Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. XXXVIII.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, JULY 2, 1884.

A DREAM OF THE SEA. I saw the sea in a dream— Such a great, wide, desolate sea— orfed by a dome of blank dead sky, lled by blank cliffs that towered as high

With seabirds, like phantoms, hovering by heard its terrible voice As it spread its long white arms, Catching and clutching at the shore, And falling backwards evermore With a hollow moan and an angry roar,

Slowly, slowly it crept
To my feet with a cruel smile;
The scabirds mocked and shricked at m
Whither, oh, whither could I fles
From the icy clasp of that awful sea?

looked on the stony cliff, And then to a pittless sky;
There was no help, no succour—none!
Never before had I guessed or known
The meaning of that dread word "Alone!

No blessed human sound, No faintest glimpse of God's sun! Is it the night, or is it day? I could not move, nor think, nor pray, but stared at Death, on the waters gray;

Coming stealthily near, Till his dank breath was on my face; And far away a inrid glow Like lightning glimmered to and fro-The gates of Hell swung open slow?

O terrible realm of Death ! O vision wild of Despair! Not, save in dreamland, can there be, Nother in time nor eternity, Such a dismal shore—such a fearful sea!

THE RIVALS.

It was young Count Linden's twentyfirst birthday, and a grand fancy-ball was being given in his honor at his fa- giad I have been of service to you." ther's country-house in Schloss Marburg, in Westphalia. The fine old mansion was a blaze of light, the scent of gallantly to his l'ps, Bowers hung heavy in the air though it down from their frames upon as motley alies as had ever assembled in the lefty rooms. Among the cavaliers, every one noticed Conrad von Rosenhain, a scious enough, the vain young fellow wish was law. was enjoying immensely the sensation

The horror of that moment was over- stricken house. whelming for Conrad von Rosenhamlittle cloak hanging to one shoulder and | the pretty little unknown who had so the slashed unmentionables stopping far | fascinated him. above his knees. His mirth vanished, and the little Absatian girl looked piqued. and shrugged her pretty shoulders be- was wounded in the shoulder-not secause her last sally of wit fell upon un- verely, but enough to make him unfit heeding ears. Her cavalier sneaked for service for some weeks. As no hosthrough the remainder of the quadrille pital was in the neighborhorhood, Schloss through a trick than a gay courtier, and Baron von Remsthal, was chosen as priefest possible apology. Raging at the flimsy products of all covery. through the heavy silk portices in search | mansion rapidly falling into decay; the let. It was a big rent, and he wondered the statues crumbled unheeded. And that the people in the ball-room re- within doors the desolation was nearly strained their merriment as well as as great- the once beautiful furniture ing at him now, confound them! A tatters, Moreover, there were very man in livery told him that by going to few servants; and rumors reached the end of a long corridor and pushing | Conrad's ears of the Baron von Remopen a certain door he would find one sthat's being deeply involved in debt. the lady's-maids, who would take One bright sunny day, as Conrad was sitting with the light glinting on her his stocking at the fancy-ball? far lear was no lady's-maid; in her light blue velvet dress, with soft old the little boudoir were hung with pinkish flowered sifk, rare Turkish mats forgotten me." tovered the polished floor, there were axuriously-cushioned divans, and the low chair in which the girl sat was a him quaint fancy in leopard skin, with silver claws for feet. She looked not more than sixteen, or perhaps younger, and the face bending over a mass of embroithe lovelest Conrad had ever seen.

"I have mistaken the room," he said self off as quietly as possible," tearly fell, and the girl startled looked have asked myself in vain thousands of 'Pray do not be alarmed " said Con - rad, advancing. "I was sent in search two who had never met before but once of a reald who would mend a rent in found to say to each other in the old my dress; but I must have mistaken garden, and the summons to luncheon the man's directions." "No, there is no mistake... I sent my mail to bed half an hour ago, as she had a had beadache. Perhaps I could remedy the defect in your dress," the chil returned, with a charming smile.

"Oh, no: not for worlds would I trouble you! I will go in search of some
The two were sitting one else," said Conrad, with something

But the pretty little fairy would not hear of his going, and, almost before he realized what she was doing, she had hreaded a needle with a bit of lilac silk and had dropped upon her knees before him on the wolf's skin upon which he stood, Deftly and quickly stocking, and rose lightly to her feet, Stateely touching Conrad's arm offered see you for the first time now?" he with Conrad.

The next de

"Yes, I was among the lookers-on in watched you particularly during the hour that I was allowed to stay. My aunt declares that I am too young to ing!"

