Conrad, of the McVeytown Journal, has printed the picture taken and engraved in the Journal. Mr. Conrad suggests that the picture be placed over the top of applebrutter crocks to keep the stuff from spoiling. At different times, our special artist took life like pictures of the down town editors, Garman, Busall and Allison, and at our expense they were engraved and published in the SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN. It cannot be said that they are like Adams in appearance, but they are every one, as good looking as Conrad and if his picture will keep applebrutter from spoiling, what should prevent them from having the same wholesome effect. We have a few back numbers. There was a scene in the St. Louis court last December, in which Henry Bosler, a prominent attorney, and Benjamin Von Paul, a real estate dealer, played the prominent parts. The case of Von Paul vs. Meun was on trial. Bosler was the defendant's attorney and when he came to address the jury he called Von Paul a perfidious scoundrel. Von Paul hurled back the epithet and then jumping up went at Bosler. Judge Adams rapped for order, but his assistants were dumb founded and stood stock still while Von Paul scolded Bosler's head, got in "eloquence" and then beat it until it resembled so much raw beef. Then he dropped the barrister, kicked him and turning to the Judge asked him if he was not justified in using Bosler as he had. A decisive answer was filed by the court, who got so dissatisfied from Von Paul's opinion that the latter was not only ordered, but sentenced to ten days in the City Jail.

Some days ago David Hoffman went in Dr. Banks' sleigh to the place of Isaac Eika to get a bag of potatoes, on his way home a dog frightened the horse that it sprang to the side of the road with such suddenness that the driver was upset, and Hoffman fell across his neck and pressed him down in the snow, but notwithstanding his unpleasant predicament he held on to the lines like a hero. In the effort to drag the driver and the bag of potatoes the horse broke the traces and ran away, but not proceeded far till he so hurt one of his legs by a sharp shock that he came down to a slow limping walk. Meanwhile Hoffman rolled the bag of potatoes off his neck, and dug himself out of the snow, stood up and took in the situation at a glance, and the next moment was in hot pursuit of the runaway horse which he overtook on the hill, on the pike south of town. The sleigh was in need of a few repairs, ditto the harness, and the horse was stabled for curial treatment. The animal has almost recovered from the effects of the wound, and Hoffman laughs over it as if it had been a piece of fun instead of a piece of double trouble.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The following letter from one of our best known Massachusetts Druggists should be of interest to every citizen. "Eight years ago I was afflicted with Rheumatism, so severe that I could not move from my bed, without help. I tried several remedies without success, until I used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, by the use of two bottles of which I was completely cured. Have sold large quantities of your Sarsaparilla, and it will retain its wonderful popularity. The many valuable cures it has effected in this vicinity convince me that it is the best blood medicine ever offered to the public. Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., May 15, 1883."

On Saturday night, the 22d of December, John Hamilton and Wm. Gray were sleighing through the streets of this place, and, when turning of Washington street to drive up Third, one of the runners of the sleigh came in contact with a pile of rubbish, causing the sleigh to upset, throwing its occupants into the snow. The young men escaped unhurt. The sleigh was almost dashed to pieces and the horse was slightly injured.

Mr. Abram Bosler, father of the late James W. Bosler, died at his residence at Carlisle on Friday evening December 21, 1883. He had been confined to bed for two weeks, but was able to attend the funeral of his son, whose sudden death greatly shocked him, and he sank under the blow. Just before he died he gathered his children and grandchildren about him, calling each name, kissing them and bade them all good-bye. He was aged about 78 years.

Ross Reno, son of General Reno, fell in love with Mrs. Swain, an actress, and the other night after she had retired, he rapped at a window of her room in the Loebel Hotel at Harrisburg, and not receiving an invitation to enter, he opened the window and stepped in unbidden. Carrying a pistol, he seized a pistol, and screamed, Reno left in a hurry, and his conduct was the cause of an invitation to leave the hotel being put in his hands, the next morning.

"Words fail to express my gratitude," says Mr. Selby Carter, of Nashville, Tenn., "for the benefits derived from Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Having been afflicted all my life with scrofula, my system seemed saturated with it. It came out in blotches, ulcers, and matting sores, all over my body." Mr. Carter states that he was in a truly curative state by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and since discontinuing its use, eight months ago, has had no return of the scrofulous symptoms.

I tried several remedies without success, until I used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, by the use of two bottles of which I was completely cured. Have sold large quantities of your Sarsaparilla, and it will retain its wonderful popularity. The many valuable cures it has effected in this vicinity convince me that it is the best blood medicine ever offered to the public. Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., May 15, 1883."

DR. JOHN BULL'S Sarsaparilla FOR THE CURE OF FEVER AND AGUE, OR CHILLS AND FEVER, AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES. The proprietor of this celebrated medicine has been offered the honor of having his name engraved on the safe, certain, speedy and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out to the letter. A single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if it is continued until the patient feels perfectly well. The medicine will not require any diet, labor, study or restriction, and is equally efficacious in all cases of acute or chronic Ague or malarial fever. Some days ago David Hoffman went in Dr. Banks' sleigh to the place of Isaac Eika to get a bag of potatoes, on his way home a dog frightened the horse that it sprang to the side of the road with such suddenness that the driver was upset, and Hoffman fell across his neck and pressed him down in the snow, but notwithstanding his unpleasant predicament he held on to the lines like a hero. In the effort to drag the driver and the bag of potatoes the horse broke the traces and ran away, but not proceeded far till he so hurt one of his legs by a sharp shock that he came down to a slow limping walk. Meanwhile Hoffman rolled the bag of potatoes off his neck, and dug himself out of the snow, stood up and took in the situation at a glance, and the next moment was in hot pursuit of the runaway horse which he overtook on the hill, on the pike south of town. The sleigh was in need of a few repairs, ditto the harness, and the horse was stabled for curial treatment. The animal has almost recovered from the effects of the wound, and Hoffman laughs over it as if it had been a piece of fun instead of a piece of double trouble.

A HOME DRUGGIST TESTIFIES. Popularity at home is not always the best test of merit, but we point proudly to the fact that our medicine has won for itself such universal appreciation in its own city, state and country, and among all people, as CONSIDERABLE MEN who know of the many diseases and derangements of the body each a separate cause or origin, and that each needs a different method of treatment in order to effect a cure, and a moment's reflection must convince that any of the quack nostrums foisted upon the public claiming to cure all of a number of diametrically different diseases must prove failures, even if we do not call them humbugs.

POOR PEOPLE and people of moderate means, and even people who are well to do or wealthy find that the enormous cost of attending to their ailments is a serious burden to them, and also find that after paying themselves poor that no benefit has accrued to them, that in fact they have thrown their money away. To overcome these evils we offer Wheeler's No. 96 Sarsaparilla to the sick and suffering one Remedy for each disease, without for a moment claiming that one remedy will cure any other disease than the one claimed for it, and as these remedies have stood the test of years without a single failure, we agree to refund the money paid in every instance where a cure is not positively effected. The remedies are entirely vegetable, can do no harm, and will positively cure every disease for which they are prescribed.

RHEUMATISM, Gout, Lameness of the Neck, Sciatica and Neuralgia are relieved at once and positively cured by the use of Wheeler's No. 96 Rheumatism Remedy. We say boldly that in the worst cases of matter how long standing, how serious or how painful, we can not only give relief but positively cure for all time. Failing in this we will positively refund the money paid for the treatment, and if your sufferings are not positively stopped for all time you have not thrown your money away as you would on any other than these guaranteed remedies. The price of Wheeler's No. 96 Rheumatism Remedy is only 50 cents, obtained from druggists or sent free by mail on receipt of price. Stamps taken.
