MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 27, 1883.

viere, he agreed.

muscle contracted.

tiny decide." Savalle inclined his head, and said, as the representative of Ri-

B. F. SCHWEIER,

NO. 26.

FORWARD.

ner, waiting for darkness with ser-rowful, drooping eyes, Linger not in the valley be climb the eastern mountains and welcome which, in the summer heats had run pear is the past; its treasures we hold in place a strong railing.

our hearts for aye; Wee to the hand that would scatter one wreath of its garnered flowers

Yesterday's ghostly hours! Mark how the summers hasten through scaning fields of June lanes of the vintage and splendors of life I lavish," runs nature

Thonk how cager the earth is and every

Forward they roll together those glorious

The loy of the boundless future God himself is thine!

THE DOCTOR'S PALL

"Oh dear!" syllabled a silvery voice. with soft emphasis, "I wish something

It was dull at the Tamaracks, the reat house and wide acres of grassland belonging to Phobe's grandfather, old Thrifty Jinny would set the house in after by muc o'clock, and retire to her sedreson adjoining the kitchen to braid sings, after which there would be no ound on the premises for hours. The mid-day lunch would be eaten as n a dream, supper appear by enchant-met days at the Tamaracks. The squire was old, and did not like choise, and old Jinny was used to his dustines that the rust of this life was ating into her very soul She had come from New York an or-She had come from New York an or-plant two years before, and because her truly, but so it was that this young randfather graciously gave her a home. and currently sought to adapt herself to Yet but for the garden she would overing shrubbery, and vines of rose, said. coalline, and trumpet-flower.

The bods she could do as she chose with, so the squire said. So she had bardered them with pinks, and set them full of verbenas and ge- she thought would assist her to keep an inch or two.

in order, and then sat down fully in it until she was almost crazy. and believed she could hear the trees growing in the stillness.

She read the entire volume of Watts' hymns, and wrote letters to all her old

Then it seemed as if something must Expect, or she would commit some des-Parity little Phebe! she looked as toriorn as she felt, sitting in a cottlet attachair, her siender, slippered feet on quaint, round fiscastool, her piquaint south irreped at the corners.

And the weather was bad snough to days, a fortnight of them, with not a sleep, and involuntarily, with a thought No wonder our little mand was nerve- the pale brow.

ine and sail. But while pretty Phobe sat advocping of from the west, and a resident wind bremples.

orrowed no trouble or fear, and finally behald her. lowing again, seemed trying to shake woke with a start.

She sprang to her feet, and well she studies, and as trees cannot mature in was beand the transpot heavy lock and as the young girl started up in surprise Iwa men entered, and had a lifeton

Searching had Impresed with a ten-

The two laborers who had borne urden stepped back silently. Spiny Rang's field homes, though white Inviscal, was sad enough "He's young, park he?" who se of the men, "but I green be for fast environ-Thele, in her involuntary tenwer intening to ber grandfather beforestep upon the stairs.

Wise you here, child? Blds and

There while in him yet. Piete, send Dick like wildige

So the old man, who had been a very mert man in his day, set the gervan at work upon the stranger-But in vain they essayed to be life to that motion'ess form. The doctor came and shook his head. All was over, he said. Dr. Heary hadametal, advanced of a neighboring town, had too surely but for several days could not stand met his death by his horse, terrified at when placed upon his feet. aning the the lightning, precipitating his carriage over a bank into the bed of the river,

A dangerous spot, against which the time, conquered the weakness which villagers took the late precaution to they declared paralysis.

But this availed little to the silent man, lying, without comment or comough blessing and honor will come plaint, in the best chamber at the Tamaracks

Phebe trembled like a leaf all day, side by side, seem to draw all eyes. nor could she be induced to touch a mouthful of food,

"Lor', child," said old Jinny, "don't "Death must come to all of us, an'

very likely the young gentleman was "He has a very noble-lookin' counte-

"Heaven help his mother, if he has me," finished Jinny, with a sigh, for she had lost her only son, and she a widow, not many years before.