"It is an unpardonable shame!" exclaimed Conrad excitedly, as-he looked into her plaintive violet eyes, dewy with "I will go and beg your aunt to

"Pray do nothing of the kind, Herr von Rosenhain," said the girl, laying her pretty hand on Conrad's sleeve; the whole tousehold would be scandalized if it knew that you had visited me cure." here. It is kind of you-very kindto interest yourself in me; but is too

"I must do as you wish, of course," returned Conrad reluctantly. "However it flatters me that you cared to dis-

"You would like to know mine, I suppose," she said, with a saucy smile but I am not going to tell it to you. Call me Penclope, or one of the Fates, or any one who sits working busily while others are amusing themselves, and weave some kind of interesting romance about me. Now leave me, I beg of you. I hope you will enjoy the remainder of the ball, and I am very

"I thank you heartily," said Conrad, pressing one of her soft white hands

Upon his return to the ball-room the was mid-winter, the music would have festivity seemed to have lost all its inspired a hermit to dance, and the por- | charm for Conrad von Rosenhain; the traits of dead and gone Lindens looked guests' voices were noisy and discordant empared with the low girlish tones to a throng of fairies, demons, knights and | which he had just been listening, and there was not a face in all the throng that did not pale before the deficate loveliness of the one he had seen bendhandsome young tellow of two-and- ing over the heap of colored silks in the twenty, straight and little, who, in his costume borrowed from the Court of about the conservatories and ante rooms Louis XV., attracted the brightest eyes for the remainder of the evening, askin the room. He wore a doublet of ing himself who the lovely little fairy purple velvet, blac silk stockings, shoes | could be whom fate had thrown in his white kid, a velvet cloak lined with | way; he dared not inquire without actwhite satin, a plumed hat, and a jeweled | ing contrary to her wishes that their insword; and, though he seemed uncon- terview should remain a secret-and her

The next day was a dark one for Schloss Marburg; the news spread like upon his shoulder, and the young solwildfire that the Countess Linden was and Conrad, with a pretty little Alsa- stricken down with a violent fever, and tian peasant as partner, was trying his the frightened guests were begged to wit against hers, to the amusement of all who overheard. But to the young Rosenhain was obliged to take his delimps never see Daphne again; but the knight's flow of repartee there came parture with the others, much though memory that she loved him awakened presently a sudden chilling shock; mid-way in the dance some one tapped him factress was, of whose childish violet though their love was. eves and lovely pink-tinted face he had been dreaming ever since. It would "Make yourself scarce as soon as have been heartless to pursue his inpossible; you have a long rip in the vestigations at such a time, and he could not stay and be a burden upon the

A few weeks later Conrad von Rosenhe, the hero of the ball, changed to an hain, together with many another brave object of ridicule, if any one were rude youth, was called upon to assist in the enough to laugh! If he had only an defence of his fatherland against the overcoat or a shawl to hide himself un- French, and in the excitement of army der-anything rather than that foolish | life his mind had less time to dwell upon

In an engagement near the village of Kirchfelt Lieutenant von Rosenhain more like a whipped hound being put | Hohenstein, the home of a certain at its conclusion he vanished with the quarters for the invalid, and thither Von Rosenhain was sent to await re-

modern looms, Von Rosenhain dashed Schloss Hohenstein was a fine old some one to restore order to his toi- shrubberies were tangled and unkempt, They were probably laugh- and tapestries were worm-eaten and in the necessary stitches in the unlucky stocking. walking in the garden, rejoicing at the thought of soon being able to rejoin his Following the man's directions, Von regiment, some one advanced towards Rosenhain found himself at length in him whom he bad not seen before at a large dimly-lighted apartment, bung Schloss Hohenstein-a graceful young d one end with half-drawn curtains, girl in a pretty fur-trimmed dress, her high which a light gleamed. He cheeks flushed with the cold crisp air. advanced quietly, and was about to Surely he had seen those eyes before? speak, when surprise at the tableau be-fore him silenced him. The lovely girl same mysterious fairy who had mended

"Good morning, Lieutenant von Ro senhain!" she said, with the lovely ace about the neck and sleeves, she smile he remembered so well. "I am seemed more like a young princess. so glad you are well enough to be out Nor were her surroundings out of keep- again. I have inquired for you every ing with her appearance. The walls of day, but have not had the pleasure of seeing you before. I hope you have not

"Never!" declared Conrad, retaining the little hand so frankly proffered from the man's own lips.

"How odd that we should meet again quite by chance! But you do not know me. I must introduce myself now, belerv-silks on the table at her side was von Remsthal, and I live here with my father. "So at last I know the name of the to himself, "and had better take my- fair unknown who helped me out of my very unpleasant predicament at Count But, as he turned, he slipped and Marburg's ball. It is a question that I times since." It was astonishing how much these the invalid soldier found nothing so beneficial for his health as a stroll in the

as hostess, could not but chat with her The two were sitting one day near an old moss grown sun-dial at the end of the garden walk, and a very pretty tableau they made-she with a bright color in her cheeks, her light curly hair tossed about her forehead, and her eyes like diamonds, and he with enough pallor, the himself. result of his illness to lend a new interest to his face, and his fine figure set off by his uniform. Daphne had gath-

The next day Lieutenant von Rosenhain took his stroll in the garden alone. in his study. The Baron received the young man with elaborate politeness, and proceeded to tell him that a sumagreeable a guest from his house, but it | since. could not be helped.

