

THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

VOL. XXXVII.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY., PENNA., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1883.

Glimpses of Alaska.

A REVERIE.

Ah me, 'tis not so long ago Since first I fondly hoped, and so All pleasures grew, and, with each throng, Came strains of summer's sweetest song, And darkness fell, scarce seen by me, And, though unknown, I strove to be So wise and good that men might say : "Around his brow dwells constant day."

But now I daily older grow, And sadder, too, they tell me, so I watch the shadows 'mong the trees. And hear the sindows mong the trees, And hear the sigh in evening's breeze; And weep that wisdom is far off, And grieve that men al goodness scoff, And think, perhaps, the night may be Less dark than is each day to me.

Aud so, in sadness, still I wait, For soon I know, or maybe late For soon I know, or maybe late, The gates will open wide for me, And I shall journey toward the sea, Whose breakers roar in every ear: Whose moaning song I ne'er shall fear, Whose saddest music off has waked The mem'ry of a thirst unslaked.

THE DOCTOR'S SURPRISE.

The gas flared brightly in the drug room in the great city hospital of gone she laid her head on the ledger Dr. Wharton, one of the and sobbed. young physicians in charge, stood by the marble slab putting up a prescrip-tion. Near him lounged idly, Dr. Fra-had loved her since she was a child. zier, his colleague, a dark, moustached She had more courage and energy young fellow, with a hard, intolerant probably, than he, but the life of the cast of countenance, rendered more re- girl in Nixon's shop was almost intolpellant just now by an angry scowl. erable "Don't talk to me, Phil,," he said, tired.

"There is a miserable poor outlook for If Dr. Wharton was moody and des either of us here. The poorest hod- pairing the next day his patients did carrier that walks the streets has a bet- not know it. He had never been more approves of your system, your manner, ter chance for success than you or I, gentle or untiring in his care of them, even though we have M. D. attached They were all poor, for the hospital was to our names. You can brag of your a city charity. But the more heavily profession if you like, but I am sick of his own trouble pressed on him the it. I'll try something else before the more tender to those wretched paupers year's out. he grew.

"I haven't bragged of it," said Dr. He was busied all the morning with Wharton, good humoredly, "I have one old countryman, who had fallen in said nothing. You never gave me a the street from his horse, and been carchance." ried in insensible. Dr. Frazier found "To think of how I've wasted my him beside the old man's cot early in life continued Frazier, without heed- the afternoon. ing him. "Four years at college, two Frazier had been absent nearly all in a doctor's office, two in a Philadel day His face was flushed and his eyes phia medical school. And here I am were burning with excitement. He and here you are, men of twenty-four, glad to have a year's practice in a hos-"There's a chance. "There's a chance. It's something pital for our board, when my brother, big," he whispered excitedly. "Call two years younger, and without an edu- Poor to take your ward this afternoon cation, is making a handsome living and come with me. He's going to take speculating on the Stock Exchange, A mine," great difference, truly." Philip Wharton made no reply, but He's a blunderer," said Wharton, gruffly. "You may if you choose." ground away steadily at the mortar. "Do stop that screak!" said Frazier,

"Come out and have a I'm trying to do you a service. You irritably. smoke said the other day you had saved a "I haven't finished putting up this precouple of hundred dollars." scription."

"You haven't had your supper, world with in September." either.

"No, but I shall finish the prescription first."

"You always stick at a thing until it

keep us from starving, if we should the doctor. This one great struggle of his life had cost him so much, that he "Never mind!" said Susie, laughing, could not understand how the man who though her blue eyes were wet with had gained by it could be so indifferent. "What are years? We are very tears. young, Philip." least. But no matter. "Frazier is going to try something The next week the Superintendent sent for him. "Who is John Sands, "And will you?" doctor?" he asked, as soon as Philip Wharton hesitated, and then that opened the door. determined look came into his face

"A poor old countryman who was which Susie knew so well. "No, I'll stick at it. I never have day." "Poor, indeed! It was Dr. Sands, as given up anything until I did it, and I'll not begin it now! But you, you must help me to keep up heart, Susie," The old man has had all the practice of Bracket and his wife in Maine. They must help me to keep up heart, Susie," and with a long breath he took both her hands in his. "Why, there's no r-ason why we should give up heart," she said, with a taken for one and brought in here, it et's wife found a broken bark cance, which cheerful tone. "Go now, there is Nixon coming. He does not like to see you here."

