Juniata Sentinel and Republican.

E. P. SCHWEYER. THE CONSTITUTION—THE UNION—AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS. Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. XXXIII. MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1883. NO. 32.

NEWS IN BRIEF

—Boston is ninety years or upward the oldest permanent.

—Admiral Nicholson's estate proves to be worth $1,000,000.

—There are 1,047 Americans residing in the French capital.

—There are twenty-five newspapers published in Idaho.

—Hanover, the residence, is now living at Jamestown, N. Y.

—Missouri is an immense oil, he has made over $50,000 in mining.

—The street cars run up and down Pennsylvania avenue in Washington.

—There are 60,000 anthracite in the county and twelve locomotives.

—Rockwell's statue of Liberty, for Bedloe's Island, will be complete in November.

—It will cost $25,000 to feed the French Army encampment at Chalons next month.

—Miss Frances Willard, the well-known temperance advocate, has gone to the Sandwich Islands.

—Lieutenant Brown, of Georgia, is to be paid $21,000 a year as president of the Canada-Pacific road.

—There are about 1,500,000 trade dollars in circulation, and over $25,000,000 silver in the Treasury.

—Portland (Oregon), is to have this year 2,000,000 bushels, and railroad connections costing $1,000,000.

—A tornado, measuring eight feet in diameter, struck Cleveland at Santa Monica, California, a few days ago.

—Women, under the laws of the various States, are practically on an equality with men in property and contracts.

—New York State canvass delivered 1,112,041 ballots, 12,196,257 pounds more than the aggregate delivered last year.

—Napoleon in the public schools of Paris the boys who excel, and make records for writing, have a fencing lesson.

—Miss Minnie Hall has gone to Connecticut, Kansas, in company with her brother, who is there raising bottle trees.

—Lieutenant Pritchard, Mayor has just been called, which shows a population of 11,700, an increase of 1,000 in three years.

—Collectors get wages in Maine, and have declared demand for beer in the two cities of 30 or 40 days' wages, keeping open doors.

—Secretary of the American Cotton Planters' Association says agriculture only overshadows it. Southern crops and growing others.

—There are now in the United States seventy-two million people, a gain of twenty-two millions in the past ten years, or twenty-eight per cent.

—Superintendent Brown, of Georgia, in his good $21,000 a year as president of the Canada-Pacific road.

—There are about 1,500,000 trade dollars in circulation, and over $25,000,000 silver in the Treasury.

—Portland (Oregon), is to have this year 2,000,000 bushels, and railroad connections costing $1,000,000.

—A tornado, measuring eight feet in diameter, struck Cleveland at Santa Monica, California, a few days ago.

—Women, under the laws of the various States, are practically on an equality with men in property and contracts.

—New York State canvass delivered 1,112,041 ballots, 12,196,257 pounds more than the aggregate delivered last year.

—Napoleon in the public schools of Paris the boys who excel, and make records for writing, have a fencing lesson.

—Miss Minnie Hall has gone to Connecticut, Kansas, in company with her brother, who is there raising bottle trees.

—Lieutenant Pritchard, Mayor has just been called, which shows a population of 11,700, an increase of 1,000 in three years.

—Collectors get wages in Maine, and have declared demand for beer in the two cities of 30 or 40 days' wages, keeping open doors.

—Secretary of the American Cotton Planters' Association says agriculture only overshadows it. Southern crops and growing others.

—There are now in the United States seventy-two million people, a gain of twenty-two millions in the past ten years, or twenty-eight per cent.

—Superintendent Brown, of Georgia, in his good $21,000 a year as president of the Canada-Pacific road.

—There are about 1,500,000 trade dollars in circulation, and over $25,000,000 silver in the Treasury.

—Portland (Oregon), is to have this year 2,000,000 bushels, and railroad connections costing $1,000,000.

—A tornado, measuring eight feet in diameter, struck Cleveland at Santa Monica, California, a few days ago.

—Women, under the laws of the various States, are practically on an equality with men in property and contracts.

—New York State canvass delivered 1,112,041 ballots, 12,196,257 pounds more than the aggregate delivered last year.

—Napoleon in the public schools of Paris the boys who excel, and make records for writing, have a fencing lesson.

—Miss Minnie Hall has gone to Connecticut, Kansas, in company with her brother, who is there raising bottle trees.

—Lieutenant Pritchard, Mayor has just been called, which shows a population of 11,700, an increase of 1,000 in three years.

—Collectors get wages in Maine, and have declared demand for beer in the two cities of 30 or 40 days' wages, keeping open doors.

—Secretary of the American Cotton Planters' Association says agriculture only overshadows it. Southern crops and growing others.

—There are now in the United States seventy-two million people, a gain of twenty-two millions in the past ten years, or twenty-eight per cent.

—Superintendent Brown, of Georgia, in his good $21,000 a year as president of the Canada-Pacific road.

—There are about 1,500,000 trade dollars in circulation, and over $25,000,000 silver in the Treasury.

—Portland (Oregon), is to have this year 2,000,000 bushels, and railroad connections costing $1,000,000.

—A tornado, measuring eight feet in diameter, struck Cleveland at Santa Monica, California, a few days ago.

—Women, under the laws of the various States, are practically on an equality with men in property and contracts.

—New York State canvass delivered 1,112,041 ballots, 12,196,257 pounds more than the aggregate delivered last year.

—Napoleon in the public schools of Paris the boys who excel, and make records for writing, have a fencing lesson.

—Miss Minnie Hall has gone to Connecticut, Kansas, in company with her brother, who is there raising bottle trees.

—Lieutenant Pritchard, Mayor has just been called, which shows a population of 11,700, an increase of 1,000 in three years.

—Collectors get wages in Maine, and have declared demand for beer in the two cities of 30 or 40 days' wages, keeping open doors.

—Secretary of the American Cotton Planters' Association says agriculture only overshadows it. Southern crops and growing others.

—There are now in the United States seventy-two million people, a gain of twenty-two millions in the past ten years, or twenty-eight per cent.