

B. F. SCHWEIER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES G. BLAINE, OF MAINE.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, JOHN A. LOGAN, OF ILLINOIS.

There are no Blaine kickers in Ohio.

Anything to beat Blaine and Logan, is the campaign whoop of the Democracy.

Blaine is a Pennsylvanian, his people live in this commonwealth before the revolution of 1776.

The Grant and Ward swindle has seventeen million dollars debts and sixty-seven thousand dollars to pay.

Several furnished that have been idle the past three years were put in last week at Columbia, this State. They employ several hundred hands.

The past year, nearly fifteen thousand young Germans who desired to leave Germany to escape military duty have been arrested and forced in to the army.

The Democratic delegation to Chicago made that noisy city doubly noisy on the Sunday that they were there. They marched through the streets with bands playing and held booster receptions on the Lord's day.

Nearly all the Democratic Congressmen went to Chicago, and that caused Congress to adjourn, and that is about the only good the late Democratic convention has done the country. Give honor to whom honor is due.

Dr. BLENKMAN, an astronomer, declared the object glass of his telescope, and took a look at the moon, and declares that he saw fields, towns and other places of human habitation. The announcement of his discovery has created a profound sensation.

The Irish, bless their kind hearts, are about to consult their welfare, and come over to the side of Blaine and Logan, and that fact has produced almost a panic in the mind of the Democracy, for the erring brethren have had almost a monopoly of the Irish vote.

The New York Democracy are rubbing their eyes so as to see clearly, that it is in fact that it was the Blaine Republicans that elected Cleveland governor, and now they are all shouting for Blaine, and in addition to the return to the fold the Irish people have stepped over to the side of Blaine and Logan, being convinced that so positive an American as Blaine is, will cause him to give more attention to the British foreign question than has been given to it in many years.

There is great consternation among stockmen having ranches in the Indian Territory. The Sheriff of the Cherokee Nation, with a band of Indians, has been taking down the wire fencing that encloses larger tracts than fifty acres, that being the limit allowed by the act of the Cherokee Council. The Sheriff confiscated all the wire he has taken down. The Sheriff began work south of Coffeyville and is taking it down clean as he comes east. Thousands of miles of fencing have been removed. The Indians seem to mean business and evidently propose to eject all intruders.

National Democratic Convention.

The Democratic National Convention met at Chicago on the 8th inst. Richard B. Hubbard, of Texas, was elected temporary chairman. He delivered a speech on taking the chair, which is notable for one thing, namely, the declaration, "that the principles underlying the Democratic party are the same as they have been during the past seventy-five years." The age of Mr. Hubbard has not been stated, but his speech declares him to be a man of some age or he got hold of a speech that had been delivered by some Democrat before the war. Should Mr. Hubbard prove to be a man of only forty-five years, his speech must be interpreted to mean that the Democracy do not accept the change that has been caused by rebellion. He intimated that Hayes had stolen the Presidency from the Democracy, and said quite a number of things that tickled the office seekers of which the convention was mainly composed.

The convention was rather unkind to Kelly and his friends from New York. Mr. Kelly and his friends proposed that each individual delegate should vote to suit himself and that in the way the Republicans voted. The Republican party has got away from such arbitrary political power as the unit rule. It suits the old slave power rule of the Democracy. They were unkind when they would not allow Kelly and his friends to vote for men of their choice. A large number of resolutions were introduced and referred to respective committees.

On the 9th W. F. Vilas, of Wisconsin, was elected Permanent Chairman. Mr. Vilas on taking the chair delivered a speech. It was a different speech from that of Hubbard's. It was a slap at the past of the Democracy, and an expression of hope for the future of the party, and a bitter denunciation of the Republican party. The Hubbard and Vilas speeches will do first rate to rally up all shades of the Democracy with.

The Convention nominated candidates for the Presidency with the understanding that the candidates should not be voted for till after the platform should be decided upon.

T. F. Bayard, of Delaware, was first nominated, Joseph E. McDonald was the second nominee, A. G. Thurman was the third nominee, John G. Carlisle was the fourth nominee, Cleveland was the fifth nominee, after he was nominated, T. F. Grady, of New York, came to the platform and delivered a speech in which he declared that if Cleveland be nominated he cannot be elected. Grady's speech created a great tumult, but he was allowed to dismount the difficulties in the way of the election of Cleveland, in the event of his becoming the nominee of the party. The convention then adjourned till Thursday.