"No," said Philip, "he is afraid he will lose his clerk. He'll not find an institution." "Well done for Sands!" another that he can grind as much work Wharton.

from on starvation wages," "He has done better than that," said or more to the settlements. Two sons of 'Go! go!'' She pushed him to the door still laughing, but when he was the Superintendent, with a twinkle in the famous Hannah Bradley, previously his eyes.

"Sit down a minute, Whar-The old doctor, it seems, is feelion. ing his age, and wants to take some Susie was an orphan and had ne young man in as partner, to whom he can leave his practice in a year or two, and he has fixed upon-upon-well,

Wharton, he has fixed upon you!" "Me!" and Philip sprang to his feet. "You. Yes, I said you. You have made the old fellow your debtor in erable, and she was very lonely and some way, by a favor, which he says he can never repay. Besides, he says he watched you closely while here, and and, above all, your inflexible devotion to your duty. There is his letter." Philip read it with eager eyes.

"You see he says he wants you to come in September, and to bring a wife with you, if possible. A married man, he says, is always more successful. centric old fellow, I fancy?"

But Philip did not answer. He was buttoning his overcoat with treabling hands. "Excuse me," he said, but there is a friend to whom I must tell the good news," and in a moment more he was on his way to the book-shop and

-Susie! Dr. Wharton is now the principal practitioner in Scholl county, and a happy, successful man. 'I gained wife, tortune, all I have,' he says, "simply by sticking to thing until it was finished." Dr. Frazier's success was but tempo-"I can't give up my ward to Poor. rary. He risked all he had on one unlucky venture, and lost. He is now a clerk on a small salary in his brother's office. A Crockery Rat.

About 8 o'clock, a man smoking plug

"Yes, that's my capital to begin the tobacco in an old clay pipe, walked out

"Well, Frank-my brother, you of a Michigan avenue saloon, Detroit, with a rat in a trap. He looked neither tion of a great expected rise in the Dar- to the right or the left until he had ling Silver Mine stock. He'll let you reached the middle of the street. Then

Famous Escapes From Indiana Three sunny and beautiful days were

"Stories of marvelous and ingeniou spent sailing through the enchanted isl capes were the romance of the colonie with steep mountain sides and bold rocks "I wish he had said good-bye, at and such adventures date back to the reflected in clear waters, cascades dashing earliest Indian war in Virginia, where a man down between the rine trees, and lofty and his wife, who had been spared in the wholesale staughter, found their opportunity to escape while the Indians were dancing for joy over the acquisition of a white flames of the aurora, and the early sunrise was a dream of faint and misty coloring a number of slits, the disc being fixed and hid. There were two British vesman's bost that had drifted ashore. These in my ward. Discharged last Tues- captives got into a canoe, and soon afterward surprised their friends in the settle green island one morning and saw the hind this is a revolving plate, having in and Boxer. men's, who had believed them to be dead. Very like this was the escape of Anthoay and for a few years after the purchase of Alaska a garrison of United States troops was maintained at Fort Wrangell. As different counsels prevailed at head-give a single, strong shriek in deafen-have I heard old Sam McIntyre swear, by when he was in ilquor, that he fired where they got on board a vessel. A little laughed lad of eleven years named Eames, taken quarters, the troops were withdrawn and sound can generally be heard at a disin Philip's war, made his way thirty miles then returned, and after a small fortune had been expended in this abandonment tance of twenty miles, and can readily be distinguished from all noises at sea. took a final leave twelve years ago, and the block house, stockade, and the log quarters were given over to picturesquementioned, effected an ingenious escape, lying all the first day in a hollow log and sing their provisions to make friends with the dogs that had tracked them. They less and decay.

journeyed in extreme peril and suffering mines on the Stickeen river, Wrangell has ed with the light house at Cape Hentofor nine days, and one of them fell down with exhaustion just as they were entering a white settlement. A young girl in Massachusetts, after three weeks of cap tivity, made a bridle of bark, and catch-ing a barse rode all might induce at the stickeen river, Wrangell has base of supplies in all seasons, and a place of 39 seconds. These instruments have ing a horse, rode all might through the for social hibernation when the snow and done so well on our coasts that other woods to Concord. Mrs. Dean, taken at see drive them down from their mountain countries have procured numbers of Oyster River in 1694, was left, with her retreats. A few trading stores straggle them. Great Britain has more than daughter, in charge of an old Indian while the rest finished their work of destruction. At one end this thoroaghtare shores,

