

Chock extended his staff and Crook in the Indians.

The jury in the Star Route case brought in a verdict not guilty last Thursday.

Democrats are poking fun at the Republicans of Kentucky for opening their State Convention with prayer.

Florida is pronounced by a New York paper to be a fortunate state, for the reason that it raises two crops every year, one of oranges, and the other of Yankee boarders in the winter months.

General Crook, who but a few days ago subdued a hostile Indian tribe, is described by a writer who claims to know him as follows: "General George Crook is about fifty-three years of age, but he looks little more than forty."

The Philadelphia Times has already issued an order to prevent the use of fire crackers and toy pistols within the city, on the 4th of July, and a city paper in support of the Mayor's movement against the senseless fire cracker nuisance, says, that if the men and boys that are so eager to endanger fingers, eyes, property, and even lives, should go out into the fields or woods, where there are no people but themselves to injure in person or property, and there crack away to their heart's content.

When a man, like Dukes violates the proprieties and rights of society, and then employs the machinery of law, which is presumed to be enacted for the protection of the proprieties and rights of society, to escape justice, men will fall back on their natural rights for protection, as did James Nutt.

It is amusing to hear Democrats talk about Governor Pattison not being a ring Governor. The most amusing thing about it all is that the man that is, seemingly, most positive in their declarations that the Governor has no ring connections, are themselves of no account outside of ring connection. It is hard to conceive of a closer ring than Governor Pattison has about him; was there ever a closer ring in this Commonwealth, than that formed by Pattison in the executive chair, Cassidy in the Cabinet, and Gordon in the Senate?

A Defamer of Women Killed. Lyman Dukes was shot dead in Uniontown, Fayette county, this state, about 8 P. M., last Wednesday, when going to the post office, by a son of Captain A. C. Nutt, whom Dukes shot dead in the Jennings House in Uniontown, on the 24th day of December, 1882.

On the 4th of December Dukes, who had been paying attentions to Miss Lizzie Nutt, wrote a letter to Captain Nutt, which he mailed on the 11th. In it he said that he had heard stories concerning Miss Lizzie's chastity and during one of his visits made certain proposals, to which she readily yielded. Subsequently he accused Lizzie with not confining favors to himself and she confessed that she had been led astray. Dukes ended his letter by telling the Captain that he feared his daughter was in a delicate condition and suggested that he might save his family from disgrace if he cared to, which was an indirect suggestion to employ an abortionist.

Two days later Dukes wrote in reply: "I cannot accept for a wife the toy of the town and thus become the butt of the town's mocking derision. Death is far sweeter. I declare in all solemnity that I doubt if I am the author of the present difficulty. If I were I have committed no such heinous offense as you charge, as the girl is not what she ought to be. I don't care to walk into a death trap, but if you want to see me call upon me either at my office at P. M., Saturday, December 23, or at my room at same hour, whichever you may indicate, and you shall see me quietly and peaceably."

Storm Notes. ENIG, June 12.—A special from Clarendon, Pa., says that a fearful tornado swept over the town to-night, demolishing 80 large oil rigs and 5 buildings and deluging the entire town. The loss of property is great.

ABLENE, June 12.—A wind storm occurred about 10 o'clock last night 12 miles north of here and did great damage along the line of Dickinson and Clay counties. Thirteen houses, barns and stables were blown down, several persons injured and a little child was killed. The small village of Industry, in Clay county, was almost totally destroyed, all but 2 houses being blown down. It is also reported that Wakefield, Clay county, suffered severely. The storm was accompanied by rain and hail.