Jinny hung up the broom and turned her sleeves down over her hard-worked

"Now the question is, who is going to sit up to-night, for his folks can't be got here till morning. Dick's gone over to Lowbridge to

"The bands are all tuckered out with the extra work, this powerful hot weather, your grandfather's done-up with eighty years old-an' I'm too old to

"There's nobody but you, an' you

"I will sit up, Jinny. "I am not afraid." "Not afraid."

No, she was not. averse to attempting it.

where Doctor Richmond lay, and indeed there was nothing that was aught out prepossessing in that quiet face, It seemed to eighteen-year-old Phebe beard the men whisper among them-"He never knew what hurt hun," she selves, as some one remarked the compostere of the dead man's countenance,

All the doors were opened upon that bor on account of the heat, and "that The garden was beautiful with its Phebe might not feel lonely," as Jinny

The chamber was large and cool, with ights and flowers. The scent of the pinks and lavender The awake, if at last she felt inclined to the last degree of perfection, and the August days began to seem internanable to Phote.

Note that the short were done, the gerathings. Not having struck us, I mainthings. Not having struck us, I mainthe short were done, the gerathings. Not having struck us, I mainthe short were done, the gerathings. Not having struck us, I mainthe short were done, the gerathings. Not having struck us, I mainthe short world know that he world know that he would not read very wen, for she that he book down.

At the opposite side of the chamber the doad man lay upon the beat.

The world with the world know that he world know that h

non of the profile,

At twelve o'clock her grandfather seeling well, and returned to his post, marked for his varacity.

One-two: How slowly the hours went.

Her head continued to ache. She went to the basin, bathed her temples in cold water, and began to fell the heaviness of sleep oppress her. She stopped at last at the bedside, and bending a moment over the still be to blame for ball of it-brazen bot face, wondered at death so like happy

No icy touch shocked her.

"The heat of the weather prevented he big yellow armebate, there was a that uncadful chall, I suppose," said century be as badly off for timber a unipointly, and the lightning's "fremations and as Phelo rested her head practical advances in forest science, one skeins" grew broader, until its against its finded embroidery and turned. In foresty the Germans are far in Phebe tell usleep. After a long, shout hour or more she

"I am only better." friglikenest. Photor Richitosol's.
Photo was not frightened, but after twenty years at least all forest planta-manural slowly approached the bed, tions, "What—how do—do you want any-With a bearing heart she brought it. ed, after an urstant's hesitation, as it had I could not speak or move. How dreading involuntarily. "It was not at all dreadful. I knew when you came here with onr flowers. "I could snow the peaks.

Rector Richmond drank it.

"I have known everything," be said.

gave her permission to call some one.

It was growing marning.

It was growing marning.

We have agreed that each shall go to bed with was in a strange state—could talk go, who will campage him this season. swallow two of the pills, and let Des-yer wallet."

twenty years of age, resident physician | well, and his mind was perfectly clear,

But he recovered, in spite of their His will, with the help of a little Doctors came from far and near.

A year later. A cheerful company in the yellow The contrast of two figures-a fair and dark one-both handsome, which

The room full of the scent of orange The white-haired clergyman's car riage at the gate.

The reader will guess what happened But I may do myself the pleasure of telling him—the happy marriage of Doctor Henry Richmond and sweet Phebe Rane, or as he fondly calls her, his "precious little guardian angel." Handling Huge Redwood Trees.

Menteur and niyself were walking tranquilly up a wooden ravine in California when a woodman on the hillside. some distance above us, took his pipe out of his mouth, and tranquilly remarked

It is one of my rules in life never to the excitement—an' well he may be at of the saw saddenly ceased, and a long, the green cloth of this then famous es mournful cry rang through the woods, tablishment, It was the warning note of the wood-

> The top of a tall tree some distance There was an awful, prolonged groansuch a groan as might come from the There was a roar as of thunder tar. when it struck the ground; the earth trembled for rods around, as if an earthquake shock were upon us; a cloud of dust rose up, and when it cleared away the impassive woodmen were stripping the fallen giant of his limbs, Inasmuch as the tree fell upon th exact spot we had occupied a moment before we understood and appreciated girl sat up all night in the death-chamthe remark of the laconic woodman.

We watched the woodmen prepare an e log, about twelve feet in diathen hitched to it twenty oxen-ten animals, swore at them in a pleasant and persuasive voice, and they started. mammoth log groaned slightly and rapid somersults.