"By-the-way," continued the old man, "it would perhaps interest you to hear that my daughter Daphne is about let you come. Describe her to me, and I will search till I find her." to be betrothed to a distant cousin of mine, Hugo von Pleyel, a man considmine, Hugo von Pleyel, a man considerably her senior, but of excellent character, and possessed of a handsome fortune. It is an unspeakable relief to me to know that my child's future is se-

> Von Rosenhain's congratulations, which he felt called upon to make, died upon his lips, Every word the old Baron said was a cruel blow to hopes he had ventured to cherish. He took leave of his host as soon as possible, and began pacing up and down the avenue a victim to the gloomiest of thoughts. That he loved Daphne with all his heart and soul he knew beyond the shadow of a doubt, and from an occasional glance hope that she cared for him. But alas for the fond dreams of either now! He. a young officer, with no other property the world than his horse and sword, ould ill offer himself as rival to the ruptcy. How the young man hated prize he so yearned for !

As Conrad strode past a half-rained from the avenue, the sound of smothered sobbing reached his ear. In another

"Am I not to congratulate you on our engagement?" he asked, with a bitter ring in his voice.

what can I do? We are very poor-almost on the verge of want-and I cannot disappoint my father. "Do you love any one else?" Conrac isked eagerly watching her face. For reply she leaned her pretty head dier knew the truth.

The next day Lieutenant von Rosen-ham tock his departure. His heart was outskirts of the little village of Apfelours' sleep.

"It is a pity we can have no better

The man took a lantern and went towards the deserted-looking building

As no one objected, the soldier flung the armful of books upon the dying and soon the camp-fire burned merrily, of the King and the representatives of The cylinder is then filled with molten fed by scores of priceless old volumes.

'A pity—a great pity; but our men should break any of the provisions of cannot freeze," said a man, lying wrap—the charter. The curse was well caled in his cloak, near Von Rosenhain. He had curiously piercing dark eyes, and a mustache nearly white; but his lates to English liberty. Its language down so as to be of equal length. While figure was lithe and active as any was: 'By the authority of Almighty that is going on the comb is turned, the Presently Conrad leaned forward, and or counsel, do make statutes or observe cylinder is set on the bed plate, and opwith his sabre idiy raked a little vellum- them being made against the said liber- posite it the comb is fastened, so that bound book towards him out of the ties, are accursed and sequestered from surning pile. It was a volume of Dante's the company of Heaven, from the sac- of the comb exactly meet. These are Inferno with the date 1530. On the fly- raments of the Holy Church." leaf were these words in faded ink-Daphne, de son ami Louis."

"Daphne," said Conrad, half to himself-"an unusual name, and a very pretty one too," "I am glad you like it," observed the dark eyed stranger at his side; 'it is the companion, a short, stout, ponderous name of the girl who is to be my wife." Conrad looked at the man in silence.

The idea took sudden possession of him he could not bear to hear the truth

On the first opportunity that offered, he asked one of the men who the tall officer was with the eagle eyes and gray

"That is Colonel Hugo von Pleyel," was the reply.

The next night it was necessary to send an important message to a certain point three miles distant. The way lay through the village, and was dangerous, as many French soldiers were skulking Conrad von Rosenhain was about. chosen as one messenger, and oddly enough it fell to the lot of Colonel von Plevel to accompany him. At dark the two men set forth on their dangerous errand, the elder knowing little of the hate for him in the younger one's breast. On the way they spoke little, and followed each other in shrubbery, even when the weather seem- the darkness as well as they could. Passed to others unpropitious; and Daphne, as hostess, could not but chat with her end of the village street, Von Rosenhain's sword slipped and struck on the

"Who goes there?" called a gruff voice in French, followed by the sharp report of a musket.

"Foolish fellow to waste his bullet panion and strolled off to look after invested in cattle, blooded horses and aiming in the dark !" said Conrad to