BLAIR, Wis., June 12.—This city was struck by a tornado about 6 o'clock last evening with the result of demolishing the business portion of the town, killing one man and wounding several others. The storm came from a westerly direction and was not by a current of air going south, causing a social, and government questions for precedents? The past acts of society is the mirror into which to look for the action of men. Human nature has not changed. Men in the past have dissembled their daughters to prove them innocent of slanderous charges and then struck the malinger dead. James Nutt shooting the slanderer of his sister, and the murderer of his father, is history repeating itself, and if the jury fixer, and fee gatherer, will poison the temple of justice into a place of injustice, the remedy must in the nature, or eternal fitness of things come, and law and order be wrought out and established under a different system. Why is it that hundreds of letters and despatches, offering money and all manner of aid to the Nutt family are sent by people that are strangers to them? Let the slanderer, the jury fixer, and the man that has an itching palm for a fee, right or wrong, stop and reflect. The most sacred cords in the human heart have been made to vibrate by the tragedies at Uniontown. Men do not tender their sympathy and offer their means to James Nutt because he has intruded his hands in the blood of a fellow man. They laugh not to scorn the law that stamps him a murderer because he shot a man, but because the avenues of justice were perverted to secure the escape of Dukes who attempted to despoil a woman of her good name, and then enticed her father into his den under the pretense of giving peaceable redress and there killed him. If the Fayette county court had not taken the liberty to outrage the better sense of the community by using the form of law to acquit Dukes of the crimes of which he was guilty, society to day would not be raising its hands and emphatically declaring that the penalty of the law of execution shall not be visited on James Nutt for deliberately shooting Dukes.

The Philadelphia Times of last Saturday contained crop reports from 55 counties of this Commonwealth, all sent by despatch on Friday the 15th. The despatches were brief and to the point: the one from this county reads:

MIFFLINTOWN, June 15.—Vegetation in Juniata is ten days late. Wheat is first-rate. The prospect for oats is good. Corn is short and thin on the ground. Farmers count on 60 bushels to the acre. Grass is plenty.

Taking the despatches published in the Times as a standard to judge by, the promise to the agriculturalist of the Keystone state is, that there will be enough and to spare.

A $43,000 house has been bought in Washington City, and presented to Gen. Sheridan by his friends. It was the presentation of such tokens of esteem to Gen. Grant that caused the Democrats to resort to their scuffling tactics. When some one would send the General a bull dog pup they came near fainting. They imagined that it was an evidence of corruption, and meant a conspiracy that had for its object—well they may tell it themselves.

Lyman Dukes was shot dead in Uniontown, Fayette county, this state, about 8 P. M., last Wednesday, when going to the post office, by a son of Captain A. C. Nutt, whom Dukes shot dead in the Jennings House in Uniontown, on the 24th day of December, 1882.

On the 4th of December Dukes, who had been paying attentions to Miss Lizzie Nutt, wrote a letter to Captain Nutt, which he mailed on the 11th. In it he said that he had heard stories concerning Miss Lizzie's chastity and during one of his visits made certain proposals, to which she readily yielded. Subsequently he accused Lizzie with not confining favors to himself and she confessed that she had been led astray. Dukes ended his letter by telling the Captain that he feared his daughter was in a delicate condition and suggested that he might save his family from disgrace if he cared to, which was an indirect suggestion to employ an abortionist.

Two days later Dukes wrote in reply: "I cannot accept for a wife the toy of the town and thus become the butt of the town's mocking derision. Death is far sweeter. I declare in all solemnity that I doubt if I am the author of the present difficulty. If I were I have committed no such heinous offense as you charge, as the girl is not what she ought to be. I don't care to walk into a death trap, but if you want to see me call upon me either at my office at P. M., Saturday, December 23, or at my room at same hour, whichever you may indicate, and you shall see me quietly and peaceably."

Storm Notes. ENIG, June 12.—A special from Clarendon, Pa., says that a fearful tornado swept over the town to-night, demolishing 80 large oil rigs and 5 buildings and deluging the entire town. The loss of property is great.

ABLENE, June 12.—A wind storm occurred about 10 o'clock last night 12 miles north of here and did great damage along the line of Dickinson and Clay counties. Thirteen houses, barns and stables were blown down, several persons injured and a little child was killed. The small village of Industry, in Clay county, was almost totally destroyed, all but 2 houses being blown down. It is also reported that Wakefield, Clay county, suffered severely. The storm was accompanied by rain and hail.

BLAIR, Wis., June 12.—This city was struck by a tornado about 6 o'clock last evening with the result of demolishing the business portion of the town, killing one man and wounding several others. The storm came from a westerly direction and was not by a current of air going south, causing a rotary motion, accompanied by a heavy rain. It struck the western portion of the city, wrecked a number of dwellings, then passed to the heart of the city, wrecking a number of business houses, blowing down the Northwestern Railway bridge, scattering the machinery room of the Rock River Paper Mills and killing Edward Hall, one of the hands. The loss will be heavy, as the goods in the injured buildings are damaged by water.

