

B. F. SCHWEIER.

VOL. XXXVII.

NEW EVERY MORNING .

Every day is a fresh beginning has shed.

THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

Editor and Proprietor.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13, 1883.

The Wealth of Peru.

The population of Peru is a curious # large fortunes and the house is now managed by juniors. Gradually the business of the place is being concen-

A Chinese Funeral.

NEWS IN BRIEF

NO. 24.

In the early part of May, three min ers, named William Downing, Arthur -Twenty hotels and Edward Hughes, left the City of Mexico. -Twenty hotels are now building in of Indians predominates. In all settled capital now to handle salt mines, and est son to remove him from the bed to Leadville, Colorado. They are three

-A son of the late Charles Kingsley old-timers in Colorado and started for is employed in the office of the City En-Kokomo. The men decided to work an gineer of Buffalo. old claim known to Hastings on -Scarlet is still the favorite color for Fletcher Mountain. About half-past sunshades in London. eleven o'clock on the 15th of May, -Louisiana is cheered by the prospect of big orange and sugar crops. —General Grant's income is said to be Downing and Hughes continued to about $9,000 a year

Gridley, Cal., is to add a frog farm

-Representative Hazleton, of Wisconsin, is so ill that his recovery is not expected.

-Bowie, Texas, has raised a capital of $35,000 for the purpose of establishing a national bank.

-General Hazen has been visiting Chicamauga battle-field where he com-"Do you hear that sound? It is a manded a brigade.

At first Downing was in doubt as to -P. T. Barnum has given $25,000 whether it would be better to stay in the hole or go out. Hughes declared Bridgeport, Conn. worth of land for park purposes to that he would go out and see what had

-Ex-Governor Long, of Massachubecome of Hastrys. Downing then setts, will be the commencement orator said that he would accompany him. at Colby University.

On getting out the men were terrified -It is said that the grandfather of to see the snow coming down the little Arch-bishop Benson, of Canterbury, was gulch in which their tert was pitched. a Wesleyan Methodist. The place where they stood overlooked

-General E. P. Alexander is said to the gulch and they could see the imhave been offered the presidency of the mense rocks being driven along by the Mexican Central Road. srow. On, on it came, and they saw

-There are now 191 cotton factories that everything in and around their tent in the Southern States, and most of would be destroyed. They should as load as they could for the parpose of them are making money.

attracting Hastings' attention, but it Oyster culture was commenced in was of no use. He was too busily oc-Norway in 1877, and at last they are cupied within the tent to hear the shouts having a good yield of spart.

of his friends. The snow-slide came -J. Q. Ward, the sculptor, has been down with a swoop and lifting the tent given the contract for the Garfield statue as though it had been a piece of paper to be erected in Washington. it hurled it on down the gulch.

-The first metal found in the ruins Downing and Hughes ran as fast as of the Tuileries was coined into a medal hey could and they were glad to see and presented to Victor Hugo. the tent lodged on a shelving rock,

-There are in Boston sixty-nine They hurried to the spot and found Hastings half buried in the snow. women taxed over $100,000, five over $500,000 and two over $1,000,000. They pulled him out, but he was unable

-The Hon. Hannibal Hamlin has to move. He groaned loudly and told just given a valuable collection of books his two partners he was going to die. to the Mechanics' Library of Bangor, They picked him up and with as much care as they possibly could carried him Me.

-In Paris a fashion among the young a little way down the mountain to a controls the performance of a band of miner's hut. He was laid on the rude men is the wearing of four studs on the couch and preparations were made for shirt front instead of the former single

-Louis Blanc's will has just been hour after Hastings had been laid in proved in London. The value of the bed he expired, £9000.

-Ex-Vice President Wheeler is rapidly recovering from the illness with The stealing of melons is something which he has for some time past been hat will try the patience of even a afflicted. Quaker. A farmer may lose his wheat -President Grevy's salary is $240,000 crop by bugs, his corn by smut or cattle a year. Louis Napoleon, when Em-peror, received a yearly allowance of $5,and his potatoes by rot or bugs, and he will go right along whistling "Yankee 000,000. Doodle" and put another mortgage on