The old feilow asked his prisoner what is guarded by the stockade and sally-port The Daboll fog trumpet is made like would cure a pain in his head. She recom-mended him to drink some rum taken from ally changes into a rambling Indian air condensed in a reservoir by machin-and, boy like. I was mighty hungry would cure a pain in his nead. She recom-mended him to drink some run taken from her house. This put him to skeep, and the woman and child got away. Another down cast captive, with the fitting name cances. The Indian houses front directly down east captive, with the fitting name down east captive, with the initiag man of Toogood, while his captor during an attack on a settlement was disentangling a grass-grown runs of the old Russian tort inches in diameter. Its reed of steel is getting her under weight, and presently she was standing out under all sail. piece of string with which to tie him, and its outlying graveyard. The houses at its fixed end and half that at the jerked the Indian's gun from under his arm and, leveling it at his head, got safety cedar planks, with few attempts at paint it has a 32-inch cylinder, which at Our house was built on rising ground, hardships. One Bard, taken in Peansylvania, lived nine days on a few buds and totems are the shrines and show places of because of its liability to accident and to the w'st'd I saw a vessel coming at Gibsonville, Nevala, it hai the values of Virginia, escaped in company appreciate something of the great interest one to us is in Long Island Stripes flying. I commenced to feel pot hole, being sin othing with the stars and appearance of maving been ground in a with a German woman from a place far that ethnologists have taken in them. A Sound at Execution Rocks Light Stadown the Ohlo river. After narrowly pair of especially fine totens were taken tion. The most frequently used for fog fore they neared each other, and al- duction of the English Penny Post, acceeded in ascending the south bank of nual Exposition, and since then they have the Ohio for some hundreds of miles. When within a few days' travel of settle ments, they were so reduced by famine that the German woman, enraged that she had been persuaded to desert the Indian fichens and bearing tufts of grass and ichens and bearing tufts of grass and bearing tufts of grass and ichens and bearing tufts of grass and grass diverse tufts of grass and bearing tufts of grass and bearing tufts of grass and bearing tufts of grass and grass diverse tufts of grass di flesh-pots, and crazed with hunger, made an unsuccessful attack on her companion chusetts General Court gave Mrs. Duston twenty-five pounds and granted half that mount to each of her companions. The story of their daring deed was carried far he tears and distributes blankets on the to the southward, and Governor Nicholson, of Maryland, sent a valuable present to the rapsing parties. Totates are also around

Fog Signals.

An Historic Sea Battle

NEWS IN BRIEF.

NO. 37.

An old man gives the following ac-The principal fog signals used in this count of the memorable fight between -Mr. Flood's San Francisco "house" country are the siren, the steam trumthe American brig Enterprise and the will cost, it is given out, nearly $5,pet, the steam whistle, the whistling English brig Boxer during the war of 000,000. buoy, the bell boat, the bell buoy and 1812. All along the coast of New

-Bismarek has had his beard shaved snow peaks taking on the delicate glow and flush of the late sunset light. The midnight skies had been dyed with the through a flat, circular disc, containing some of 'em really took to the woods

-Iowa, Republican, and Texas, Dejust before we rounded the point of a in the thro t of an immense trumpet. Be- sels cruising off the coast, the Tenedos mocratic, are both free of debt, and the latter State has an "embarrasing" Well do I remember see-green island one morning and saw the town and totem poles of Fort Wrangell before us. Next to Kodiak and Sitka, Wrangell is one of the oldest settle tents Wrangell is one of the oldest settle tents mAlaska, and for eighty years has been a great trading post along the coast. The Hudson Bay Company and the Kussian Government had forts and stations here.

trumpet. If there are ten openings there will be 24,000 screams each minlor of the Exchequer favors a scheme ing volume, and of great range. The when he was in liquor, that he fired for more rapid redemption.

