VOL. XXXVIII.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY. PENNA., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1884.

NO. 5.

IMAGINARY EVILS.

Let to-morrow take care of to-morrow Leave things of the future to fate; What's the use to anticipate sorrow? Life's troubles come never too late. If to hope over much be an error, Tis one that the wise have preferred, And how oft have hearts been in terror

Have faith-and thy faith will sustain thee Permit not suspicion and care-With invisible hands to embrace thee, But bear what God gives thee to bear By this spirit supported and gladdened; Be ne'er by "forebodings" deterred; Just think how oft hearts have been sad-

By fear of what never occurred. Let to-morrow take care of to-morrow Short and dark as our life may appear, We can make it still shorter by sorrow-Still shorter by folly and fear. . Half our troubles are our own it And often from blessings conferred;

Yet we shrink in wild apprehe

From evils that never occurred.

A BOLD BACKWOODS BOY.

Jad was eleven years old and little Chlo, his sister, was two years younger. But this was a great many years ago when their father, Mr. Dunlap, had just moved into a township in the western part of Maine, which was then roots and stones. here and there an adventurous settler ing family-aimost always a small panting and excited boy. the future home of himself and thrivcolony in itself. Ah, who can tell what homesick moments and longings for the old associations our pioneer fathers and mothers sake, don't!" implored httle Chlo, now endured, coming as did many of them, from wealthy States and pleasant surthem in these rude homes, almost isolated, as they were, from the world, But they lived in anticipation, looking eagerly forward to a future of plenty, when the wilderness should become cultivated and fruitful through their first persistent and hardy efforts. shoulder as far as he could reach, Jad and that less than sixty years ago it grass, which we secure as a memento clearing a patch large enough to put up a log cabin for his family, then by degrees cutting farther and farther into the primitive forest, till now quite a struck and missed but the next time he of a primeval white race—some stone of the place. It is as near the base as nothing of the cabin's origin, some can be reached, and we muse, and muse can be reached, and we muse, and muse and muse are primer as the primer of the place. It is as near the base as nothing of the place. It is as near the base as nothing of the place. It is as near the base as nothing of the place. It is as near the base as nothing of the place. It is as near the base as nothing of the place. It is as near the base as nothing of the place. It is as near the base as nothing of the place. It is as near the base as nothing of the place is a place of the place. It is as near the base as nothing of the place is a place of the place of the place of smoking from recent burnings.

As before stated, Jad was now eleven. He was a dark faced, sinewy lad; tough smaller game to be had for the trapping, the resolute boy dispatched him. and this fall Jad was anticipating no end of enjoyment in the warm Indian summer days, trapping for "musquash" (muskrat) and mink along Renny brook, which ran past the clearing half

"It's too bad," cried little Chlo. "Can't you catch him?"

Jad thought a moment. His father had a steel fox-trap. He would set that and have the thief. Leaving Chlo, he hastened to the house, got the trap and raced back to the brook. It was set at last to his satisfaction, and baited with a squirrel, which he had brought along to bait his mink-traps with. He drove a stake down through the ring in the stake down through the stake down through the ring in the stake down through the ring in th Jad thought a moment. His father been near, but the bait was gone out of the steel trap, and also from two of the mink-traps. With his usual perseverance, Jad rebuited them and waited, The bait was again eaten out of most of his mink-traps, and, what was more exasperating, another mink had been caught and eaten.

and he was tempted to tear hia trap up. But on second thought resolved to try once more. He would bait only the fox trap. Jad did not visit it the next morning as usual, for he was obliged to after dinner, his father having gone while you are eating. to assist at putting up a log cabin for a To spoil potatoes-let them he newly-arrived settler, some two miles soak in water after boiling. distant, Jad and Chio set off for the dared struck at the creature with all his might. He missed, however, and the cat darted round to the other side of the stake bringing up with a sudden jerk, where it crouched, growling low and watching the boy with fiercy eyes

"Oh, don't go so near him, Jad!" cautioned little Chlo, retreating across the brook. "He'll fly at ye 'fore ye and ears laid back.

