

MIFFLINTOWN: Wednesday, October 3, 1883.

TERMS. Subscription, $1.50 per annum in advance...

Committee Meeting. Meeting of the county committee was held in the Orphans Court room...

SHORT LOCALS. Two cents for a postage stamp. Turkey shooting after the 15th inst.

There are 11,000,000 horses in the United States. A comet in the winter will be something new.

Splendid bed spreads and pillows for sale at Graybill's. McClinton keeps for sale a full line of builder's hardware.

There was thunder, lightning and rain on Sabbath evening. McClinton has nails and other hardware goods for sale.

New carpets, new furniture at Graybill's furniture store. The Democratic primary election was an uncommonly quiet affair.

An old bachelor says ladies faint from tight hair dressing. Gathering autumn leaves is a fashionable pastime for ladies.

Farmers in Tuscarora valley are reaping their barns with iron. There was a preacher or a layman in almost every house last week.

The town school tax gatherer was around last Friday and Saturday. The Post gave their colored coracle, Cyrus Morrison, a nice funeral.

There is a good deal of Typhoid fever in certain parts of Franklin county. A new comet coming this way, from somewhere in space, is said to have no tail.

One of the indispensable things is a cook stove, go to McClinton's and buy a cook stove. The Lutheran Synod adjourned to meet at Lock Haven in September 1884.

Wm. Banks, Jr., left for Philadelphia on Monday to attend medical lectures. A Huntingdon dude puts his hair up in paper when he goes to bed at night.

Lutheran preachers filled the pulpits of all denominations, far and wide, last Sabbath. Cyrus Morrison, colored, will hold his fortune to the Post G. A. B. in his place.

Mr. and Mrs. Davies from Ohio are visiting their brother-in-law, Congressman Atkinson. Mrs. Jacobs, and her daughter, Hall, of Lewisville, were visiting the family of E. D. Parker.

Sighel & Meyer, 50, 52 and 54 North Street, Philadelphia, is a popular millinery goods house. Francis Hower, of Fernamagh, exhibited a herd of short horn cattle at the fair last week.

Charles P. Stone went to New York on Monday to complete a course in short hand reporting. Go to McClinton's for and stove store for first-rate pitch forks, dining forks and hay forks.

The French and Chinese will, of course, look upon the comet as the forerunner of trouble. Wm. Banks is stocking up with western steers, which he intends to feed during the coming winter.

and since her advent there, it is said that he seldom goes from home. The tame Indians—The order of Red Men—held a public raising of Chiefs on Monday evening at the Wigwag in the Crystal Palace.

On the evening of the 22nd day of September Lammie Warner formerly of this county, was killed by the cars at Green Springs Seneca county Ohio.

If you desire to learn how well Mifflintown takes care of a fire engine, look over into the yard at the east side of Showers & Schell's carriage factory.

The Presbyterian grave yard has been cleaned. People who live to see it next spring will behold it in a fresher green than it has appeared in many years.

"The association of the poor districts of Pennsylvania will hold its ninth annual convention in Philadelphia on October 9 and 10 in common council chamber.

The Huntingdon Journal of last week stated that 3 little boys were arrested on Wednesday for blowing party balls through a tin tube, one of whom was locked up.

When the Legislature adjourns let the people give thanks, and take a vote that none of that crowd shall be returned to again violate the constitution for party spoils.

Samuel Berg sold the last of his drove of York State calves to Judge Elder, William Rickenbach and B. F. Schweier. The judge bought three, Rickenbach two and Schweier eight.

If astronomers have not miscalculated the direction and distance of the comet that they can see through their powerful glasses, the stranger will not be at its brightest and nearest point to the earth till next March.

The Huntingdon car works were closed by the Sheriff last Friday. Three hundred men are thrown out of employment. Two month's wages are owing the men. The Union Bank closed the concern on a claim of $60,000.

"My daughter has taken the medicine faithfully, according to directions, and her health and spirits are now perfect." The humor is all gone from her face. I wish every anxious mother might know what a blessing Ayer's Sarsaparilla is in such cases.

It is believed that the coming comet will pass close to the earth. Some people are already alarmed about it. Should it be so solid body and strike the earth and cause it to stop only one minute in its course, the result would be disastrous.

The Snyder County Tribune says: The minor children of John J. Stiffin, of Mount Pleasant Mills, Snyder Co., Pa., last week obtained a pension through their attorney, Lewis Potter, Esq., of this place. They will receive $400 arrears of pension.

The Huntingdon Globe says: In a fit of vomiting, to which he had been subject for several months, Charles Clark, of Lock Haven, 13 year old, expelled from his stomach, on Thursday, a black snake 3 inches long. It is presumed that he drank it from a spring when it was very small.

The Philadelphia Times of October 1st says: At the Gentlemen's Driving Park on October 4, 5 and 6 Miss Letting, of New York, and Miss De Cassini, of Philadelphia, will ride in a sixty-mile horse race. Twenty horses will be used by each rider and changes will be made every ten minutes.

Sufferers from the effects of quinine, used as a remedy for chills and fever, will appreciate Ayer's Cure, a powerful tonic bitter, composed wholly of vegetable substances, without a particle of any noxious drug. Its action is peculiar, prompt and powerful, breaking up the chill, curing the fever, and expelling the poison from the system, yet leaving no harmful or unpleasant effect upon the patient.

Era Montgomery executor of Joseph Robison late of Lockport, Junata Co., will sell a farm of 92 acres, half clear, half in rock cut, with oak, chestnut and pine timber. There are two frame dwelling houses on the farm, a bank barn and other out buildings. Sale on the 20th day of October at 10 o'clock.

Dr. Shelly, Samuel Ard and George Pink, all of Port Royal, and William Whittier, of Licking Creek valley, are convinced that gentlemen should know all about the fish law, now that the ladies have espoused the side of the flouy tribe, for Mrs. Pfaber has brought suit against them before "Spurs Marks" in Patterson, for a violation of the fish law, in seining a dam in Licking Creek.