-Prof. Abel, who has conducted the the farm, and be cheerful. His cattle Government dynamite investigation in may die or be stolen, his horses follow off a tramp with a halter, and his chick-England, has been knighted. "It's an is disappear, and he will not get mad. -A prominent young man named Albut if anybody steals a melon he will len was on trial at Delphi, Indiana, a load up a shot-gun and lay in an adjacent corn-field five nights in the week few days ago upon the charge of having to get a chance to shoot somebody. A married his cousin. -The Museum of Comparative Zoightning-rod peddler or a fellow selling ology at Cambridge, Mass., is to be open patent corn cuitivator may beat him to the public every Sunday afternoon out of hundreds of dollars by getting him to sign a receipt which turns out to until November 1. thoroughly once a week of course, but between whiles all transient sweepings on into this box, which is emptied at society. between whiles all transient sweepings are espectable and superior member of society. be a note, and he will sigh or go to law, and act as though he hated to hurt the feelings of persons who bilked him, but if he has a melon patch that is not worth losses led to the discovery. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. Old instruments in the society. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. Old instruments in the society. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. Old instruments in the society. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. Old instruments in the society. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. Old instruments in the society. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. Old instruments in the society. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has been discovered near Hartford, Ark. -A silver mine has be -A silver minethas been discovered -The average of land devoted to the $4, and he hears that a green melon has been plugged by a melon thief, he will cultivation of wheat in the United States poison all his melons to get a chance to has within the last ten years extended murder somebody, or fire his old blunder- from 19,000,000 to more than 36,000,000, -The King of Bavaria has made a his heart. There is something queer about this, and we would like to have somebody explain why it is that a sensible man, a deacon in a church, will get -It is estimated that the British so boiling over with rage at the loss of workmen and women spend more than a few melons, and stand up and smile at losses a thousand times greater. Of out of £350,000,000 for beer and other surse it is wrong to steal melons, and strong drinks, we do not defend the practice, but, since _____The Weslevans of Great Britain we have picked so many bird-shot and have sent a petition to Parliament for og's teeth out of an otherwise immacu- the closing of public houses on Sunday, late person, we have felt that there was on a roll of paper two and three-quarter a good deal more fuss made about a miles long, containing 590,332 names. few melons than the importance of that -Mrs. Augusta Evans Wilson, the agricultural product seemed to warrant. The May Pole. The 1st of May was the chief festival sonally attends to the making of jams in ancient and modern times. Chaucer and jellies, and her guests at Mobile and other writers tell us that in Eng- praise her excellent home-made pies, land, during the middle ages, it was -Enterprising citizens of New Orcustomary for all, even the court itself, leans, La., have already taken measures reaches it. Yet how tiresome it is to ing power, these "runners" make long to join in this carnival, and the fairest to attract to that city next winter a nor-To cite a case that illustrates both the flowers and seated in an arbor, covered tion of the Northern travel which has push it out of the way in the morning, the room being too small to allow its standing out. The casters are too small. Get a larger size or broad woo--Nearly 100 applications are said to have been made for the post of Keeper During the reign of Henry the Eighth, of the British Crown Jewels since the can move a chair. The boys can put are so and schemes room for dressing. You can move it about as you like to tuck in the clothes its delicious fish, and as an acknowl- Katherine of Aragon coming from in the Towar. The use of apartments take the trouble to irrigate the land, as is done in Chile. Next to Callao the most important Peruvian port is at present Iquique. It is near the frontier of Bolivia, but only is the broad tires will not wear the carpet like small iron ones. It is a triffe to see made by the military authorities, but by tike small iron ones. It is a triffe to see that the furniture in a house has easy castors, but the difference in ease of moving and keeping it neat will sur-prise yon. It's the principle of having two tea-kettles over again—that com-forts are always cheap. was forty miles across a mountainous sub out the "runner" made it in-side of ten house-leaving at 7 o'clock at night, and arriving at the rancha (as my friend subsequently was informed) at 5 o'clock the next morning. Taking into consideration the time lost between the whole day through. This custom, whole day through. This custom, abolished by the Purities, was revived during the Restoration, and held its ground for a long time. May poles are yet to be seen in some portions of France and Germany, and the Miss buildings in Japan. The property is very near the official palace of the Mika do or Emperor. Letters patent have been secured from the Government of Japan, guaranteeing forever the title to sionary Society of the Methodist he festive sports are still observed. Episcopal Church.

motionless. Then with a neigh of lous, but it came again. As we have the plain and was safe.

Every day is a reesh beginning. Every morn is the world made new. You who are weary of sorrow and sinning, Here is a beautiful hope for you; A hope for me and a hope for you. he was dead or at any rate quite hors de All the past things are past and over, The tasks are done and the tears are shed. Yesterday's errors let yesterday cover, Yesterday's wounds, which smarted and combat, and was just running to pick up the bridle and follow Marengo, when he "I had ple bled, Are healed with the healing which night

Yesterday now is a part of forever; Bound up in a sheaf, which God holds With glad days and sad days, and bad days which never Shall visit us more with their bloom and their blight. Their fullness of sunshine or sorrowful night.