Millions of 17 year locusts have appeared at Greensburg and in other parts of Westmoreland county. There will be 16 tunnels on the Harrisburg and Western R. R. between Pittsburg and the Cumberland Valley.

St. John, N. B. June 14.—A young boy named Beldin was killed and eaten by a bear at Amagansic, Kings county, yesterday, while picking asparagus in the woods.

A sneak thief stole a clock in a Montreal store the other day, and concealing it under his coat, started for the door. It happened to be an alarm clock, and the machine being started it raised such a din that he quickly dropped it but did not escape arrest.

Charles French, of Indiana, wished that he might be struck dead if he was lying, and he suddenly keeled over. He was lying like a tanker, but what ailed him was getting a gold piece stuck fast in his throat.

A father and son eloped from Elton, Iowa, with two girls of the neighborhood. The deserted wives chased the party to Council Bluffs, pulled the hair and scratched the faces of the girls, and carried the men back home.

It is rumored that the P. R. R. company are considering the feasibility of erecting electric light poles over the entire track from Pittsburg to Philadelphia, and do away with the necessity for headlights on their locomotives.

Horace G. Childs, son of S. Powell Childs, of Plymouth, Montgomery county, was struck by lightning and instantly killed on Wednesday night.

At a church fair at White House, Cumberland county, Saturday evening a week, a general fight took place and several men were badly hurt. The quarrelsome persons were driven away with clubs and the festival ended successfully.

Colonel David Taggart, of Northumberland, has refused to permit his name to be used by the Republican State Convention. He does not want to be State Treasurer and declares that he would not leave his farm for any office at Harrisburg.

MEADVILLE, Pa., June 14.—During the progress of the hurricane that swept over this section on Tuesday evening Charles Smith, residing near Blooming Valley, while in the woods was struck by a falling tree and fatally injured. His physicians pronounced his case hopeless to-night. Smith is about 28 years old and has a wife and 1 child.

DETROIT, Mich., June 13.—Nattie Lynch, 8 years of age, encountered a tramp while going on an errand at Sbeoygan last evening, by whom she was outraged and otherwise terribly injured, having been stabbed in the left lung. She was not discovered until this morning, when she was in a dying condition. A large body of citizens are scouring the country in pursuit of the perpetrator of the crime. On the 14th a man named Warner was caught and hung by an angry crowd of 500 men, for the outrage over the girl, he declared that he had not committed the crime, but the girl said that he was the man.

J. F. Ellington, of Palmetto, is one of Georgia's successful fruit raisers. He has about one thousand trees. Mr. Ellington destroys the worms, which he does by drawing up the peach orchards, in a novel and interesting way, and one that will be of great interest to all fruit growers. All over his orchard are old gourds, boxes, cans, etc. placed on stumps, fences and trees. These are the homes of the worm-destroyers and they are the little bluebirds, which are so numerous in our State. For 5 years he has been getting and raising these little birds and to-day he has about 500. He prizes them so highly that he will prosecute any one killing one of his pets. They do their work so effectively that he is troubled very little with worms.

A limped about for years with a cane and could not bend down without excruciating pain. Parker's Gargar Tonic effected an astonishing cure and keeps him well. It is infallible. M. Guitoye, Binghamton, N. Y.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

rotary motion, accompanied by a heavy rain. It struck the western portion of the city, wrecked a number of dwellings, then passed to the heart of the city, wrecking a number of business houses, blowing down the Northwestern Railway bridge, scattering the machinery room of the Rock River Paper Mills and killing Edward Hall, one of the hands. The loss will be heavy, as the goods in the injured buildings are damaged by water.

Millions of 17 year locusts have appeared at Greensburg and in other parts of Westmoreland county. There will be 16 tunnels on the Harrisburg and Western R. R. between Pittsburg and the Cumberland Valley.

St. John, N. B. June 14.—A young boy named Beldin was killed and eaten by a bear at Amagansic, Kings county, yesterday, while picking asparagus in the woods.

A sneak thief stole a clock in a Montreal store the other day, and concealing it under his coat, started for the door. It happened to be an alarm clock, and the machine being started it raised such a din that he quickly dropped it but did not escape arrest.

