

SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN
MIFFLINTOWN:
Wednesday, October 17, 1893.
TERMS.
Subscription, $1.50 per annum if paid within 12 months; $2.00 if not paid within 12 months.
Transient advertisements inserted at 50 cents per inch for each insertion.
Notations will be made to those desiring to advertise by the year, half or quarter year.

Committee Meeting.
Meeting of the county committee was held in the Orphans Court room Saturday Sept. 22d, 1893. In absence of the Chairman Mr. Hertzler, James Irwin was elected president of the meeting.
The time for primary election was fixed for Oct. 20, 1893.
JAMES IRWIN, President.
I. G. MARKS, Secretary.

SHORT LOCALS.
New goods at Espenschade's store.
There are 18,616 public schools in this state.
David Doty has a lot of Kentucky cattle to sell.

November the 29th will be Thanksgiving day.
For sale, all kinds of crocks at McClintic's.

Wm. Banks has a lot of Western cattle to sell.
The fogs this fall have been unconmonly heavy.

A number of delicate dogs in town are blanketed.
Captain McCallan bought a house and lot in Port Royal.

Newport will have a course of lectures the coming winter.
McClintic keeps for sale a full line of builder's hardware.

The girl that gets angry at, and lectures her mother is no angel.
McClintic has mails and other hardware goods for sale.

The Republican primary election will take place on Saturday.
Buckwheat "flap-jacks" will rule at high prices the coming winter.

The Democrat and Register concludes "that we do all fade as a leaf." Wm. Banks is about landing 3 carloads of thrifty Western steers.

November and December are the months in which to catch rabbits.
Uriah Shuman was in town last week attending to his business interests.

The Post G. A. R. will attend the union at Newport, next Saturday.
Professor Craig, has an assistant, two shaves, two hair cuts at one time now.

Mr. Dennis, of Thompsonstown, had first class cider in town last Thursday.
The editor and wife of the Bloomfield Advocate are on a trip, in the west.

A Perry county man caught 1,365 eels in one fish basket some nights ago.
The wild turkey hunters have been out hunting a great deal since Monday.

J. B. M. Todd is offering bargains in his store in Patterson on his customers.
J. D. Luister, of Fayette township has made 150 barrels of cider this season.

One of the indispensable things in a cook stove, go to McClintic's and buy a cook stove.
Squire Titzell, of Millerstown, fined Abraham Johnson $2.10 for profane swearing.

Rev. Mr. Gayman, of Oakland Mills, has returned from a visit to Dauphin county.
Attraxors—Housekeepers, you may find a large assortment of cook stoves at Mc-Clintic's.

The annual inspection of the P. R.
R. takes place in the 1st week in November.
Within the past 12 months 20 prisoners have escaped from the Hunting don jail.

Rev. Mr. Gayman is building a new house on his farm, opposite his present residence.
Four prisoners escaped from the jail in Bellefonte, Centre county, on Tuesday the 9th inst.

The best remedy for trouble is hard work. It will give you an appetite, and give you sleep.
The Jacob Thomas house, when finished, will be one of the most handsome houses in town.

Thompson & Crozier, of Mexico, have sold about 200 Western cattle in Juniata this season.
Reuben Kauffman, living at Bellefonte, Mifflin county, raised a booby that weighs 85 pounds.

Mrs. Cooper, the wife of the Presbyterian preacher at Blain, Perry county, died a few days ago.
There was a cake walk in the Hook and Ladder Company building, in Patterson on Saturday evening.

The fire-fighter, Sullivan, passed through this place, westward bound, on the cars, last Wednesday noon.
A new porch has been added to the Star Hotel. How! Speak, Barton Speak, where art thou!

The election in Ohio had about as much bearing on the election of 1884 as it had on the man in the moon.
Wilbur McCahan has contracted to put up a new building for Mrs. Belford in place of the one burned in the late fire.

Should the weather prove itself to be propitious, a number of people will attend the Re-Union at Newport, on Saturday.
Mrs. Moore, of Walker township, with her daughter, Lillie, and her son, H. H. Moore, were in town last Wednesday.

The Democracy are highly pleased over the victory in Ohio. They call it the first great battle of the campaign of 1892.
It was almost warm enough last week for the linen duster. The straw hat was well kept to the front by the warm weather.

Christ Shibly, living near Salem, had an acre of thrifty growing tobacco, almost ready to cut, in a night it was destroyed by a frost.
Lutherans everywhere are preparing to a greater or less degree to celebrate the four hundredth anniversary of the birth of Luther.

Miss Alice E. Osman, who has been visiting Mr. Musselman and family in Milford township, returned to Harrisburg on Tuesday.
One farmer in Franklin county lost 10 hogs, by cholera. Another farmer in the same vicinity lost 17 hogs, by the same distemper.

If you would have Appetite, Flesh, Color, Strength and Vigor, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla which will confer them upon you in rapid succession.
Last Thursday was Yum Kipper day, a grand day in the Hebrew calendar.
The stores of Emil Schott were closed in observance of the day.

Col. John N. Moore was in town on Thursday. His voice was hoarse which caused his friends to hope that it is not a sign of failing health.
The gentlemen who were sued by Mrs. Pflaher, on the charge of having sifted in Lick Creek in violation of law, will take the case to court for settlement.