Let them go, since we cannot re-live them, Cannot undo and cannot atone; God in his mercy receive and forgive them; Only the new days are our own. To-day is ours and to-day alone

Here are the skies all burnished brightly, Here are the same an ournissed originity, Here is the spent earth all re-born, Here are the tired limbs springing lightly To face the sun and to share with the morr In the chrism of dew and the cool of

Every day is a fresh beginning; Listen, my soul, to the glad refrain; And spite of old sorrow and older simin And puzzles forecasted and possible pain, dawn.

Take heart with the day, and begin again.

HORSE AGAINST LION.

"How I came to be sitting, in very good company, one glorious September even-ing in the little moonlighted garden of barrel unscrewed to load, and then the hotel at Algiers is neither here nor there."

The story-teller was a good-looking man of 50, with beard grayer than his head, and a merry twinkle in his eye. What he said I shall repeat, for the sake of clearness, in the first person, just as he told the story himself:

The adventure of which I am going to tell you, gentlemen, happened to me a good many years ago. It was my first serious interview with a lion. Like most serious things, it had a comic side too;

"I was a young man then, and had been some half dozen years in Constantine, farming in partnership with a friend, an old colonist, whose acquaintance I made on board ship coming out from Marseilles

"Our business was corn and cattle raising, and we did very well together until my partner died of a fever, and after that I took a dislike to the place. I thought I would shift my ground into with long ears. this province, Algiers, push toward the frontier, and get a grant of government land and make a farm of it. So, getting a neighbor to give an eye to things in my absence. I started on my prospecting expeditio

I say I, but I should say we, for there were three of us, sworn comrades as ever were.

'First there was your humble servant; triumph and a flourish of his heels away he galloped through the grove out on to been boys, you know what I mean-not mixture. In the interior the best type trated in few hands, as it requires large a fallen angel, but the gun-powder "The lion lay so still that I thought devil.

"Good! Well, it seemed feasible-I "I had plenty of powder in my little sat up on his haunches. This made me flask, so pouring some into my hand, I stop. "As he sat there with his head loosely daway until it came out a tiny Vesu-vins of black paste. Then I formed the

I did it. The outermost tree was large and low-branched. To it I ran and up back of his neck. For an instant he did it I scrambled, and had just perched in a fork about fifteen feet above terra hot seem to know what had happened; firma, as the lion arrived at the bottom. "Looking up at me with two red-hot bals for eves, his long nervous tail lesh," and tore savagely at the big fiery flea on his back, which sent a shower of sparks coals for eyes, his long nervous tail lashing his sides, every hair on his body turned to wire, and his great paws protruded, he chattered at me as a cat chatters to a bird out of reach. His jaws snapped like a steel trap, and his look was perfectly diabolical. When he was stung him like a hundred hornets. His tired of chattering he stood and growled. "Catching sight of the bridle, he walked to it, smelled it, patted it, and back hair and mane burst into a flame, and he shrieked with rage and terror. "Then he went stark, staving mad, then came back and lay down and glared clapped his tail between his legs, laid back his ears, and rushed out of the at me. "My carbine-confound it !-- was slung at my saddle. My only weapon, grove at twenty miles an hour, and dis-besides my hanger, was a pocket-pistol, do the-barreled, and what in those days screwed on again.

"It would have been a handy weapor to pull up, for the sun was still very hot, against a man at close quarters, for it threw a good ball-but for a lion! Bebut I walked as fast as I could, looking out all the time for Marengo, who would sides, the beast was too far off. not, I knew, go very far from his master. "Then the thought flashed into my mind, where was Cognac? "I supposed he had run away and hid-Presently I spied him in a hollow. A "I supposed he had run away and hid-den somewhere. If the lion got sight of shoulder. him it would, I knew, be soon all over with the poor little fellow. "All at once there arose, close at hand.

an awful and familiar yell. It had a strange, muffled tone, but there was no mistaking Cognac's voice. "Again it came, resonant, long-drawn, and sepulchral. It seemed to come from inside the tree. Where the deuce was he? "The lion appeared utterly astonished. and turned his ears so far back to'listen that they were almost inside out, when from some hole among the roots of the tree there popped a small yellow head "'Down, down, Cognac!' I cried in my agony; go back, sir! "A cry of delight, cut short by pitcous whine, was his reply, as he spied toward the lion, he barked defiantly.