"He's going to get his head cracked 'fore I'm done with 'im! Take that ye sneakin' thief!" he added, venturing up and bringing down the club, as he again jumped to the

Then round and round the stake they flew, Jad thumping the ground, trap, anything but the cat, which adroitly kept out of his reach, all the time furiously snarling and spitting. It was hard telling which was pursuer as they whirlwind of dead teaves. But in an unlucky moment Jad's club got under the trap chain, and bringing it up suddenly he threw the hold eternal court. When the snow ring over the top of the stake. With storm rests her tired wings about their a bound the creature was off, the chain rattling after him and catching under

There was not a second to lose, and a wild, uninhabited region, save where the boy gave hot chase, They ran on grave subdue it more. I have seen, tor fifty rods or more; then, seeing Jad deep in the East, when the gathered had planted his little log but in the so close upon him, the cat scratched up heart of the wilderness, and laid bare a few acres of the forest as a nucleus of the trunk of a hemlock, trap and all, and from the branches glared at the coming up all out of breath. "Yes, an' let him go off with pa's roundings. There must have been a mighty attraction in the wild, free life of the backwood man and a genuine of the backwood man and a genuine love of the simple and homely joys of the rough hearthstone, to have held the rough hearthstone, to have held the min these rude homes, almost iso Tyes, an' let him go off with pa's trap in his foot, wouldn't ye? Just like a cross the barren sky, and I have seen the moon stalk from the midaight like a gho-t to the grave, but nothing so got to pay for them mink with his suggestive of glory departed as this, a seemingly might be easily toppled over. With considerable difficulty we went as But probably the most romantic and on laboriously, giving vent to his indignation in threats which he meant to put into execution.

> Jad's courage was now up to the highest pitch, and throwing down his club

Reaching the lower limbs, grasped the hatchet firmly, ready for an assault. As he came within a vard himself on the ground, panting and exhausted. Poor Chio now came timidly forward, trembling and casting frighta mile away in the woods. His father half expected it would even now leap

To spoil tea or coffee-boil it. To spoil custard-bake it to long. To spoil house-plants-water them too much.

To spoil butter-do not work out all the milk. To spoil a carpet-sweep it with a

To spoil pan-cakes-bake them on a luke-warm griddle tinish harvesting the potatoes. But To spoil a breakfast-grumble all the stiff broom.

To spoil bread-use poor flour and

Soda Springs, Monroe County, Cal., has been called the dead-sea of the Sierra, and a writer from that section says:

"The southern end of Monroe Valley both rather impatiently waited. It was is a chain of obsidian hills and mounnearly fifteen minutes before the echo nearly fifteen minutes before the echo tains of scoria, which coffin volcanoes, extinct for hundreds, maybe thousands of years. These rise to an elevation of a brief interval it tried again, ceased "Let 'im fly!" cried the now-excited a thousand feet above the floor of the again, and in the third attempt went of the spring to get his head valley, and add a picturesqueness which off into a series of chattering, like the aids the entrancing panorama furnished drivelings of a manac. I waited for no by the valley itself. They are three more, but started down the mountain miles long, and although surrounded by on a mad run, and the reckless poet with a quick blow, just grazing the an almost barren waste, so desolate are followed close at my heels. We did not they that they seem deserted here and left in isolation, rising like the parent when we paused and looked back, the limb from which all other desolation had strayed and become lost in its wan- and that volcano, which had slept away derings. Their base is skirted by a ages, turned over in its slumbers and belt of pines, and anon along their sides muttered a terrible imprecation, and in trees are perched and withered shrubs, fear that it would boil over and follow but these do not diminish, but rather gyrated about the stake amid a perfect add another dreary feature to their nor paused until we stood upon the sky loneliness. No song bird's notes, it piercing summit of Sierra and looked seems, have ever awakened an echo down upon it fearlessly from our haver here, and silence and desert solitude of safety. forms and when the midnight wraps them in its sable shroud, no deeper bush invades that stillness. Well pacified at best, no death could calm, no clans of the elements stalked threatening upon the darkness, the lightning bent on some terrible mission of vengeance, burn a path through the muttering storm and pass like a vision of death, to destruction; I have seen the last rays of the retreating sun creep tant rocks the sea is white with their into the clouds, lighting them in their raised station into radient splendor; I the water, according to government have viewed those rays retreat, leaving survey. Endeavoring to get to the neath its surface is the walls of a cabin which lies against the base of one of the islands under fifteen feet of water.