Ping! Whir-r-r-r! The iron ring had snapped in twain.

she went, filled the glass, turned his ably ends it by saying that each ox lit holes and even down the chimney.

not pillow, for he complained of not on his feet. But then Menteur is not least so it had been the case at Mine, beeling well, and returned to his post. marked for his variety.

No other country has so large a per centage of its cultivable surface spreaout into broad, treeless plains as this Throughout our extensive prairie of gions wood for fuel, for fencing, and for building purposes is at once expen sive and difficult to be obtained; wherea sleep, and involuntarily, with a thought in our forest wilds, the timb-r resource she hardly remixed, pur her hand upon of the country are most recklessly wasted. At our present rate of care less use and wanton destruction we shall at an early period in the nexany of the European countries are a "What soft, beautiful hair about his present. Even now our Norther States obtain a large portion of their "I hope I shall look like that when I lumber from Canada, and the increase in price since the war indicates clearly Physic lifted betself with a brighter And then she went away with a sigh, enough that we should adopt a new these intermental with a register took, as the drops began to patter flown and sat down wearity again by the limiter holies, as the drops began to patter flown and sat down wearity again by the immer policy. To "woodman, spare like drops began to patter flown with a like table, where the book and flowers the tree," we should add, "farmer, plant the tree," and between sparing post will, while the thorness rolled to the clear was a quaint, high-backed and planting we should soon make game fixed the reliew setting-room painfixed from time to take.

But Phelic was not nervous or timed.

it as an important branch of their rural economy.
It is clear that forest culture should a firthe nonthing of Bainkfridges from sine spring to be to be a similar stand petrified, with her gaze the form and a day or year, that we should take time there should not be from upon the bod, for the face upon the to longer, but the garden, but a book of by sine points was in profile to longer, but the wood demands of the future. This can be a longer of the first turned full upon her, with wide, brown in the West, and forests are springing their blue. "My little guastian angel, don't be up where they never before were known The United States has given large "I am only better."

A voice as gentle as the face was ests on the public lands, and the States should now exempt from taxation for

The telegrapher announcement made that the famous trotting stalling, Black Cloud, had been sold by the estate of the late Andrew Cutter, of Parma, Moh., to M. V. Wagner, Esq., Mayor of Marshall, Mich., has been wonfied and proven to be correct. Black Cloud is a marvel of beenty and admiration, and is perhaps the bandsomest and most magnificent looking horse that ever trotted upon the American turf. The noble animal passes into most excellent hands. The purchaser, Mayor

In 1841, outside of New Orleans there was, perhaps, no more delightful place of resort than at the Bayou Bridge. It was par excellence the great aburban attraction at that time, and between boating parties on the waters of the bayou and card reunions over sung gentlemen enjoyed the quiet hosmost of their afternoons were spent in he dimly-lighted saloon of the old gamester, at whose shrine all the card-wing element of the city paid homage, the "chips" as eager players dallied with them, was perhaps the loudest sound to be heard there, and even that came to the ear in a subdued way. On the floor a bright covering of matting hushed the footsteps, while at the win-"Guess you fellers jest as well go dows dark yellow curtains let in only just enough light for the illumination of the gaming tables. The place was The sound of chopping and the swish and negroes have changed hands over lowed it.

Riviere was a dashing fellow of 22, with a large estate in the parish of St. head of us began to tremble slightly. Union Bank. He had passed success- minute passed. Two minutes passed. fully through the Ecole Polytechnique Three, Four, Five. "Nowgentlemen, in France, had taken a bout in Algeria said the doctor in solemn tones, "it is hairy breast of the imprisoned giant be- and returned to Louisiana as accomptime to make the final drawing. Barleduc's establishment was always maining one is for you. You will arrived, the signal for a cordial greeting from please swallow them together."