-The exports of patrolea n for the nineteen shots at the boats, although twelve months which ended June 33th some said he was so scared on hearing the firing that he ran off and hid under last, amounted in value to $11,913,079, against $51,232,701 for the twelve months which called June 3 Mh. 1882. -Mons, Dieulafait has concluded users and decay. As a point of departure for the Casiar As a point of departure for the Casiar and the folks were pretty well scared -at the lowest estimate-about one about it, and some of 'em was nigh fourth of an inch a day throughout the going to the woods; but father, who year. had seen the last of the Revolution and

-Tea culture is carried on in several was a Freewill Baptist besides, was not of the Southern States, and, according a mite uneasy about the Britisher. On to a letter from that section, the num-Sunday morning she laid there to an ber of families that regularly use tax anchor, her black hull shining in the of domestic production is steadily insun. One of ter boats, with an officer, creasing,

-The oldest printed ballad in the folks were so unsettled on account of English language was lately acquired the vessel that none of 'em went to for the British Museum. It is a conand, boy like, I was mighty hungry den Field, printed by one of the earliest temporary record of the battle of Flodtypographers,

-in France the largest number of marriages take place in the sporten month, February; the smillest number in December. Last year there were 34,157 in February against less than cedar planks, with few attempts at paint and outer decorations besides the tall totems that guard the doorways of the chiefs and the other great men. These chiefs and the other great men. These signals of this general class is the loco-most at the same time a sheet of flame motive steam whistle, with a diameter and smoke burst from their sides, and was sent: in 1873 it had risen to 20. occupied a place in the great hall of the varying from 6 to 18 inches, operated I could see the water torn up in spray and now stands at 35. In Geranay,

-The waiters' fee nutsurce is reportwaving bushes in the crevices, and the heraldic carving and coloring is wonder-unals, and these intervals automatically smoke. Once in a while, through a son at Saratoga. It is stated that the with cambbal intentions. The most fa fully improved by this toning and soft. produced by having an engine take rift in the cloud, I could eatch a head waiter at one of the leading Saramous of all the escapes of New Eagland captives was that of Hannah Duston, Mary doorways stand forty and sixty feet high;