Who built the cabin here is a mystery.

Tocks, the sea is beating with a thundering noise, and sending up the spray With an energy characteristic of the attempts to lear down and making indians born and raised in the vicinity, in our faces. With an energy characteristic of the attempts to leap down upon the boy's head, Dunlap pushed his way on through toil, hardships and many privations at first felling and Throwing the hatchet back over his but a few feet below its present level, few feet beyond there is a bunch of who count their years in gray hairs, say many privations, at first felling and shoulder as far as he could reach, Jad and that less than sixty years ago it grass, which we secure as a memento struck and missed; but the next time he of a primeval white race-some stone split and jagged points of granits are large tract lay open to the sun, a part was fortunate enough to hit the cat on mason of the time of the man of ancient standing up, threatening death to any of which was under tolerable cultivation, the rest laying black and still limb to the ground, where for a mo- author for the work in the nomadic them. The rushing sea, driven by the ment it lay stunned and motion. priests, who a century since were in that strong west wind, has honeycombed Easter, the central point by which all ling, suppose we coax that dude to take section. Whoever built it, nobody oc- and made caverns in them, whence the merous about the lake, and everywhere signs exist of the terrible tumult of naforward, trembling and casting fright-ened glances at the animal, as it she half expected it would even now leap wind must be lost to wonder here. had helped him make his traps, and on his very first visit he was greatly elated his very first visit he was greatly elated "Oh, Jad!" cried the little gurl, see-> ture about attacking such animals.

>
> It took a long time to heal up Jad's lacerated arms and skoulders, and it was a number of days before he got delight to sing to echoes, and I tried it here. I sang the first verse and chorus back. ently, from deep in the crater, a distant but singularly distinct voice begun, in foreign shores. but singularly distinct voice begun, in a solemn, unearthly basso, to sing "Johh Brown." There was sadness in the tone and it seemed to burden the air without with a melancholy that was affecting. It gradually receded as if being sung by a body retreating, and finally died away and all was silent. Earthly songs sweeten as they grow fainter in the distance. This sad, weird, tar away voice from the dead, grew sadder as it passed and ceased, leaving sorrow in the oppressive silence succeeding it. The sound is no longer succeeding it. The sound is no longer the hundreds of dollars spent for terraheard in the crater of Mono, but it haunts my ear and my memory, and I shall hear it again through every silence in my life. Unconsciously our eyes moistened, and it was minutes before on teas. Some of these teas are unique going to take advantage of this moun tain, and make it sing one. Out of compassion I reluctantly consented to become an audience, but not without many misgivings. He opened the conventured on it, and then it made two jerky discords and became silent. After more, but started down the mountain crater was swaying with convulsions us with its flery rath, we fled again

At the "Tip-end" of England.

A fire and dinner put us all right naving determined to come here, I was also determined to see all that could be seen. And so, as there was a slight lull in the storm, but not in the wind, we went out. All around the aspect is bare; a heavy mist has settled down upon everything, so that we cannot see many miles distant. The roar of the waves at the foot of the cliffs is loudly heard, and as they break upon the disfoam. The land here is 225 feet above the clouds hung like a banner of crape bottom, we zigzag here and there, and But probably the most romantic and far as it is possible to go; no human interesting object the lake contains be- being could do more than this, so we were obliged to be content. Seventy feet or more sheer down the precipitous here. I sang the first verse and chorus and we sat down and waited. Pres-ently, from deep in the crater, a distant on the lee, and is now a wanderer on

Why January 1 to New Year.