all who might be present. On this particular June afternoon Riviere, with the activity of a gymnast, caped from his buggy in front of a saloon, and throwing the reins to the negro servant, told him to drive the horse into the shade of the pecan trees in the yard. Switching a delicate, ivory-headed cane with a nervous, jerky motion, he crossed the broad gallery, They drove in the staple, and and unannounced entered the gambling room. Most of players were belated travelers even to this day say The goad-bearer punched his wrapped in attention to their game, but they hear on the shell road, near the one there was who turned his head at the entrance of the last comer. This was Delagrave. He felt that a crisis was peculiarly refreshing to Phebe, and turned reluctantly, and moved forward was at hand, but even with this knowledge he did not strive to clude its coming. That morning he had been accepted as the betrothed lover of Mmc. Its two fragments flew two different Celestin, one of the most beautiful and the great non-search, Sector, came Its two fragments flew two different constants and the leases are models of the station upon the ways—one passing between the interest—wealthy widows of the lower coast, and the leases are models of the largest throat sort—iron-clad and over some in New Orleans and for the largest throat sort—iron-clad and was one passing between the interest, who is all to sew, and wherein she had struck us we would have lost all interest in logs are other mundame of fine shirts.

But the shirts were done, the gera
But the shirts was one passing between the interest
But the shirts was one passing between the interest
But the shirts was one to the past

But the shirts was one to the past

But the shirts was one to the past

But the shirts was one to said down at least of Menteur and myself. If it fivere, who had been for the past

But the shirts was one to said to sew of the past

But the shirts was one can be said to sew of the past

But the shirts was one to said the said to sew of the past

But the shirts was one to said the said to sew of the past

But the shirts was one to said the said to sew of the past

But the shirts was one to said the said to sew of the past

But the shirts was one to said the said to sew of the past

But the shirts was one to said the said to sew of the past

But the shirts was one to said the said to sew of the pas pearance, nor was he shronded in the of the immense tension. of the immense tension.

They were not out of sight, but they matters are hard to arrange exactly as tottering, strolls along Canal street of His face, with its calmly-closed eyes, were the most miscellaneous, most con- one would wish. One finds much diffi- warm afternoons, assisted by a negro was turned a little towards the wall, fused and most disgusted exen I ever cuity in closing all avenues of approach, but Phebe could mark the pale perfect saw in my life. They were engaged in furning twenty distinct, complicated photographer in his dark room finds so want; but he shows evidence of great much difficulty in keeping out. It mental anguish. The sight of a pill-sicals in under doors, through nail box makes him shudder, and the taste > made the conquest under the very eyes of the enemy and the widow had that day so informed the unsuccessful sui-Riviere was very pale as he appreached the group of men around the a ghastly corpse than fiving body, but

As he neared Delagrave, the latter turned to confront him, when Riviere, with a voice that seemed to come from behind the door of a tomb, said, "Delagrave, we cannot live on this globe ogether; it is not large enough. Delagrave, quietly puffing his eigarette, in a cold and impressive tone rebe better if you were dead." Riviere's face flushed, and reaching forward land the back of his hand gently igainst Delagrave's cheek. The game was at once interrupted. The slap, which was so light it did not even crim on the young man's cheeks, was enough to call for blood; and leaving the house he sought an intimate friend; to him opened his heart. It must be a battle a l'entennor. Such was the en-mity between himself and Riviere, only life could wipe it out. The old doctor, who had grown up, it might be said on the field, shugged his shoul acquiesced, and said; "Very well, then it shall be to the death."

I've people knew what sort of a party t was driving down the shell road bordering Bayou'St. John. Two carringes stopped just on the bridge leading to the island formed there by the bifurcation of the bayon and four gentlecharacter here 40 years ago, accompan-ied Riviere, and old Dr. Rocquet was with Delagrave. The seconds had met reviously and arranged everything. Delagrave, as he stepped from the carrage, looked furrively around for the uses of pistois, but, seeing none, he was a little disconcerted. After walk-ing about 100 yards from the carriages, he party stopped and the doctor mo-anted them to approach closer. When they had done so, he called them by name and said: "Gentlemen, we have The solid size of the plants and formed I was gained in a listile.

It was an ada man of great energy as admirer and former of the man and a man of great energy as admirer and former of good horses, but is also a most excellent to the differences between you but the wastern you he stored in the state of one. The world is so formed the cut of one. The world is so formed the wastern you had there is no solution.