Outside the village the danger was over, and Von Rosenhain, having wandered out of hearing of his companion. grown together at the base and separat-burried on alone, delivered his message. ed twelve feet from the ground, is seen Property is contiguous, and consists of streets, Philadelphia, Pa., bearing the ered a tiny bunch of winter violets, and was showing her treasures to Conrad, who bent his head over hers to see them, when both were startled by a voice sayhurried on alone, delivered his message, pearance here this evening? Surely 1 ruthlessly broken in upon her tete-a-tete Pleyel was stone-dead, shot through the Von Rosenbain remembered with a shock the striking of his sabre on the ground, the challenge of the French air after inserting a key at one end and the gallery, near the musicians, and I Towards evening he was requested to ground, the challenge of the French air after inserting a key at one end and watched you particularly during the honor Baron you Remsthal with a visit soldier, and the bullet fired. That bullet had struck down the man whom he and dimensions of a small trunk. hated above all o hers on earth. He "That is undoubtedly," he said, "the had fallen upon the stone bench with- most perfect mechanical music box in appear at the ball as a guest—do you not think it a shame? I shall be six-mons had come for him to rejoin his out a cry, and, supported by the wall of teen next birthday, and I love danc- regiment; he would regret losing so the house, had sat in ghastly silence ever tory in Sainte Croix, Switzerland, under and to Conrad von Rosenhain's delight price, too, is very low, only $1,500. whom the young man wrote of his ad- priced instruments in stock. angel," the neighbors said.

How Magna Charta was Obtained. The Barons of England excited by a this stranger who was to bear off the first mentioned in the body of the char- as intricate, in expensive boxes, as that ammer-house standing a little back among the witnesses to the royal signa-in their construction as is needed in moment he stood in the little arbor, clasping both Dapne's hands in his, and looking down into her tear brimming also his work? We know that his learning exceeded that of any man in learning excee England of his day. We know that he pression and harmony. Indeed, the possessed the only copy of the charter harmony produced by some of our exthe kingdom, and we know that the point of musical expression. "Oh, no, no! I am so unhappy. But rough and hardy Barons were neither fire on this bitter cold night; go to the guished man, says: 'As Anselm had main spring, the comb, the running the shores of the lake between hostile here. Beloved! by your own voluntary house yonder, Wilhelm, and see if you withstood William the Red, as Theo-can find any fuel," said one of the of-bold had rescued England from the shops in Switzerland, which furnish wards the deserted-looking building standing in its own grounds, the abandoned home of some rich family. He returned with his arms full of books.

"The place has been plundered, sir, of everything but these, but they will all of Westminster, designed for the purpose of impressing men the Sov.

cal robes and bearing lighted tapers in other person then drills all the little where, in ages past, fire and smoke their hands pronounced, in the presence holes and another inserts the points, where the points are the dominant elements, where the points are the dominant elements, as the same are the dominant elements. culated to impress the mind, and its points, and is then allowed to cool. On Von Rosenhain watched him narrow- tyrs and all the saints in Heaven, all give the proper flexibility. The tone is y, and wondered that he had not seen those who violate the English liberties, lowered by filing near the base, and and secretly or openly, by deed, word heightened by filing near the point. The

A Good Story.

One day Bismarck went out snipe shooting with a friend. They had to traverse a quagmire into which his gentleman, sunk up to his armpits. himself, he yelled for help to drag him Farewell, dear friend. I will tell your present time. danger threatening him, the unlucky

Two Trees.

How Music floxes are Made

The rosewood music box that the several recent patents, which make it A successor was needed to fill the much superior to instruments of this post of the lamented Colonel von Pleyel, kind as ordinarily constructed. The it was offered to him as a reward for that the highest-priced instrument we his past bravery. The first person to have? Yes. We do not keep highervancement was the Baron von Rem- make them to order. We have got as sthal, and the letter contained a formal high as $6,000 for a box but the music request for the hand of his daughter produced was not so perfect as this, be-Dapline in marriage, Daphre herself cause the instrument lacked the patentreplied with a happy glowing letter; ed improvements which this has. This has a regular set of reeds, with a melover claimed his bride. Daphne in her chanical arrangement producing an alorange-blossoms was "beautiful as an most perfect imitation of the human voice, together with bells, drums, castanets, and the harp, all of which are used with the finest orchestral effect. Besides, by means of interchangeable cylinders, the number of tunes may be increased to any extent the owner may sense of their wrongs and the wrongs desire, so that if he tires of one set of of their k ngdom, took an oath before tunes by a triding expenditure he can a doubt, and from an occasional glauce the high altar, in the presence of the and word of hers he allowed himself to Primate, to stand by each other in desets as he chooses, embracing tunes of fense of their rights, and make war his own selection or ours, whichever he upon the King until he should grant may prefer. This box plays forty-eight their just demands for liberty and law, airs without change of cyunder. Ra-Yielding to the determined and united ther high-priced music, you think? force of the Barons in arms, John asked Not at all, when you come to consider rich Baron von Pleyel when the Von Kemsthals were on the verge of bank. Charta was the result of this conference, volved in the construction of these in-The name of Stephen Langton is the struments, the mechanism of which is ter among the peers to whom its grants of the watch. Indeed, about the same are made, and his name is the first amount of mechanical skill is required ture. The formation of the Baropial league which assembled in arms to decate machinery of a fine watch. Our mand the charter was his work. Was different grades are the ordinary box, of Henry that could then be found in pensive boxes reaches the sublime in We employ in our factory in Switzermen of letters nor learning. Do we land about 800 skilful artisans. Our not, then, owe this great charter of the instruments are shipped to all parts of hand and the brain of a Cardinal Arch-favorite airs of each country to which bishop of the Catholic Church? It is they are sent. We manufacture both true that this great man subsequently incurred the temporary displeasure of incurred the temporary displeasure of from a dollar up to $5.000, or more if a from a dollar up to $5.000, or more if a Fope Innocent, and was called to Rome, where the diplomatic and artful reprewhere the diplomatic and artful repre-chanism of these boxes is also placed in sentatives had deceived the Papal Court in reference to the condition of Eng. in reference to the condition of Eng- France and Germany, such as albums, which play when you sit down upon There had been a sharp engagement true that the misrepresentations of the between French and Prussians on the envoys of John were successfully correquiring great skill in its construction, rected by Langton, and he returned to is simple in ordinary boxes. It consists lawlessness of Stephen, so Langton these parts to all the manufacturers continent. prepared to withstand and rescue his there. There are only two of those of everything but these; but they will purpose of impressing upon the Sovmake a fine fire."