Every one knows that January ! is ery one knows why it is so. It marks no natural division of time nor any Pope Gregory XIII ordered October 5, certural years which are not multiples omission of three leap years in every dressed ladies standing on the platform sack and tied up all the money she 400 years gives the civil year an average length of 365 days, 5 hours, 49 minutes and 12 seconds, which still exceeds the true solar year by a fraction of a sec could live on what the Americans think I'm stretching this, but a man ond, which amounts to a day only in waste." 3,866 years. The present, or Gregorian, system is used by all Christendom except Russia. It was adopted by England in 1752 and by France in 1564. Prior to the reformation of the calendar by Junus Cosar, and many centur-The religious feasts of the Caristian interest. church are still regulated by the moon, other days in the church calendar are a row and bust him all up. fixed, should fall on the first Sunday The perpetration of this fall on the first Sunday in the leged him make his trays, and on lavey first, talk was grouply as a look and gives on the lavey first, talk was a grouply as a look and gives a high price at the "log self-under the state of the law and the law and make his trays, and the law and make his trays, and the law and make his trays, and the law and the law and make his trays, and the law and the law

Ice and Quinine.

It is alleged that the Senate of the distant, Jad and Chio set off for the brook, natchet and fishpole in hand.

As they neared the place where the fox-tap was set they heard the place and the result to light of sort and save they heard the place where the fox-tap was set they heard the place where the fox-tap was set they heard the place where the fox-tap was set they heard the place where the fox-tap was set they heard the place where the fox-tap was set they heard the place where the fox-tap was set they heard the place where the fox-tap was set they heard the place where the fox-tap was set they heard the place where the fox-tap was set they heard the place where the fox-tap was set they heard the place where the fox-tap was set they heard the place where the fox-tap was set they heard the place where the fox-tap was set they heard the place where the sound they for so heard the chain of a lively song. I exchanged the was making to hear its grim rending from a sheet of paper to a bar of cast into does a lively song the wood-caver's at the twas minutes before the was find and trouble with the stockholders, the was not motioned and leave the fox-tap was the place of the wood-caver's at the two does the wood-caver's at the twas find to sour period the was minutes before the word that the stockholders, the was not motioned and leave the fox-tap which he was placed and it was minutes before the state was the fox-tap which he state was not motioned and leave the fox-tap which he was not motion of the theorem of the was not motion of the through the control or mannets, need work and any trouble with the stockholders, the was not motion of the stockholders, the fox-tap which he state was not motion of the stockholders, the fox-tap which he was not motion of the stockholders, the fox-tap which he was not motion of the through the form the motion of an and place of the mannet in the stockholders, the fox-tap which he was not motion of the through the control or mannet in the control or mannet in the control or mannet in the control of the stockholders, t