"Say, Sarah, haven't we been of first he wastern you had there is no solution to the difference between you but the wastern you had then you to sail they had the wastern you had then they had the wastern you had the wastern you had the wastern you had the present you had they wastern you had the wastern you had the present you had they wastern you had the wastern you had they will be wastern you had they will be wastern you had they wastern you had they wastern you had they wastern you had they waste aight, and both M. Savalle and myself

The two men were pale, almost William Winters, who resides in Perry bloodless, but not a nerve trembled or township, Ohio, was directed by his father to go out into a field on a farm bordering on Big Salt Creek and dig "Gentlemen," said the doctor, "we will toss for the first pill." Savalle laurels, desiring to abolish the growth cried out, "tails," as the glittering gold piece roughly of this shrub. The young man armed himself with a double-barreled shot-gun saloon out there, the jeunesse doree of New Orleans of that day, managed quite comfortably to while away many berty uppermost, "M. Delagrave you tion of poisonous reptiles and wild and leisure moment. Possibly no two have the first choice," said the doctor. vicious animals. The young man set young gentlemen enjoyed the quiet hos-pitality of Barlesine more than Alphonse Riviere and Henri Delagrave; in fact

Reposing in the little box the four the hill and, stepping off a distance of the hill and, stepping off a distance of about sixty feet, began to dig up the matter is our deadly foe, since it onick. not develop the slightest difference, laurels. Presently his attention was Nature alone through the physiological alembic of the human stomach can tell of their properties. In one there rests the pall of their properties. In one there rests There was a quiet air about the place the pall of eternity, the struggle for head of a monstrous beast or reptile, he that seemed almost religious, and even breath, the failing of sight, the pano-could not tell which, looming up above the parchment faced old man, who metric the parch rama of years rushing in an instant the bushes. It at once started towards hanically handled the little ivory ball through the mind, the silence and peace him with its mouth open until the jaws in roulette, called out the numbers in a repressed voice as if he feared to disturb the quiet. The faint "click" of the close noisome atmosphere of the land ivery teeth two inches long. The the close noisome atmosphere of the land ivery teeth two inches long. The grave. All these were contained in beast or serpent, or whatever it was, one of these little pellets. Delagrave, whistled and roared in a frightful manhaving won the first choice, stepped ner, and came planging on towards him forward and took a pill. With a calm- with green, glaring eyeballs protruding ness which was frigid he placed it on from a massive head at least twelve his tongue and with a cup of claret, inches broad, and a mouth sufficiently on their tongues and took a draught of One second passed, and there was no head shaped like a shark. The neigh-nothing is better established. movement. Two seconds, and neither borhood is much alarmed about the stirred. Then-"Good God!" exclaimed Presence of this strange production of Reviere, his eyes starting from their hature, and will spare no means to cap- be regarded as automatic. They will sockets. He turned half around to the ture it. left, raised his hands above his head and shrieked a long, wild shriek that He fell prone to the earth, and, save a nervous contraction of the muscles of the face, there was no movement. Delagrave took him by the hand as

Delagrave, weighed down with the

At of claret will give him convulsions. Sarah, Sarah Jones.

mental anguish. The sight of a pill-rivals as Riviere was, Delagrave had Northern man. He was digging worms and garments can be seen and the exalongside the fence and getting ready o go fishing, and his wife sat on the back steps smoking a corncob pipe and parlor, no larger than the average kicking with her bare feet at the chick- l'Iniadelphia bed room, back of which ens whenever they came too near. The is a fair bed room; then a room too table. What with the yellow light man had black patches on the knees of small to be of any use; then a tolerable shining through the curtains and his gray pants, a leather belt in place of bed room, with permanent washstand; bloodless appearance, he seemed rather suspenders, and he chewest plug tothere was motion and voice in him, with a vigor which would have earned little kitchen and bath room, etc.

she wasn't proud nor stuck up, but nary one of them has returned the call. They know we are from the North, you see, and they cut us on that account. I tell you, the Northern family has to saffer down here. They are entirely ostricheized from society. Sarah, Sarah Jane,"

Sarah came around to our side of the house in answer to his call. I remember that I judged she had on just the the room, as the other heatasts! dugle garment of a dress, and tott the bare feet went spat I spat I spat I and I pear and and " further judged that they hadn't been "And what, sir?"