In all of Westminster, designed to a person given to a person grant to a person the points of the cylinder and the teeth the main features of the ordinary mechanical music box. Of course the construction and adjustment of the various accompaniments, etc., in the larger boxes are more complicated. Probably the largest sale of lands After struggling in vain to extricate ever made to private purchasers on the continent was made some time ago by that his hated rival was before him; but out of the vile bog hole, the muck of Mr. Lawson, of Denver, to a syndicate which was fast raising to his mouth of English and Scotch gentlemen. The and nose. "My beloved friend," price realized was $1,000,000 and the answered Bismarck, with the utmost area of the country sold was larger calm, "you will never be able to scramble out of that hole, and it is quite impossible to save you. But I'll States of Chihuahua and Durango, in passion for coin collecting. tell you what, my boy, I'll spare you a filthy and protracted death agony by shooting you through the head." "Are Col. Lawson was the most ancient of you beside yourself?" screamed the other, making frantic efforts to wriggle

This was the most ancient of any upon the American continent.

This was the first transfer that had out of the swamp. "I don't want been made in two hundred years. either to suffocate or to be shot." Longer ago than that the King of Spain agricultural implements. This immense estate consists of two immense ranches, the property of Don A curious tree, or rather two trees Antonio Ansansola, in the States of

1,610 square miles. The river Florida flows for a distance of twelve miles through the ranches of "San Jose" "San Ysidro," The plains and rolling lands are covered with the finest pastures, consisting principally of black gramma grass. These two ranches have a large area of very fertile and arable land, about 12,000 acres under cultivation. The crops consist principally of Indian core, wheat, barley, Irish and sweet potatoes. These lands will graze 100,000 head of cattle, or 300,000 head of sheep. In and to the above described six properties the purchased two important ranches, adjacent to each other, the two different States, known in Spanish parlance as La Grande de la Estocade, part of the ancient Haciendo de Canoa. These last mentioned contain from 250,000 to 300,000 acres and most excelent grazing in the greatest abundance. The grasses on these are black gramma and bunch. There were also included in the sale 35,000 head of sheep, 1,300 head of unbroken horses, 300 head of saddle horses, eighty well-broken mules, 300 head of work oxen. 200 5,000 bushels of corn, 3,000 bushels of wheat, 250 acres of seeded wheat, one-third of which is estimated at 2,000 bushels, furniture, farming tools, saddles, harness, etc. was a new church just finished. The preacher was not included in the sale, as no sum could be agreed upon at present market value of the product. Reason, market glutted.

The purchasers, a syndicate of pherson Grant, Lord Tweedmouth, J. Dalz'el and Messrs, Cran, Bruce and others, the price being £200,000 or $1,-000,000, Col. Lawson, of Denver, is one of the directors. The company intend stocking the land with the finest and best breeds of English and Scotch horses and cattle, and the lands will be cultivated by skilled laborers and with improved agricultural implements.

The Mystery of Cayuga Lake.

"If you are ever drowned in Caynga expense or trouble of dragging the take for your body, for they'd never find

This was the cheerful remark made cavities, many of them resembling the excellent things the bishop said :

"It was in Cayuga Lake that the years ago. The weeks that were spent in dragging for the chest was time thrown away, for it had sunk into the mouth of one of these dead volcanoes, some distance above Cloud City. Just been issued by the Government ordermouth of one of these dead volcanoes, the obligation to observe its provisions, chine, marks the places on the cylinder where the points are to be inserted. Another of the bodies o

The progress of intelligence has afbooks, It is only in the very out-of-theway places that coins are to be picked size of our half sovereign, tetched 25 guineas in 1777. In 1817 it came to the hammer, and was knocked down at £80 to a well-known collector. Unfortunately for him a duplicate soon afterward appeared in a safe and he had to pay £90 for that. Later on still the special feet.