"An amusing feature of Paris to a the beginning of the year, but not ev- foreigner is the horse cars. The appearance of the car, driver and conductor would almost assure one that they event in the world's history which would had been imported from America, but old woman of her efforts to beat her give it such distinction. The winter certain rules to be observed in running the cars, very quickly remind him that sun appears to reach its greatest south- he is in France. The cars are al- same amount, We don't generally carern declension, or furthest point south lowed to carry only a certain number ry enough change for such large de of the equator, occurs December 22, of passengers—ten standing on the platnine days before the new year begins. form and as many in the car as are al- was caught half a dozen times, and I The summer solstice, another natural lowed to have seats. Those inside pay guess she began to think she had a soft division of time, occurs on June 22, a 50 centimes (ten cents) and those on Summer's map, and became a regular point nearly as far removed from the new year as the calendar permits. The has its complement, the gates are shut, a self. I hterally loaded myself down natural divisions of time which suggest a sign is hung out reading 'Complit,' for the occasion, and laughed about it themselves at once to the practical ob- and no one can enter. During the busy to myself so often that my driver wan server are the winter and summer sol- time of the day, between 5 and 6 o'clock | ted to know if I thought I had mashed stices and the vernal and autumnal equi- when crowds are waiting for a car, it the pretty girl who sat in the corner of noxes, periods at which the days and is necessary to apply at the office for a a previous trip. Well, at the proper nights have equal length or their great-est difference. These having been you applied and received No. 21. You flesh waiting my coming. I stopped neglected, the moon's phases would wait for a car, and the driver, when the car with cheerful slacrity, and aeem to have been been most likely to ready, commences to call une, deux, sisted the woman on board with such a be fixed upon. But imperial Cresar, trois, and so on until he reaches your beaming countenance that I really who in 46 B. C. gave us our new year. number, when you must be ready to feared I might give myself away. After governed by caprice or reisons of the enter; if not, you must procure another she had fairly settled herself I started most temporary duration; departed ticket and wait your turn again. The in to collect her fare. She looked up from the former Roman system of reck- system has its advantages as well as so innocently at me and said, 'Really, I oning the year from the winter disadvantages, and the French think it have nothing smaller than this $20 solstice and made the commencement a great thing, but the amusing part of piece, at the same time handing me a on January I for no better reason than it to foreigners is the calling of the shining double eagle. 'Welt, I think I numbers, and unless one is pretty well on change it for you this time, says I, a new moon. The Casarean system, devised by the and has to go and get another ticket, where there was a good sized leather sid of Losigenes, constituted the ordinary year of 365 days and the fourth or ductor, they use a kind of horn, which is attached to the dash-hoard and blown as the contents jingled downward, you'll livision of the year into months was by a rubber bell which the driver pos- find just 1,995 cents in that pile, I similar to the present system. This dissimilar to the present system. This dissimilar to the present system. This dississ. The sound, which is not unlike guess—your exact chapge. 'Oh!' says that of a cow horn, can be heard dissingly the year 365; days, which is not unobjectionable unless the instrument happens is too much by about eleven minutes. unmusical. The cars are a great con- she was disposed to make a row, but I 1582, to be called the 15th, and that all venience and are liberally patronized. was so perfectly independent, and the One sees in them the economy of the passengers were all laughing, that finof 400 should not be leap years, which French people as a class, very finely ally she took her handkerchief, made a

A Practical Joke.

Recently, while five of of the Pioneer Club six-oar crew, at San Francisco, tiou of humanity into the lap of a spintes afterward, the methods of dividing were sitting in their shell and swearing time were various, complicated and im- vigorously at the non-appearance of the perfect. The moon was the planet sixth man, who was half an hour late, which influenced and governed most a well dressed and modest young stran nations, and gave rise to universal vari- ger strolled into the boat house and be ance between the natural and civil year. gan inspecting the e juipments with great

"I'll tell you what to do, fellows," Tue Council of Nice provided that said the stroke. "As No. 4 isn't comsuch as iced water and iced tea—but no man could drink three thousand pounds of melted ice in two months and live through it. Perhaps enterprising Senators sent part of their ice to their families through the postoffice, but it is difficult to see how a package of ice could be so wrapped up as to be sent for Washington to New Orleans, for example, without melting and fulling the mail bag with water. It is possible that the Senators have adopted the practice of packing ice under their seats in the Senators have adopted the practice of packing ice under their seats in the Senators and comportant public business with coolness and comfort, If so, the practice ought to be adopted in the through the practice ought to be adopted in the section for carrying tools, rails, etc.