captives was that of Hannah Duston, Mary Neff, and a boy, Samuel Leonardson. These three were carried off, with many others, in 1697, in the attack on Haver-hull, Mrs. Duston's infant child having been killed by the Indians. When the hill, Mrs. Duscor's infant child having been killed by the Indians. When the captors had separated, the party to whom the two women and the boy were assigned to the Thinkets. Each one of the quarterings on the shield of a noble hatchets and killed ten Indians—two men, two women, and six children—one favorite by, whom they meant to spare, and one badly wounded woman, escaping. After they had left the camp, the fugitives thad participation the pro---tores to predict the pro---torest remembered that nobody in the settlements decorative set. The noble Thinket must would believe, without evidence, that they first fell his tail cedars and set the artist to -Horn, the German statistician, says had performed so redoubtable an action; work, and then comes the grand cere- clumsy contrivance, hable to be upset of 'em had lost his mainmast head, had performed so redoubtable an action; they therefore returned and scalped the indians, after which they scattled all the cances on the island but one, and in this escaped down the Merrimac, ard finally reached Haverhill. This was such an ex-indian as made the actors immediately fa-totem party often costs as high as $1,000 is more the grand cere-totem posts before his base to the grand cere-base posts before his is mony of erecting the posts before his is mony of erecting the posts before his base posts before his is given of all the deli-base post post is mony of erecting the posts before his base posts before his is mony of erecting the posts before his base posts before his is mony of erecting the posts before his is posts of all the deli-has been superceded by Brown's bell buoy, which was invented by an officer of the Light House Service. The bell away to the c'st'd the folks thought is mony of erecting the posts post pear the second the solution of .0500, 140, 000 eigens; is mony of erecting the post pear the second to handle and difficult to keep in repar, has been superceded by Brown's bell buoy, which was invented by an officer of the Light House Service. The bell away to the c'st'd the folks thought ploit as made the actors immediately fa-mous in that bloody time. The Massa-and $2,000. A man's rank and riches are iron buoy, which is decked over and the Enterprise was beat. The sus-the balks thought -There has been found among a considered greater the more he gives away, and as the blanket is the unit of value, his wealth and standing increases according as bettass and distributes blankets blankets are distributes blankets and distributes blankets are distributes blankets are distributes blankets and distributes blankets are distributed bell is rigidly attached. A concentrice a sob, and many prayed aloud. Pregrooved iron plate is made fast to the sently I saw them set their courses, about 800 years before Christ, and the frame under the bell and close to it, and tack, and stand to the west'd; then we British Museum is expected to pay a a cannoy ball is allowed to roll on this knew the Britisher was whipped. I fabulous sum for it. There is httle plate. As the buoy rolls on the sea the ball rolls on the plate, striking one side of the bell at each roll. This signal is always at work, and the heavier the sea the louder the sound of the bell. There Ribbets and his brother David pulled show. The total sales last year amountare 24 of these bells now in use in this country, one of which is on Brown Shoal, Delaware bay. They cost, with their mooring, not far from $1,000 Boxer was boarded her decks were Maine, Mississipi and Vermont brew The "whistling buoy" consists of an slippery with blood, and lumbered up none at all. iron pear shaped ball, say 22 feet in di- with splinters, coils of rigging and bod--Paris ha -Paris has twenty-three municipal ameter, with a tube 20 inches across ies of the dying and dead, many of libraries, some of which are located in and 40 feet long running through it. whom had been tossed overboard, just the communal schools. In round num-Ten thousand dentists, whose thriving business attests badness of American teeth, meet with amusing adventures when they encounter those who are sufwhen they encounter those who are suf-fering from what Burns calls the "grim, a shrill moaning sound which can be her maintopmast was shot away one of thousand books borrowed are inforeign them exclaimed: 'There it goes! and languages, four of our best men with it.' Mind, _____The (mischief-making chiel" that makes "man- heard several miles. Its dimensions kind aft dance a reel." A reporter have recently been reduced without de--The Government printing-office, that's only what folks told around, said to be the largest establishment of describes some of these experiences, as creasing its power. As its action debut what I saw I know, and I've tried its kind in the world, is valued at $5,they were described to him by several pends on rough water, it is only used to tell you about the fight just as I saw in open water. They now cost, with 000,000. The disbursements last year it. their moorings, about $1,200 each. There are 25 of them on our coasts, 5 of (ending June 30th) were $2,635,159.68 The daily pay of employes is $5000. It A Lightning Flash. is estimated that from 1789 to 1881, the which are in our immediate waters, The Russian papers report the detotal outlay for Government printing The whistling buoy recently placed on structive action of a flash of lightning, has been in the neighborhood of $100, "Why, I have had great strong men the outer Hatteras shoal, just off the which struck the stable attached to 000,000, come into my office with the intention of the outer matterns shoan, just off the having a tooth extracted, and at the sight pitch of the cape, is of greatest use to the cavalry officers' school at Krasnojeour coasters. The bell fog signal most -Chicago has 1002 streets, 985 fire Selo, killing sixteen horses on the spot. in use is the bell struck by machinery boxes, 8 post offices, 60 public schools. The electric fluid, on striking the cor-ner of the building, seems to have traveled along the iron with which the subout a striking the cormoved by clock work. There are about denly appeared before them, "On the other hand I have seen frail-looking little women come in, and without many weigh more than 1.000 pounds. racks were covered, and set all the hay on fire at once. The horses all fell to graph afloat. She has but one Mayor, many weigh more than 1,000 pounds. the ground. Most of them rose again quickly; but sixteen were found to be nearly all the people not included in the The High North dead, and two were quite deaf. In all ast enumerated class, dead, and two were killed the electric —Among the numerous tablets which the horses that were killed the electric fluid seems to have entered at the head or the neck, passing down through the It sounds strange to hear of a steam boat on the South Saskatchewan river in Manitoba, Canada. The Saskatchefore feet. The killed horses were not portance or characters illustrious in all together or in adjoining stalls, but nistory, is one which a few days ag. "Some very amusing incidents occur | wan with its north and south branches, during the practice of a dentust. For in- rises in the Rocky mountains and runs stance, not long since a prominent lawyer, east into Lake Winnipeg, its length were scattered up and down the stable, was fixed on a house in the Rue Soutjustifying the presumption that their dot, at No. 9, and which bears the in-death was caused by their coming into scription: "Here formerly stood the being greatly annoyed by an aching tooth, being nearly as great as that of the tecided to have it out; so, mustering up Ohio. Its general course is through courage, he went to a well-known dentist and told him he required his services. "The lawyer took the chair and the contact with the metallic covering of circular wall round Paris, erected in the racks. The horses who survived the reign of Pailip Augustus, about of the lower end of Hudson's bay, and were most probably not in contact 1200 A. D.-Site of the Porte Saintdentist got everything in readiness, when the lawyer spoke up and said, 'I am going to faint,' and he did. and the country is described as fertile and tillable, it would seem that the northern limit of profitable farming with the metal at the moment when it Jacques." was being traversed by the electric -Darwin tells us that the great pilnorthern limit of profitable farming lars of Stonehenge have for years been fluid. undergoing the slow process of inter-Iridescent Glass. ment by the accumulation of mould Many lovers of the beautiful are great around them, and that they are in danwas a common thing for him to faint, and Not very far north of the Saskatche admirers of the colors like those of the ger of being undermined as the result of the labors of earth worms. The rainbow sometimes seen on glassware, loors and walls of Roman villas in and wonder how they are produced. England have in the same way been The story goes that the workmen of a the mighty stream which discharges its Bokemian manufacturer wishing to lowered by the withdrawing of the un--The Maris family, descendants of George Maris, who left England and worthleas, stuff is concerned. There is, howerer, a vast stock of the doctored herb is a free ld fellow without a thought is a present is not to be two without a thought is a present, is when he sees it. Bengal lights in the annealing ovens, and me into the chance. fession until it finishes you." "I hope not," said Wharton, laughing. "What are you going to do when you said. "There is no patient in danger but this man. But he is in a very criup in September. Where are you going tical condition. I won't leave him. to settle? "Nonsense? What can a couple of