There is an old Indian tradition about this general and that fell to his. There is an old Indian tradition about this general and that an old Indian tradition about this general and that an old Indian part of the special feet is a sold Indian between the special feet is a special feet is a special feet in the special feet in the special feet is a special feet in the spe

Up a tributary of the Pend d'Oreille river, on which is situated Thompson's One day a policeman brought to the andependence.

A bronze tablet has been placed upon the front of the new Penn National "More mind thanks for such a traversed together on the previous family and the diameter at the point in Durango.

"Lieutenant von Rosenhain, you are still an invalid. They are firmly mind thanks for such a traversed together on the previous family and the diameter at the point in Durango.

"Lieutenant von Rosenhain, you are still an invalid. They are firmly mind thanks for such a traversed together on the previous of junction is nearly four feet. It is add that at a distance of a quarter of a cedar. They are firmly mind, and the diameter at the point in Durango.

"Lieutenant von Rosenhain, you are the test of Chihnahua, two-thirds of their area being in said State and one-third in Durango.

"Lieutenant von Rosenhain, you are very imprudent to sit in this damp gare evening, and, as he neared the little add that at a distance of a quarter of a cedar. They are firmly minted, and the diameter at the point in Durango.

"More, "Cienguilla," "Passida" and "Ygaesios," situated in the southern part of the State of Chihnahua, two-thirds of their area being in said State and one-third in Durango.

The area embraced by these properties is very large, being about twenty-seven being an on the content of the diameter at the point of the content of the diameter at the point of the content of the diameter at the point of the content of the c

Far up the ancient river Halys, on either side, is many a village where alost every house has a man at work in to the cultivation of the oyster. Constantinople; for the farming of -Parlor cars, with bay windows, these villages is just as ancient as the are about the latest thing on wheels, river, and needs outside help to hold its own year by year. And as there is no the hotels and restaurants in Russia. bank in Anatolia and no system of per cent. of the hamal's earnings is a year. ensumed by the sharp politzadji for stantinople to the old home.

which they left behind them, are usually robust, as well as the men. Indeed, any one born there with frail constitution dies before long running this or La Grande de San Anosse, and a gauntlet of infantile disease and exposure, so that only the strong are left. And the twopence worth per day on which they live, of coarse bread and curds, or hulled wheat and simple in the world. soups, helps to develop beautiful teeth and bones, good digestion and iron macles. Some years ago an American doctor, practicing in Sivas, told me it was not at all uncommon for a village not far from $18,000,000 of gold and woman to take her child, one or two silver bullion annually. days old, on her back and walk three miles to town to inquire of him if every- twenty-five thousand persons live in thing was all right with them. But furnished lodgings in Paris, when the doctor asked one of them, "Why don't you learn to read," she answered, with that peculiar shrug of her magnificent shoulder: "Ugh! You get out. What can a cow learn?" And some of them are about as awkward in handling a peedle, too, as a cow would be. When a hamal, or cus-English and Scotch gentlemen, C. Mac- tom house porter, returns after years at Stamboul, he naturally brings with him new ideas. I know one who presented his wife with a full set of civilized spoons, knives and forks; but she recently, paid a dividend of 42 per promptly traded them off and turned cent. again to rely solely on the great wooden spoons of her ancients and on fingers. Another steadily refused to sell his in the bed of a stream in the Island of daughter till the villagers made him Skye, pay $75 for a girl his boy wanted, Others discourse learnedly on customrouse tricks and on the different European linguas. Some of them are quite Lake, your friends need not go to the eager for the mental improvement of their women and children. I visited a Darling" '-is reported critically illy ill small village near Silvas which has a good school for both sexes, supported Newport. entirely by the interest on money con liberties of the English people to the the world, the instruments playing the by a resident of Ithaca who has a taste tributed by its own citizens working in for geological research and who has in- Stamboul. Some time ago strolling dulged it during the past few years in into an Armenian village church, I investigating the bottom of Cayuga took a secluded corner and heard sentiments in the address of the bishop there "From all I have been able to dis- which ten years ago would have been eover," said he, "the bottom of Cayuga considered rank heresy, worthy only an Lake is a series of large openings and American missionary. Among other "Edland and the doings of its Sovereign, and thereby induced the Holy See to visit spiritual condemnation upon the Barons in their war against the King to maintain the charter they had the mechanism also in chairs, and them resembling the excellent things the bishop said: "Educate very one of your girls, and simulated the doings the bishop said: "Educate every one of your girls, and simulated the things the bishop said: "Educate every one of your girls, and simulated the things the bishop said: "Educate every one of your girls, and simulated the things the bishop said: "Educate every one of your girls, and simulate every one of your girls, and simulated the possibilities of the Peace who are over seventy your young men, with classic every one of your girls, and simulated the bishop said: "Educate every one of your girls, and simulated the bishop said: "Educate every one of your girls, and simulated the bishop said: "Educate every one of your girls, and simulated the bishop said: "Educate every one of your girls, and simulated the bishop said: "Educate every one of your girls, and simulated the bishop said: "Educate every one of your girls, and simulated the bishop said: "Educate every one of your girls, and simulated the bishop said: "Educate every one of your girls, and simulated the bishop said: "Educate every one of your girls, and simulated the bishop said: "Educ wrested from him. But it is equally which you sit down them, automatic figures, mechanical ferent depths, or rather, are of different rise. The young man goes to town, are expected to furnish the polishing heights. Their depth I have never At eve he returns, walking heavily. oils for the brasses, etc.