"With a low growl and rutiling mane the beast charged at the little dog.

quick as a rabbit, and stormed at hun the audience places in the pistol or rifle they are almost unattainable. In the

"In my hurry I had forgotten the bri dle, but with my belt and handkerchief I extemporized a halter, tied one end round his nose, and, catching up Cognac, mounted and galloped off, defying all the lions in Africa to catch me, "There were still two hours before old of things the mines will not rise to present them permanently. The best sunset to reach the next village, and by hard riding I did it. That we all three of us enjoyed our suppers goes without saying. And that, gentlemen, is my story." We agreed it was wonderful. Conjurers' Tricks.

then with an angry growl up he jumped into his mouth and nose. "Again and again he tried, and then raved wildly about, using the most horrible leonine language, and no wonder for the devil had worked well down among his greasy hair, and must have appeared up the ravine. "Almost as mad as the lion with joy and feeling sure he was gone for good, I tumbled down the tree and ran off along the road as hard as I could with Cognac barking at my heels. By and by I had chief cause of the war. From the nitrates large quantities of iodine are ob-Mechanical pistols, not permitting extained to such an extent that this metal amination, in which the projectile drops has become a drug in the market, into a secret chamber by the action of Many experiments have been made to has become a drug in the market. springs on the pulling of the trigger, discover a mordant to iodine for dyeing me, and then, dashing fully a yard will be beneath the consideration of the purposes, but so far without any practrue artist, as well as being dangerous tical result. Like Ecuador, the eastin the highest degree. The mode of per- ern slope of the Andes in Peru contains forming this surprising trick at the pres- immense forests of valuable woods, but

"Back went Cognac into his cave as ent day is as follows: One member of owing to the lack of communication England.

With few exceptions from Payta, the extreme northern port of Peru, to Caldera, in Chile, the country on the seaboard is destitute of vegetation-nothng but barren sand-hills, with an oc-past, through volcanic action, the sea receied some miles, leaving a wide strip take a look at the place. A couple of months before the Chileans had landed and destroyed the railway shops and depot. The town looked desolate, All who could had left. Nearly all the an dollars ashore with me. We had a bottle of bear, which cost $5, and I returned with $31. The explanation is that the silver was exchanged for Pe-being equal to one Mexican dollar

This might pass as an adaptation of the miracle of the "loaves and fishes." So much for the credit of poor Peru. My ompanion invited me to take some chicha. Here it is made from maize

It is a fermented beverage! We entered an adobe building without floor.

An old woman handed us a muddy looking liquid in an old teapot. One gulp was sufficient. It tasted like vinegar bitters. The natives said it was chicha. Tambo de Moro is an exceptional Peruvian port. It is a green spot in the desert. The finest oranges on the west coast are grown here; also, fruit of all kinds. The palta, a fruit tasting like fresh butter, is much grown here and prized by the people of the coast. Here the vegetation is very rich, showing that many places in Peru could be made productive if the people would in name, Chile having gobbled the whole territory, for the time at least.

This port has acquired its importance through the large salt deposits in its immediate vicinity. Iquique is the capital of the province of Tarapaca. Its importance may be understood when it s known that its average monthly receipts at the custom house are over $400,000. There is a railway leading to the salt fields some sixty miles distant. The road, until lately, was owned by Montero, a Peruvian notable, who out has lately been actually sold to par ties in England connected with the Peurned it over to an English company, sional oasis of vegetation. In times 000,000. All the country has to show shower does come it is fun to watch the third dwells in his tomb. The intelligence of the of railway—one towards the mines of carpets, etc., to protect the interiors of their houses. For want of yard space funds, is left unfinished to within sixty poultry is kept on the roofs of the miles of the mines. Another line runs from Yollendo to Puno, on Lake Titi- thing but water tight.