"I don't know yet," said Philip, his cheerful face suddenly clouding. "I never come to you again. It's a dead know of no place where there is much sure thing, I tell you." chance of success. My cousin John ad-Wharton shook his head, vises me to go West. But there are half a dozen doctors in every village out there already," said George Frazier, tri-

"There," You can afford then to wait for pracumphantly. "What did I say? There tice. You might even marry, if you is absolutely no chance for a young can find a nice girl," he said, with a doctor, unless he has a fortune or friends to push him on, You and I have laugh. "Marry!" Dr. Wharton's hand shook neither. We had better go out and as he dropped the medicine into a spoon. "I would need time to consider the mpreach this new cure of fasting. We have every prospect of becoming good vestment," he said, "even if I could examples of its effects, whatever those leave this man. I would wish to be clear in my conscience that it would be may be," Dr. Wharton laughed, but made no reply. His face showed, however, that a proper one to make. But the old man's condition is such that my present duty is clear." He sat down by the he telt the truth of what Frazier said. "You had better come to supper, cot, watching the sick man. The pic-Phil." Frazier added, in a more cheerture of Susie at work in the miserable ful tone. Having succeeded in making shop, with that brutal old Nixon drivhis companion feel miserable, his own ing her, rose before him. She might have to bear this for years, and now spirits began to revive. "No, I must put up this prescription that possibly he might help her, was he to give it up for this man-an utter stranfirst."

"Very well. I'm going to cut my ger to him. The clock ticked swiftly. Wharton ward and take a stroll to-night." He sauntered out into the clean face was haggard. moon, light and fresh air. Dr. Wharton glanced after him, feeling as if he. too, must escape from the nau seating your one chance in life for that old pauper-that-old hawbuck?" nodding smell of the drugs and the heavy, ice tid air of the sick wards. But he ground steadily at his powder. intemptuously towards the cot. He was a homely little man, whose "I'll not leave him." only attractive trait was a happy, hearty Dr. Frazier stooped over the old man buoyancy of heart, but that was gon d examined him. When the prescription was made "He may lay in this way for days," up in little papers, labelled and directhe said. "It is likely you will find him ed, he washed his hands, put on his ust as he is when you come back." hat, and looking at his watch, walked "Yes, but he may change at any mo quickly into the street. Half an hour ment. The treatment I am trying is a was the time he gave himself for meals, new one. Poor knows nothing about but to-night he would use the half hour for something else than supper. "You'll not come, then?" said Fra-