been able to sound, although I have look into his face. It is no face lowered many hundred feet of plunt at all. What's the matter, man? Got postal service in the world, letters being line into them. They are undoubtedly a toothache? Your girl dead? Oh, outskirts of the little village of Apfeldorf, and the contending parties hovered still about the place for another attack on the morrow. At nightfall lieutenant von Rosenham and a few other officers and men gathered round a measure ficers and men gathered round a measure field by Langton, and he returned to fa brass roller with projecting points, at teothache? Your girl dead? 'Oh, laving revoked the spiritual condemnation, subsequently caused the same the four money.

In the into them. They are undoubtedly fathomless, and have become receptance for the fathomless, and have become receptance for the bodies of the hundreds of the bodies of the hundreds of the hundreds of the bodies of the hundreds of the hundreds of the hundreds of the bodies o "A late historian of England, in construction of a music box, such as thousand of people killed in the fierce tinople to be a slave for years, and speaking of the services of this distin- the bed plate, the blank roller, the battles that were frequently waged on leaves his young wife to be another tribes of the 'original people' years be slavery to evil custom we are becoming fore the white man appeared on this poorer and fewer in this progressive country.

An Animated Snow-Piqueb.

and, if it is not staking yet, is no doubt a first passing cloud and passing about in the bottomless depths trail in the snow which appeared to be yellow fever victims.

The passing cloud trail in the snow which appeared to be yellow fever victims.

—Canada is trying the experiment of trail was as wide as though an ox had manufacturing cutlery, the first factory been dragged sideways, and the snow having been started at Montreal a short was pressed so hard that a pony could time ago, with forty workmen brought easily have been driven over it. Bob ever from Sheffield. threw away his snow shoes and followed ___The dwarf, General Mite, whos fected coins in these days no less than this trail, which led along the mountain wedding in England, recently, was made side in a northerly direction. Reaching the ruins of the hear den he found newspapers, is said to be a native of up for a song. The chief hunting nothing but the bones of the bears left. Oxford, Chenar ground, Asia Minor, is well looked While he stood in blank amazement his Joseph Flynn. nothing but the bones of the bears left. Oxford Chenango county, N. Y., named God and the blessed Apostles and marturner having first to file the teeth to after by the dealers, and the private tyrs and all the saints in Heaven, all give the proper flexibility. The tone is collector has, of course, to pay them where he saw a huge serpent making has just been discovered at Ekhmeeun, where he saw a huge serpent making has just been discovered at Ekhmeeun, and the private collector has, of course, to pay them where he saw a huge serpent making has just been discovered at Ekhmeeun, and the private collector has, of course, to pay them where he saw a huge serpent making has just been discovered at Ekhmeeun, and the private collector has a private colle their profit. The increasing in value its way down Slate river notil it disaptation. The increasing in value its way down Slate river notil it disaptation. Upper Egypt. Five great tombs, or catacombs, already opened have yielded ranch of Frank Nichols, some three size of our half sovereign, fetched 25 miles from Cloud City. The terror-catacombs have been verified.

a third turned up, and that fell to his bid at £100. Yet a fourth came to light in 1840. The owner of the three bid up to £110, but had to give in to a bid of £113 from a rival. Fancy his feelings! The rare brass medallions of Commodus, intrinsic value 2d, or 31. Commodus, intrinsic value 2d. or 3t a tepee and eyes like saucers, about -Detroit places itself near the from fetch up to £30, and the large pieces of one yard and a half apart. It lives in rank of cities using the electric light by Syracuse, the finest coins perhaps that a subterranean passage, which has an appropriating $95,000 for the mainter we know of, regularly run up to £50 entrance in an unexplored part of the ance for a year of 72 electric light and £60. It is evident, therefore, that Dark Canyon, on the opposite side of towers. Of these towers six are to be covered a new use for the telephone.

Falls, is a Frenchman named Baptiste station a Jew, having in his possession Duchrane. He is 103 years of age, and a quantity of silver believed to be stolen. first saw a railroad car last fall, when a But as the Jew stoutly declared the Raising his gun to his shoulder, and taking careful aim. Bismarck replied in mournful accents, "Keep still for one second. It will soon be over.