Arequipa. There are two or three of merchandise is imported direct from ed candles and joss-sticks, for the delecother short lines. All these are govern-ment property. There are also two or station for American men-of-war. The three short lines of rail owned by pri- streets are wide and well kept. Taken ing-women is relieved at intervals by the altogether, Iquique is the most cosmovate parties, politan town on the whole west coast, but such a hard set I never met since who have also been called to assist in the The debt on the government railways is nearly $200,000,000. Much of this the palmy days of Virginia City. One money has enriched foreign merchants. morning I asked an acquaintance but most of it could be found in the pockets of runaway presidents and fore breakfast to take a cocktail. He which, if genuine, would be highly compockets of runaway presidents and fore breaches to take a coordant. The which, it genuine, non-states "barbarians" other Peruvian notables. Peculation refused. Astonished, for it was the in official circles has ruled in Peru to first time such a thing had happened to such extent that a man who, after oc- me, I asked him, "What's the matter?" in official circles has ruled in Peru to such extent that a man who, after oc-cupying office, came out without a for-tune, was called un leso (half-witted.) Inductive hardly axist in Peru. Commerce is in the hands of foreigners, First quality of rice (chiclayo) and man beer. English beer is not much is not a considerable amount of real large quantities of sugarcane are grown liked, being too heavy. Large quan- grief beneath all this weeping and wailalmost without labor. Much Peruvian tities of Chilean beer are consumed here, ing; but hired mourners, who are usually bark and some caoutchoue are found in as well as at all points south of Calino. the interior, some being sent abroad Much American hardware is used, such by way of Guayaquil, but most of it as shovels, locks and notions; still, not inding a market by way of the Ama- near so much as there should be. Manon river. The immense mineral wealth chester and Birmingham goods, as well death of individuals they hardly know of the country is almost undeveloped as German imitations, take the lead, by name. As it is, the priest usually and until a different race of people takes American houses having no one to re- directs these emotional demonstrations the importance they should. Of late years immense deposits of nitrate of soda have been discovered along the or fresh water swimming baths. coast of southern Peru, extending to the Bolivian and north coast of Chile, They have proved a large source of revenue. These deposits have been the Brains in Housekeeping.

But the mistress said when she had to all the backaches and vexations about ruvian currency, $9 in paper money get a new one finally, and thought of Another convenience at Aunt Jane s the two dustpans and the chamber proom hung in the back entry upstairs. the purpose of interment is allowed to You know when one has been cutting pass through any walled town. No out work in her room there will be lit-corpse, either, is ever allowed to be carried across a landing-place or to pass ter, or when the boys are not careful to use the door-mat, they will leave traces through a gateway which can in any way of mud on the carpet, and what a trouble be construed as pertaining to the Em t is to run down stairs after broom and peror. The Chinese are, indeed, so superstitious in regard to death, as seldustpan. Aunt Jane said she never could afford to carry her one hundred dom to mention that word itself, preand forty pounds of weight up and down places along the coast we find half-breed as a rule, the people of South America the floor of the principal room of the spaniards, mixtures of negroes, Chinese do not understand much about co-oper- house, where he is laid with his feet to and white people-a people having the vices of every nationality and the vir-tues of hardly any. The Incas or In-dians still preserve their simple habits,

It is the general custom in China when a man is about to die, for the eld-

As he sat there with hishead loosely wagging from side to side, and mouth half open, he looked quite vacant and idiotic. "Suddenly his head stopped wagging, he pricked his ears, and by the flash of his eye and changed expression, I knew he had seen me. "Only one thing was to be done, and I dow-branched. To it I ran and up to the branch." "Whiff, whizz! The lion looked up directly, but I dropped it plumb on the back of his neck. For an instant he did lastings declared his intention of going o the tent and preparing dinner. work and thought nothing more of Hastings' absence. He had been gone about a quarter of an hour, and the Remember of a hour, and the men were about to quit work, when a st ange, rumbling noise, like distant thunder, was heard. Downing turned ale with alarm, as he had heard that trange sound before. He turned to the Chilians. In guano alone the re- ficult to check. It hardly ever rains resides with the tablet which is prepared Hughes and exclaimed, in a voice that venue for twenty-five years was $1,000,- along this part of the coast, but when a to commemorate the deceased; and the betrayed his great agitation:

The intelligence of the death of the houses. The roofs are all flat and any- the mourning of China. Priests and women hired to mourn are sent for at Par, Bolivia, the road going by way of Iquique than in Valparaiso, as the bulk table is set out with meats, fruits, lightthe same time; and on their arrival a tation of the souls of the deceased; and the wailing and weeping of the mournintoned prayers of the priest or the dis-> ceremonies. The woman weep and lament with an energy and dolefulness night. At night they taper off on Ger- would be uncharitable to presume there the most demonstrative on these occa-tations of a genuine nature over the much in the same way as a conductor nusicians; now there are a few irregular wails, then a burst of them, relieved has removal to Kokomo. These were stud.

in turn by a few nasal notes from the all unnecessary, however. In about an priest, the intervals being filled up by the "tom-toms," and an occasional titter bed he expired. from the latest comers.