The convention met on the 10th next noon and the committee on resolutions reported that they were not ready to report a platform.

George Hoody was the 6th candidate put in nomination. Samuel Randall was the 7th nominee.

At 9 o'clock in the evening, the chairman on resolutions came forward and read the Platform, which is at least ten times longer than the moral law, and not nearly so good a document as that old law, which, if the Democracy had obeyed, would have kept them from marching through the streets of Chicago on Sunday in procession with bands playing and banners floating in the breeze. Long as the Platform is, we will publish it next issue. People will have time to examine it between this and election times. It took one hour to read the resolutions, or platform, and when it was completed General Butler presented a minority platform, or a report of a minority of the committee on resolutions.

It was read, but it was the majority report or platform that was adopted. Butler said that it took thirty-six hours to frame the tariff part of the majority report platform. How could other people find out what it means. The Hancock platform on the tariff question said, "tariff for revenue only." The present platform says tariff for public purposes and exclusively. Where is the difference? Upon the conclusion of the questions that Butler raised. The convention took a ballot.

The first ballot resulted as follows: Cleveland 302, Carlisle 27, Bayard 170, Hoody 13, Thurman 10, Randall 7, Vilas 7, McDonald 6, Fisher 4, Adjourning till Friday at 10 o'clock.

SECOND BALLOT. Cleveland 474, Bayard 150, Hendricks 124, Thurman 100, Randall 67, McDonald 52, Tilden 2.

THIRD BALLOT. Cleveland 683, Bayard 81, Hendricks 451, Thurman 44, McDonald 2, Randall 4.

Hendricks, of Indiana, was nominated for Vice President by acclamation.

Fighting The Bushmen. A lot of strange men from the bushes have been keeping up a fight with the hands at the saw mill of T. J. Richard, in Shade Mountain, six miles east of this town, ever since the night of June 27. In the evening of July 3, a general engagement took place between the mill men and the strangers from the woods. Shots were fired and William Page, one of the employees of the mill, got a bullet through his clothes, which however did no more serious damage than to scare him badly. Lan Turner, W. W. Karster, Pierce and T. Richards have been stoned and hurt by discharges of laborers, but no serious casualties have been yet reported. Last Thursday night the Sheriff with a posse visited the scene of the disorder and a general engagement occurred, in which, however, there were no serious casualties.

THE WAR AGAINST THE BROTHERS. This afternoon Sheriff Shively's posse of fifteen men came in from all night effort to capture a lot of bushmen. Richard made information against the assaulting party. He declares that the leader is a large man, with full beard, dressed in dark clothes and dark slouch hat. Upon oath he declared that W. W. Karster, William Pierce and T. Richards had all been stoned by bushmen and hurt that his men had been shot at by men in the woods. The first disturbance took place June 27. Since then reports of similar outbursts have multiplied till this day the bushmen's riot is more talked of than the churches.

A BATTLE. At midnight on the 3rd the Sheriff, with J. W. Platt, went to the scene of the disturbance to lead the mill hands in an effort to capture a bushman or two. While stationing the guard, the Sheriff encountered a strange man. A halt was shouted by the officer. The fellow ran the faster. The Sheriff discharged his revolver at the bushman and thus brought a return fire from the woods, and then began a battle, the like of which has not been heard in the Juniata valley. The Sheriff's party directed their fire at the point where came the blaze of the bushmen's fire and the women shot at the house.

The posse last night consisted of J. W. Platt, H. A. Stambaugh, William Brown, J. Lemon, Dark Eika, Constable Newell, J. B. M. Todd, William Rodgers, W. Cresswell, M. Graham, District Attorney M. Irwin, Gus Wright, James McCauley, Jacob Yager and the Sheriff. They were all completely armed and arrived on the ground after midnight. F. F. Rohm, who carried General Beaver off the battle-field where the General lost his leg, was made officer of the night. A guard was placed around the building and Richard and seven of his men present were not allowed to leave the house. At that juncture a mill hand named Turner came in and reported that he had been shot at and showed a bullet hole in his vest. The old soldiers told him he had poked the hole with a stick. He was sent to the house. The night was passed without a disturbing sound.