A few days ago a young man named handed him by the doctor, washed it large almost to swallow his whole body. Winters became frightened and ran for ask useless questions. I went back, the resort of a large number of gentle-doctor. Riviere extended his hand and fired one barrel into the monster, And in a few moments I found out why.

And in a few moments I found out why.

The resort of a large number of gentle-doctor. Riviere extended his hand and which turned its direction. He watched took a pill. Like his opponent he swall-which turned its direction. its half serpentine, half leaping move-The two men stood looking one ano-ments for a few moments. Then it ran ther in the face. There was not a qui-ver to the eyelid, not a twitch to a and Winters hurried home and informed take in air, at the average winter temmuscle. Each was thinking of himself not only his own family but a number perature of 28 deg., racse it to 60 deg. James, and a round account in the old as well as watching his adversary. One of neighbors, of the strange, alarming sight he had seen, and a posse of them, armed with axe and gun, went to th scene. They determined to cut the tree That she should ever sleep again neath Mount Ætha. Then came a lished and companionable a gentleman as one could wish to chat with. He were ready for the cast to die. Savalle guard, with their guns leveled on the admit that it is expensive, but worth the money it costs. If Benjamin trunk snapped. The tall monster slow-ity and magestically moved toward the ity and magestically moved toward the It would be torture to lie, painfully wide awake, upon her pillow, and she did not need rest. There was a terrible crash as it manner and digmited in his smote the branches from its fellow trees as a warm favorite where the box, leaving only one. "Now," it had been felled disclosed the fact that some time and digmited in his smote the branches from its fellow trees. It is only a century the ment, he was a warm favorite where the box, leaving only one. "Now," it had been felled disclosed the fact that some time is a penny earned, he was also equally the box, leaving only one. "Now," it had been felled disclosed the fact that some time is a penny earned, he was a warm favorite where the box, leaving only one. "Now," it had been felled disclosed the fact that some time is a penny earned, he was a warm favorite where the box, leaving only one. "Now," it had been felled disclosed the fact that some time is a penny earned, he was a some time in the box, leaving only one. "Now," it had been felled disclosed the fact that some time is a penny earned, he was a warm favorite where the box, leaving only one. "Now," it had been felled disclosed the fact that some time is a penny earned, he was a warm favorite where the box, leaving only one. "Now," it had been felled disclosed the fact that some time is a penny earned, he was a warm favorite where the box, leaving only one. "Now," it had been felled disclosed the fact that some time is a penny earned, he was a warm favorite where the box, leaving only one. "Now," it had been felled disclosed the fact that some time is a penny earned, he was a warm favorite where the box is a penny earned, he was a warm favorite where the box is a penny earned, he was a warm favorite where the box is a penny earned, he was a warm favorite where the box is a penny earned, he was a warm favorite where the box is a penny earned, he was a warm favorite where the box is a penny earned to be a

Mr. Winters says that the beast or The two men raised their hands at reptile he saw was from 8 to 12 feet the same time and deposited the pills long, with a body as large as a telegraph four and putric air, filled with decourbrown body that was hairless, and a

The Flat as it is.

In the flat houses of New York, th wners light the halls and carpet them and the stairs, generally keeping the buildings in good condition and every thing on their part in proper order Delagrave took him by the hand as he lay on the damp grass, and said, in a tender volce: "I regret it, but it was to be."

employing janitors for that purpose. But they issue very strict rules re-specting the conduct of the tenants been in the habit of londing it over a whole large house, hanging his shirt or if he desired, and keeping as man logs and cats as he pleased. Washing-day gives to flat-houses highly interesting appearance. Imagine a square with flat-houses all around i nd an open space in the centre, wit tall poles set in the ground, with pully ropes extending from them to the back windows of every one of the five or six stories in the numerous buildings and these ropes bearing the linen of all these various households, or flatholds hibition is as funny as it is extensive.