Nobody in course of transportation from one part of China to another for Stealing Melous.

An Avalanche in May.

secondly there was my horse Marengo. from inside.

and a better never looked through a sire and an English mare belonging to the Colonel of chasseurs, of whom I the rest of his body was all bone and safety. muscle. His temper was as good as his courage was high; me he would follow about like a dog; but he had one failing, and that was an insuperable objection to the close proximity of anything, except one thing, that stood on four legs. all have our peculiarities, and this was his. Bipeds were all very well, but multiply the legs by two, and he let fly immediately, and never missed his aim. Such was Marengo.

"Thirdly, there was Cognac, the faith-fulest, the most honest, the oddest, and the wickedest little dog the world ever saw. He was more like a terrier than anything else, with a short yellow coat, a fox's head, very long ears, and a very short tail. The shrillness of his bark pierced your cars like a knife, but the awfuiness of his howl-he always howled if left alone-baffles description. During the fourteen years I had him he seldom left me day or night. On a journey he would run beside me, and when tired get up and sit in my wallet. The great pleasure of his life was to steal behind people and secretly bite their legs. "By some mysterious affinity he and Marengo were friends from the first. They now sleep under the same tree.

Well, we started, and after going over a good deal of ground I thought I had decided on a location, and turned table a looking brute as I ever saw. had decided on a location, and turned my face homeward. My direction was by Alma, to strike the great road that is all round him, and then, without as how in a location and turned "By and by he got up and snuffed the air all round him, and then, without as how in a location was how in a location was had by he got up and snuffed the air all round him, and then without as how has how in a location was had by he got up and snuffed the him self at a whiteby Aima, to strike the great toat that much as looking at me, walked off and washed wall, and producing thereon a much as looking at me, walked off and splace of and producing thereon a stantine. "It was about 8 o'clock one morning, when I had been some two hours in the saddle, that I emerged from a narrow after looking carefully round for the lion,

"I had just laid the reins on Marengo's on. That ngut green rounge winows, an amusing introductory speech, with neck when suddenly he gave a tremend-it out? ous shy that pitched me clean off. "The next minute, with a horrible roar, a lion sprang right at his head.

and so he would have been, but as Maren- round the bushes. I strained my eyes were, tripped him, so that he fell side- which he was very grateful. Of course ways on the road.

"The heavy jerk nearly brought the horse down, but the throat-lash broke, the bridle was pulled over his ears, and, recovering himself, he darted away among a grove of trees that stood by the

So intent was the lion on the horse wayside. that he paid no attention to me lying us.

defenceless before hum. "Crawling swiftly along the ground he pursued Marengo whom I gave up brute among the trees seemed hopeless. there was an open space about a dozen yards across. In the center of this Marengo took his stand with his tail Marengo took his stand with his tail toward the lion and his head turned sharply back over his shoulder, watching spring, but Marengo lashed out both heels together, with such excellent judg-ment of time and distance that, catching him full in the chest, he knocked him all of a heap to the ground, where he lay

"Thrusting his great paw right down powder; a second is asked to choose and called pisco is made. Some is made bridle. He was bred between a Barb the hole, the lion tried to claw him out. privately mark a real bullet from a box of such, which he himself drops into the liquor is put in large conical earthen Oh, how I trembled for Cognac! barrel, and a third rams the whole tight- jars, holding about six gallons each. "But he kept up such a ceaseless fire of snapping and snarling that it was ly down with a ramrod, either retaining To give it age it is buried in the sand

No. 2-that is to say, between the intro-duction of the powder and the ball-the "All the same, to see the great cowardly beast digging away at my poor little dog like that was more than I could performer, while calling general attention to, and laying great stress upon the stand. Cocking my pistol, I shouted, and as he looked up I fired at his bloodcircumstance that three or four people shot eye. He shook his head, and I gave take part in loading, and not one only, who might be a confederate, slips into him the other barrel. "With a scream of rage he bounded the barrel a little tube about an inch in length, which slides down to the charge back "Cognac immediately shot forth his and afterwards receives the bullet. This head and insulted him with jeering tube, closed at one end, is of just such a size, shape, and color as to fit on the end barks. of the ramrod, and be brought away

"But he was not to be drawn again, nd after a bit he lay down further off with it without being noticeable. It is disengaged by the wizard, and the ball and pretended to go to sleep. Cognac secured as he walks back to the stage. barked at him till he was tired, and then and is put inside the lips in readiness in retired into his castle. "Reloading, I found I had only three the very act of showing that the mouth bullets left, and concluded to reserve is empty.