BLAMING THE MOLLIE MAGUIRES. A report here as to the cause of the disturbance is that a gang of Mollie Maguire's are cutting prongs for coal mines on the Snyder county side of the mountain, and that to amuse themselves they come over the mountain and stone and shoot at the lumbermen.

LAND TROUBLE. Another report is that Robert and Lewis Moody, of New Jersey, bought the land thirteen years ago, paid on $3000 on it and after stripping it of hoop poles and light timber left it, and that in default of their pay the land reverted to the heirs of Lefort Hanghaout and they sold it to Richard, and that the turbulent demonstrations have been inspired by the Moody people.

A WOMAN IN IT. Another report is that a lumberman and a man in the valley love the same woman and that the valley man's best to terrorize the lumberman so that he will leave the community.

LUMBERMEN'S CAUSE. Another report is that orders for lumber are falling off and Richard contemplates reducing his force of hands, and to prevent that men have gotten up the fuss to cause Richard to keep them to guard his interests. The Sheriff and his posse, excepting one man, believe that it is a trick of a number of the mill hands at a violent spiritual rapping manifestation with stone throwing and pistol firing accompaniment. The county has been put to considerable cost and the arrest of the mill men is likely to follow to test how much trickery there is in it.

SHORT LOCALS. Four years ago Cleveland was unknown to fame, he was born in New Jersey in 1837. Hendricks is an old Democratic politician.

The Academy boys had a high time in the narrow camp, and Mr. Duncan may have realized that "I have a charge to keep."

Machinery Hall is the name of a new building to be put up on the Bedford lot, to be used by Colonel Bell in the agriculture business.

Susana Switzer fell from a cherry tree at Jonathan Frey's place, in Delaware township, on the 4th of July, and broke both arms at the wrist.

The county is having a new pavement laid along the east side of the public square, and also along a part of the north side of the square.

The Democracy said that it was a bad omen to nominate Blaine on Friday but what now since their candidate George Cleveland was nominated on Friday.

There will be no preaching in the Presbyterian church within the coming 4 weeks, Mr. Benagh having been granted a vacation for that length of time.

On the evening of the 17, 18 and 19th inst. Ladies of the Patterson Evangelical Association held a festival in the Hook and Ladder. You are invited.

When the McAllister's band came tooting to town a few days ago, a number of harvest bands dropped their rakes and ran to hear the music. Music hath charms.

The meeting of the Democratic National Convention, at Chicago, last week, was a general one. News boys say that it did not increase the sale of papers.

Young ladies express the belief that a number of young men have poor eyesight, for they can pass one lamp sign after another without seeing them.

The Academy boys held a Sabbath school, under the superintendency of Mr. Duncan, who also preached a sermon for the boys on Sunday that they camped in the narrow.

Who suffer with Sick Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, etc., will find relief in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, which will regulate the bowels, give them no equal; very small, one to three a dose—15 cents. (June 15-16).

Farmers. Kennedy and Doty are prepared to furnish you with all kinds of Farming Implements. Phosphates at a saving to you of 20 per cent.

The Sheriff acted promptly to suppress the bushmen's riot at Richard's saw mill, 6 miles east of this place at Shade Mountain, for which he deserves credit. The whole community was worked up to an alarming state of excitement, and a feeling of relief was experienced by every one when the sheriff and his posse returned from their last night in the woods, with the best of news, namely that they had met no foe to battle with.

Last Thursday three residences in Liverpool Perry county were destroyed by fire. The cause of the fire is not known, but the fire broke in the part of the building occupied by Rev. C. W. Raver. The fire in the cook stove to cook dinner having been low, and the fire in the stove had been extinguished and ignited the soot in the flue, and the fire was communicated to the building through the walls of the flue. The property was insured.

Almost every person has some form of scrofulous poison latent in his veins. When this develops in scrofulous sores, ulcers, eruptions, or takes the form of rheumatism, or organic disease, the suffering that ensues is terrible beyond description. Hence the gratitude of those who discover, as thousands yearly do, that Ayer's Sarsaparilla will thoroughly eradicate this evil of the system.

Miss Cora Smith, daughter of Wellington Smith, opened a private school for small pupils in Reno's school-house last Monday.

We are in receipt of a splendid portrait of Blaine and Logan from Thomas Briggs Co., 505 North Street Philadelphia. They have a full supply of Popular campaign portraits of Presidential candidates, for framing, also for banners transparencies flags and so forth.