Longer ago than that the King of Spain first saw a railroad car last lan, when a train crossed the Coriacan defile, over which is the highest wooden bridge in the world. This man has a half-blood daughter at Fort Corville 70 years old, presumed thief failed to extricate him.

Longer ago than that the King of Spain first saw a railroad car last lan, when a train crossed the Coriacan defile, over which is the highest wooden bridge in the train crossed the Coriacan defile, over which is the highest wooden bridge in the world. This man has a half-blood daughter at Fort Corville 70 years old, the world. The largest fire insurance ever effect. Farewell, dear friend. I will tell your wife of your last moments." Stimulated to superhuman exercise the superhuman exercise danger threatening him, the unlucky sportsman contrived to wrench himself out of the mad and crawl on all fours to terra firma. As soon as he felt himself safe, he burst, of course, into a torrent of violent reproaches. Bismarck, smiling, listened to him a while, then simply remarking: "You see I was right, every one for himself, turned his back on his infuriated companies and strolled off to look after."

danger threatening him, the unlucky sportsman contrived to wrench himself, and sheep and cattle in the mountains. Col. Lawson went down to Mexico two bath the Hudson Bay and American beath the Hudson Bay and American companies, he has a signal being given, the sportsman contrived to wrench himself, and sheep and cattle in the mountains. Col. Lawson went down to Mexico two beath the Hudson Bay and American companies, he has a signal being given, the for companies. He ascended the Yellowstone river in 1804 and saw the geywords, "Itsno Smellansky, it will be better for thee to'confess that thou has to obled somebody, otherwise thy punishment will inevitably more severe." Afterwards, summoning the Jew into state by the direct tax of 1861. The price realized was $1,000,000, with an additional $1,000,000 to be yet invested in cattle, blooded horses and sold furs to both Hudson Bay and American beath the Hudson Bay corn and coffee and wheat in the villages | trapped for the company all that season. | the police master's office what had hap amounted to $6,000,000, and was dividdid not matter whether he divulged his no way of paying it without an act of crime or not, as the "machine" would Congress. do it for him. At this the Jew laughed outright, while the inspector placed a principally occupied with the discussion sheet of paper on the table and prepared of a proposal to allocate £50,000 out of to take down the confession. When the Church funds to the founding of everything was ready, he told the Jew exhibitions and professorships in the to put the tube to his ear and decide Divinity School of Trinity College, whether he would confess himself or allow the machine to do it for him. Then, giving the signal, he returned to the table, when a second or two later he had the satisfaction of seeing the Jew's face turn deadly pale at hear-

NEWS IN BRIEF

NO. 27.

-Bear meat is a regular dish at all -There are 63 lawyers practicing in postal notes, sometimes from 5 to 10 Pottsville. They don't average $1,000

-The telegram overtakes twentytransferring the remainder from Con-detective. These Armenian women and girls, -The longest express run is said to be from St. Paul, Minn., to Helena, Mont., > 1156 miles, -It is proposed to make Easter Monday and Whit Monday general holidays in France.

> -There are more Roman Catholics in New York city than any other city

-Twenty per cent, more cotton has been planted this year in Louisiana than during last, -California is at present producing

-No less than two hundred and -The public schools of Japan have over 2,000,000 of students, and are modeled on the American plan. -Ten million dollars has recently been spent by the Brazilian Government on the new water supply of Rio. -Fifteen thousand bushels of oysters were planted in Great Bay, Atlan-Royer's Ford, Pa., destroyed by fire,

-Silver coins of the time of Elizabeth have been found in large numbers

-At Rostov, South Russia, there is said to be a sect which gives poisone narcotics to children as a part of its

-Ida Lewis-the American "Grace at the Lime Rocks Light House, near -A Venetian condola, with native

gondoliers, is now a poetic feature of the Thames, introduced by a rich Emr--The ideal ear of corn is one with twelve rows, ten or twelve inches long.

capped at the tip. The State of New York, it is uniform in size from the tip and well

-Preparations are being made at Brandon, in Coos county, Oregon, to destroy the sea lions, which are a great detriment to the fishing interests on the

and destrection, it is estimated that the pine forests of Minnesota, Wiscon-Some time ago a hunter known as sin and Michigan will cease to exist in 150 feet high and sixty-six 104 feet high, -Oxford university's income for the past year was £53,900, including £13,-300 from estates. £4,000 from the press £24,700 from fees and dues, and £11,-

300 from miscellaneous sources, -Krupp's works, at Esen, now employ 439 steam boilers and 466 steam engines with the aggregate of 18,500

-The Irish Church Synod has been and with another to endow the Primacy vith £25,000.

-Ten years ago the Wyoming Stock lowers' Association was organized outh ten members, representing 25,000 attle, worth $500,000. The memberas salian peasant with whom you lave level firsting all the evening."

Von Rescabain secured in no harry 120 to 12