The great difficulty which occurs in them for a crisis. "It was now past noon. To beguile the execution of this feat is to induce the the time I smoked a pipe or two, sang casual spectator to take deliberate aim a song, and cut my name, Cognac's, and Marengo's on the tree leaving a space at one's face; so impressed is he, as a rule. that the weapon he holds is genuinely loaded, that he hesitates to let fly at the for the lion's, which I determined should performer, and will rather let fly in the he Wellington. air. This, of course, spoils the effect "I wished he would go away, "Having some milk in my bottle I altogether, upless the conjurer has presence of mind enough to pretend to catch took a drink, and should have liked to the bullet as it falls. have given some to Cognac. "The lion began to pant, with his red Houdin, who was pre-eminent for neatness and finish, used to conclude this thorny tongue hanging a foot out of his mouth. He was as mangy and disreputhe mysterious properties of lead in ex-

"Slipping to the ground, I caught up changed this time for a hollow shell of Cognac, who had crept out directly, and, black wax filled with a blood-colored liquid. Only a short time ago a son of the valley, or ravine, through which the lion was turning toward a bushy clump famous Houdin executed in Paris a very road ran, on to a sandy plain dotted with lion a bollow about two hundred vands the stage as the curtain rose, he made off. That light green toliage-willows.

"Anyhow, it was a relief to stretch one's legs after sitting six mortal hours his ears; then he breathed on his gloves, and presto! they vanished. The gloves -I got it from him afterwards-had no on a branch. The lion disappeared and so he would have been, but as Maren-go wheeled short round like lightning on his hind legs the streaming reins on his hind legs the streaming reins caught the brute's fore-paw and, as it caught the brute's fore-paw and, as it it was no use beginning a race against a lion with only 200 yards' start in any lion with only 200 yards start in any liack of the vest. A slight flexure of number of miles. The tree was better the tingers, therefore, freed them, and than that. . caused them to fly away with lightning "All the same, he was a long time: perhaps he was really gone for good, rapidity; but everything depended on Bah! there came his ugly head around the palms being alone exposed, Frenchthe corner again, making straight for manlike, all the time. Address is more than half the battle which the magician

"When he was pretty near I kissed has to fight single handed with the army Cognac and threw a bit more cake into the hole, Then I climbed again to my A good story was going the rounds of he pursued Marengo whom I gave up tor lost—for his chance against the lithe for trees, and the beast of a lion mounted suard over us as before, "He looked quite cool and comfort-was giving a private representation before the Patagonian chiefs, and, to the utmost, was somewhat annoyed

"Another hour, and he was still there. at the stoldity, and apparent lack of toward the lion and his head turned harply back over his shoulder, watching im. "He stood quite still, except for the "He stood quite still, except for the

him. "He stood quite still, except for the "Be stood quite still, except for the "In still the stood quite still, except for the "In stood quite still, except for the slight shifting of his hind feet and lifting slight shifting of his hind feet and lifting the got up, and walking quitely to the he got up, and walking quitely to the foot of the tree, without uttering a sound, sprang up at me with all his might. "He was quite a yard short, but I was the from the Professor's pocket while" a spirate controls the cost of the place. English capital controls the cost of the place of the opponent by a flank movement. But the old horse knew his game, and pivot-so startled that I nearly lost my bal-so startled that I nearly lost my bal-the latter was discontinue to be appeared by the latter was discontinue to be appeared by the stern guns to bear on the enemy. Soon with a roar, the lion made his backed out both "His coup having failed, he lay down fowl from the savage breast; and that "Soon with a roar, the lion made his right under the branch 1 was on, could him to improve the occasion by annex-spring, but Marengo lashed out both ing his head on his paws as if to hide his ing a handkerchief and nenotil counter the occasion by annex-ferring to take refuge in a circum -an ordinary one—a charge of real interior, near Ica, the celebrated liquor tairs every ne a room tion-such, for instance, as "having be sweeping, when a new broom costs come immortal." thirty-five cents and second dustpan ten. from rice and some from grapes. The

After the body of the deceased is While she was about it, she would have washed, it is dressed in the best clothes a dust-bin too, and if you lift the cover of that large box in brown linen and which belonged to the man in his lifewas going home. He stood about lifteen hands two, carried the Barb head, and the rest of his body was all bone and from the bedrooms. They are all swept these habiliments in Elysium, and con-> convenience. Aunt Jane counts that At intervals during these and subse this second broom and pan which cost quent ceremonies, gilt and silver paper 40 cents in all, have saved her going up in the shape of coins and sycce bars is burned, in the belief that it will also and down stairs at least five times a week for the last five years, or thirteen pass into the invisible world, where it buss at a crowd of boys with murder in hundred times, and allowing that inte- will be recoined into solid cash; and ing at Payta all day, I went ashore to rest on the first investment might make clothes, sedan-chairs, furniture, buffathe price of her broom and things 75 loes and horses, made of paper, are cents; 1 cent fare saves her from going transferred on the same principle to the " better land " for the benefit of the up and down seventeen times, and she considers it cheap. I know a family dead.