Charles French, of Indiana, wished that he might be struck dead if he was lying, and he suddenly keeled over. He was lying like a tanker, but what ailed him was getting a gold piece stuck fast in his throat.

A father and son eloped from Elton, Iowa, with two girls of the neighborhood. The deserted wives chased the party to Council Bluffs, pulled the hair and scratched the faces of the girls, and carried the men back home.

It is rumored that the P. R. R. company are considering the feasibility of erecting electric light poles over the entire track from Pittsburg to Philadelphia, and do away with the necessity for headlights on their locomotives.

Horace G. Childs, son of S. Powell Childs, of Plymouth, Montgomery county, was struck by lightning and instantly killed on Wednesday night.

At a church fair at White House, Cumberland county, Saturday evening a week, a general fight took place and several men were badly hurt. The quarrelsome persons were driven away with clubs and the festival ended successfully.

Colonel David Taggart, of Northumberland, has refused to permit his name to be used by the Republican State Convention. He does not want to be State Treasurer and declares that he would not leave his farm for any office at Harrisburg.

MEADVILLE, Pa., June 14.—During the progress of the hurricane that swept over this section on Tuesday evening Charles Smith, residing near Blooming Valley, while in the woods was struck by a falling tree and fatally injured. His physicians pronounced his case hopeless to-night. Smith is about 28 years old and has a wife and 1 child.

DETROIT, Mich., June 13.—Nattie Lynch, 8 years of age, encountered a tramp while going on an errand at Sbeoygan last evening, by whom she was outraged and otherwise terribly injured, having been stabbed in the left lung. She was not discovered until this morning, when she was in a dying condition. A large body of citizens are scouring the country in pursuit of the perpetrator of the crime. On the 14th a man named Warner was caught and hung by an angry crowd of 500 men, for the outrage over the girl, he declared that he had not committed the crime, but the girl said that he was the man.

J. F. Ellington, of Palmetto, is one of Georgia's successful fruit raisers. He has about one thousand trees. Mr. Ellington destroys the worms, which he does by drawing up the peach orchards, in a novel and interesting way, and one that will be of great interest to all fruit growers. All over his orchard are old gourds, boxes, cans, etc. placed on stumps, fences and trees. These are the homes of the worm-destroyers and they are the little bluebirds, which are so numerous in our State. For 5 years he has been getting and raising these little birds and to-day he has about 500. He prizes them so highly that he will prosecute any one killing one of his pets. They do their work so effectively that he is troubled very little with worms.

A limped about for years with a cane and could not bend down without excruciating pain. Parker's Gargar Tonic effected an astonishing cure and keeps him well. It is infallible. M. Guitoye, Binghamton, N. Y.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

rotary motion, accompanied by a heavy rain. It struck the western portion of the city, wrecked a number of dwellings, then passed to the heart of the city, wrecking a number of business houses, blowing down the Northwestern Railway bridge, scattering the machinery room of the Rock River Paper Mills and killing Edward Hall, one of the hands. The loss will be heavy, as the goods in the injured buildings are damaged by water.

Millions of 17 year locusts have appeared at Greensburg and in other parts of Westmoreland county. There will be 16 tunnels on the Harrisburg and Western R. R. between Pittsburg and the Cumberland Valley.

St. John, N. B. June 14.—A young boy named Beldin was killed and eaten by a bear at Amagansic, Kings county, yesterday, while picking asparagus in the woods.

A sneak thief stole a clock in a Montreal store the other day, and concealing it under his coat, started for the door. It happened to be an alarm clock, and the machine being started it raised such a din that he quickly dropped it but did not escape arrest.

Charles French, of Indiana, wished that he might be struck dead if he was lying, and he suddenly keeled over. He was lying like a tanker, but what ailed him was getting a gold piece stuck fast in his throat.

A father and son eloped from Elton, Iowa, with two girls of the neighborhood. The deserted wives chased the party to Council Bluffs, pulled the hair and scratched the faces of the girls, and carried the men back home.

It is rumored that the P. R. R. company are considering the feasibility of erecting electric light poles over the entire track from Pittsburg to Philadelphia, and do away with the necessity for headlights on their locomotives.

Horace G. Childs, son of S. Powell Childs, of Plymouth, Montgomery county, was struck by lightning and instantly killed on Wednesday night.