He turned into a quiet cross street, zier, halting on his way to the door. and in a few minutes reached a little book shop which wore a melancholy, two, and did not reply for a moment. watchful air, as if tired cf looking out The closed eyelids of the withered old for customers. Inside a young girl face on the pillow flickered, a sharp was perched on a high stool, writing glance shot out from them, "No," he said, quietly. "I will stay in a ledger. She had a round, merry face, which grew suddenly red as she with him. This is no common work, and I will not leave it to Poor." "Oh, Philip!" she cried, jumping Frazier went to the exchange, and down and catching his hand with a by several ventures cleared several hunnervous sob and laugh. "Such a good day as this has been! Mr. Nixon has dred dollars. He was greatly elated over his success. not scolded since morning, and I have Dr. Wharton drudged along in his made two sales, and now you are come." daily rounds among his pauper patients with no other reward than the old "So Nixon was scolding you, was ?" said Philip, his face darkening. man's recovery. "You are ready for discharge to

"The scoundrel. To think that you must submit to the tyranny of a ruttian like him, and I can do nothing."

"Hush!" She glanced in terror at the half-open door. "He is at supper in the back room. Don't offend him, Philip, or he would discharge me, and a fortnight had passed. in physic in my day, and I can't say I then what should I do? It is impossible ever saw the like of that treatment." for girls to get work in the city now, and I must live." "Yes, and you must said Wharton, respectfully, going earn your own living," he said bitterly. his rounds, When he came back, his patient Where's the "If I were half a man I would have been able to marry before now. It's called out querulously: "Where's the dollar and a half that was in my ten years since you promised to marry me, Susie. Do you remember? You were a little freckled tot then, munchbreeches pocket when I was brought in? Some thief has robbed me." ing candy, and I a lubberly farm boy But I determined to make you my wife, and keep you from all trouble, though tendent. be robbed, even by an institution. I slow enough I've been about it." "You have done more than any other suppose the bill for my keep here'll be man ever did!" cried Susie, hotly.

high, young man?" "You have educated yourself-earned "There is no charge. It is a your profession-" "Profession! I'm beginning to think hospital."

"Sol sol" grumbled the old fellow Frazier is right, and that I had better to himself, turning over in bed: be a hod-carrier than a doctor. Then The next day he left the hospital, at least I would be sure of work and while Philip was at dinner, without a wages, but now, when I leave the hospital wages, but now, when I leave the internation word of farewell. next month, where am I to go? It may be years before I can earn enough to "So that is the end of it," be years before I can earn enough to We'll g whistled for his dog. If he had a dog, down with him to the Stock Exchange the animal did not respond, but the and buy up all the shares we can." "I can't leave my ward to Poor," he public did. In less than two minutes thirty men were rushing to the spot.

"No need to snub me, Phil, when

"Come!" Frazier said hurriedly.

"Not gol You are not going to lose

Wharton had followed him a step or morrow," he said to him one day when

"Discharge, ch! That was a queer

"No, it was not the old method, sir,"

"You will find it with the Superin-

Oh, aye! I hope so. I've no mind to

"I'll not go, Frazier."

"Hi! there! Don't let him out till get my dog," shouted one, "Hold on! Wait for the dogs!" yelled half a dozen voices at once. hours matter! It is a chance that may "Keep cool and form a circle!" commanded a policeman, as he took a firmer grip of his baton. The man with the trap spread a large

'Listen to reason, Phil. You may handkerchief over it and waited. He clear enough by this venture to make was not a bit excited. On the contrary a beginning for a competency for years. he was as placed as a chip sailing in the wash-dish. "Whar' did ye ketch him?" inquired newsboy. The placid man did not deign to reply "What'll ye take fur him?" asked another, but his inquiry was treated with the same silent contempt. Then four or five men came runnin up with dogs under their arms, and ten or fifteen dogs on foot followed behind. There was a fight between a bull-dog escaped prisoners."

