

B. F. SCHWEIER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES G. BLAINE, OF MAINE.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, JOHN A. LOGAN, OF ILLINOIS.

MR. CLEVELAND is a great man, around the waist.

Barren ladies will not give up the low necked gowns or dresses.

Congress has passed a bill for the re-issuance of one dollar Treasury notes.

The British are against Blaine. Certainly, but the Irish are for him.

The re-union of the Grand Army of the Republic began on the 22nd inst., at Minneapolis, Minn.

The Irish will this campaign, lift the mortgage that the Democracy have been holding against them.

The Chicago convention was a nice body to talk reform, when it had its brass bands on the streets on Sunday, receiving delegates, and marching in procession. Nice reformers.

A sure load of rags, unloaded at Boston, last week, created an intense excitement, for the reason that they had been brought from France. The Yankees are afraid that cholera was brought over in the rags.

The Democrats worked thirty six hours at Chicago on the tariff plank of their platform, so that no one should understand it. There is one thing clear about it, and that is, that it is not for protection. That's enough.

BUTLER is quite a champion of labor in the light of the fact that he voted fifty-six times in the Charleston convention to sustain slavery, which degrades labor.

JEFFERSON DAVIS is reported to be in indigent circumstances. The plantation bequeathed him by a lady has never been very productive, and has recently been flooded and rendered quite valueless.

WHEAT James Buchanan was running for the Presidency, he was called the favorite son of Pennsylvania, after rebellion was inaugurated he was no longer called by that pleasant name.

The Philadelphia Times pointedly remarks: One of the reasons for calling a Harrison colored woman insane is that she hunts Capitol Hill and denounces the government officials there as thieves and loafers.

Some ten days ago, Rev. William Taylor, the Methodist Episcopal Church Missionary Bishop, sailed from Boston, for Africa, where he will do missionary work among a people that have recently been found.

Is there were any prospect of securing common fairness at the hands of the Democrats during a Presidential campaign when the Republican party is under discussion, it might be worth while to remind those who are continually asserting that Indiana was carried by corrupt means in 1880 that no less a man than ex-Senator McDonald contradicts them.

According to the assessment roll returned by the state Controller, the taxable value of Texas this year shows an increase over last of $6,000,000.

BLAINE's letter of acceptance of the nomination has been issued within the past few days. It is a document that carries conviction with it of the wonderful strides of prosperity that the country has made.

LONDON Truth has a laudatory article of Dwight L. Moody, the American evangelist. It sketches his career from his youth, and concludes thus: "If you were to combine the entire bench of Bishops with the whole Wesleyan Conference, and then throw in the Baptist and Congregational Unions as make weights, the entire body of theologians and pulpitiens would be found to possess between them less practical wisdom than this plain unlettered American preacher."

OF the twenty-five men that sailed with Lieutenant Greely in 1881 to go as near to the North Pole as they could, six have been rescued alive by an expedition that the Government sent up north this summer for the purpose of rescue.

THE Congregationalist of July 17, says: The ticket, Cleveland and Hendricks, is an odd assortment, with the tail end first—a shapely of things which Mr. Hendricks himself was not alone in being vexed at.

OF fine things can be said in praise of Governor Grover Cleveland, but his biography furnishes somewhat scanty material for even his warmest eulogist. A good Sheriff of Buffalo, for a year a faithful Mayor of that city, for one term a fair Governor of his State; heavy in flesh, weighing nearly 250 pounds; not easily pushed off his hinges; by no means fine in the fibre of his mind; rather sluggish in intellect; wholly without experience in national affairs, and whose convictions as to the mighty questions of the time have not made known generally.

MR. A. H. JONES, in the following terse manner sums up the tariff question, as it affects the wages of the working-man: "The cost of production involves many items, such as cost of raw materials, interests, taxes, cost to build, equip and repair factories, cost of machinery, rate of wages, etc. You may have free raw materials and cheap capital; you may be able to make as good articles as your competitor, and yet your profit is small."

"Will you be good enough to feel my pulse, I stand here." He did so. I said, "Count it carefully; what does it say?" "Your pulse says seventy-four." I then sat down in a chair and asked him to count it again. He did so, and said, "Your pulse has gone down seventy." I then lay down on the lounge and said, "Will you take it again?" He replied, "Why, it is only sixty-four; what an extraordinary thing!" I then said, "When you lie down at night, that is the way nature gives your heart rest. You know nothing about it, but that beating organ is resting to that extent; and if you reckon it up it is a great deal of rest, because in lying down the heart is doing ten strokes less a minute. Multiply that by 60, and it is 600; multiply it by 8 hours, and within a fraction it is 5,000 strokes different; and as the heart is throwing 6 ounces of blood at every stroke, it makes a difference of 30,000 ounces of lifting during the night." "When I lie down at night without any alcohol, that is the rest my heart gets. But when you take your wine or grog you do not allow that rest, for the influence of Alcohol is to increase the number of strokes, and instead of getting this rest you put on something like 15,000 extra strokes, and the result is you rise up very sore and unfit for the next day's work till you have taken a little more of the 'truddy bumper,' which you say is the soul of man below."

Watt, Passenger Agent, Western District, 110 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburg, Pa.

Don't Look Like a Wreck. "When a man is going down hill everybody is ready to give him a kick." Yes, that is so. It is said, but natural. Why, manly man and woman, seeking employment, would have got it if their hair hadn't been so thin and gray. One of the best investments, it stops falling hair, promotes new growth and restores color. Clean, light, perfumed, not a day. A great improvement over any similar preparation, and sold at the low price of 50c.

GRAVE ROBBERS. The following item from the North American of July 17 is published to show the eagerness to which grave robbing of certain people is carried on in the eastern part of the state. It is also believed that grave robbers do not confine their body snatching to the dead of the criminal classes.

SOLDIERS' REUNION. The Society of the Army of West Virginia, will hold its eight annual reunion at Cumberland, Maryland, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, September 2, 3 and 4, 1884. Arrangements are making to render this the most notable gathering of Veteran Soldiers ever held in this section of country.
