of method does not bring a remedy, for what it proposes to remedy, and all talk of it being against the interferance of boss rule is a mere pit fall. for if there be such a thing as improper boss rule, it can as readily be brought to beat on a set of conferees chosen by a County Committee, as upon a set of delegates at a State convention. A change to have binding political moral force should have an expression of the people of the resional district. Such a change would require that the delegates, to the National convention be announced and voted for in each Congressional district by the people of the party .--Delegates elected in that way, would from the Philadelphia Record : ficers are chosen, which is the truly A- the hands of brokers or of citizens text, as a uniform series of some kind. be chosen, as all county and state of-