To most children the bare suggestion of a dose of castor oil is nauseating. Why not, then, when a phlegm is necessary for the little ones, use Ayer's Cathartic Pills? They combine every essential and valuable principle of a cathartic medicine, and being sugar-coated are easily taken.

On Saturday evening Mrs. Berger, and two daughters, with a daughter of Captain McClellan received a dangerous fall from a spring wagon a short distance east of this place on the McAllister road. The hind axle broke close up to the left wheel and all fell out of the wagon backwards. Dr. Backs was called. The ladies were bruised, but no bones were broken. Samuel Lepp, got a spring wagon from Showers and School, and the party proceeded on their journey to Mr. Berger's place in Ferrisburgh township.

You Can Have It. "My dear, what would I give to have your hair?" is often said by middle aged ladies to young ones. "Madam you may have just such hair. Your hair Balsam will give it to you. It will stop your hair from falling off, restore the original color and make it long, thick, soft and glossy. You need not stand helplessly watching the girls. The Balsam is not oily, not a dye, but is an elegant dressing, and is especially recommended for its cleanliness and purity.

PROTHONOTARY. EDITOR, SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN. I. G. Marks, of Patterson, is a staunch Republican, and he has many friends who would like to support him as the standard bearer for the office of Prothonotary. I therefore present him as a candidate, and I recognize the truth of the slogan that the Republicans of Juniata, for primary nomination under the rules that govern the party, feeling satisfied that if he receive the nomination his chance for election in November will be very good. MIFFLINTOWN.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER. EDITOR OF THE JUNIATA SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN. Dear Sir—Allow me to announce the name of B. H. Carter, of Monroe township, as a candidate for County Commissioner, subject to Republican usages. Mr. Carter is a man well qualified for the office. MONROE.

Without the urgent solicitation of numerous friends but solely of my own volition, I offer myself as a candidate for State Senator, subject to Republican usages. That I possess the ability to discharge the duties of the office, will hardly be denied; that I have been a soldier, and in every position in which I was placed faithfully performed my duty, the records will show; and the House of Representatives, during the last few years, is well known to every Republican in the county. If they recognize the truth of the slogan that the laborer is worthy of his hire, then I shall expect them not to forget my claims at the primary election, as I purpose making no electoral canvass, having neither the time nor the means to spare. Respectfully, WM. M. ALLISON.

Mr. EITTON—I would announce the name of W. C. Penney, of Port Royal, for State Senator. In doing so I express the wishes of a large number of Republicans in this county and in this Senatorial district. Mr. Penney is a man of high character, who was a popular representative. He was faithful in the discharge of his official duties. He voted against the continuance of the extra session, he voted for the adjournment on every occasion, when he found no agreement could be had between the Senate and the House. His course in the House reflects credit on his character, and to deserve commendation. Knowing the wants of his constituents so well, and with his legislative experience, his nomination would be a merit and a blessing to the interests of the Republican party. June 2, 1884. WALKER.

Mr. EITTON—Permit me to announce the name of David G. Shellenbeger, of Monroe, as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, subject to Republican usages. Mr. Shellenbeger has been a life-long Republican and if nominated would carry Fayette, Monroe and Susquehanna counties, and if elected would make an able and efficient officer. FAYETTE. (Correspondent, May 19th, 1884).

Mr. EITTON—We have no more capable man for the office of County Treasurer than Samuel Buck, of Port Royal, and we desire to bring his name before the Republicans of Juniata for nomination at the primary election, subject to the usual regulations of the Republican party. REPUBLICANS.

The name of George W. Wilson has often been spoken of as a candidate for county office, but he has never heretofore consented to permit his name to go before the people for nomination. His numerous friends are confident that he will make one of the best officers in the interest of the county, and therefore, do now announce him as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, subject to Republican usages. His successful career as a merchant in Patterson, has given him an extensive acquaintance in the county, and demonstrated his fitness for the best offices in Juniata in the gift of the people. April 28th, 1884. MILFORD.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for County Treasurer, subject to the rules and regulations of the Republican party. JAMES H. SIMONS. Mifflintown, Pa., April 14, 1884.

Mr. EITTON—Allow me to announce the name of G. W. Sherry, of Mifflintown, as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, subject to Republican usages. Mr. Sherry is a man of good business qualifications, and if elected will make an able and efficient officer. FAYETTE.
