or lice.

While a party of ladies and gentlemen were shooting mark in Tuscomb, Ala., the other day, a cry of pain was heard on the opposite side of a cedar grove, and returning thither they discovered that a stray shot had hit and mortally wounded Mr. Leitz Downey, aged 70 years.

Dr. A. R. Stokes was on the 10th inst., at St. Johnsbury, Vt., sentenced to seven years in the State Prison for producing an abortion.

HARMONSBURG, Ky., May 10.—The trial of Congressman Philip B. Thompson, Jr., for killing Walter Davies progresses quietly. Three witnesses were examined to-day as to the facts of the killing. It is thought that the trial will last ten days. There is great excitement and some apprehension of difficulty. The cause that led to the shooting of Davies were published in the Standard and Republic last week.

Faded hair recovers its youthful color and silky texture by the use of Parker's Hair Balsam.

Legisl.

Administrator's Notice.

I, ELYSIA Testamentsary on the estate of J. O. H. McAllister, late of McAllisterville, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned residing at McAllisterville. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said decedent will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement. W. H. 364 ALISTER, Administrator.

THE SECRET

of the universal success of Brown's Iron Bitters is simply this: It is the best food preparation ever made; is compounded on thoroughly scientific, chemical and medicinal principles, and does just what is claimed for it—no more and no less.

By thorough and rapid assimilation with the blood, it reaches every part of the system, healing, purifying and strengthening. Commencing at the foundation it builds up and restores lost health—in no other way can lasting benefit be obtained.

25 Dearborn Ave., Chicago, N.Y. 10. I had never been well since a very bad cold, headache, and dyspepsia had run their course. Finally I got a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters, and I could eat but little. I have tried everything recommended, but I have taken the principles of a doctor's medicine, but I did not feel any better. I took Brown's Iron Bitters, and I feel like a new man. I am getting much better, and I am sure I can do any kind of work, and I am sure I can do any kind of work, and I am sure I can do any kind of work.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not contain whiskey or alcohol, and will not blacken the teeth, or cause headache and constipation. It will cure dyspepsia, indigestion, heartburn, sleeplessness, dizziness, nervous debility, weakness, &c.

Use only Brown's Iron Bitters made by Brown Chemical Co., Baltimore, Maryland. Read the name and trade-mark on wrapper.

Work Given out. On receipt of your address we will make an offer by which you can earn $3 to $7 evenings, at your home. Men, Women, Boys or Girls can do it. C. WILKINSON & CO. 195 and 197 Fulton Street, New York. (12-28-82-6.)

The Shenandoah Valley Route

BETWEEN THE NORTH AND EAST, SOUTH AND SOUTH-WEST.

A NEW TRUNK LINE PASSENGER HIGHWAY, WITH UNSURPASSED THROUGH PULLMAN CAR SERVICE AND

PERFECT TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES, TRAVERSING THE MOST PROSPEROUS SECTIONS OF THE SOUTHERN STATES, UPON

RAILWAYS OF UNIFORM EXCELLENCE, SUPERIOR EQUIPMENT, AND COMMON MANAGEMENT, ENROUTE

New York, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore,

AND Knoxville, Chattanooga, Memphis, Little Rock, Atlanta, Montgomery, Mobile, New Orleans, Jacksonville, and all points South and South-west, upon lines of common interest.

Along this route, or most accessible thereby, are health resorts, and scenes of undying beauty.

The Shenandoah Valley, its continuous physical beauty and scenes of historic interest. The wonderful Caverns of Luray; the Natural Bridge of Virginia; the noted Virginia Springs; the Warm Springs of North Carolina; and the unrivaled scenery of Western North Carolina; Asheville and French Broad; the charming resorts of East Tennessee; and the renowned winter tourist points of South Georgia and Florida with a reorganized and recreated hotel service en route: THE LURAY INN, THE NATURAL BRIDGE HOTEL, THE HOTEL GRANVILLE, &c., &c.

Assuring a personal comfort hitherto unattained in a Southern traveler's progress. In due season Excursion Rates, Tickets, and arrangements to all the Wonderful Resorts, along the line will be perfected, adapted to tastes and means of all classes of Summer Tourists.

For Tickets, Time cards, Guide Books, Sleeping Car Reservations, and all information, inquire at any Pennsylvania Railroad or other leading Railway Ticket Office East and West, or at the Eastern offices of this line—

104 Fourth Avenue, Pittsburg Pa. 239 Washington St Boston, Mass. 308 Broadway, New York City, N.Y. 805 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. 107 West Baltimore Street, Baltimore. Commercial Valley R. R. Harrisburg, Pa. Shenandoah Valley R. R. Hagerstown, Md.

A. P. O'F, General Pass' and Ticket Agent, Lynchburg, Va. March 28-83.

JUNIATA VALLEY BANK,

OF MIFFLINTOWN, PA.

BRANCH AT PORT ROYAL.

Stockholders Individually Liable.

J. NEVIN POMEROY, President.

T. VAN IRWIN, Cashier.

DIRECTORS: J. Nevin Pomeroy, Joseph Rothrock, George Jacobs, Philip M. Kopper, W. C. Pomeroy, Louis E. Atkinson, A. G. Pomeroy.

STOCKHOLDERS: J. Nevin Pomeroy, R. E. Parker, Philip M. Kopper, Anne M. Shiley, Joseph Rothrock, Jane H. Irwin, George Jacobs, Mary Kurts, L. R. Atkinson, Samuel M. Kurtz, W. C. Pomeroy, J. Holmes Irwin, Angus G. Bonnell, T. V. Irwin, Noah Hertzler, John Hertzler.

27 Interest allowed at the rate of 2 per cent. on 6 months certificates, 3 per cent. on 12 months certificates. [Jan 23, 1873-4]

SPEER'S PORT GRAPE WINE

Used in the Principal Churches for Communion purposes.

Excellent for Ladies and Weekly Persons and the Aged.

EXCELLENT FOR FEMALES AND WEEKLY PERSONS.

SPEER'S PORT GRAPE WINE!

FOUR YEARS OLD.

THIS CELEBRATED NATIVE WINE is made from the juice of the Oporto Grape, raised in this country. Its invaluable TONIC AND STRENGTHENING PROPERTIES are unsurpassed by any other Native Wine. Being the pure juice of the Grape, produced under Mr. Speer's own personal supervision, its purity its genuineness, are guaranteed. The youngest child may partake of its generous qualities, and the weakest invalid use it to advantage. It is particularly beneficial to the aged and debilitated, and suited to the various ailments that affect the weaker sex. It is in every respect A WINE TO BE RELIED ON.

SPEER'S P. J. SHERRY.

THIS BRANDY stands unrivalled in this Country being far superior for medicinal purposes.