and a Newfoundland, and there would have been a row between owners had not a second policeman appeared. Or der was finally restored. The dogs were arranged in a circle and held by Some of the quiet homes in and their collars, and the placid man slowly around the village of North Tarrytown, knocked the ashes from his pipe, looked in Westchester county, New York, have carefully around, and then raised the been disturbed in the last few months trap and shook the rat out. All the by burglars, The property taken has not been always of great value, but the dogs made a rush, but in ten seconds each and every canine walked off on his ear and seemed to be hurt in his feel-ings. A boy stepped forward and held efforts to find the criminals, but the search has heretofore been fruitless. It the rat up to view. "It's a crockery rat!" he velled a has especially puzzled the police to conjecture how the goods have been carried he whirled it around. "Yes, it vhas a grogery radt, und l off without attracting the attention of the neighbors, Messrs, Thayer, Leg-cost me den cents!' calmly replied the the neighbors. Messrs. Thayer, Leg-placid man as he walked off with his gett, Ma on, and others whose homes have been entered have been especially trap. active in seeking the thieyes. The m-Polson in the Teacup.

The Robber's Cave.

formation that had been sought in vain, however, by the constables and deputy sher ffs, was obtained on Monday, Aug. Among the many articles of commo family use that have become the subject 20th, in an unexpected and romantic of chesp adulteration there is probably no one more conspicuous than tea. Poor and cheap teas are flavored and colored to remanner by two citizens of North Tarrytown. Mr. Van Tassel and a frien semble, in a faint degree, those of a better grade, while teas that have been once used were strolling through the Sacha woods in the afternoon when their attention was attracted by the mysterious moveand their strength entirely extracted are ments of a stranger at a little distant redried, recolored by the use of copperas redried, recolored by the use of copperas and Prussian blue, and by the aid of a slight admixture of genuine tea are palmed off on an unsuspecting public. The fraud of selling tea that is entirely spring, sinking a well, or digging a last

f on an unsuspecting public. The fraud of selling tea that is entirely resting-place for himself, Their thoughts were rudely disturbworthless is bad enough, but when suf ficient of poison is added to the tasteless decoction to irritate and injure the stomach ed, hewever, by the mysterious being in the evil becomes of sufficient magnitude to call for preventive measures of a vigorous keen an interes⁺. The stranger, hapkind. Just how this can be best accom-plished is somewhat uncertain. Iteliable intrusion, and seizing a rifle which lay lealers of course refuse to handle the conveniently near, suggested the advisfraudulent and poisonous stuff. But ras- ability of being left to the solitude he cally dealers in the adulterated goods es-tablish agencies, employ canvassers to go his friend not being at that time in an as they can af- argumentive mood, agreed to the propo-from house to house, and ford to sell these worthless goods cheaper sition of the genial stranger. They than the family grocer can sell an honest strolled in another direction until they article, they manage to deceive ignorant secured the aid of some of their townsexperiment you tried on me, young and well-meaning people and work off the men, and then the party returned to the men, and th the digging warrior had been seen. manutica.

Several States, Pennsylvania included. Several States, Pennsylvania included, have stringent laws against the sale of adul-terated articles of food and drink, but the ground in the vicinity, and they were are failed as a bleak desola-tion science and the loss of blood bringing him to consciousness, the dentist asked him if it tion, fit only for fur-bearing animals. terated articles of food and drink, but the ground in the vicinity, and they were laws fail to provide practical methods for soon rewarded by the discovery of a detecting these aduiterations and are thus insufficient. Congress passed an act at its known to the oldest inhabitant. This insufficient. Congress passed an act at its known to the oldest inhabitant. This last session to prevent the importation of additerated and spurious teas and, as all teas are imported, if the inspectors are efficient and watchful the evil should be checked so far as new importations of the worthleas, stuff is concerned. There is, however, a vast stock of the doctored herb ing, and provisions enough for many once and a half as much as the bird of which are known to be navigable.

over the square-box houses in which they deposit the ashes of their cremated dead, and the town abounds in picturesque little tombs niched in between the houses of the living. Surmounted by a fox or a whale once painted in brilliant colors, but now toned down by the mosses, the terns, trailers, and rank vegetation that rapidly creeps over and conceals everything in this moist, temperate climate, the houses of the dead are more picture que than those of the living.

dentists.

dentist.

Fear of the Dentist.

"We encounter more that is ridiculous in the extraction of teeth than in any other branch of the profession," said

a word or look that would indicate any timidity, take a seat and undergo the oper ation with scarcely a sign of fear. "Men and women of large stature as a general rule, make more tuss than smaller men and women, and women exhibit less fear than men. The Editor and Proprietor.