The Carlisle Her ald relates the aug-8-6t. following shocking Cain and Able fully well preserved at that age, performance as having taken place a few miles northwest of Fewville, in Mifflin twp., two brothers by the name of George and Andrew En-sminger. The two for some time had a fall out with the bar keeper, but and while Andrew was at work in the woods on Monday morning, George came out and renewed the dispute by asking him who gave him ing to the fact that the ground was too wet for earlier sowing. The late sowing made the harvest late, the oats was harvested or cut last week. Inrough it. The banet lodged in the opposite wall. For the offense officer Weimer was sent to look him up. He was found at one of the hotels in town and arrested and George being very angry at this time, at once fell upon him with a heavy iron endgel striking right and left with it, but Andrew succeeded in warding off the blows and finally got the better of George, knocking
