MR. P. SCHWARTZ, - Sir, I suppose you think I will fill in issue the history of Juniata county, which was entrusted to me in 1876, by virtue of a resolution of U. S. Senate and also of the Governor of Pennsylvania. Now, Sir, I tell you that I am not idle. I am slowly gathering to put into my book, that whether I live or die the history shall not be lost but an other preacher Mr. Kennedy who was once their preacher. Poor I was frightened when I was ready to preach, because one of the society when he was asked to start the time, answered that he knew not whether I was a Baptist, or a Methodist, or a Baptist, or a Seccider. I made him soon acquainted with my authority."