The man and postudias allowed, and a greater freedom to the arustic fancy; thas, representations of the figure, birds, and male in resentations of the figure, birds, and male in resentations of the figure, birds, and male in the city freedom to the arustic fancy; thas, representations of the figure, birds, and of engine out of the mine and mountresentations of the figure, birds, and male in the carry in deal man was, etc., are here permissible, aid of which are out of piace and undit for the walls of our dwelling rooms, owing to the necessary repetition becoming obtained by the necessary repetition becoming to the necessary repetition becoming obtained by the necessary repetitions of the arustic fancy; thas, representations of the figure, birds, and my twist of our dwellings of our dwelling rooms, owing to the necessary repetitions of the sake of old recollections.

Handread of population and multi-ating walls of our dwelling resentations of the figure, birds, all of these sa

Change for a Bouble-Eagle.

"I recollect another instance," and the conductor's face lost its look of indignation and a smile crept over it, "in which I completely cured a fat, fussy to save five cents Economy is observ- could, filled her purse, her pockets, and who works on a princely salary has no inducement to lie for a new paltry pen- it cently a prospector said that when nies." said the innocent looking conductor, as he jerked the bell cord and took on a dude, starting the car again so quickly as to land the misrepresent :ster who sat in the farther corner.

Door Decoration. The door, which is so frequently s curee of anxiety to the ornamentist and decorator, might be made the means of greatly enhancing the artistic com-pleteness of a room. Much of the diffi-well-defined ledges till the summit was culty experienced in its treatment reached, Here the character of the Jad slipped quickly down the trunk, as a thong, inheriting much of his tather's plack and endurance. What ever he undertook to do he was pretty sare to carry through.

In these unsettled regions wild animals were numerous, especially that were numerous, especially the clearings, and their frequent depredations became a great pest to the predations became a great pest to the garns studied.

Jad slipped quickly down the trunk, occupies it now. The roof is gone, the distinctions, and there is a guils fly crying out; and as the wind how among these caverns and crags, it seems as if the demons of the air down and there is a guils fly crying out; and as the wind how among these caverns and crags, it seems as if the demons of the air down and there is a guils fly crying out; and as the wind how among these caverns and crags, it seems as if the demons of the air down and there is a guils fly crying out; and as the wind how among these caverns and crags, it seems as if the demons of the air functions. For this reason doors having a warchy was received with show among these caverns and crags, it seems as if the demons of the air functions. For this reason doors having a warchy was received with show among these caverns and crags, it seems as if the demons of the air functions. For this reason doors having a warchy was received with show among these caverns and crags, and there first full moon occurring on or alter March 21. The complex method of the new special control of this time-honored joke upon a "softy" was received with show are received with a provision, and there first full moon occurring on or alter March 21. The complex method of the new special control of this time-honored joke upon a "softy" was received with show the reached as the wind animal recovering the first full moon occurring on or alter March 21. The complex method of the per periods correct and so of the search of the stream of the tim The woods resounded with the confused medicy. Jad now found that he live sea of the Sierra. The two must fight for his life, and with another desperate blow he again stunned the creature, and, before he could recover, the resolute boy dispatched him.

Dropping the hatchet, Jad threw

The woods resounded with the confused medicy. Jad now found that he live sea of the Sierra. The two islands on Mono lake, like most of its aword to be spoken; silence becomes us have been made to trace some connection between natural phenomena and the period of seven days.

The woods resounded with the confused medical surface and month are not natural divisions of the live sea of the Sierra. The two islands on Mono lake, like most of its aword to be spoken; silence becomes us have been made to trace some connection between natural phenomena and the period of seven days.