Among the poor the bodies are put in who went without a new dustpan ten ouses were empty. I took four Mexi-years after they needed it, and made the cemeteries, but it is the practice with the old one do, because they never felt the richer Chinese to keep the coffined bodies of their relatives in their houses they could afford to pay half a dollarfor long periods-sometimes for years, country price-just for a convenience.

Mexican Express Runners

sweeping up she might have saved by getting it before, she felt too big a fool All through the interior of the country at almost every town and village to stay in the family. The boys' bed stands in a corner of are to be found "runners," usually in dians, whose business it is to carry small their room, away from the windows, packages upon their shoulders from place to place. Knowing all the mounand inconvenient to reach for making. You know how unwholesome it is for my one who sleeps at the back of a bed tain paths and short cuts, and possessin such a position where no fresh air ing a vast amount of strength and staypull the bedstead out every night, and den wheels, and you can push the bed-stead back and forth easier than you stopped for a night with his carriage, can move a chair. The boys can pull horses and servants at a hospitable borses and servants at a hospitable boring the reign of Henry the Eighth.

like small iron ones. It is a triffe to see was forty miles across a mountainous collection and shipment, and between receipt at the terminal point and actual delivery to consignee, the best regulated

Among other curious police orders express company in the world could issued at Moscow in view of the corona-tion is one prohibiting the exhibition or peditiously. Moreover, as these "runsale of busts or pictures of their Imper- ners" are absolutely trustworthyial Majesties among the populace, which there are cases on record of their dying decree is dictated by the desire to pre- in defence of their freight-the express vent the distribution of false represen- facilities which they afford in a small ruvian bonds. A year ago an opposition road was started by this company. ouseholders and proprietors of apart-Three leading firms, uniting, built and equipped a wagon-road and now get ments in the streets through which the state entry into Moscow will be made heir salt by carts. Still the railway have also been obliged to give guarantees is kept busy all day. They do not run at night. Iquique put me more in mind of a California mining town than any avbody to be on the roofs of their anybody to be on the roofs of their other place I have seen since leaving houses, during the passage of the pro-cession; besides which they will be held that country. It has the most go-ahead responsible for all persons within their doors on that occasion.

Police Orders.

-Nebraska has increased its population 1,496 per cent in twenty years, and A traveling-altar may certainly be counted among the most singular re-other State or Territory. quisites; one such has, however, long been in use in the imperial house of Austria. On all long journeys the emperor takes with him not only a court covered among his effects by his execuchaplain but also his traveling-altar. tors. They comprise "Sacountala," a To this latter attaches a history. It grand operain five acts; "Les Musiciens " dates from the time of Emperor Ru-dolph II.; at it prayed Ferdinand II.; it accompanie 1 Emperor Joseph II. in Fleurs." There are also some songs, A young man of Cape Ann who occa-sionally drinks more liquor than is good for him, failed to return home one day not long ago at his usual hour, and bia with the angle of th long ago at his usual hour, and his wife. The altar consists of an oblong wooden gress will meet in Rio Janeiro, under a knowing his weakness, went to look for him. On the railroad track not far from the inside of the cover of which, when Government of the United States has her house she saw a man lying across the rails; but the danger of his position ing the Holy Supper, may be seen. The mens of work done in the public schools

-A primeval red wood forest has been discovered in San Louis Obsipo county, Cal., near the head waters of This accounts for the cosmopolitan cha-racter of the place, English capital controls the salt deposits in the north, although two or three German houses have heavy inter-ests. Americans are nowhere—in fact ests. Americans are nowhere—in fact there are but few on the coast. Much lumber is received from Puget sound. the market for it is controlled by the Bremen house of Gildemeister & Co-Three of that firm have retired with 1882, 369.

An Emperor's Portable Altar.

tations of the Imperial features. All way scarcely can be improved upon.

Too Much Liquor