The $50 flat has a small hall room, o bacco and spairted the juice around small, and by the side of the latter the him two dollars a day in any other lo- Adjoining the latter is a dumb-waiter cality. There was only one room to communicating with that portion of the house, and the furniture would the basement which is common ground the surface of our testes, which is the mean to settle whether a called and train which supplies, packages, and the surface of our testes, which is the mean to settle whether a called and train which supplies, packages, and the surface of our testes, which is the have been no load at all for a skeleton and trom which supplies, packages etc., are elevated to the particular flat "Yes, I'm from the North-from to which they belong. In these flats rises to the top, carrying the carbonic "Yes, I'm from the North-from to winch they bessig, in wonderful acid gas, and organic matter, also his the shade for a talk, "and I made a skill and closets, drawers, etc., are air sponistly the tamp or gas than is great mistake in moving down here." abundant, but room is sadily wanting, heatest, and therefore rises. Let out owing to the narrowness of the build ed to move."

"And how do you like the South?" the common hallway. From the

I presume you could be trusted "Oli, I knew I could."

"Well, I have a job for year. Our potter at the Sixth National Bank has left us and we must fill his place. The only thing—that—is—you see—"The you want a recommend?" asked the man, as the other heatasted.

"Oh, me way no!" You see, we have uttons were missing from that. Her been paying the other man $4,000 per placed Black Cloud in the hands of that process and, the other times are discussed in the hands of that process and, the other times are discussed in the hands of that process and, the other times are discussed in the hands of that process and, the other times are discussed in the hands of that process and, the other times are discussed in the hands of that process and, the other times are discussed in the hands of that process and, the other times are discussed in the hands of that process and, the other times are discussed in the hands of that process and, the other times are discussed in the hands of that process and, the other times are discussed in the hands of that process and times are discussed in the hands of that process and times are discussed in the hands of that process and times are discussed in the hands of that process and times are discussed in the hands of that process and times are discussed in the hands of that process and times are discussed in the hands of that process and times are discussed in the hands of that process and times are discussed in the hands of that process and times are discussed in the hands of the process and times are discussed in the hands of that process are discussed in the hands of the process and times are discussed in the hands of the process are discussed in the in Tennessee, with 150 churches.

"What power have we to ward off lisease from our own homes? There ing a bicycle tour of England, are certain dangers to which we are exposed, which a prudent head of a family Rogues' Gallery in 1882. may constantly bear in mind. One of these, and by far the most important, French Canadians at present in the is from insufficient ventilation. Every United States. man, woman and child is entitled to their full ration of fresh air-to that amount which will both dilute and paickly remove all which has been polled by respiration and combustion and by the mixture of dearlorganic parmatter is our deadly foe, since it quick- De Long, will soon visit Europe for the ly undergoes decomposition. This we benefit of her health. may perceive, when, coming from the outer air, with our sense of smell unblunted, we enter a small bed-room, which has been closed and occupied during the night. But this is not all the mischief which it does, Our houses are strewn with dead organic matter, in invisible particles, and upon such particles the action of decomposition is ead ly set up by the effete matter disharged from our bodies; as fermentaion is excited by the yeast plant, and the same process. "Fresh air is the great natural disin ectant, antiseptic and purifier, and not be compared for a moment with any artificial contrivance. There is plenty "And now, M. Riviere," said the his gun, upon reaching which he turned doctor. Riviere extended his hand and fired one barrel into the monster, fact as we may, there is no getting over sive, since during seven months of the year it must be artificially warmed. To and discharge it again from our houses, was 14. even once in an hour, is a process which annot be accomplished without paying for it roundly. Yet on no other con-

-The Rev. Robert Collyer is to dever the oration before the literary sociesince oxygen was discovered. Fifth years ago the physiology of respiration was not understood: It had legs about 4 inches long, a posing organic material, in causing dis ase, is a very recent discovery; yet 000,000 acres in all. very certain that none of the modes of beating and ventilating now muse, can not run of themselves, for six conse--A thoughtless Madingan physician cutive months, from November to May. and they need the constant care of an some of the stuff man his wantpape, intelligent person. The head of a fame where it choked him to dearly