The door is thus songut to be moden, the result is a failure. In modern-built hough," "Oh, get in," said No. 2, winking at houses the architects are devoting more to the result is a failure. In modern-built hough," "Oh, get in," said No. 2, winking at house the result is a failure. In modern-built hough," "Oh, get in," said No. 2, winking at house the result is a failure. In modern-built hough," "Oh, get in," said No. 2, winking at house the result is a failure. In modern-built hough," "Oh, get in," said No. 2, winking at house the result is a failure. In modern-built hough," "Oh, get in," said No. 2, winking at house the result is a failure. In modern-built hough," "Oh, get in," said No. 2, winking at house the result is a failure. In modern-built hough," "Oh, get in," said No. 2, winking at house the result is a failure. In modern-built hough," "Oh, get in," said No. 2, winking at house the result is a failure. In modern-built hough," "Oh, get in," said No. 2, winking at house the result is a failure. In modern-built hough, "Oh, get in," said No. 2, winking at house the result is a failure. In modern-built hough, "Oh, get in," said No. 2, winking at house the re The opening winter calls up once mare the waste that is visible on all sides in the burning of coal. There are to hills that course along as properly and the course along as a properly and the course along a properly and th no bills that come along so promptly at this season of the year as those for coal, and they are pretty large ones, said the guest meekly. "I'm always and a piece of decorative work, charming, the piece of decorative work, charming, the coarsession of the year as those for coal, and they are pretty large ones, said the guest meekly. "I'm always and a piece of vanity on the part of the ones. This door being disproportionate, and the panels consequently so, it has been sought to make it appear wider by running the flower spray behind the inave ordered a barrel of them sent to It is aileged that the Senate of the United States consumed during the mouths of July and August, 1882, no less than two hundred and one thousand pounds of ice, which, according to the chalk and blackboard of our esteemed contemporary, the Sun, gave no less than three thousand pounds of ice oeach Senator.

People will be puzzled to know how each Senator disposed of three thousand pounds. Of course, some of it was left. I heard there was a railroad, and when I got there the train had sunsed in connection with cooling drinks used in connection with cooling drinks — such as iced water and iced tea—but no man could drink three thousand an old engine out of the mine and mounted in the state of the state Beautifut preaming.

A good old lady mear Seaford, Dal. some time ago dreamed that three of her weli-to-do neighbors each gave her $1,000. So strong was her faith in dreams and in the realization of this particular one, that early on the day following she mounted her snorting Sucephalus and under a lively "Canter bury gallop," struck a bee line for the me of one of one of the gentleman who had given her, in her dreams, $1,-000. She made known to him her dream, and naively assured him that her confidence in his liberality was such as to lead her to believe that he would cheerfully do his part toward the fulfilment of the pleasant dream. Tue gallant gentleman replied that he would with much cheerfulness transfer to her $1,000 of his surplus cash, provided the other gentlemen would come down with their thousands. Whereupon the good old lady hurriedly rode on to gentleman No. 2, and related her dream to him. No. 2 assured her that his $1,000 should be promptly torthcoming if the two other gentlemen would had over theirs, Bucephaius was soon on the road to house of man No. 3, who ungaliantly pleaded that his bank account was so ow that he could afford to give her only $500, and on condition that both the other men would give her $1,000. But the two gentlemen first approached were inflexible and would give only according to their original promise. Of course the upshot was that the credument of that beautiful dream. Two of the gentlemen have since been sick, one of them dying, and the third is a great sufferer from that Prometheau vulture, the gnawing dyspepsia. And the simple old lady declares that their afflictions were put upon them by an evenhanded and watchful Providence to punish them for cruelly allowing her lovely dream to go unfuitille i. An American Volcano.

It has long been known that a little butte, rising about the centre of the tne Santa Cruz Valley, some mine miles outh of Tueson, Arizona, has a crater. coming from the Omega copper camp he cert-maly saw smoke arising from the top of this butte. Two gentlemen who went out hunting to Arivaca some three weeks ago wandered off from their road and one night camped at the base of this volcanic butte. They hear! strange, rumbling sounds in the night as if water was boiling or some hard plasting was being done for boneath the earth's sur/age. The next day a small party left Tueson to investigate the alleged erater.

"Do you want to see a vertable ouri-