At a church fair at White House, Cumberland county, Saturday evening a week, a general fight took place and several men were badly hurt. The quarrelsome persons were driven away with clubs and the festival ended successfully.

Colonel David Taggart, of Northumberland, has refused to permit his name to be used by the Republican State Convention. He does not want to be State Treasurer and declares that he would not leave his farm for any office at Harrisburg.

MEADVILLE, Pa., June 14.—During the progress of the hurricane that swept over this section on Tuesday evening Charles Smith, residing near Blooming Valley, while in the woods was struck by a falling tree and fatally injured. His physicians pronounced his case hopeless to-night. Smith is about 28 years old and has a wife and 1 child.

DETROIT, Mich., June 13.—Nattie Lynch, 8 years of age, encountered a tramp while going on an errand at Sbeoygan last evening, by whom she was outraged and otherwise terribly injured, having been stabbed in the left lung. She was not discovered until this morning, when she was in a dying condition. A large body of citizens are scouring the country in pursuit of the perpetrator of the crime. On the 14th a man named Warner was caught and hung by an angry crowd of 500 men, for the outrage over the girl, he declared that he had not committed the crime, but the girl said that he was the man.

J. F. Ellington, of Palmetto, is one of Georgia's successful fruit raisers. He has about one thousand trees. Mr. Ellington destroys the worms, which he does by drawing up the peach orchards, in a novel and interesting way, and one that will be of great interest to all fruit growers. All over his orchard are old gourds, boxes, cans, etc. placed on stumps, fences and trees. These are the homes of the worm-destroyers and they are the little bluebirds, which are so numerous in our State. For 5 years he has been getting and raising these little birds and to-day he has about 500. He prizes them so highly that he will prosecute any one killing one of his pets. They do their work so effectively that he is troubled very little with worms.

A limped about for years with a cane and could not bend down without excruciating pain. Parker's Gargar Tonic effected an astonishing cure and keeps him well. It is infallible. M. Guitoye, Binghamton, N. Y.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

Administratrix's Notice. ETTERS testamentary of the estate of J. W. H. Lukens, late of Walker township, Juniata county, Pa., deceased, having been granted in due form of law to the undersigned, residing in said township. All persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. M. A. LUKENS, Administratrix. June 20, 1888.

rotary motion, accompanied by a heavy rain. It struck the western portion of the city, wrecked a number of dwellings, then passed to the heart of the city, wrecking a number of business houses, blowing down the Northwestern Railway bridge, scattering the machinery room of the Rock River Paper Mills and killing Edward Hall, one of the hands. The loss will be heavy, as the goods in the injured buildings are damaged by water.

Millions of 17 year locusts have appeared at Greensburg and in other parts of Westmoreland county. There will be 16 tunnels on the Harrisburg and Western R. R. between Pittsburg and the Cumberland Valley.

St. John, N. B. June 14.—A young boy named Beldin was killed and eaten by a bear at Amagansic, Kings county, yesterday, while picking asparagus in the woods.

A sneak thief stole a clock in a Montreal store the other day, and concealing it under his coat, started for the door. It happened to be an alarm clock, and the machine being started it raised such a din that he quickly dropped it but did not escape arrest.

Charles French, of Indiana, wished that he might be struck dead if he was lying, and he suddenly keeled over. He was lying like a tanker, but what ailed him was getting a gold piece stuck fast in his throat.

A father and son eloped from Elton, Iowa, with two girls of the neighborhood. The deserted wives chased the party to Council Bluffs, pulled the hair and scratched the faces of the girls, and carried the men back home.

It is rumored that the P. R. R. company are considering the feasibility of erecting electric light poles over the entire track from Pittsburg to Philadelphia, and do away with the necessity for headlights on their locomotives.

Horace G. Childs, son of S. Powell Childs, of Plymouth, Montgomery county, was struck by lightning and instantly killed on Wednesday night.

At a church fair at White House, Cumberland county, Saturday evening a week, a general fight took place and several men were badly hurt. The quarrelsome persons were driven away with clubs and the festival ended successfully.

Colonel David Taggart, of Northumberland, has refused to permit his name to be used by the Republican State Convention. He does not want to be State Treasurer and declares that he would not leave his farm for any office at Harrisburg.