3, who takes this responsibility moon useif, will be repaid for his time and outbie, in the health of his housebook. and warn hotel-keepers not to self them We cannot leave this all-important liquor. The plan works well. eject of ventilation, without referring the mensibility to four air which an article of consider was a simple in rocceds from its habitual inhalation, of seven bales from Charleston in 1 per-Pure air is admitted by ail intelligent in 1880-81 the crop was orlant, even an essential trong to have in the house. Yet we are sure in Jame of draw police was invented some very often happens that those who so where about 1846 or 1847, by Mr. Kirk eciate their convictions, constantly feed their lungs upon air toaded with impurity, and are quite unconscious of —Women childrens in Europe after the A house whose entry smells musty, years of marriage, after have families in is dangerous. Avont it; don't live in Australia. phere goes all over the house, in spile of every effort to prevent it. To get ral of this possonous art, and to supply factories. ts place with air which is in for respo ration in all weather, in our variable mmate, and to do this without offen-

In the suburbs of Natchez I found a flats all of this display of family linen insuse is under the control of one perapartment-house, where the halfs are used by all sorts or people, the case is a matter is very sample, even in the alsence of all patent contrivances.

the matter of ventuation is rendered ex-ceedingly simple. First, not air rises because it is expanded, and therefore lighter than cold air. Second, the "How came you to move?"

"How came you to move?"

"Mell, some of the folks back there got down on me because they missed some long, and it got so had I conclude the some sons is had by walking through them, though nome may so from the parior and the simple one may so from the parior in the kitchen or drining room through one may so from the parior is the mon conclusive and to say that the eight becomes the work and must are. As personning and the walking through the drining room there is no egrees except through other rooms, and in going from the parior does, three fishpoles and a shet; and other fishpoles and a shet; and those soy our wife feet?"

"Clear discouraged. Why I'dl hardly know her to be the same Sarah Jame Risker. She's run right down to a skeleton, and she's got heaps on lar mind."

"Say, we've been here better na very and the first came she greased for the hadies in Natice and and the one of the ladies in Natice and and the one of the ladies in Natice and and the set of the same streams and the set of the same and the set of the same and the set of the set of the set of the same streams and the set of the The hot, but are and the cost, from all probably and one in a number to will find its way in fast sensors with, that homey is a very good sensitive.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Governor Butler's son Paul is mak

Berlin added 437 portraits to its -It is estimated that there are 300,000

-It appears that out of 40,000 known species of plants mankind makes use of only about 300. -Manufacturers of butter tubs state that the oleomargarine chaps buy the best tubs made. -Mrs. De Long, widow of Lientenant

-Contractors have begun work on the new building of the Producers' Oil Exchange in Bradford, Pa. -A silver dime was found in the yolk of an egg recently broken at the Plankinton House, Milwankee.

-French policemen in Paris are paid rewards of from $1 to $5 for making arrests and capturing offenders. -The New Orleans street-car com saties collect about 70,000 fares a day, The population is a little less than 225,--A college secret society, the Delta Kappa, consisting only of women, has been organized at Albion (Mich.,) Col-

 Alabama has 1,919 miles of railroad, the unwelcome truth, that to provide it and the railroads furnish, eleven per in abundance in our climate is expen- cent, of all the taxable property in the State.

> -It is believed that Salvini, who is 52, and intends retiring at 55, is worth $300,000. He has been playing since he -Brevard County, Fla., is the large-t of the 2,559 countries in the United States. It has an area of over 5,000 -Mrs. Charles Butley of Great Barngton, Mass., has given $60,000 for an Episcopal Church at Stockbridge, her ies of Dickinson College at the comencement in June. -About forty-five per cent, of the and of the United States remains ausurveyed to this day, very nearly 1,000,-

-The museum at Reading, England, ntains among us curiosules a bridle formerly used to stop the mouths of scolding women in that bown, laughed wine eating catous, and got -In Westphalia, Geography, the policy

-The first appearance of volton as

-The windows of New Chicago rus aurants show blocks of clear ice with isit, flowers and other articles to the

- The block from which was est the pedestal for the statue of Peter the Great at St. Peter dency weighed about sive and dangerous draughts, or excess 1,500 tons, and yet it was readequested four miles. -Mr. Matthew Arnold has recently said that he drawks wine not because he inds it indispensable, but because it > named of life. " -The Dameh polar-credition for the exploration of the earliest coast of Green and is well on its way toward its dist at least two years. -Miss Phoete Countries are presented Let us bear in mind two mets, and ing citizens of Onnin a struckness most dangerous source of form air is warmer than any room-air, and hence dersey Court recently, during a longer