A Harrisburg paper reports that Vanderbilt has disposed of the charter and route of the Harrisburg & Western railroad to the Pennsylvania railroad Company.
The cases of chills and fever are not so numerous as in some of the past seasons, in this county, but there seems to be a "good many" people sick with typhoid fever.

Professor Shneider, principal of the schools at Westmore, was home on a visit to his family last week. He will return to his new field of labor about election time.
The Bloomfield Advocate of last week says, Mrs. Thompson, wife of Col.
R. P. Thompson, of Watts township, died very suddenly last Friday. She had proceeded to the spring house about one o'clock in the afternoon in her usual health, intending to churn butter.
Her neighbor thinking she staid longer than usual went to look after her,
and found her mother sitting near the spring house, her head resting on the urn, dead. It is thought she died from heart disease. She was in her 63rd year, and her death is a sad bereavement to her husband and children.

The Chambersburg Repository tells the following: "Kiss me quick," exclaimed a South Main street lassie to her devout admirer. They were standing at the door and the mantle of night was around them. "Kiss me quick," and the lips which formed the words were rosate and sweet. His arms grasped her roundly, and with an emotion which spoke of a deep yearning he drew her to him. "Now darling"—but there was no osculatory demonstration. He simply said
"good-bye" and started up town with the rapidity of a double electric discharge.
She had a pin in her mouth.

A citizen of Rome, Ga., while crossing the railroad tracks in that city got his foot caught fast in a frog. While trying to get loose he saw the Chattanooga train on the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia road come dashing over the bridge.
The frog fell from the top of a wheel, and was nearly broken, and near breaking his foot. But the train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his foot out, and leave the shoe to be mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the difference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

A pretentious person said to a leading man of a country village:
"How would a lecture by me on Mount Vesuvius suit the inhabitants of your village?" "Very well, sir, very well indeed," he answered. "A lecture by you on Mount Vesuvius would suit them a great deal better than a lecture by you in this village."

That they drank it down in Huntingdon, is evidenced by what the Journal of the 10th inst. says, which is as follows: A gentleman, in whose veracity we have implicit confidence, told us a few evenings since that one day last week, while standing on Allegheny street, he had counted seventy persons passing along that thoroughfare who were more or less under the influence of liquor, a majority of them so drunk that they behaved more like imbeciles than rational beings.

One morning last week Josiah Fick-s, while at work on a railroad track, near Dunncannon, Perry county, stepped out of the way of an approaching train of cars, and stepped in the way of another train coming on a parallel track. He was knocked over an embankment 25 feet high. When he was restored to consciousness he asked what struck him. The remarkable thing is that he was not severely hurt, but after a few days off duty he was able to resume work.

The barn of Frederick Baker, about 3 miles from Lewistown, was destroyed by fire some nights ago. "The contents consisted of one hundred bushels of wheat, three hundred bushels of potatoes, fifteen tons of hay, buggy, hay-rake, harness, thrasher and shaker, and a windmill. The live stock was all in the fields excepting one calf which was taken out in time to save its life. The loss will amount to about $2,000, but the barn being insured for $1,000, but there was nothing on the crops."

At Pittsburg, Washington, D. C., Roebuck, R. L., Trenton, N. J., Providence, R. I., New York City, and in a hundred other places within the limits of the Republic, the 8th day of October was celebrated as the Bi-Centennial anniversary of the landing of the first German colonists in America.
—In Pennsylvania.—In Pittsburg, the procession was 10 miles long, 400 wagons were in line, and 20,000 people on foot. Hurrah for Germany! There were an hundred thousand people in line in Philadelphia.

The Bloomfield Advocate of last
week says, Mrs. Thompson, wife of Col.
R. P. Thompson, of Watts township,
died very suddenly last Friday. She
had proceeded to the spring house about
one o'clock in the afternoon in her
usual health, intending to churn butter.
Her neighbor thinking she staid longer
than usual went to look after her,
and found her mother sitting near the
spring house, her head resting on the
urn, dead. It is thought she died from
heart disease. She was in her
63rd year, and her death is a sad bereavement to her husband and children.

The Chambersburg Repository tells
the following: "Kiss me quick," ex-
claimed a South Main street lassie to
her devout admirer. They were stand-
ing at the door and the mantle of night
was around them. "Kiss me quick,"
and the lips which formed the words
were rosate and sweet. His arms
grasped her roundly, and with an
emotion which spoke of a deep yearning
he drew her to him. "Now dar-
ling"—but there was no osculatory
demonstration. He simply said
"good-bye" and started up town with the
rapidity of a double electric discharge.
She had a pin in her mouth.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.

It is queer, to contemplate the dif-
ference of falling. Lawyer Parker
fell over his horse and was so severely
hurt that he was housed several days,
and is now about on crutches. Judge
Elder fell off a fence backward and
was so badly hurt that he was kept in
doors a number of days. B. F. S.
Sawyer fell from the top of a
wheel, and was nearly broken, and
near breaking his foot. But the
train was almost upon him, and he
decided to unlase his shoe, pull his
foot out, and leave the shoe to be
mashed. He acted upon this thought
and as he got his foot out the train
glided by on another track.</